1 Zedekiah rebelleth. 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzar-adan burneth and spoileth the city: 24 He carrieth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

ZEDEKIAH was <sup>a</sup>one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

3 For <sup>d</sup>through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his <sup>e</sup>presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 And it came to pass, in the <sup>f</sup>ninth year of his reign, in the <sup>g</sup>tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath; where he † gave judgment upon him.

10 And the king of Babylon <sup>n</sup> slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him <sup>o</sup> in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison <sup>p</sup> till the day of his death.

12 Now in the <sup>q</sup> fifth month, in the <sup>r</sup> tenth day of the month, (which was the <sup>s</sup> nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,) came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, 13 And <sup>t</sup> burned the <sup>u</sup> house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire.

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, <sup>x</sup> brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the <sup>y</sup> poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land, for vine-dressers and for husbandmen.

17 Also the <sup>z</sup> pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 The <sup>a</sup> caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass, wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the <sup>b</sup> cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The <sup>c</sup> two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was <sup>d</sup> without weight.

21 And concerning the <sup>e</sup> pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and <sup>f</sup> a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was <sup>g</sup> five cubits, with net-work and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass: the second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the net-work were an hundred round about.

24 And the <sup>h</sup> captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and <sup>i</sup> Zephaniah the <sup>k</sup> second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch which had the charge of the men of war; and <sup>l</sup> seven men of them that † were near the king's person which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: In the <sup>m</sup> seventh year, three thousand Jews and three and twenty.

29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive <sup>n</sup> from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two † persons:

30 In the <sup>o</sup> three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that <sup>p</sup> Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, <sup>q</sup> lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison,

32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 33 And <sup>r</sup> changed his prison-garments; and he did continually <sup>s</sup> eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin: 12 She complaineth of her grief, 18 and confesseth God's judgment to be righteous.

HOW doth the <sup>a</sup> city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and <sup>b</sup> princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

& 13, 17.
e Micah 7, 5.
verse 7.

2 She <sup>d</sup> weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among <sup>e</sup> all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

31.

3 Judah <sup>f</sup> is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she <sup>g</sup> dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the <sup>h</sup> straits.

g ch. 2, 9.

4 <sup>i</sup> The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate; <sup>k</sup> her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

n Jer. 52, 8.

5 Her adversaries are the <sup>l</sup> chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the <sup>m</sup> multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion <sup>n</sup> all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find <sup>o</sup> no pasture; and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

11.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her <sup>p</sup> pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did <sup>q</sup> mock at her sabbaths.

34.

r Ps. 137, 3.

37.

9 Her <sup>t</sup> filthiness is in her skirts; she <sup>u</sup> remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy hath <sup>x</sup> magnified himself.

7.

u Deut. 32, 29.

x Deut. 32,
27.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the <sup>y</sup> heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should <sup>z</sup> not enter into thy congregation.

51.

28.

11 All her people sigh, they seek <sup>a</sup> bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become <sup>b</sup> vile.

a Jer. 38, 9.

c Daniel 9,

2 The LORD hath <sup>d</sup> swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the <sup>e</sup> strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath <sup>f</sup> polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his <sup>g</sup> fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath <sup>h</sup> drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like <sup>i</sup> an enemy: <sup>k</sup> he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: <sup>l</sup> he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The LORD was <sup>m</sup> as an enemy; he hath <sup>n</sup> swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces; he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently <sup>o</sup> taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised, in the indignation of his anger, the <sup>p</sup> king and the priest.

7 The LORD hath cast off his <sup>q</sup> altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made <sup>r</sup> a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the
ed out <sup>t</sup> a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars; <sup>u</sup> her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: <sup>x</sup> the law is no more; her <sup>y</sup> prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the <sup>z</sup> ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem <sup>a</sup> hang down their heads to the ground.

11 <sup>b</sup> Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings
<sup>c</sup> swoon in the streets of the city.

and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daugh-
sea; <sup>g</sup> who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee; and they have <sup>h</sup> not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by <sup>i</sup> clap their hands at thee; <sup>j</sup> ch. 1, 8.
they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The <sup>k</sup> perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have <sup>l</sup> swallowed her up:
certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have <sup>m</sup> seen it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had <sup>n</sup> devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy <sup>o</sup> to rejoice over thee; he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

wall of the daughter of Zion, let <sup>r</sup> tears run down like a river day and night; give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the <sup>s</sup> night; in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy <sup>t</sup> young children, that faint for hunger in the top of

20 Behold, O LORD, and <sup>u</sup> consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women <sup>x</sup> eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the LORD?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thy anger; thou hast <sup>y</sup> killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, <sup>z</sup> as in a solemn day, <sup>a</sup> my terrors round about; so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine <sup>b</sup> enemy consumed.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into <sup>c</sup> darkness, but not into light.
3 Surely against me is he turned ; he turneth his hand against me all the day.
4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old ; he hath <sup>d</sup> broken my bones.
5 He hath <sup>e</sup> builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.
6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be <sup>f</sup> dead of old.
7 He hath <sup>g</sup> hedged me about, that I cannot get out : he hath made my chain heavy.
8 Also when I cry and shout, <sup>h</sup> he shutteth out my prayer.
9 He hath <sup>i</sup> inclosed my ways with hewn stone ; he hath made my paths <sup>k</sup> crooked.
10 He was unto me as a <sup>l</sup> bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.
11 He hath <sup>m</sup> turned aside my ways, and <sup>n</sup> pulled me in pieces : he hath made me desolate.
12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as <sup>o</sup> a mark for the arrow.
13 He hath caused the <sup>p</sup> arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.
14 I was <sup>q</sup> a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.
15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me <sup>r</sup> drunken with wormwood.
16 He hath also <sup>s</sup> broken my teeth with gravel-stones, he hath <sup>t</sup> covered me with ashes.
17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from <sup>u</sup> peace : I forgot prosperity.
18 And <sup>v</sup> I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD :
19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the <sup>x</sup> wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is <sup>y</sup> humbled in me.
21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have <sup>z</sup> I hope.
22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are <sup>a</sup> not consumed, because his compassions fail not.
23 They are new <sup>b</sup> every morning : great is thy faithfulness.
24 The LORD is <sup>c</sup> my portion, saith my soul ; therefore will I hope in him.
25 The LORD is good unto them that <sup>d</sup> wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.
26 It is good that a man should both hope and <sup>e</sup> quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.
27 It is good for a man that <sup>f</sup> he bear the yoke in his youth.
28 He sitteth alone, and <sup>g</sup> keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.
29 <sup>h</sup> He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.
30 He giveth his <sup>i</sup> cheek to him that smiteth him : he is filled full with reproach.

38 Out of the mouth of the Most High proceedeth not <sup>r</sup> evil and good ?

40 Let us <sup>u</sup> search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.
41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands <sup>x</sup> unto God in the heavens.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate : 13 She confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim ! how is the most fine gold changed ! the stones of the sanctuary are <sup>a</sup> poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed <sup>b</sup> as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter !

3 Even the sea-monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their <sup>c</sup> young ones : the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst ; the young children <sup>d</sup> ask bread, and no men breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets ; they that were brought up in scarlet embrace <sup>e</sup> dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater <sup>f</sup> than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her <sup>g</sup> Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire :

8 Their visage is <sup>h</sup> blacker than a coal ; they are not known in the streets : their skin cleaveth to their bones ; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger : for these <sup>i</sup> pine away, <sup>k</sup> stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury ; he hath <sup>n</sup> poured out his fierce anger, and hath <sup>o</sup> kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have <sup>p</sup> entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For the <sup>q</sup> sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the <sup>r</sup> blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered <sup>s</sup> as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, <sup>t</sup> Depart ye ; it is unclean ; depart, depart, touch not : when they fled away and wandered, <sup>u</sup> they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them ; he will no more regard them : they <sup>x</sup> respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet <sup>y</sup> failed for our vain help : in our <sup>z</sup> watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that <sup>a</sup> we cannot go in our streets : our end is near, our days are fulfilled ; for <sup>b</sup> our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are <sup>c</sup> swifter than the eagles of the heaven : they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The <sup>d</sup> breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their <sup>e</sup> pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 I <sup>f</sup> Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz : the <sup>g</sup> cup also shall pass through unto thee ; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 The punishment of thine iniquity is <sup>h</sup> accomplished, O daughter of Zion ; he will no <sup>i</sup> more carry thee away into captivity : he will <sup>k</sup> visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom ; he will discover thy sins.

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion, in prayer unto God.

REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon <sup>l</sup> us : consider, and behold our <sup>m</sup> reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned <sup>n</sup> to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are <sup>o</sup> orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money ; our wood <sup>p</sup> is sold unto us.

5 <sup>q</sup> Our necks are under persecution : we <sup>r</sup> labour, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be <sup>s</sup> satisfied with bread.

7 <sup>t</sup> Our fathers have sinned, <sup>u</sup> and are not : and we have <sup>v</sup> borne their iniquities.

8 <sup>w</sup> Servants have ruled over us : there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

22 And the likeness of the <sup>a</sup> firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of <sup>r</sup> the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which <sup>s</sup> covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of <sup>t</sup> great waters, as the voice of <sup>u</sup> the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was <sup>x</sup> a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they <sup>y</sup> stood, and had let down their wings.

26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a <sup>z</sup> throne, as the appearance of a sapphire-stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above <sup>a</sup> upon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of <sup>b</sup> fire round about within it; from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had <sup>c</sup> brightness round about.

28 As the appearance of the <sup>d</sup> bow that is in the cloud in the day of <sup>e</sup> rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, <sup>f</sup> I fell upon my face, and I <sup>g</sup> heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAPTER II.

1 Ezekiel's commission: 6 His instruction: 9 The roll.

AND he said unto me, <sup>a</sup> Son of man, <sup>b</sup> stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And the spirit <sup>c</sup> entered into me <sup>d</sup> when he spake unto me, and <sup>e</sup> set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, <sup>f</sup> I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious † nation that hath rebelled against me: they and <sup>g</sup> their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 For they are impudent children, and <sup>h</sup> stiff-hearted: I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 And they, <sup>i</sup> whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet <sup>k</sup> shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 And thou, son of man, <sup>l</sup> be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though <sup>m</sup> briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

7 And thou shalt speak <sup>n</sup> my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are <sup>o</sup> most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, <sup>p</sup> and eat that I give thee.

9 And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein;

10 And <sup>q</sup> he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there was written therein <sup>r</sup> lamentations, and mourning, and wo.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest: <sup>a</sup> eat this <sup>b</sup> roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I <sup>c</sup> opened my mouth, and he <sup>d</sup> caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause <sup>e</sup> thy belly to eat, and <sup>f</sup> fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I <sup>g</sup> eat it; and it was in my mouth <sup>h</sup> as honey for sweetness.

4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of <sup>i</sup> a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel:

6 Not to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand: surely, had I sent thee to them, <sup>k</sup> they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken <sup>l</sup> unto me: for all the house of Israel are <sup>m</sup> impudent and hard-hearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy <sup>n</sup> face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an adamant, <sup>o</sup> harder than flint, have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, he said unto me, Son of man, <sup>p</sup> all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in <sup>q</sup> thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of <sup>r</sup> thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>s</sup> whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the <sup>t</sup> spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the <sup>u</sup> glory of the LORD from <sup>x</sup> his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that to <sup>y</sup> and one another, and

CHAPTER IV.

1 Under the type of a siege, is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity. 9 By the provision of the siege is shewed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee <sup>a</sup> a tile, and lay it before thee, and <sup>b</sup> pourtray upon it the city, even <sup>c</sup> Jerusalem:

2 And <sup>d</sup> lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering-rams against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city; <sup>e</sup> and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be <sup>f</sup> a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy <sup>g</sup> left side, and <sup>h</sup> lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of <sup>i</sup> their iniquity, according to the number of the days, || three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on <sup>j</sup> thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah <sup>k</sup> forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, <sup>l</sup> and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, I will lay <sup>m</sup> bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side; three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

d ch. 5, 11.

4 And <sup>d</sup> mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God, An evil, <sup>e</sup> an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it <sup>f</sup> watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

7 <sup>g</sup> The morning is come upon thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the <sup>h</sup> day of trouble is near, and not the <sup>i</sup> sounding again of the mountains.

8 Now will I shortly <sup>k</sup> pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee; and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways, and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come; the morning is gone forth; the <sup>l</sup> rod hath blossomed; <sup>m</sup> pride hath budded.

12 The <sup>p</sup> time is come, the day draweth near: let not the <sup>q</sup> buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath <sup>r</sup> is upon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any <sup>s</sup> strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even <sup>t</sup> to make all ready; but <sup>u</sup> none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

15 The <sup>v</sup> sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

17 <sup>a</sup> All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and <sup>b</sup> horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and <sup>c</sup> baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall <sup>d</sup> not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it is the <sup>e</sup> stumbling-block of their iniquity.

20 As for the <sup>t</sup> beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations, and of their <sup>s</sup> detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the <sup>h</sup> wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall <sup>i</sup> pollute it.

22 My face will <sup>k</sup> I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the <sup>l</sup> robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make <sup>m</sup> a chain; for the land is full of <sup>n</sup> bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease, and their <sup>o</sup> holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 <sup>p</sup> Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet: but the law <sup>a</sup> shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The <sup>r</sup> king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and <sup>e</sup> according to their deserts will I judge them; and they <sup>t</sup> shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 5 is shewed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 13 the mourners for Tammuz, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as <sup>a</sup> I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat <sup>b</sup> before me, that the <sup>c</sup> hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of <sup>d</sup> fire: from the appearance of his loins, even downward, fire; and from his loins, even upward, as the appearance of <sup>e</sup> brightness, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head, and the <sup>f</sup> spirit lifted me up <sup>g</sup> between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north, where was the seat of the <sup>h</sup> image of jealousy, which <sup>i</sup> provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the <sup>k</sup> glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I <sup>l</sup> saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, <sup>m</sup> lift up thine eyes now the way towards the north.

So I lifted up mine eyes the way towards the north, and, behold, northward, at the gate of the altar, this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that <sup>n</sup> I should go far off from my sanctuary? But turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he brought me to the <sup>o</sup> door of the court; and when I looked, behold, <sup>p</sup> a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, <sup>q</sup> dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold, a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and, behold, every form of creeping things, and <sup>r</sup> abominable beasts, and all the <sup>t</sup> idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son <sup>s</sup> of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of <sup>t</sup> incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the <sup>u</sup> dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD <sup>x</sup> seeth us not: the LORD hath <sup>y</sup> forsaken the earth.

13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt <sup>z</sup> see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was towards the north; and, behold, there sat <sup>a</sup> women weeping for <sup>b</sup> Tammuz.

15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, <sup>c</sup> between the porch and the altar, were about <sup>d</sup> five and twenty men, with their <sup>e</sup> backs towards the temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the east; and they worshipped the <sup>f</sup> sun towards the east.

17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit <sup>g</sup> here? for they have <sup>h</sup> filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger; and, lo, they put the branch <sup>i</sup> to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal <sup>k</sup> in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they <sup>l</sup> cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

1 The vision of the coals of fire to be scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubims.

a Ps. 85, 8.
Hab. 2, 1.

THEN I <sup>a</sup> looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire-stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a <sup>b</sup> throne.

2 And he spake unto <sup>c</sup> the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand <sup>d</sup> with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and <sup>e</sup> scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims <sup>f</sup> stood on the <sup>g</sup> right side of the house when the man went in; and the cloud <sup>h</sup> filled the inner court.

4 Then the <sup>i</sup> glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the <sup>k</sup> outer court, as the <sup>l</sup> voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when <sup>m</sup> he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and <sup>n</sup> stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and <sup>o</sup> put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen; who took it, and went out.

8 And there appeared in the cherubims the <sup>p</sup> form of a man's <sup>q</sup> hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold, the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the <sup>r</sup> wheels was as the colour of a beryl-stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they <sup>s</sup> went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the <sup>t</sup> head looked they <sup>u</sup> followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were <sup>v</sup> full of eyes round about, even the wheels, that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, <sup>w</sup> O wheel!

14 And <sup>x</sup> every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a <sup>y</sup> cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The presumption of the princes. 4 Their sin and judgment. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purpose in saving a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God leaveth the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to the captivity.

MOREOVER, the <sup>a</sup> spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and, behold, at the door of the gate <sup>b</sup> five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of <sup>c</sup> Benaiah, <sup>d</sup> princes of the people.2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that <sup>e</sup> devise mischief, and give <sup>f</sup> wicked counsel, in this city;3 Which say, It is <sup>g</sup> not near: let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the <sup>h</sup> flesh.4 <sup>i</sup> Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.5 And the <sup>k</sup> Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, <sup>l</sup> Speak; Thus saith the LORD, Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I <sup>m</sup> know the things that come into your mind; every one of them.6 Ye have <sup>n</sup> multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have <sup>o</sup> filled the streets thereof with the slain.7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Your <sup>p</sup> slain, whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but <sup>q</sup> I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And <sup>r</sup> I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of <sup>s</sup> strangers, and will execute judgments among you.10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the <sup>t</sup> border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof: but I will judge you in the border of Israel:12 And ye shall <sup>u</sup> know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done <sup>x</sup> after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.13 And it came to pass, when I <sup>y</sup> prophesied, that Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, <sup>z</sup> died: then fell I <sup>a</sup> down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?14 <sup>b</sup> Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they <sup>c</sup> unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, <sup>d</sup> Get ye far from the LORD; unto <sup>e</sup> us is this land given in possession.16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I have <sup>f</sup> cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as <sup>g</sup> a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will even <sup>h</sup> gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.18 And they shall come thither, and they shall <sup>i</sup> take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.19 And I will give them <sup>k</sup> one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh;20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and <sup>l</sup> do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.21 But as for them <sup>m</sup> whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.23 And the <sup>n</sup> glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and <sup>o</sup> stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in vision by the <sup>p</sup> Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seen went up from me.Before

CHAPTER XII.

1 The type of Ezekiel's removing, 8 sheweth the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation. 21 The Jews' presumptuous proverb is reproved. 26 The speediness of the vision.

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground; for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them; they shall remove, and go into captivity.

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth; they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel, They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

21 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God, I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 Again, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, There shall none of my words be prolonged any more; but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

them that prophesy <sup>a</sup> out of their own hearts,
Hear ye the word of the LORD ;

3 Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>b</sup> Wo unto the foolish prophets that follow their own spirit,

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the <sup>d</sup> foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into <sup>e</sup> the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel, to stand in the <sup>f</sup> battle in the day of the LORD.

6 They have seen <sup>g</sup> vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith ; and the LORD hath not sent them : and they have made <sup>h</sup> others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen <sup>i</sup> a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it ; albeit I have not spoken ?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, <sup>k</sup> I am against you, <sup>l</sup> saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies : they shall not be in the || assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the <sup>m</sup> writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they <sup>n</sup> enter into the land of Israel ; and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 Because, <sup>o</sup> even because they have <sup>p</sup> seduced my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace ; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with <sup>q</sup> untempered mortar.

11 Say unto them which daub it with untem-pered mortar, that it shall fall : there shall be an
stones, shall fall ; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not
wherewith ye have daubed it ?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury ; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones, in my fury, to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring <sup>x</sup> it down to the ground, so that the <sup>y</sup> foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof : and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I <sup>y</sup> accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar ; and will say unto you,
The wall is <sup>z</sup> no more, neither they that daubed it ;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of <sup>a</sup> peace for her, and there is no <sup>b</sup> peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the <sup>c</sup> daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart ; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the women that sew <sup>d</sup> pillows to all arm-holes, and <sup>e</sup> make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature, to hunt souls ! Will ye <sup>f</sup> hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you ?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for <sup>g</sup> handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people <sup>h</sup> that hear your lies ?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls <sup>i</sup> to make them fly ; and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted ; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad ; and <sup>j</sup> strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by <sup>k</sup> promising him life ;

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor <sup>l</sup> divine divinations : for I will deliver my people out of your hand ; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

by means of seduced prophets. 12 God's irrevocable yourself from your idols; and turn away your

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which <sup>1</sup> separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling-block of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to <sup>k</sup> a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him <sup>1</sup> a sign and a proverb, and I will <sup>m</sup> cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD <sup>n</sup> have deceived that prophet; and I will <sup>o</sup> stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment <sup>p</sup> of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more <sup>q</sup> astray from me, neither be <sup>r</sup> polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me, by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break <sup>s</sup> the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it.

15 If I cause <sup>a</sup> noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts.

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 Or if I bring <sup>b</sup> a sword upon that land, and <sup>c</sup> say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

19 Or if I send <sup>d</sup> a pestilence into that land, and <sup>e</sup> pour out my fury upon it <sup>f</sup> in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord God, How much more when I send <sup>g</sup> my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left <sup>h</sup> a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be <sup>i</sup> comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done <sup>k</sup> without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XV.

1 By the unsuitness of the vine-branch for any work, 6 is shewed the rejection of Jerusalem.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, what is the <sup>a</sup> vine-tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof <sup>b</sup> to do any work? or will men take <sup>c</sup> a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt. Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole it was meet for no work: <sup>d</sup> how much less shall it be meet yet for any work when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, <sup>e</sup> As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And I will <sup>f</sup> set my face against them; they shall go out from <sup>g</sup> one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land <sup>h</sup> desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem, Thy <sup>b</sup> birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast <sup>c</sup> born, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not <sup>d</sup> salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the <sup>e</sup> loathing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own <sup>f</sup> blood, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, <sup>g</sup> Live.

7 I have caused thee to <sup>h</sup> multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy <sup>i</sup> breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast <sup>k</sup> naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of <sup>l</sup> love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swear unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest <sup>m</sup> mine.

9 Then <sup>n</sup> washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I <sup>o</sup> anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with <sup>p</sup> brodered work, and <sup>q</sup> shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I <sup>r</sup> covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thine hands, and <sup>s</sup> a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and <sup>t</sup> ear-rings in thine ears, and <sup>u</sup> a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou <sup>v</sup> decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work: thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and thou wast exceeding <sup>w</sup> beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And thy <sup>x</sup> renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which <sup>y</sup> I had put upon thee, saith the Lord God.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and <sup>c</sup> deckedst thy <sup>e</sup> high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also <sup>d</sup> taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them;

18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine <sup>e</sup> oil and mine <sup>f</sup> incense before them.

19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover, thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast <sup>g</sup> borne unto me, and these hast thou <sup>h</sup> sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them <sup>i</sup> to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast <sup>k</sup> not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass, after all thy wickedness, (<sup>l</sup> wo, wo unto thee! saith the Lord God,) 24 That thou hast also built unto thee <sup>m</sup> an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place at every <sup>n</sup> head of the way, and hast made <sup>o</sup> thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the <sup>p</sup> Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore, I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are <sup>q</sup> ashamed of thy <sup>r</sup> lewd way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the <sup>s</sup> Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast, moreover, multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto <sup>t</sup> Chaldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How <sup>u</sup> weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the <sup>x</sup> work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an <sup>y</sup> harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh <sup>z</sup> strangers <sup>a</sup> instead of her husband!

33 They give gifts to all whores; but thou givest thy gifts to all <sup>b</sup> thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee; therefore thou art contrary.

35 Wherefore, <sup>c</sup>O harlot, hear the word of the LORD :

36 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy <sup>d</sup>nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them :

37 Behold, therefore, I will <sup>e</sup>gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness <sup>f</sup>unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, <sup>g</sup>as women that break wedlock, and shed blood, are judged: and I will give thee blood in fury and <sup>h</sup>jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine <sup>i</sup>eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall <sup>k</sup>strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring up <sup>l</sup>a company against thee, and they <sup>m</sup>shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall <sup>n</sup>burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the <sup>o</sup>sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So will I make my fury towards thee <sup>p</sup>to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will <sup>q</sup>be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast <sup>r</sup>not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast <sup>s</sup>fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore, I also will <sup>t</sup>recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD; and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the <sup>u</sup>mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine <sup>x</sup>elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand :

and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were <sup>y</sup>a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, <sup>z</sup>as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, <sup>a</sup>pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness, was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were <sup>b</sup>haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath <sup>c</sup>Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast <sup>d</sup>justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, <sup>e</sup>bear thine own shame, for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more <sup>f</sup>righteous than thou; yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the <sup>g</sup>captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them;

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art <sup>h</sup>a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, <sup>i</sup>then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was <sup>k</sup>not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, 57 <sup>l</sup>Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which <sup>m</sup>despise thee round about.

58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the <sup>n</sup>oath in breaking the covenant.

60 Nevertheless, I will <sup>o</sup>remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee <sup>p</sup>an everlasting covenant.

61 Then thou shalt remember thy ways and be <sup>q</sup>ashamed, when thou shalt receive <sup>r</sup>thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 11 is shewed God's judgment upon Zedekiah for his revolt, &c.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto <sup>a</sup> the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, A great eagle with great wings, <sup>b</sup> long-winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the <sup>c</sup> highest branch of the cedar:

4 He <sup>d</sup> cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of <sup>e</sup> the seed of the land, and planted it in a <sup>f</sup> fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow-tree;

6 And it <sup>g</sup> grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also <sup>h</sup> another great eagle with great wings and many feathers; and, behold, this vine did <sup>i</sup> bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it <sup>k</sup> prosper? shall <sup>l</sup> he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the <sup>m</sup> east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to the <sup>n</sup> rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, <sup>o</sup> the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And hath taken of the <sup>p</sup> king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken <sup>q</sup> an oath of him: he hath also taken the <sup>r</sup> mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him, in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him <sup>s</sup> horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he <sup>t</sup> break the covenant, and be delivered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, <sup>u</sup> whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him, in the midst of Babylon, he shall <sup>v</sup> die.

17 Neither shall <sup>w</sup> Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company, make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had <sup>x</sup> given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely <sup>y</sup> mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

20 And I will spread my <sup>z</sup> net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon, and will <sup>a</sup> plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And all his <sup>b</sup> fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered towards all winds; and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a <sup>c</sup> tender one, and will plant it upon an <sup>d</sup> high mountain and eminent:

23 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and <sup>e</sup> bear fruit, and be a <sup>f</sup> goodly cedar: and <sup>g</sup> under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

24 And all the trees of the field shall <sup>h</sup> know that I the LORD have <sup>i</sup> brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the <sup>j</sup> dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken, and have done it.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes: 5 He sheweth how he dealeth with a just father, 10 with a wicked son of a just father, 14 with a just son of a wicked father, 19 with a wicked man repenting, 24 with a just man revolting: 25 He defendeth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

2 <sup>a</sup> What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, <sup>b</sup> The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge ?

3 As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all souls are mine ; <sup>c</sup> as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine : the soul <sup>d</sup> that sinneth, it shall <sup>e</sup> die.

5 But if a man be <sup>f</sup> just, and do <sup>g</sup> that which is lawful and right,

7 And hath not <sup>l</sup> oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his <sup>m</sup> pledge, hath <sup>n</sup> spoiled none by violence, hath given his <sup>o</sup> bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment ;

8 He that hath not given forth upon <sup>p</sup> usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath <sup>q</sup> withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath <sup>r</sup> executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to <sup>s</sup> deal truly ; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord God.

10 If he beget a son that is a robber, <sup>t</sup> a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed <sup>u</sup> abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase : shall he then live ? he shall not live : he hath done all these abominations ; he shall surely <sup>x</sup> die, his <sup>y</sup> blood shall be upon him.

14 Now, lo, if he <sup>z</sup> beget a son that <sup>a</sup> seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and <sup>b</sup> considereth, and <sup>c</sup> doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes ; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he <sup>d</sup> cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

19 Yet say ye, Why ? doth not the son bear the <sup>e</sup> iniquity of the father ? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. <sup>f</sup> The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son ; the <sup>g</sup> righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the <sup>h</sup> wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But if the wicked will <sup>i</sup> turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be <sup>k</sup> mentioned unto him : <sup>l</sup> in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 Have I any <sup>m</sup> pleasure at all that the wicked should die ? saith the Lord God ; and not that he should return from his ways, and live ?

24 But when <sup>n</sup> the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and <sup>o</sup> committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live ? All his <sup>p</sup> righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned : in his trespass, that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 Yet <sup>q</sup> ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel, <sup>r</sup> Is not my way equal ? are not <sup>s</sup> your ways unequal ?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them ; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall <sup>t</sup> save his soul alive.

28 Because he <sup>u</sup> considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the LORD is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal ? are not your ways unequal ?

30 Therefore I will <sup>v</sup> judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. <sup>w</sup> Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions ; so iniquity shall not be <sup>x</sup> your ruin.

31 <sup>y</sup> Cast away from you all your transgres-

CHAPTER XIX.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of lions' whelps taken in a pit: 10 and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine.

MOREOVER, take thou <sup>a</sup> up a lamentation for the <sup>b</sup> princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? <sup>c</sup> A lioness: she lay down among <sup>d</sup> lions, she nourished her <sup>e</sup> whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up <sup>f</sup> one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now, when she saw that she had <sup>g</sup> waited, and her hope was lost, then she took <sup>h</sup> another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

6 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, <sup>i</sup> and devoured men.

7 And he knew their <sup>k</sup> desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his <sup>l</sup> roaring.

8 Then the <sup>m</sup> nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

9 And they put him in ward in chains, and <sup>n</sup> brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

10 Thy mother is like <sup>o</sup> a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful, and full of branches, by reason of many waters.

11 And she had <sup>p</sup> strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she <sup>q</sup> appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was <sup>r</sup> plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit; her strong rods were broken and withered, <sup>s</sup> the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted in <sup>t</sup> the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

14 And <sup>u</sup> fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath <sup>v</sup> no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAPTER XX.

CHRIST
cir. 593.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel. 5 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 45 Under the name of a forest, he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came <sup>a</sup> to inquire of the LORD, and <sup>b</sup> sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, <sup>c</sup> I will not be inquired of by you.

4 <sup>d</sup> Wilt thou judge them, son of man? wilt thou judge them? <sup>e</sup> cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>f</sup> In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the <sup>g</sup> seed of the house of Jacob, and <sup>h</sup> made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had <sup>i</sup> espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the <sup>k</sup> glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the <sup>l</sup> abominations of his eyes, and <sup>m</sup> defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would <sup>n</sup> not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, <sup>o</sup> I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my <sup>p</sup> name's sake, that it should not be polluted <sup>q</sup> before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore <sup>r</sup> I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the <sup>s</sup> wilderness:

11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even <sup>t</sup> live in them.

12 Moreover also, I gave them my sabbaths, to be <sup>u</sup> a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel <sup>x</sup> rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they <sup>y</sup> despised my judgments, a trespass against me.

28 For when I <sup>p</sup> had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, <sup>q</sup> then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering : there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their <sup>r</sup> drink-offerings.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye polluted <sup>t</sup> after the manner of your fathers ? and commit ye <sup>u</sup> whoredom after their abominations ?

31 For when ye offer <sup>x</sup> your gifts, when ye make <sup>y</sup> your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day : and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel ? ## CHAPTER XXI.

1 Ezekiel prophesieth against Jerusalem with a sign of sighing. 8 The sharp and bright sword, 18 against Jerusalem, 25 against the kingdom, 28 and against the Ammonites.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>a</sup> set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward <sup>b</sup> the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the <sup>c</sup> righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my <sup>d</sup> sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north;

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: <sup>e</sup> it shall not return any more.

6 Sigh, therefore, thou son of man, with the <sup>f</sup> breaking of thy loins; and with <sup>g</sup> bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer,

For the <sup>h</sup> tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall <sup>i</sup> melt, and <sup>k</sup> all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord God.

8 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, <sup>l</sup> A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

10 It is sharpened to make <sup>m</sup> a sore slaughter: it is <sup>n</sup> furbished that it may glitter: should we then <sup>o</sup> make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And <sup>p</sup> he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 <sup>q</sup> Cry and howl, son of man; for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the <sup>r</sup> princes of Israel: terrors, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: <sup>s</sup> smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod? it shall be <sup>t</sup> no more, saith the Lord God.

14 Thou, therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the <sup>u</sup> third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their <sup>v</sup> privy chambers.

15 I have set the point of the sword against all their <sup>w</sup> gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied. Ah! it is <sup>x</sup> made bright, it is wrapt up for the slaughter.

16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 <sup>y</sup> I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause <sup>z</sup> my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, <sup>a</sup> appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land; and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to <sup>b</sup> Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the <sup>c</sup> defenced.

21 For the <sup>d</sup> king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use <sup>e</sup> divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the <sup>f</sup> liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint <sup>g</sup> captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to <sup>h</sup> lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divi-

26 Thus saith the Lord God, Remove the diadem, and take off the crown; this shall not be the same: <sup>q</sup> exalt him that is low, and <sup>r</sup> abase him that is high.

27 I will <sup>s</sup> overturn, overturn, overturn it; and it shall be no more, until he come <sup>t</sup> whose right it is; and <sup>u</sup> I will give it him.

28 ¶ And thou, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord God concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their <sup>x</sup> reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is <sup>y</sup> drawn; for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering;

29 While they see <sup>z</sup> vanity unto thee, while they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose <sup>a</sup> day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will <sup>b</sup> judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will <sup>c</sup> pour out mine indignation upon thee; I will <sup>d</sup> blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for <sup>e</sup> fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more <sup>f</sup> remembered; for I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Catalogue of sins in Jerusalem. 18 God will burn them as dross in his furnace. 23 The general corruption of prophets, priests, princes and people.

MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the <sup>a</sup> bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the <sup>b</sup> midst of it, that <sup>c</sup> her time may come; and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee <sup>d</sup> a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art <sup>e</sup> infamous and <sup>f</sup> much vexed.

6 Behold, the <sup>g</sup> princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they <sup>h</sup> set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed <sup>i</sup> the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my <sup>k</sup> sabbaths.

9 In thee are men that <sup>l</sup> carry tales to shed blood; and in thee they <sup>m</sup> eat upon the mountains; in the midst of thee they commit <sup>n</sup> lewdness;

10 In thee have they <sup>o</sup> discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And one hath <sup>p</sup> committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee have they <sup>q</sup> taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast <sup>r</sup> forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 Behold, therefore, I have <sup>s</sup> smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy <sup>t</sup> blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine <sup>u</sup> hands be strong, in the days that <sup>x</sup> I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And I will <sup>y</sup> scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou shalt <sup>z</sup> take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt <sup>a</sup> know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become <sup>b</sup> dross: all they are <sup>c</sup> brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore, I will <sup>d</sup> gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, <sup>e</sup> to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and <sup>f</sup> blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have <sup>g</sup> poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is <sup>h</sup> not cleansed, nor <sup>i</sup> rained upon in the <sup>k</sup> day of indignation.

25 There is <sup>l</sup> a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have <sup>m</sup> devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 Her priests have <sup>n</sup> violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference <sup>o</sup> between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like <sup>p</sup> wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have <sup>q</sup> daubed them with untempered mortur, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, <sup>r</sup> Thus saith the Lord God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land have used <sup>s</sup> oppression, and <sup>t</sup> exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy; yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

30 And I <sup>u</sup> sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the <sup>x</sup> gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were <sup>a</sup> two women, the daughters of one mother;

3 And they <sup>b</sup> committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their <sup>c</sup> youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister; and they were <sup>e</sup> mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the <sup>f</sup> Assyrians her neighbours.

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, <sup>g</sup> with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms <sup>h</sup> brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have <sup>i</sup> delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These <sup>k</sup> discovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword; and she became <sup>l</sup> famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was <sup>m</sup> more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She <sup>n</sup> doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both <sup>o</sup> one way;

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men <sup>p</sup> pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with <sup>q</sup> vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And, as soon as she <sup>r</sup> saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the <sup>s</sup> Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom; and she was polluted with them, and her <sup>t</sup> mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was <sup>u</sup> alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she <sup>x</sup> multiplied her whoredoms, <sup>y</sup> in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their <sup>z</sup> paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>z</sup> I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, <sup>a</sup> Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, waggons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet, round about: and <sup>b</sup> I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee <sup>c</sup> according to their judgments.

25 And I will set my <sup>d</sup> jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy <sup>e</sup> nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

26 They shall also <sup>f</sup> strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy <sup>g</sup> lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them <sup>h</sup> whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

29 And they shall deal with thee <sup>i</sup> hatefully, and shall take away <sup>k</sup> all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

30 I will do <sup>l</sup> these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring <sup>m</sup> after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her <sup>n</sup> a cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord God, Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup <sup>o</sup> deep and large: thou shalt be <sup>p</sup> laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt be <sup>q</sup> filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drink it, and <sup>r</sup> suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and <sup>s</sup> pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast <sup>t</sup> forgotten me, and <sup>u</sup> cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me, Son of man; wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah?

yea, * declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and <sup>x</sup> blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover, this they have done unto me: they have <sup>y</sup> defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, <sup>z</sup> then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, <sup>b</sup> paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon <sup>c</sup> a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set <sup>d</sup> mine incense and mine oil.

42 And a voice of a multitude being <sup>e</sup> at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was <sup>f</sup> old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot; so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 And the <sup>g</sup> righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and <sup>h</sup> after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord God, <sup>i</sup> I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall <sup>k</sup> stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all <sup>l</sup> women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye <sup>m</sup> shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day; the king of Babylon <sup>b</sup>set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Set on <sup>c</sup>a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 <sup>d</sup>Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every <sup>e</sup>good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the <sup>f</sup>choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it <sup>g</sup>boil well, and let him seethe the bones of it therein.

6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the <sup>h</sup>bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose <sup>i</sup>scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; <sup>k</sup>let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the <sup>l</sup>top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up <sup>m</sup>to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Wo to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice <sup>n</sup>it well, and let the bones be burnt.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the <sup>o</sup>filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with <sup>p</sup>lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because <sup>q</sup>I have purged thee, and thou wast <sup>r</sup>not purged, thou shalt <sup>s</sup>not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 I the Lord <sup>t</sup>have spoken it; it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will <sup>u</sup>I spare, neither will I repent: <sup>v</sup>according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 <sup>w</sup>Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning; and at <sup>f</sup>even my wife died: and I did in the morning <sup>g</sup>as I was commanded.

19 And the people said unto me, <sup>h</sup>Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will <sup>i</sup>profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the <sup>j</sup>desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: <sup>k</sup>ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away <sup>l</sup>for your iniquities, and mourn one towards another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you <sup>m</sup>a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them <sup>n</sup>their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That he that <sup>o</sup>escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 In that day shall thy <sup>p</sup>mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be <sup>q</sup>a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 God's vengeance for their insolence against the Jews, upon the Ammonites, 8 upon Moab and Seir, 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying, the feet, and rejoiced <sup>i</sup> in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel ;

7 Behold, therefore, I will <sup>k</sup> stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen , and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries : I will destroy thee ; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that <sup>l</sup> Moab and <sup>m</sup> Seir do say, Behold, the <sup>n</sup> house of Judah is like unto all the heathen ,

9 Therefore, behold, I will <sup>o</sup> open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim, 10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may <sup>p</sup> not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab ; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by <sup>q</sup> taking vengeance, and hath greatly <sup>r</sup> offended, and revenged himself upon them :

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will <sup>s</sup> cut off man and beast from it ; and I will make it desolate from Teman ; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will <sup>t</sup> lay my vengeance upon Edom by <sup>u</sup> the hand of my people Israel : and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury ; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because the Philistines have dealt <sup>x</sup> by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the <sup>y</sup> old hatred ;

16 Therefore, thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the <sup>z</sup> Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea-coast.

17 And I will execute <sup>a</sup> great vengeance upon them with <sup>b</sup> furious rebukes ; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Tyrus for insulting against Jerusalem is threatened. 7 The power of Nebuchadrezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass in the <sup>a</sup> eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, <sup>b</sup> Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people ; she is turned <sup>c</sup> unto me ; I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste :

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause <sup>d</sup> many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the <sup>e</sup> walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers : I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the <sup>f</sup> midst of the sea : for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD ; and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her <sup>g</sup> daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword ; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar <sup>h</sup> king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field ; and he shall <sup>i</sup> make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee : thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, † as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets : he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make <sup>k</sup> a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy <sup>l</sup> merchandise ; and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses : and they shall lay thy stones, and thy timber, and thy dust, in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy <sup>m</sup> songs to cease ; and the sound of thy <sup>n</sup> harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock ; thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon ; thou shalt be built <sup>o</sup> no more : for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus, Shall not the <sup>p</sup> isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee ?

16 Then all the <sup>q</sup> princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their <sup>r</sup> robes, and put off their broidered garments : they shall clothe themselves with <sup>s</sup> trembling ; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because <sup>a</sup> thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, <sup>b</sup> I am a god, I <sup>c</sup> sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas ; yet thou <sup>d</sup> art a <sup>d</sup> man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God :3 Behold, thou <sup>e</sup> art <sup>e</sup> wiser than Daniel : there is <sup>f</sup> no secret that they can hide from thee :4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast <sup>g</sup> gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures :5 By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffic, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up <sup>h</sup> because of thy riches :6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, <sup>i</sup> Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God ;7 Behold, therefore, I will bring <sup>k</sup> strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations : and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the <sup>l</sup> pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.9 Wilt thou <sup>m</sup> yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God ? but thou shalt be a man, and no god, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the <sup>n</sup> uncircumcised by the hand of strangers : for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.11 I Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,12 Son of man, <sup>o</sup> take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God ; every <sup>p</sup> precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold : the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.14 Thou art the <sup>q</sup> anointed cherub that covereth ; and <sup>r</sup> I have set thee so : thou wast upon the holy mountain of God ; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.15 Thou wast <sup>s</sup> perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, <sup>t</sup> till iniquity was found in thee.16 By the <sup>u</sup> multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned : therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God ; and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty ; thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness : I <sup>v</sup> will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may <sup>w</sup> behold thee.18 Thou hast defiled thy <sup>x</sup> sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffic ; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee ; and I will bring thee to <sup>y</sup> ashes upon the earth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee : thou shalt be <sup>z</sup> a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.20 I Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,21 Son of man, set thy face against <sup>a</sup> Zidon, and prophesy against it,22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God ; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon ; and I will be <sup>b</sup> glorified in the midst of thee : and they shall <sup>c</sup> know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executedBefore

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more <sup>f</sup> a pricking brier unto the <sup>g</sup> house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God, When I shall have gathered the <sup>h</sup> house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they <sup>i</sup> shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have <sup>k</sup> executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh, for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 13 The restoration thereof after forty years. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadrezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

IN the <sup>a</sup> tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>b</sup> set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and <sup>c</sup> against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>d</sup> I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great <sup>e</sup> dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But I will put <sup>f</sup> hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales; and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee thrown into <sup>g</sup> the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of <sup>h</sup> the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt <sup>i</sup> shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been <sup>k</sup> a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 When they <sup>l</sup> took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee thou <sup>m</sup> brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>n</sup> I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be <sup>o</sup> desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

10 Behold, therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt <sup>p</sup> utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be <sup>q</sup> inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will <sup>r</sup> scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 Yet thus saith the Lord God, At the <sup>s</sup> end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

14 And I will bring again the <sup>t</sup> captivity of Egypt, and I will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it <sup>u</sup> exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more <sup>x</sup> the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall <sup>y</sup> look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his <sup>z</sup> army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>a</sup> I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his <sup>b</sup> labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought <sup>c</sup> for me, saith the Lord God.

21 <sup>d</sup> In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the <sup>e</sup> opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The desolation of Egypt and her helpers. 20 The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened to break the arm of Egypt.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>a</sup>Howl ye, <sup>b</sup>Wo worth the day!

3 For the day <sup>c</sup>is near, even the day of the LORD <sup>d</sup>is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the <sup>e</sup>heathen.

4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away <sup>f</sup>her multitude, and her <sup>g</sup>foundations shall be broken down.

5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that <sup>h</sup>is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the LORD, They also that <sup>i</sup>uphold Egypt shall fall; and the <sup>j</sup>pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries <sup>k</sup>that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities <sup>l</sup>that are wasted.

9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships, to make the <sup>q</sup>careless Ethiopians afraid, <sup>r</sup>and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it <sup>s</sup>cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

11 <sup>t</sup>He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall <sup>u</sup>be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 And I will make the rivers <sup>v</sup>dry, and sell the land into the hand of the <sup>w</sup>wicked; and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken <sup>x</sup>it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause <sup>y</sup>their <sup>z</sup>images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in <sup>aa</sup>No.

15 And I will <sup>ab</sup>pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

16 And I will set <sup>ac</sup>fire in Egypt; Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph <sup>ad</sup>shall have distresses daily.

17 The young men of Aven and of Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these <sup>ae</sup>cities shall go into captivity.

18 At <sup>af</sup>Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughter shall go into captivity.

19 <sup>ag</sup>Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt; and they <sup>ah</sup>shall know that I <sup>ai</sup>am the LORD.

20 <sup>aj</sup>And it came to pass in <sup>ak</sup>the eleventh year, in the first <sup>al</sup>month, in the seventh <sup>am</sup>day of the month, <sup>an</sup>that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, I have <sup>ao</sup>broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall <sup>ap</sup>not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

22 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I <sup>aq</sup>am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will <sup>ar</sup>break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And I will <sup>as</sup>strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put <sup>at</sup>my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall <sup>au</sup>groan before him with the groanings of a deadly-wounded <sup>av</sup>man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall <sup>aw</sup>know that I <sup>ax</sup>am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

26 And I will <sup>ay</sup>scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I <sup>az</sup>am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third <sup>ba</sup>month, in the first <sup>bb</sup>day of the month, <sup>bc</sup>that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; <sup>bd</sup>Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian <sup>be</sup>was a cedar in Lebannon with fair branches, and with <sup>bf</sup>a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The <sup>bg</sup>waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her <sup>d</sup> little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted <sup>e</sup> above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the <sup>f</sup> fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his <sup>g</sup> shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the <sup>h</sup> garden of God could not hide him: the fir-trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut-trees were not like his branches; not any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 <sup>i</sup> I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, <sup>k</sup> envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast <sup>l</sup> lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 <sup>m</sup> I have, therefore, delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely <sup>n</sup> deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all <sup>o</sup> the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 <sup>p</sup> To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: <sup>q</sup> I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be <sup>r</sup> comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him, unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. <sup>s</sup> This is Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt: 11 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it: 17 It shall be brought down to hell among all the uncircumcised nations.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, take up <sup>a</sup> a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art <sup>b</sup> like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas; and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the <sup>c</sup> waters with thy feet, and <sup>d</sup> fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God, I will, therefore, spread out my <sup>e</sup> net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall <sup>f</sup> bring thee up in my net.

4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the <sup>g</sup> open field, and will cause all <sup>h</sup> the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy <sup>i</sup> flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with <sup>k</sup> thy blood the land wherein thou swimdest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall <sup>l</sup> put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I <sup>m</sup> will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make <sup>n</sup> dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also <sup>o</sup> vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly <sup>p</sup> afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall <sup>q</sup> tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause <sup>r</sup> thy multitude to fall, <sup>s</sup> the terrible of the nations, all of them ; and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters ; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run <sup>u</sup> like oil, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be <sup>x</sup> destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 <sup>y</sup> This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her : <sup>z</sup> the daughters of the nations shall lament her ; they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, <sup>a</sup> wail for the multitude of Egypt, <sup>b</sup> and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou pass in <sup>c</sup> beauty ? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword ; she is <sup>d</sup> delivered to the sword : draw her and all her multitudes.

21 The strong among the mighty shall <sup>e</sup> speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him : they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 Asshur is there, and all her company : his graves are about him ; all of them slain, fallen by the sword :

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave ; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in <sup>f</sup> the land of the living.

24 There is <sup>g</sup> Elam, and all her multitude round about her grave ; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the <sup>h</sup> nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living ; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

26 There is <sup>l</sup> Meshech, <sup>m</sup> Tubal, and all her multitude : her graves are round about him ; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell † with their weapons of war ; and they have laid their swords under their heads ; but <sup>n</sup> their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be <sup>o</sup> broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is <sup>p</sup> Edom, her kings, and all her <sup>q</sup> princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword : they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the <sup>r</sup> Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain ; with their terror they are ashamed of their might ; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be <sup>s</sup> comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have <sup>t</sup> caused my terror in the land of the living : and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh, and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolvers : 17 He maintaineth his justice. 21 Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem, he prophesieth the desolation of the land. 30 God's judgment upon the mockers of the prophets.

A GAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to the children of <sup>a</sup> thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their <sup>b</sup> watchman :

3 If, when he <sup>c</sup> seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and <sup>d</sup> warn the people ;

4 Then whosoever <sup>e</sup> heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning ; if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, <sup>f</sup> his blood shall be upon him : but he that <sup>g</sup> taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

20, 21.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away <sup>b</sup> in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word <sup>i</sup> at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, Thus ye speak, saying, <sup>k</sup> If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, <sup>l</sup> how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have <sup>m</sup> no pleasure in the death of the wicked; <sup>n</sup> but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the <sup>o</sup> righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he <sup>p</sup> turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he <sup>q</sup> sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely <sup>r</sup> live: if he <sup>s</sup> trust to his own righteousness and commit iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely <sup>t</sup> die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is <sup>u</sup> lawful and right;

15 If the wicked <sup>x</sup> restore the pledge, give again that he hath robbed, walk in <sup>y</sup> the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be <sup>z</sup> mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, The <sup>a</sup> way of the LORD is not equal: but, as for them, their way is not equal.

18 When the righteous <sup>b</sup> turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will <sup>c</sup> judge you <sup>d</sup> every one <sup>e</sup> after his ways.

21 <sup>f</sup> And it came to pass in <sup>g</sup> the twelfth year of our captivity, in the <sup>h</sup> tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the <sup>i</sup> hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, <sup>j</sup> afore he that was escaped came, and had <sup>k</sup> opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying;

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, <sup>l</sup> Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but <sup>m</sup> we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Ye eat with the <sup>n</sup> blood, and <sup>o</sup> lift up your eyes towards your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 <sup>p</sup> Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that be in the forts, and in the caves, shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the <sup>q</sup> pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they <sup>r</sup> know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are <sup>s</sup> talking against thee by the walls, and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And they come unto thee <sup>t</sup> as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and <sup>u</sup> they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their <sup>v</sup> covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them: 11 His providence for his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the <sup>a</sup> shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds, Woe to the shepherds of Israel that do feed <sup>b</sup> themselves! should not the shepherds feed the <sup>c</sup> flocks?

3 Ye eat the <sup>d</sup> fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye <sup>e</sup> kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was <sup>f</sup> lost; but with <sup>g</sup> force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is <sup>h</sup> no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

6 My sheep <sup>i</sup> wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did <sup>k</sup> search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my <sup>l</sup> shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock:

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>m</sup> I am against the shepherds; and I will <sup>n</sup> require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I, even I, will both <sup>o</sup> search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 <sup>p</sup> As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the <sup>q</sup> cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their <sup>r</sup> own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them <sup>s</sup> in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to <sup>t</sup> lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy <sup>u</sup> the fat and the strong; I will feed them with <sup>v</sup> judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the <sup>w</sup> he-goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have <sup>x</sup> eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore, thus saith the Lord God unto them, Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up <sup>y</sup> one Shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my <sup>z</sup> servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David <sup>a</sup> a prince <sup>b</sup> among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them <sup>c</sup> a covenant of peace, and will cause the <sup>d</sup> evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell <sup>e</sup> safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them, and the places round about <sup>f</sup> my hill, a <sup>g</sup> blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season: there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the <sup>h</sup> tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall <sup>i</sup> no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land devour them: but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.
MOREOVER, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, <sup>a</sup> set thy face against <sup>b</sup> mount Seir, and <sup>c</sup> prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the LORD God, Behold, O mount Seir, I am <sup>d</sup> against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate; and thou shalt <sup>e</sup> know that I am the LORD.

5 Because thou hast had <sup>f</sup> a perpetual hatred, and hast <sup>g</sup> shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD God, I will <sup>h</sup> prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast <sup>i</sup> not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that <sup>k</sup> passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will <sup>l</sup> fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee <sup>m</sup> perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall <sup>n</sup> not return; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, <sup>o</sup> These two nations, and these two countries, shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas <sup>p</sup> the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the LORD God, I will even do <sup>q</sup> according to thine anger, and according to thine envy, which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known <sup>r</sup> amongst them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have <sup>s</sup> heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have <sup>t</sup> boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the LORD God, When the whole earth <sup>u</sup> rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 * As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted, both by destruction of the heathen, who spitefully used it, 8 and by the blessings of God promised unto it. 16 Israel was rejected for their sin, 21 and shall be restored without their desert. 25 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the <sup>a</sup> mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the LORD God, Because the enemy had said against you, Aha, even the <sup>b</sup> ancient high places <sup>c</sup> are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the LORD God, Because they have made you desolate, and <sup>d</sup> swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken <sup>e</sup> up in the <sup>f</sup> lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD God; Thus saith the LORD God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken. which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, Surely in the <sup>f</sup> fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed <sup>g</sup> my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiseful minds, to cast <sup>h</sup> it out for a prey.

6 Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the LORD God, Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the <sup>i</sup> shame of the heathen.

7 Therefore thus saith the LORD God, I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall <sup>j</sup> bear their shame.

8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall <sup>k</sup> shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall <sup>l</sup> be tilled and sown:

10 And I will <sup>m</sup> multiply men upon you, <sup>n</sup> all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will <sup>o</sup> settle you after your old estates, and will <sup>p</sup> do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause <sup>a</sup> men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt <sup>r</sup> no more henceforth bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, Because they say unto you, Thou land <sup>s</sup> devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither <sup>t</sup> bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear <sup>u</sup> the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they <sup>x</sup> defiled it by their own way, and by their doings: their way was before me <sup>y</sup> as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I <sup>z</sup> poured my fury upon them for the <sup>a</sup> blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their † idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And <sup>b</sup> I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way, and according to their doings, I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned <sup>c</sup> my holy name, when they said to them, <sup>d</sup> These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 But I had pity <sup>e</sup> for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, I do not this <sup>f</sup> for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will <sup>g</sup> sanctify my great name which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will <sup>h</sup> take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will <sup>i</sup> bring you into your own land.

25 Then will I <sup>k</sup> sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your <sup>l</sup> filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 <sup>m</sup> A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and <sup>n</sup> cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be <sup>o</sup> my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also <sup>p</sup> save you from all your uncleannesses; and I will <sup>q</sup> call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will <sup>r</sup> multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 <sup>s</sup> Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall <sup>t</sup> loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 <sup>u</sup> Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to <sup>x</sup> dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be <sup>y</sup> tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And <sup>z</sup> they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the <sup>a</sup> garden of Eden; and the waste, and desolate, and ruined cities, are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen, that are left round about you, shall <sup>b</sup> know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have <sup>c</sup> spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be <sup>d</sup> inquired of by the house of Israel to do it for them; I will increase them <sup>e</sup> with men like a flock.

38 As the <sup>f</sup> holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived. 15 By the uniting of two sticks, 18 is shewed the incorporation of Israel with Judah. 21 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE <sup>a</sup> hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out <sup>b</sup> in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was <sup>c</sup> full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, <sup>d</sup> can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, <sup>e</sup> thou knowest.

6 *Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands; and many people with thee.

7 Be thou <sup>g</sup>prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 <sup>h</sup>After many days thou shalt be visited: in the <sup>i</sup>latter years thou shalt <sup>k</sup>come into the land that is <sup>l</sup>brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell <sup>m</sup>safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt <sup>n</sup>ascend and come like a storm; thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think <sup>o</sup>an evil thought:

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of <sup>p</sup>unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take <sup>q</sup>a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have <sup>r</sup>gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, <sup>s</sup>Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord God, In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou <sup>t</sup>not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and <sup>u</sup>many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the <sup>x</sup>latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be <sup>y</sup>sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord God, Art thou he <sup>z</sup>of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come <sup>a</sup>up in my face.

19 For in my jealousy, and in the fire of my wrath, have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be <sup>b</sup>a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence; and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will <sup>d</sup>call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: every man's sword shall be <sup>e</sup>against his brother.

22 And I will <sup>f</sup>plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will <sup>g</sup>rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I <sup>h</sup>magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

1 God's judgment upon Gog. 8 Israel's victory. 11 Gog's burial in Hamon-gog. 17 The feast of the fowls. 23 Israel having been plagued for their sins, shall be gathered again with eternal favour.

THEREFORE, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, <sup>a</sup>I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal;

2 And I will <sup>b</sup>turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy <sup>c</sup>bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt <sup>d</sup>fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the <sup>e</sup>ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon the <sup>f</sup>open field; for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send <sup>g</sup>a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the <sup>h</sup>isles; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them <sup>i</sup>pollute my holy name any more; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 Behold, <sup>j</sup>it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this <sup>k</sup>is the day whereof I have spoken.

shall <sup>1</sup> go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the hand-staves and the spears, and they shall <sup>m</sup> burn them with fire seven years.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall <sup>a</sup> spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the <sup>o</sup> east of the sea; and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog, and all his multitude; and they shall call it, The valley of || Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may <sup>p</sup> cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them † a renown, the day that I shall be <sup>a</sup> glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall <sup>r</sup> sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land, to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 ¶ And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my <sup>a</sup> sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may <sup>t</sup> eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them <sup>u</sup> fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with <sup>x</sup> horses and chariots, † with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 <sup>y</sup> And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall <sup>z</sup> see my judgment that I have executed, and <sup>a</sup> my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their <sup>b</sup> iniquity: because they trespassed against me, <sup>c</sup> therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies; so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions, have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, <sup>d</sup> Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the <sup>e</sup> whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their <sup>f</sup> trespasses, whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am <sup>g</sup> sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have <sup>h</sup> gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face <sup>i</sup> any more from them: for I have <sup>k</sup> poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. 37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entries thereof, were by the posts of the gates, where they e washed the burnt-offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt-offering, and the sin-offering, and the f trespass-offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt-offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the e singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate, having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the h keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the i altar: these are the sons of k Zadok, among the sons of Levi, which come i near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, four-square, and the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to m the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits: and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it; and there were n pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD a he brought me to the b temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the c breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the d door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he measured the e length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, f twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house six cubits; and the breadth of every g side-chamber four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they h entered into the wall, which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so i increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, k one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the west, was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was 23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the <sup>u</sup> doors of the temple, cherubims and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the <sup>x</sup> side-chambers of the house, and thick planks.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof.

19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN <sup>a</sup> he brought me forth into the <sup>b</sup> outer court, the way toward the north, and he brought me into the <sup>c</sup> chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was † gallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was <sup>d</sup> a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit: and their doors toward the north.

5 Now, the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were <sup>e</sup> higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the <sup>f</sup> wall that was without over against the chambers, towards the outer court on the fore-part of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the outer court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings-out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall <sup>g</sup> eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their <sup>h</sup> garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now, when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and <sup>i</sup> measured it round about.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring-reed, five hundred reeds, with the <sup>k</sup> measuring-reed round about.

17 He measured the north side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed round about.

18 He measured the south side five hundred reeds, with the measuring-reed.

19 He turned about to the west side, and mea-

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east :

2 And, behold, <sup>a</sup> the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east ; and his <sup>b</sup> voice was like a noise of many waters : and the <sup>c</sup> earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was <sup>d</sup> according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came <sup>e</sup> to destroy the city ; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar ; and I fell upon my face.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house, by the way of the gate whose <sup>f</sup> prospect is toward the east.

5 So the <sup>g</sup> spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court ; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house ; and the man stood by me.

7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of <sup>h</sup> my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will <sup>i</sup> dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel <sup>j</sup> no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places ;

8 In their setting of their <sup>k</sup> threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them ; they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed : wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 <sup>l</sup> Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 Thou son of man, <sup>m</sup> shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities ; and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, <sup>n</sup> shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings-out thereof, and the comings-in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof ; and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof : and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house ; Upon the <sup>o</sup> top of the mountain, the <sup>p</sup> whole limit thereof round about shall be <sup>q</sup> most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the <sup>r</sup> altar after the cubits : The cubit is a cubit and an hand-breadth ; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span : and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit ; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits ; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long, and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof ; and the border about it shall be half a cubit ; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about ; and his <sup>s</sup> stairs shall look toward the east.

18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the <sup>t</sup> seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, a young bullock for <sup>u</sup> a sin-offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the <sup>v</sup> blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about : thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin-offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, <sup>w</sup> without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin-offering ; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast <sup>x</sup> salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering : they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar, and

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 The east gate assigned only to the prince. 4 The priests reprov'd for polluting of the sanctuary. 9 Idolaters incapable of the priest's office. 15 The sons of Zadok are accepted thereto. 17 Ordinances for the priests.

THEN he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary, which looketh toward the east, and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be <sup>a</sup> shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>b</sup> hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the <sup>c</sup> prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to <sup>d</sup> eat bread before the LORD: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, <sup>e</sup> mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the <sup>f</sup> rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O ye house of Israel, let it <sup>g</sup> suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary, <sup>h</sup> strangers, uncircumcised in <sup>i</sup> heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer <sup>k</sup> my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the <sup>l</sup> charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, <sup>m</sup> No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the <sup>n</sup> Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall <sup>o</sup> bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be <sup>p</sup> ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt-offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel <sup>q</sup> to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come near unto me to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my <sup>r</sup> holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed:

14 But I will make them <sup>s</sup> keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of <sup>t</sup> Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall <sup>u</sup> come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table to minister unto me, and they shall <sup>v</sup> keep my charge.

17 And it shall come to pass, that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with <sup>w</sup> linen garments; and no <sup>x</sup> wool shall come upon them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have <sup>y</sup> linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth <sup>z</sup> a sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall <sup>a</sup> not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow <sup>b</sup> long; they shall <sup>c</sup> only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest <sup>d</sup> drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, or her that is <sup>e</sup> put away: but they shall take <sup>f</sup> maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference <sup>g</sup> between the holy and profane, and cause men to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it <sup>h</sup> according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land <sup>a</sup> for inheritance, ye shall <sup>b</sup> offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. 8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and <sup>b</sup> my princes shall no more <sup>i</sup> oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, Let it <sup>k</sup> suffice you, O princes of Israel: <sup>l</sup> remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have <sup>m</sup> just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty <sup>a</sup> gerans. twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the <sup>o</sup> fat pastures of Israel, for a meat-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for <sup>p</sup> the prince in Israel.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship, 9 and for the people. 16 An order for the prince's inheritance. 19 The courts for boiling and baking.

THUS saith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be <sup>a</sup> shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the <sup>b</sup> new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the <sup>c</sup> prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the <sup>d</sup> priest shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate; then he shall go forth; but the gate shall <sup>e</sup> not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the <sup>f</sup> door of this gate before the LORD, in the sabbaths, and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt-offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath-day shall be <sup>g</sup> six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat-offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat-offering for the lambs † as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and <sup>h</sup> six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat-offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram; and for the lambs according <sup>i</sup> as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way <sup>thereof</sup>.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall <sup>k</sup> not return by the way of the gate where-by he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, <sup>l</sup> shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth:

11 And in the feasts, and in the solemnities, the meat-offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram; and to the lambs <sup>m</sup> as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt-offering or peace-offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings as he did on the sabbath-day; then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt-offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish; thou shalt prepare it † every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat-offering continually, by a perpetual ordinance, unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat-offering, and the <sup>n</sup> oil, every morning, for a continual burnt-offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God, If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the <sup>o</sup> year of liberty; after it <sup>p</sup> shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover, the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession; that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall † boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they shall bake the meat-offering; that they bear them not out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the outer

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters: 6 the virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land: 22 the division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the <sup>a</sup>house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the fore-front of the house stood toward the east, and the <sup>b</sup>waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south side of the <sup>c</sup>altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the <sup>d</sup>ankles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters <sup>e</sup>to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now, when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many <sup>f</sup>trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea; which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live; and there shall be <sup>g</sup>a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the <sup>h</sup>fishers shall stand upon it, from En-gedi even unto Engedaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets: their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the <sup>i</sup>miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be <sup>k</sup>healed: they shall be given to salt.

12 And by the river, upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth <sup>l</sup>new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for <sup>m</sup>medicine.

13 I Thus saith the Lord God, This shall be the border whereby ye shall inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two <sup>n</sup>portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, <sup>o</sup>one as well as another; concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers; and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of <sup>p</sup>Hethlon, as men go to Zedad;

16 <sup>q</sup>Hamath, <sup>r</sup>Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be <sup>s</sup>Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

18 And the <sup>t</sup>east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the <sup>u</sup>waters of strife in Kadesh, the <sup>x</sup>river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 I And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you; <sup>y</sup>and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the <sup>z</sup>stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

Before
571.

- 1, 23 The portions of the twelve tribes, 8 of the sanctuary, 15 of the city and suburbs, 21 and of the prince.
30 The dimensions and gates of the city.

NOW these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath, (for these are his sides <sup>a</sup> east and west,) <sup>b</sup> a portion for Dan.

2 And by the border of <sup>c</sup> Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the <sup>d</sup> offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the <sup>e</sup> midst of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither <sup>f</sup> exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be <sup>g</sup> a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for † food unto them that serve the city.

19 And they that <sup>h</sup> serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be <sup>i</sup> five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation <sup>k</sup> four square, with the possession of the city.

21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 Moreover, from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city being in the midst of that which is the princes, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of <sup>l</sup> Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea.

29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah. 8 They refusing the king's portion, do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the <sup>a</sup> third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came <sup>b</sup> Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto <sup>c</sup> Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the LORD <sup>d</sup> gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with <sup>e</sup> part of the vessels of the <sup>f</sup> house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the <sup>g</sup> treasure-house of his god.

3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should <sup>h</sup> bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the <sup>i</sup> king's seed, and of the princes;

5 And the king appointed them a <sup>p</sup> daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank; so nourishing them <sup>q</sup> three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the <sup>r</sup> children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah;

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs <sup>s</sup> gave names: for he gave unto Daniel, the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishaël, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 But Daniel <sup>t</sup> purposed in his heart that he would not <sup>u</sup> defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God had brought Daniel <sup>x</sup> into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs <sup>y</sup> said unto

Daniel, <sup>z</sup> I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me <sup>a</sup> endanger my head to the king?

11 Then <sup>b</sup> said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee <sup>c</sup> ten days; and let them give us <sup>d</sup> pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat; and as thou seest, <sup>e</sup> deal with thy servants.

14 So <sup>f</sup> he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

16 Thus Melzar <sup>h</sup> took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17 As for these four children, <sup>i</sup> God gave them knowledge and skill in all <sup>k</sup> learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all <sup>l</sup> visions and dreams.

18 Now, at the <sup>m</sup> end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king <sup>n</sup> communed with them: and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king inquired of them, he found them † ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings. 10 They acknowledging their inability, are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite, findeth the dream : 19 He blesseth God : 24 He staying the decree, is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar <sup>a</sup> dreamed dreams, wherewith his <sup>b</sup> spirit was troubled, and his sleep <sup>c</sup> brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded <sup>d</sup> to call <sup>e</sup> the magicians, and the astrologers, and the <sup>f</sup> sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for <sup>g</sup> to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled <sup>h</sup> to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac, O king, live for ever : <sup>i</sup> tell thy servants the dream, and <sup>k</sup> we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me : if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be <sup>l</sup> cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill :

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me <sup>m</sup> gifts, and rewards, and great honour : therefore shew me the dream and the interpretation thereof.

7 They <sup>n</sup> answered again, and said, Let the king <sup>o</sup> tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would <sup>p</sup> gain the time, <sup>q</sup> because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but <sup>r</sup> one decree for you ; for ye have prepared <sup>s</sup> lying and corrupt words to speak before me till the <sup>t</sup> time be changed ; therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not <sup>u</sup> a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter : therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, <sup>v</sup> that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth ; and there is none other that can shew it before the king except the gods, whose dwelling <sup>w</sup> is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and <sup>x</sup> very furious, and commanded to destroy <sup>y</sup> all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the <sup>z</sup> decree went forth that the wise men should be slain ; and they <sup>a</sup> sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 <sup>b</sup> Then Daniel answered <sup>c</sup> with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon :

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king ? Then Arioch <sup>d</sup> made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him <sup>e</sup> time, and that he would <sup>f</sup> shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his <sup>g</sup> house, and made the thing <sup>h</sup> known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions ;

18 That they would <sup>i</sup> desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret, that Daniel and his fellows should not perish <sup>k</sup> with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 <sup>l</sup> Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, <sup>m</sup> Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever ; <sup>n</sup> for wisdom and might are his :

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons : he <sup>o</sup> removeth kings, and setteth up kings : he giveth <sup>p</sup> wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding :

22 He <sup>q</sup> revealeth the deep and secret things : he <sup>r</sup> knoweth what is in the darkness, and the <sup>s</sup> light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what <sup>t</sup> we desired of thee : for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 Therefore Daniel <sup>u</sup> went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon : he went and said thus unto him, <sup>x</sup> Destroy not the wise men of Babylon : bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the <sup>y</sup> captives of Judah that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered, and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, <sup>z</sup> Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof ?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded, <sup>a</sup> cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king ;

28 But there is <sup>b</sup> a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days.

Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these ;

29 (As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter ; and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass :

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me <sup>e</sup> for any wisdom that I have more than any living, || but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart :) 31 Thou, O king, sawest, and, behold, a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee, and the form thereof was terrible.

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass.

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest <sup>k</sup> till that <sup>l</sup> a stone was cut out <sup>m</sup> without hands, which smote the image upon his feet, that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, <sup>n</sup> broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors ; and the wind carried them away, that <sup>o</sup> no place was found for them : and the stone that smote the image became <sup>p</sup> a great mountain, and <sup>q</sup> filled the whole earth.

36 <sup>r</sup> This is the dream ; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art <sup>s</sup> a king of kings : for the God of heaven hath <sup>t</sup> given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the fowls of the heaven, hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this <sup>u</sup> head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise <sup>x</sup> another kingdom, <sup>y</sup> inferior to thee, and another <sup>z</sup> third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the <sup>a</sup> fourth kingdom shall be <sup>b</sup> strong as iron : forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things : and as iron that <sup>c</sup> breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes part of <sup>d</sup> potter's clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be <sup>e</sup> divided ; but there shall be in it of <sup>f</sup> the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay ; so the kingdom shall be partly <sup>g</sup> strong, and partly <sup>h</sup> broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they <sup>i</sup> shall mingle themselves with the seed of men : but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up <sup>k</sup> a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed : and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall <sup>l</sup> break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall <sup>m</sup> stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the <sup>n</sup> stone was cut out of the mountain <sup>o</sup> without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold ; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter : and the dream is <sup>p</sup> certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

47 The king <sup>s</sup> answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is that <sup>t</sup> your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel <sup>u</sup> a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he <sup>x</sup> set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon : but Daniel sat in the <sup>y</sup> gate of the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicateth a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, are accused for not worshipping the image. 13 They being threatened, make a good confession. 19 God delivereth them out of the furnace. 26 Nebuchadnezzar seeing the miracle, blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR <sup>a</sup> the king made <sup>b</sup> an image of gold, whose height was <sup>c</sup> three-score cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits : he set it up in the <sup>d</sup> plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent <sup>e</sup> to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the <sup>f</sup> dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the <sup>g</sup> princes, the governors and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up ; and they <sup>h</sup> stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald <sup>i</sup> cried aloud, To you it is <sup>k</sup> commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, shall the <sup>n</sup>same hour be cast into the midst of a <sup>o</sup>burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all <sup>p</sup>the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore <sup>q</sup>at that time certain Chaldeans came near and <sup>r</sup>accused the Jews:

9 They spake, and said <sup>s</sup>to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, <sup>t</sup>live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a <sup>u</sup>decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image :

11 And <sup>x</sup>whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are <sup>y</sup>certain Jews, whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: <sup>z</sup>these men, O king, have <sup>a</sup>not regarded thee; they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, in <sup>b</sup>his rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they <sup>c</sup>brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said unto them, <sup>d</sup>Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego? do not ye serve <sup>e</sup>my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now, if ye be ready, that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace: and <sup>f</sup>who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, <sup>g</sup>answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, <sup>h</sup>we are not careful to answer thee <sup>i</sup>in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God, whom we serve, <sup>k</sup>is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and <sup>l</sup>he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if <sup>m</sup>not, be it <sup>n</sup>known unto thee, O king, <sup>o</sup>that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship thy golden <sup>p</sup>image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar <sup>q</sup>full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one <sup>r</sup>seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to <sup>s</sup>bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and <sup>t</sup>were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore, because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire <sup>u</sup>slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, <sup>v</sup>fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was <sup>x</sup>astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have <sup>y</sup>no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like <sup>z</sup>|| the <sup>a</sup>Son of God.

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, <sup>b</sup>ye servants of the most high God, <sup>c</sup>come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake and said, <sup>g</sup>Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that <sup>h</sup>trusted in him, and have <sup>i</sup>changed the king's word, and <sup>j</sup>yielded their bodies, that they might <sup>k</sup>not serve nor worship any god except <sup>l</sup>their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that <sup>m</sup>can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king <sup>n</sup>promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, <sup>a</sup> unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth ; <sup>b</sup> Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 <sup>c</sup> I thought it good to shew <sup>d</sup> the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought <sup>e</sup> toward me.

3 How great are his signs ! and <sup>f</sup> how mighty are his wonders ! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is <sup>g</sup> from generation to generation.

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was <sup>h</sup> at rest in mine house, and <sup>i</sup> flourishing in my palace :

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head <sup>k</sup> troubled me.

6 Therefore made I <sup>l</sup> a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that <sup>m</sup> they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers : and I told the dream before them ; but they did <sup>n</sup> not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But <sup>o</sup> at the last Daniel came in before me, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the <sup>p</sup> name of my god, and in whom is the <sup>q</sup> spirit of the holy gods,) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is <sup>r</sup> in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed : I saw, and, behold, <sup>s</sup> a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was <sup>t</sup> great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof <sup>u</sup> reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all : the <sup>x</sup> beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, <sup>y</sup> a watcher and <sup>z</sup> an holy one came down from heaven.

14 He cried <sup>a</sup> aloud, and said thus, <sup>b</sup> Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit : let the beasts <sup>c</sup> get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, <sup>d</sup> leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with <sup>e</sup> a band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field ; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his <sup>f</sup> portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.

16 Let his <sup>g</sup> heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him ; and let <sup>h</sup> seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the <sup>i</sup> decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones ; to the intent that the living may <sup>k</sup> know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the <sup>l</sup> basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof ; forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are <sup>m</sup> not able to make known unto me the interpretation : but <sup>n</sup> thou art able ; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, (whose name was <sup>o</sup> Belteshazzar,) was <sup>p</sup> astonished for one hour, and his thoughts <sup>q</sup> troubled him. The king spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that <sup>r</sup> hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The <sup>s</sup> tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth ;

21 Whose <sup>t</sup> leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all ; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation :

22 It is <sup>u</sup> thou, O king, that art grown and become strong : for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one <sup>x</sup> coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it ; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with <sup>a</sup> band of iron and brass in the tender grass of the field ; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him ;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of <sup>y</sup> the Most High, which is come upon my lord the <sup>z</sup> king :

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou

<sup>a</sup> know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, <sup>b</sup> after that thou shalt have known that the <sup>c</sup> heavens do rule.

27 <sup>d</sup> Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be <sup>e</sup> a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 <sup>f</sup> All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the <sup>g</sup> end of twelve months he walked in the <sup>h</sup> palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

31 <sup>o</sup> While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell <sup>p</sup> a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, <sup>q</sup> to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And they shall <sup>r</sup> drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The <sup>s</sup> same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did <sup>t</sup> eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed <sup>c</sup> as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none <sup>d</sup> can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and, for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my <sup>e</sup> counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom; and excellent majesty was <sup>f</sup> added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works <sup>g</sup> are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk <sup>h</sup> in pride he is able to abase.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast 5 A hand-writing, unknown to the magicians, troubleth the king. 10 At the commendation of the queen, Daniel is brought. 17 He reproving the king of pride and idolatry, 25 readeth and interpreteth the writing. 30 The monarchy is translated to the Medes.

BELSHAZZAR the king made <sup>a</sup> a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he <sup>b</sup> tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had <sup>c</sup> taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines, might <sup>d</sup> drink therein.

3 Then <sup>e</sup> they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and <sup>f</sup> the king and his princes, his wives and his concubines drank in them.

4 They drank wine and <sup>g</sup> praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the <sup>h</sup> same hour came forth <sup>i</sup> fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the <sup>k</sup> plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's <sup>l</sup> countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his <sup>m</sup> knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud <sup>n</sup> to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the <sup>o</sup> third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not <sup>p</sup> read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar <sup>q</sup> greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his <sup>r</sup> lords were astonished.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet-house; and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: <sup>s</sup> let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is <sup>t</sup> a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and, in the days of thy father, <sup>u</sup> light, and understanding, and wisdom, <sup>v</sup> like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made

7 master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers ;

12 Forasmuch as 2 an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and 3 dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar : now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, 4 Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry ?

14 I have even 5 heard of thee, that the 6 spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom, is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, 7 that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof : but they could not 8 shew the interpretation of the thing :

16 And I have heard of thee that thou canst make interpretations and dissolve doubts : now, if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be 9 clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy 10 gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another ; 11 yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 12 O thou king, the most high God 13 gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour.

19 And, for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, 14 trembled and feared before him : whom he would he slew, and whom he would he 15 kept alive, and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his 16 heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was 17 deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him :

21 And he was 18 driven from the sons of men ; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses : they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven ; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast 19 not humbled thine heart, though thou 20 knewest all this ;

23 But hast 21 lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven ; and they have 22 brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them ; and thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which 23 see not, nor hear, nor know : and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are 24 all thy ways, hast thou 25 not glorified.

24 26 Then was the part of the hand sent from him ; and this writing was written.

25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing : MENE ; God hath 27 numbered thy kingdom, and 28 finished it.

27 TEKEL ; Thou art 29 weighed in the balances, and art 30 found wanting.

28 PERES ; Thy kingdom 31 is divided, and 32 given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and 33 made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 34 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And 35 Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Daniel is made chief of the presidents. 4 They conspiring against him, obtain an idolatrous decree. 10 Daniel accused of the breach thereof, is cast into the lion's den. 18 Daniel is saved, 24 his adversaries devoured, 25 and God magnified by a decree.

IT pleased Darius 2 to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom ;

2 And over these, three presidents, of whom Daniel was 3 first ; that the princes might give 4 accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was 5 preferred above the presidents and princes, 6 because an excellent spirit was in him ; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 Then 7 the presidents and princes 8 sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom ; but they could 9 find none occasion nor fault ; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any 10 error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We 11 shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the 12 law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes 13 assembled together 14 to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 15 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have 16 consulted together to estalish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any <sup>a</sup> god or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, <sup>r</sup> establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which <sup>s</sup> altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius <sup>t</sup> signed the writing and the decree.

11 Then these men assembled, and <sup>c</sup> found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 <sup>d</sup> Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree ; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions ? The king answered and said, <sup>e</sup> The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the <sup>f</sup> children of the captivity of Judah, <sup>g</sup> regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a-day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and <sup>h</sup> set his heart on Daniel to deliver him ; and he laboured <sup>i</sup> till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the <sup>k</sup> law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 <sup>l</sup> Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and <sup>m</sup> cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, <sup>n</sup> Thy God, whom thou servest <sup>o</sup> continually, he will deliver thee.

17 And <sup>p</sup> a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den ; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be <sup>q</sup> changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king <sup>r</sup> went to his palace, and passed the night <sup>s</sup> fasting : neither were instruments of music brought before him ; and his <sup>t</sup> sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose <sup>u</sup> very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel ; and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, <sup>x</sup> servant of the living God, <sup>y</sup> is thy <sup>z</sup> God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions ?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his <sup>a</sup> angel, and <sup>b</sup> hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me : forasmuch as <sup>c</sup> before him innocency was found in me ; and also <sup>d</sup> before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king <sup>e</sup> exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and <sup>f</sup> no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he <sup>g</sup> believed in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought <sup>h</sup> those men which had accused Daniel, and they <sup>i</sup> cast them into the den of lions, them, their <sup>j</sup> children, and their wives ; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius <sup>k</sup> wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth ; <sup>l</sup> Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble <sup>m</sup> and fear before the God of Daniel ; for he is the <sup>n</sup> living God, and <sup>o</sup> stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall <sup>p</sup> not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He <sup>q</sup> delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh <sup>r</sup> signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So <sup>s</sup> this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a <sup>a</sup> dream, and visions of his head upon his bed : then he <sup>b</sup> wrote the dream, <sup>c</sup> and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the <sup>d</sup> four winds of the heaven strove upon the <sup>e</sup> great sea.

3 And <sup>f</sup> four great beasts <sup>g</sup> came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was <sup>h</sup> like a lion, and had eagles' wings : I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and <sup>i</sup> made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And, behold, another beast, <sup>k</sup> a second, like to <sup>l</sup> a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had <sup>m</sup> three ribs in the mouth of it between which had <sup>s</sup>two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing <sup>h</sup>westward, and northward, and southward; so that no <sup>i</sup>beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did <sup>k</sup>according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an <sup>l</sup>he-goat came from the west, on the face of the whole earth, and touched <sup>m</sup>not the ground: and the goat had <sup>n</sup>a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and <sup>o</sup>ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was <sup>p</sup>moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was <sup>q</sup>no power in the ram to stand before him, but he <sup>r</sup>cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he-goat waxed very great: and when he was <sup>s</sup>strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up <sup>t</sup>four notable ones, toward the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth <sup>u</sup>a little horn which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the <sup>x</sup>pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the <sup>y</sup>host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the <sup>z</sup>stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the <sup>a</sup>prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, <sup>b</sup>and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down <sup>c</sup>the truth to the ground; and it practised, and <sup>d</sup>prospered.

13 Then I heard <sup>e</sup>one saint speaking, and another saint said unto <sup>f</sup>that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto <sup>g</sup>two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be <sup>h</sup>cleansed.

15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, <sup>i</sup>and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, <sup>j</sup>Gabriel, <sup>k</sup>make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man; for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he <sup>l</sup>touched me, and <sup>m</sup>set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the <sup>n</sup>last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the <sup>o</sup>kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the <sup>p</sup>rough goat is the king of <sup>q</sup>Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas <sup>r</sup>four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but <sup>s</sup>not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, <sup>t</sup>a king of fierce countenance, and <sup>u</sup>understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his <sup>x</sup>power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall <sup>y</sup>destroy the <sup>z</sup>mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his <sup>a</sup>policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall <sup>b</sup>magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken <sup>c</sup>without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told <sup>d</sup>is true: wherefore <sup>e</sup>shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Daniel <sup>f</sup>fainted, and was sick certain days: afterward I rose up, and did the <sup>g</sup>king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, <sup>h</sup>but none understood it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Daniel considering the time of the captivity, <sup>3</sup>maketh confession of sins, 16 and prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year of Darius, the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood <sup>a</sup>by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish <sup>b</sup>seventy years in the <sup>c</sup>desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, <sup>d</sup>to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and <sup>e</sup>made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and <sup>f</sup> mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have <sup>g</sup> sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts, and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we <sup>h</sup> hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth <sup>i</sup> unto thee; but unto us <sup>k</sup> confusion of faces, as at this day: to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are <sup>l</sup> near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, <sup>m</sup> to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God <sup>n</sup> belong mercies and forgivenesses, <sup>o</sup> though we have rebelled against him:

10 Neither have we obeyed <sup>p</sup> the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, <sup>q</sup> all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the <sup>r</sup> curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath <sup>s</sup> confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: <sup>t</sup> for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done <sup>u</sup> upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is <sup>x</sup> written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: <sup>y</sup> yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD <sup>z</sup> watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not <sup>a</sup> his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that <sup>b</sup> hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee <sup>c</sup> renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all <sup>d</sup> thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, <sup>e</sup> Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now, therefore, O our <sup>f</sup> God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, <sup>g</sup> for the LORD's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee <sup>h</sup> for our righteousnesses, but for <sup>i</sup> thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken, and do; <sup>k</sup> defer not, for <sup>l</sup> thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And <sup>m</sup> while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, while I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly <sup>n</sup> swiftly, touched me about the time of the <sup>o</sup> evening oblation.

22 And he <sup>p</sup> informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the <sup>q</sup> beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art <sup>r</sup> greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to <sup>s</sup> make an end of sins, and to make <sup>t</sup> reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in <sup>u</sup> everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to <sup>v</sup> anoint the Most Holy.

25 <sup>w</sup> Know, therefore, and understand, that from the <sup>x</sup> going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem, unto the <sup>y</sup> Messiah the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be <sup>z</sup> cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall <sup>a</sup> destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail;

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt <sup>a</sup> their gods, with their princes, and with their † precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue <sup>o</sup> more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be <sup>p</sup> stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly <sup>q</sup> come, and overflow, and pass through; then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth <sup>r</sup> a great multitude; but the multitude shall be <sup>s</sup> given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, <sup>t</sup> his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall <sup>u</sup> cast down many ten thousands: but he shall <sup>x</sup> not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of <sup>y</sup> the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude <sup>z</sup> greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the <sup>a</sup> robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most <sup>b</sup> fenced cities; and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his <sup>c</sup> chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and <sup>d</sup> none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the <sup>e</sup> glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also <sup>f</sup> set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, <sup>g</sup> corrupting her; but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the <sup>h</sup> isles, and shall take many; but a prince <sup>i</sup> for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it <sup>j</sup> to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face towards the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and <sup>k</sup> not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up <sup>m</sup> a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom <sup>n</sup> by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from <sup>o</sup> before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the <sup>p</sup> covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall <sup>q</sup> work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong <sup>r</sup> with a small people.

24 He shall enter <sup>s</sup> peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall <sup>t</sup> scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches; yea, and he shall <sup>u</sup> forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with <sup>x</sup> a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall <sup>y</sup> destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak <sup>z</sup> lies at one table; but it shall <sup>a</sup> not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the <sup>b</sup> holy covenant; and he shall do exploits and return to his own land.

29 At the time <sup>c</sup> appointed he shall return, and come toward the south: but it shall not be <sup>d</sup> as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of <sup>e</sup> Chittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have <sup>f</sup> indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and <sup>g</sup> have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

32 And such as <sup>k</sup> do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do <sup>l</sup> know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that <sup>m</sup> understand among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall <sup>n</sup> fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, <sup>o</sup> many days.

38 But in his estate shall he honour the god of forces; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour <sup>y</sup> with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and <sup>z</sup> pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a <sup>a</sup> strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for † gain.

40 And at the <sup>b</sup> time of the end shall the <sup>c</sup> king of the south push at him: and the <sup>d</sup> king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall <sup>i</sup> come to his end, and <sup>k</sup> none shall help him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles. 5 Daniel is informed of the times.

AND <sup>a</sup> at that time shall <sup>b</sup> Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be <sup>c</sup> delivered, every one that shall be found <sup>d</sup> written in the book.

2 And many of them that <sup>e</sup> sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to <sup>f</sup> everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting <sup>g</sup> contempt.

3 And they that be <sup>h</sup> wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that <sup>i</sup> turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and <sup>k</sup> seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall <sup>l</sup> run to and fro, and knowledge shall be <sup>m</sup> increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the <sup>n</sup> one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And <sup>o</sup> one said to the man clothed in linen, which was <sup>p</sup> upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he <sup>q</sup> held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for <sup>r</sup> a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished <sup>s</sup> to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I <sup>t</sup> understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, <sup>u</sup> Go thy way, Daniel; for the words are closed up and sealed <sup>x</sup> till the time of the end.

10 Many shall be <sup>y</sup> purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do <sup>z</sup> wickedly: and <sup>a</sup> none of the wicked shall understand; but the <sup>b</sup> wise shall understand.

11 And <sup>c</sup> from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be <sup>d</sup> a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and <sup>e</sup> cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt <sup>f</sup> rest, and stand in thy <sup>g</sup> lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

CHAPTER I.

Before CHRIST
cir. 785.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, and bath by her Jezreel, 6 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Lo-ammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the LORD that <sup>a</sup> came unto Hosea, the son of Beerī, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD || by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms, and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed <sup>b</sup> great whoredom, <sup>c</sup> departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of <sup>d</sup> Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the <sup>e</sup> house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will <sup>f</sup> break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will <sup>g</sup> no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will <sup>h</sup> utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them <sup>i</sup> by the LORD their God, and will not save them <sup>k</sup> by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had <sup>l</sup> weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye <sup>m</sup> are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the <sup>n</sup> children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered: and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the <sup>o</sup> sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be <sup>p</sup> gathered together, and appoint themselves <sup>q</sup> one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER II.

1 The idolatry of the people. 6 God's judgments against them. 14 His promises of reconciliation with them.

SAY <sup>a</sup> ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 <sup>b</sup> Plead with your mother, plead; for she is not <sup>c</sup> my wife, neither am I her husband: let her, therefore, put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I <sup>d</sup> strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with <sup>e</sup> thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of <sup>f</sup> whoredoms.

5 For their <sup>g</sup> mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, <sup>h</sup> I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will <sup>i</sup> hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall <sup>k</sup> follow after her lovers, but she shall <sup>l</sup> not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to <sup>m</sup> my first husband; for then was it <sup>n</sup> better with me than now.

8 For she did <sup>o</sup> not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they <sup>p</sup> prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I <sup>q</sup> return, and <sup>r</sup> take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I <sup>s</sup> discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her <sup>t</sup> feast-days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her <sup>u</sup> fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my <sup>x</sup> rewards, that my lovers have given me: and I will make them <sup>y</sup> a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of <sup>z</sup> Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them, and she decked herself with her ear-rings, and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

14 <sup>a</sup> Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the <sup>b</sup> valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall sing there, as in the days of her <sup>c</sup> youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me <sup>d</sup> Ishi, and shalt call me no more <sup>e</sup> Baali.

17 For I will take away <sup>f</sup> the names of Baa-

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests, 12 and against their idolatry. 15 Judah is exhorted to take warning by Israel's calamity.

cir. 780.
a Amos 7, 4.
Micah 6, 2.
22. & 5, 4.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath <sup>a</sup> a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor <sup>b</sup> knowledge of God, in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they <sup>c</sup> break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land <sup>d</sup> mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be <sup>e</sup> taken away.

4 Yet let no man <sup>f</sup> strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive <sup>g</sup> with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the <sup>h</sup> day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the <sup>i</sup> night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 I My people are destroyed for <sup>k</sup> lack of knowledge: because thou hast <sup>l</sup> rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be <sup>m</sup> no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also <sup>n</sup> forget thy children.

7 As they were <sup>o</sup> increased, so they sinned against me; therefore will I change their <sup>p</sup> glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, <sup>q</sup> like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have <sup>r</sup> enough; they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have <sup>s</sup> left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom, and wine, and new wine, take away the <sup>t</sup> heart.

12 I My people <sup>u</sup> ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the <sup>x</sup> spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the <sup>y</sup> mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks, and poplars, and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: <sup>z</sup> therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will <sup>a</sup> not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery; for themselves are <sup>b</sup> separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots, therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

15 I Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, <sup>c</sup> yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as <sup>d</sup> a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in <sup>e</sup> a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: <sup>f</sup> let him alone.

CHAPTER V.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, 15 until they repent.

HEAR ye this, <sup>a</sup> O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment <sup>is</sup> toward you, because ye have been <sup>b</sup> a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are <sup>c</sup> profound to make slaughter, though I have been <sup>d</sup> a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is <sup>e</sup> not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest <sup>f</sup> whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 They will <sup>g</sup> not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth <sup>h</sup> testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD; for they have begotten <sup>k</sup> strange children: now shall <sup>l</sup> a month devour them with their portions.

8 <sup>m</sup> Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at <sup>n</sup> Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the <sup>o</sup> day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall <sup>p</sup> surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the <sup>q</sup> bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the <sup>r</sup> commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as <sup>s</sup> a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his <sup>t</sup> wound, then went Ephraim to the <sup>u</sup> Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as <sup>v</sup> a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place till they <sup>w</sup> acknowledge their offence, and seek my face; in their affliction they will <sup>x</sup> seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A complaint of their untowardness and iniquity.

COME, and <sup>a</sup> let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us: he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 <sup>b</sup> After two days will he revive us; in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall <sup>c</sup> live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we <sup>d</sup> follow on to know the LORD: his <sup>e</sup> going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, <sup>f</sup> what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness <sup>g</sup> is as <sup>h</sup> a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I <sup>i</sup> hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments <sup>j</sup> are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired mercy, and <sup>k</sup> not sacrifice; and the <sup>l</sup> knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they, like men, have <sup>m</sup> transgressed the covenant: <sup>n</sup> there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead <sup>o</sup> is <sup>p</sup> a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the <sup>q</sup> company of priests murder in the way by <sup>r</sup> consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen <sup>s</sup> an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set <sup>t</sup> an harvest for thee, when I <sup>u</sup> returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against the people for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have <sup>a</sup> healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the <sup>b</sup> thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without:

2 And they consider not in their hearts that <sup>c</sup> I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are <sup>d</sup> before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their <sup>e</sup> lies.

4 They are all adulterers, <sup>f</sup> as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough until it be <sup>g</sup> leavened.

5 In the <sup>h</sup> day of our king the princes have made him sick with <sup>i</sup> bottles of wine: he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have <sup>j</sup> made ready their heart like an oven, while they <sup>1</sup>lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

8 Ephraim, he hath <sup>p</sup>mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have <sup>q</sup>devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he <sup>r</sup>knoweth not.

10 And the <sup>s</sup>pride of Israel testifieth to his face; and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him <sup>t</sup>for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like <sup>u</sup>a silly dove without heart: they call <sup>x</sup>to Egypt, they go to Assyria:

12 When they shall go, I will spread my <sup>y</sup>net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them as their congregation <sup>z</sup>hath heard.

13 Wo unto them! for they have fled from me; destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have <sup>a</sup>redeemed them, yet they have <sup>b</sup>spoken lies against me.

14 And they have <sup>c</sup>not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their <sup>d</sup>beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have <sup>e</sup>bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief <sup>f</sup>against me.

16 They return, but <sup>g</sup>not to the Most High; they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the <sup>h</sup>rage of their tongue. This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER VIII.

1, 12 Destruction is threatened for their impiety, 5 and idolatry.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth: <sup>a</sup>he shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed <sup>b</sup>my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall <sup>c</sup>cry unto me, My God, <sup>d</sup>we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is <sup>e</sup>good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have <sup>f</sup>set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I <sup>g</sup>knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they <sup>h</sup>made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 <sup>i</sup>Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them; <sup>k</sup>how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is <sup>l</sup>not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have <sup>m</sup>sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the <sup>n</sup>strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is <sup>o</sup>swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein <sup>p</sup>is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up <sup>q</sup>to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath <sup>r</sup>hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I <sup>s</sup>gather them, and they shall sorrow a <sup>t</sup>little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars <sup>u</sup>to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written <sup>x</sup>to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD <sup>y</sup>accepteth them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return <sup>z</sup>to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his <sup>a</sup>Maker, and buildeth <sup>b</sup>temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his <sup>c</sup>cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, <sup>a</sup>as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God; thou hast loved <sup>b</sup>a reward upon every corn-floor.

2 The floor and the wine-press shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in <sup>c</sup>the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat <sup>d</sup>unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be <sup>e</sup>pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread <sup>f</sup>for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the <sup>g</sup>solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, <sup>h</sup>nettles shall possess them: <sup>i</sup>thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the <sup>k</sup>prophet is a fool, the <sup>l</sup>spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 <sup>m</sup>The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is <sup>n</sup>a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of <sup>o</sup>Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like <sup>p</sup> grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig-tree at her first time: but they went to <sup>a</sup> Baal-peor and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, <sup>r</sup> their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I <sup>a</sup> bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, wo also to them when <sup>t</sup> I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the <sup>u</sup> murderer.

14 <sup>x</sup> Give them. O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them <sup>y</sup> a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in <sup>z</sup> Gilgal; for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of <sup>a</sup> mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their <sup>b</sup> root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit; yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did <sup>c</sup> not hearken unto him: and they shall be <sup>d</sup> wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER X.

Israel is reprov'd and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

ISRRAEL is <sup>a</sup> an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit <sup>b</sup> unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is <sup>c</sup> divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have <sup>d</sup> no king, because we <sup>e</sup> feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken <sup>f</sup> words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus <sup>g</sup> judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the <sup>h</sup> priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king <sup>i</sup> Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his <sup>j</sup> own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, <sup>k</sup> her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the <sup>l</sup> sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars, and they shall say to the mountains, <sup>m</sup> Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned <sup>n</sup> from the days of Gibeah; there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against <sup>o</sup> the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in <sup>p</sup> my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth <sup>q</sup> to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim <sup>r</sup> to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; <sup>s</sup> break up your fallow ground: for it is <sup>t</sup> time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have <sup>u</sup> plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity: ye have eaten the fruit of lies; because thou didst trust in thy way, in the <sup>x</sup> multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle; the <sup>y</sup> mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a <sup>z</sup> morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits: 5 His judgment. 8 God's mercy towards them.

WHEN Israel was a child, then <sup>a</sup> I loved him, and called <sup>b</sup> my son out of Egypt.

2 As <sup>c</sup> they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also <sup>d</sup> to go, taking them by their <sup>e</sup> arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with <sup>f</sup> cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I <sup>g</sup> laid meat unto them.

5 He shall <sup>h</sup> not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be <sup>i</sup> his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the <sup>k</sup> sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own <sup>l</sup> counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though <sup>m</sup> they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 <sup>n</sup> How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? Mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD; he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER XII.

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob. 3 By former favours he exhortheth to repentance. 7 Ephraim's sins provoke God.

EPHRAIM feedeth on a wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; The LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And I, that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his LORD return unto him.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Ephraim's glory, by reason of idolatry, vanisheth. 5 God's anger for their unkindness. 9 A promise of God's mercy. 15 A judgment for rebellion.

WHEN Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away; as the chaff that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour besides me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion; as a leopard by the way will I observe them.

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges, of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain

CHAPTER II.

1 He sheweth unto Zion the terribleness of God's judgment. 12 He exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 and promiseth a blessing thereon: 21 He comforteth Zion with present 28 and future blessings.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and <sup>a</sup> sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land <sup>b</sup> tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at <sup>c</sup> hand:

2 A day of darkness, and of gloominess, a day of <sup>d</sup> clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: <sup>e</sup> a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire <sup>f</sup> devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is <sup>g</sup> as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them <sup>h</sup> a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of <sup>i</sup> horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained; all faces shall gather <sup>j</sup> blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall <sup>k</sup> climb the wall like men of war; and they shall <sup>l</sup> march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another, they shall walk every one <sup>m</sup> in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall; they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the <sup>n</sup> windows like a thief.

11 And the LORD shall <sup>q</sup> utter his voice before his army; for his camp is very great: for he is <sup>r</sup> strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and <sup>s</sup> who can abide it?

12 Therefore also <sup>t</sup> now, saith the LORD, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and <sup>u</sup> with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning;

13 And <sup>x</sup> rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, <sup>y</sup> slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and <sup>z</sup> leave a blessing behind him, ever a meat-offering, and a drink-offering, unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, <sup>a</sup> sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the <sup>b</sup> children, and those that suck the breasts; let the <sup>c</sup> bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet:

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep <sup>d</sup> between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy <sup>e</sup> people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them; wherefore should they say among the people, <sup>f</sup> Where is their God?

18 Then will the LORD be <sup>g</sup> jealous for his land, and <sup>h</sup> pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will <sup>i</sup> answer, and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you <sup>j</sup> corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith; and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

20 But I will remove far off from you the <sup>k</sup> northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea; and his hinder part towards the utmost sea: and his <sup>l</sup> stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 <sup>m</sup> Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do <sup>n</sup> great things.

22 Be not afraid, <sup>o</sup> ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be <sup>p</sup> full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will <sup>q</sup> restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army, which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and <sup>r</sup> praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be <sup>s</sup> ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the <sup>t</sup> midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass <sup>u</sup> afterward, that I will <sup>v</sup> pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,

AMOS.

CHAPTER I.

Before CHRIST
cir. 787.

2 Amos sheweth God's judgments upon Syria, 6 upon the Philistines, 9 upon Tyrus, 11 upon Edom, 13 upon Ammon.

THE words of Amos, who was among the <sup>a</sup>herdmen of <sup>b</sup>Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the <sup>c</sup>earthquake.

2 And he said, <sup>d</sup>The LORD will <sup>e</sup>roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD, For <sup>f</sup>three transgressions of Damascus, and for <sup>g</sup>four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they <sup>h</sup>have threshed Gilead with threshing-instruments of iron:

4 But <sup>i</sup>I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I will break also the <sup>k</sup>bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 <sup>l</sup>Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they <sup>m</sup>carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

7 But I will send <sup>n</sup>a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will <sup>o</sup>turn mine hand against Ekron: and the <sup>p</sup>remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 <sup>q</sup>Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity <sup>r</sup>to Edom, and remembered not the <sup>s</sup>brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on <sup>t</sup>the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 <sup>u</sup>Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did <sup>v</sup>pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon <sup>w</sup>Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 <sup>x</sup>Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have <sup>y</sup>ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might <sup>z</sup>enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with <sup>aa</sup>shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their <sup>ab</sup>king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER II.

1 God's wrath against Moab, 4 upon Judah, 6 and upon Israel. 9 God complaineth of their unthankfulness.

THUS saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the <sup>ac</sup>bones of the king of Edom into lime;

2 But <sup>ad</sup>I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth; and Moab shall die <sup>ae</sup>with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the <sup>af</sup>judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 <sup>ag</sup>Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised <sup>ah</sup>the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which <sup>ai</sup>their fathers have walked;

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the <sup>aj</sup>palaces of Jerusalem.

6 <sup>ak</sup>Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of <sup>al</sup>Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they <sup>am</sup>sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That <sup>an</sup>king pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek; and a <sup>ao</sup>man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to <sup>ap</sup>profane my holy name:

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge <sup>aq</sup>by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 Yet <sup>ar</sup>destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose <sup>as</sup>height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his <sup>at</sup>fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and <sup>au</sup>led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for <sup>av</sup>prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. <sup>aw</sup>Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink,

CHAPTER V.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even <sup>a</sup> a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The <sup>b</sup> virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall <sup>c</sup> no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God, The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, <sup>d</sup> Seek ye me, and ye shall <sup>e</sup> live.

5 <sup>f</sup> But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like <sup>g</sup> fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 <sup>h</sup> Ye who turn judgment to <sup>i</sup> wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven <sup>k</sup> stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that <sup>l</sup> calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the <sup>m</sup> spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that <sup>n</sup> speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch, therefore, as <sup>o</sup> your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat; ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall <sup>p</sup> not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For <sup>q</sup> I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the <sup>r</sup> prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is <sup>s</sup> an evil time.

14 <sup>t</sup> Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have <sup>a</sup> spoken.

15 <sup>x</sup> Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus, Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, <sup>y</sup> Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are <sup>z</sup> skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will <sup>a</sup> pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Wo unto you that desire the day of the LORD! <sup>b</sup> to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and <sup>c</sup> a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be <sup>d</sup> darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 <sup>e</sup> I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings, and your meat-offerings, I will <sup>f</sup> not accept them: neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the <sup>g</sup> melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness <sup>h</sup> as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered <sup>i</sup> unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your <sup>k</sup> Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity <sup>l</sup> beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The wantonness of Israel, 7 shall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incorrigibleness.

WO to them that are <sup>a</sup> at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and <sup>b</sup> see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they <sup>c</sup> better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that <sup>d</sup> put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

CHAPTER VII.

1 The judgments of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 7 By a wall and a plumb-line is signified the rejection of Israel. 10 Amaziah complaineth of Amos. 14 Amos sheweth his calling, 16 and Amaziah's judgment.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed <sup>a</sup> grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made <sup>b</sup> an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, <sup>c</sup> O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee; by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is <sup>d</sup> small.

3 The LORD <sup>e</sup> repented for this: it shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the <sup>f</sup> great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee; <sup>g</sup> by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 THUS he shewed me; and, behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumb-line, <sup>h</sup> with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb-line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will <sup>i</sup> not again pass by them any more:

9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the <sup>k</sup> house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 THEN Amaziah, the <sup>l</sup> priest of Beth-el, sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath <sup>m</sup> conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able <sup>n</sup> to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall <sup>o</sup> die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, <sup>p</sup> flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the <sup>q</sup> king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was <sup>r</sup> no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was <sup>s</sup> an herdman, and a gatherer of <sup>t</sup> sycamore-fruit:

15 And the LORD took me <sup>u</sup> as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, <sup>x</sup> Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now, therefore, hear <sup>y</sup> thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, <sup>z</sup> Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, <sup>a</sup> Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and <sup>b</sup> thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

3 And the <sup>d</sup> songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be <sup>e</sup> many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 <sup>f</sup> Hear this, O ye that <sup>f</sup> swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the <sup>g</sup> new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may <sup>h</sup> buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the <sup>i</sup> land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as <sup>k</sup> a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass <sup>l</sup> in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down <sup>m</sup> at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts <sup>n</sup> into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a <sup>o</sup> bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land; not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, <sup>p</sup> but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall <sup>q</sup> wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall <sup>r</sup> not find it.

13 In that day shall the <sup>s</sup> fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, <sup>t</sup> O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they <sup>u</sup> shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The certainty of the desolation. 11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David.

I SAW the LORD standing upon the <sup>a</sup> altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall <sup>b</sup> not flee away; and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though they <sup>c</sup> dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they <sup>d</sup> hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid <sup>e</sup> from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I <sup>f</sup> command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them <sup>g</sup> for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hosts <sup>h</sup> is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like a flood, and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his <sup>i</sup> stories in the heaven, and hath founded his <sup>k</sup> troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth; The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians <sup>l</sup> unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

8 Behold, <sup>m</sup> the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will <sup>n</sup> not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will <sup>o</sup> sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the <sup>p</sup> sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall <sup>q</sup> not overtake nor prevent us.

11 <sup>r</sup> In that day will I <sup>s</sup> raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That they may <sup>t</sup> possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the <sup>u</sup> plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will <sup>v</sup> bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens; and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall <sup>w</sup> no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and for their wrong unto Jacob. 17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom, <sup>a</sup> We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, <sup>b</sup> Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee <sup>c</sup> small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath <sup>d</sup> deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that <sup>e</sup> saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy <sup>f</sup> nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 <sup>g</sup> If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they <sup>h</sup> not leave some grapes?

6 How are the || things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy <sup>i</sup> confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have <sup>k</sup> deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy <sup>l</sup> the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy <sup>m</sup> mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy <sup>n</sup> violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off <sup>o</sup> for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the <sup>p</sup> strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and <sup>q</sup> cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have <sup>r</sup> looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have <sup>s</sup> rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest <sup>t</sup> not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity:

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the <sup>u</sup> day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: <sup>x</sup> as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee; thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as <sup>y</sup> ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually; yea, they shall drink, and they shall <sup>z</sup> swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob <sup>a</sup> shall possess their possessions.

18 And the <sup>b</sup> house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau: for the LORD hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possess the <sup>c</sup> mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, <sup>d</sup> which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And <sup>e</sup> saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and 'the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jonah sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 He is bewrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came <sup>a</sup> unto Jonah, the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, <sup>b</sup> that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up <sup>c</sup> before me.

3 But Jonah rose up <sup>d</sup> to flee unto Tarshish <sup>e</sup> from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD <sup>f</sup> sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man <sup>g</sup> unto his god, and <sup>h</sup> cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was <sup>i</sup> fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, <sup>k</sup> What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, <sup>l</sup> call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us <sup>m</sup> cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot <sup>n</sup> fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, <sup>o</sup> Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is <sup>p</sup> thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I <sup>q</sup> am an Hebrew; and <sup>r</sup> I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly <sup>s</sup> afraid, and said unto him, Why hast <sup>t</sup> thou done this? (for the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, <sup>u</sup> What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? (for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, <sup>x</sup> Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that <sup>y</sup> for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men <sup>z</sup> rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they <sup>a</sup> could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done <sup>b</sup> as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and <sup>c</sup> cast him forth into the sea; and the sea <sup>e</sup> ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men <sup>e</sup> feared the LORD exceedingly, and <sup>f</sup> offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 Now the LORD had <sup>g</sup> prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and <sup>h</sup> three nights.

CHAPTER II.

1 The prayer of Jonah: 10 He is delivered from the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God <sup>a</sup> out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he <sup>b</sup> heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast <sup>c</sup> me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods <sup>d</sup> compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then <sup>e</sup> I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will <sup>f</sup> look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The <sup>g</sup> waters compassed me about even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: <sup>h</sup> yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me <sup>i</sup> I remembered the LORD; and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities <sup>k</sup> forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of <sup>l</sup> thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 And the LORD <sup>m</sup> spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER III.

1 Jonah sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites. 5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the <sup>a</sup> second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching <sup>b</sup> that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and <sup>c</sup> went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. (Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city, of three days' journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey; and he cried, and said, <sup>d</sup> Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 So the <sup>e</sup> people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh, (by the decree of the king and his nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water.

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER IV

1 Jonah repining at God's mercy, is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me: for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the Lord God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm, when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind: and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

MICAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry: 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite, in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord God be witness against you, the LORD from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria?

and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burnt with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah: he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all in the house of Aphrah: roll thyself in the dust.

14 Therefore shalt thou <sup>a</sup>give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be <sup>b</sup>a lie to the kings of Israel.

16 <sup>d</sup>Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy <sup>e</sup>delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 Against oppression. 4 A lamentation. 7 A reproof of injustice and idolatry. 12 A promise of restoring Jacob.

WO to them that <sup>a</sup>devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light they practise it, because it is in the <sup>b</sup>power of their hand.

2 And they <sup>c</sup>covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, against this family do I <sup>d</sup>devise an evil, from which ye shall <sup>e</sup>not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is <sup>f</sup>evil.

4 <sup>g</sup>In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled; he hath <sup>h</sup>changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 <sup>i</sup>Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall <sup>k</sup>not prophesy to them that they shall not take shame.

7 O thou that art <sup>l</sup>named The house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD <sup>m</sup>straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do <sup>n</sup>good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is <sup>o</sup>risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your

11 If a man, <sup>r</sup>walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of <sup>s</sup>wine, and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely <sup>t</sup>gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of <sup>u</sup>Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The <sup>x</sup>breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and <sup>y</sup>their King shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER III.

1 The cruelty of the princes. 5 The falsehood of the prophets. 8 The security of them both.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not <sup>a</sup>for you to know judgment?

2 Who <sup>b</sup>hate the good, and love the evil; who <sup>c</sup>pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also <sup>d</sup>eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they <sup>e</sup>cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them; he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that <sup>f</sup>bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace: and he that <sup>g</sup>putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 Therefore <sup>h</sup>night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yea, they shall all cover their <sup>i</sup>lips: for there is no <sup>k</sup>answer of God.

8 But truly I am <sup>l</sup>full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up Zion <sup>m</sup>with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof <sup>n</sup>teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field; and Jerusalem shall become <sup>p</sup> heaps; and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The glory, 3 peace, 8 kingdom, 11 and victory of the church.

BUT in the last days it shall come to pass, that the <sup>a</sup> mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and <sup>b</sup> people shall flow unto it.

2 And <sup>c</sup> many nations shall come and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD <sup>d</sup> from Jerusalem.

3 And he shall <sup>e</sup> judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall <sup>f</sup> they learn war any more.

4 But they shall <sup>g</sup> sit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of <sup>h</sup> his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD <sup>i</sup> our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that <sup>k</sup> halteth, and I will gather her that is <sup>l</sup> driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off <sup>m</sup> a strong nation: and the <sup>n</sup> LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou <sup>o</sup> cry out aloud? is there <sup>p</sup> no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for <sup>q</sup> pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 <sup>r</sup> Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for <sup>s</sup> now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt <sup>t</sup> dwell in the field, and thou shalt <sup>u</sup> go even to Babylon; <sup>v</sup> there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

12 But they know not the <sup>x</sup> thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall <sup>y</sup> gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and <sup>z</sup> thresh, O daughter of Zion; for <sup>a</sup> I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass; and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will <sup>b</sup> consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAPTER V.

1 The birth of Christ: 4 his kingdom: 8 his conquest. NOW <sup>a</sup> gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us; they shall smite the Judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be <sup>b</sup> little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall <sup>c</sup> he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, <sup>d</sup> from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he <sup>e</sup> give them up, <sup>f</sup> until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then <sup>g</sup> the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the <sup>h</sup> majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be <sup>i</sup> great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the <sup>k</sup> peace, when the <sup>l</sup> Assyrian shall come into our land; and, when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him <sup>m</sup> seven shepherds, and <sup>n</sup> eight principal men.

6 And they shall <sup>o</sup> waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of <sup>p</sup> Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he <sup>q</sup> deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as <sup>r</sup> a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among <sup>s</sup> the Gentiles in the midst of many people, <sup>t</sup> as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, both treadeth down and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 <sup>u</sup> Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be <sup>x</sup> cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy <sup>y</sup> horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the <sup>z</sup> cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off <sup>a</sup> witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

CHAPTER VI.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR <sup>a</sup> ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's <sup>b</sup> controversy, and ye <sup>c</sup> strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, <sup>d</sup> what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? <sup>e</sup> testify against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the <sup>f</sup> house of servants; and I sent before thee <sup>g</sup> Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what <sup>h</sup> Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 <sup>i</sup> Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with <sup>k</sup> burnt-offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the <sup>l</sup> fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath <sup>m</sup> shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do <sup>n</sup> justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the <sup>o</sup> rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the <sup>p</sup> treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof <sup>q</sup> are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken <sup>r</sup> lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee <sup>s</sup> sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt <sup>t</sup> eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver;

and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt <sup>u</sup> sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 For the <sup>x</sup> statutes of Omri are kept, and all the <sup>y</sup> works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The church complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 She triumpheth over her enemies.

14 God comforteth her by promises, 16 by confusion of the enemies, 18 and by his mercies.

WO is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer-fruits, as the gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my <sup>a</sup> soul desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The <sup>b</sup> good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; <sup>c</sup> they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 That they may do evil with <sup>d</sup> both hands earnestly, the <sup>e</sup> prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 <sup>f</sup> The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; <sup>g</sup> now shall be their perplexity.

5 <sup>h</sup> Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide; keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son <sup>i</sup> dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will <sup>k</sup> look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me.

8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I <sup>l</sup> fall, I shall <sup>m</sup> arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the <sup>n</sup> indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, <sup>o</sup> Where is the LORD thy God? <sup>p</sup> mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy <sup>q</sup> walls are to be built, in that day shall <sup>r</sup> the decree be far removed.

NAHUM.

CHAPTER I.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious: the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an over-running flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folded together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD, Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image; I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER II.

The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh.

HE that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir-trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of <sup>l</sup> water; yet they shall flee away. <sup>m</sup> Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the <sup>n</sup> spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart <sup>o</sup> melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 <sup>p</sup> Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did <sup>q</sup> tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am <sup>r</sup> against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will <sup>s</sup> burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions; and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy <sup>t</sup> messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER III.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WO to the <sup>a</sup> bloody city! it is all <sup>b</sup> full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the <sup>c</sup> wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number <sup>d</sup> of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the <sup>e</sup> whoredoms of the well-favoured harlot, the <sup>f</sup> mistress of witchcrafts, that <sup>g</sup> selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am <sup>h</sup> against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy <sup>i</sup> nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make <sup>k</sup> thee vile, and will set thee as <sup>l</sup> a gazing-stock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall <sup>m</sup> flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid <sup>n</sup> waste: <sup>o</sup> who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than <sup>p</sup> populous No, that was situate <sup>q</sup> among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy <sup>r</sup> helpers.

10 Yet was she <sup>s</sup> carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were <sup>t</sup> dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were <sup>u</sup> bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be <sup>x</sup> drunken: thou shalt be <sup>y</sup> hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like <sup>z</sup> fig-trees with the first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the <sup>a</sup> mouth of the eater.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, <sup>d</sup> fortify thy strong holds: go into <sup>e</sup> clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brick-kiln.

15 There shall the <sup>f</sup> fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off; it shall eat thee up like the canker-worm: make thyself many as the canker-worm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy <sup>g</sup> merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy <sup>h</sup> crowned are as the locusts, and thy <sup>i</sup> captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day; but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy <sup>k</sup> shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is <sup>l</sup> scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee <sup>m</sup> shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not <sup>n</sup> thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK.

CHAPTER I.

Before CHRIST
cir. 626.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans : 12 He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are far worse.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did <sup>a</sup> see.

2 O LORD, <sup>b</sup> how long shall I cry, and thou wilt <sup>c</sup> not hear ! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save !

3 Why dost thou <sup>d</sup> shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance ? for spoiling and violence are before me : and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is <sup>e</sup> slack, and judgment doth never go forth : for the wicked doth <sup>f</sup> compass about the righteous ; <sup>g</sup> therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 I Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously ; for I will <sup>h</sup> work a work in your days, which ye will <sup>i</sup> not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the <sup>k</sup> Chaldeans, that bitter and <sup>l</sup> hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful : their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the <sup>m</sup> evening wolves : and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far ; they shall fly as the <sup>n</sup> eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence : their faces shall sup up as the <sup>o</sup> east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff <sup>p</sup> at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them : they shall deride every strong hold ; for they shall <sup>q</sup> heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall <sup>r</sup> his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One ? we shall <sup>s</sup> not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained <sup>t</sup> them for judgment ; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity : wherefore lookest thou upon them that <sup>u</sup> deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked <sup>x</sup> devoureth the man that is more righteous than he ?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have <sup>y</sup> no ruler over them ?

15 They take up all of them with the <sup>z</sup> angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag ; therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they <sup>a</sup> sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag ; because by them their <sup>b</sup> portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to <sup>c</sup> slay the nations ?

CHAPTER II.

1 Unto Habakkuk waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldeans for insatiableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idolatry.

I WILL stand upon my <sup>a</sup> watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say || unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon <sup>b</sup> tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for <sup>c</sup> an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie : though it tarry, wait for it ; because it will surely <sup>d</sup> come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is <sup>e</sup> lifted up is not upright in him : but the <sup>f</sup> just shall live by his faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth <sup>g</sup> by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who <sup>h</sup> enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people :

6 Shall not all these take up <sup>i</sup> a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him that increaseth that which is not his ! how long ? and to him that ladeth himself <sup>k</sup> with thick clay !

7 Shall they not rise up <sup>l</sup> suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them ?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee ; because of men's blood, and for the <sup>m</sup> violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 Wo to him that <sup>n</sup> coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his <sup>o</sup> nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil !

10 Thou hast consulted <sup>p</sup> shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Wo to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity !

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the <sup>q</sup> very fire, and the 5 And I said, Let them set <sup>h</sup> a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If thou wilt <sup>i</sup> walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts; and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they <sup>k</sup> are men <sup>l</sup> wondered at; for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, The <sup>m</sup> BRANCH.

9 For, behold, the <sup>n</sup> stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be <sup>o</sup> seven eyes: behold, I will <sup>p</sup> engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will <sup>q</sup> remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

CHAPTER V.

1 By the flying roll, is shewed the curse of thieves and swearers: 5 By a woman pressed in an ephah, the final damnation of Babylon.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, <sup>a</sup> a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the <sup>b</sup> length thereof is twenty cubits, and the <sup>c</sup> breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the <sup>d</sup> curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall <sup>e</sup> enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, <sup>f</sup> Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is <sup>g</sup> an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a <sup>h</sup> talent of lead: and this is <sup>i</sup> a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is <sup>k</sup> wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon <sup>l</sup> the mouth thereof.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the <sup>h</sup> north country: and the <sup>i</sup> white go forth after them; and the grised go forth toward the <sup>k</sup> south country.

7 And the <sup>l</sup> bay went forth, and <sup>m</sup> sought to go, that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and <sup>n</sup> he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have <sup>o</sup> quieted my spirit in the north country.

11 Then take silver and gold, and make <sup>a</sup> crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the <sup>r</sup> man, whose name is 'The <sup>s</sup> BRANCH: and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall <sup>t</sup> build the temple of the LORD:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the <sup>u</sup> glory, and shall <sup>x</sup> sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for <sup>y</sup> a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And they that are <sup>z</sup> far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

AND it came to pass, in the <sup>a</sup> fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in <sup>b</sup> Chisleu;

2 When they had <sup>c</sup> sent unto the house of God, Sherezzer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto the <sup>d</sup> priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I <sup>e</sup> weep in the <sup>f</sup> fifth month, <sup>g</sup> separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye <sup>h</sup> fasted and mourned in the fifth and <sup>i</sup> seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all <sup>k</sup> fast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat <sup>l</sup> for yourselves, and drink <sup>m</sup> for yourselves?

7 Should ye not <sup>n</sup> hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute <sup>a</sup> true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And <sup>b</sup> oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and <sup>c</sup> pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an <sup>d</sup> adamant-stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came <sup>e</sup> a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that, as he cried, and they would not hear; <sup>f</sup> so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was <sup>g</sup> desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned; for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will <sup>c</sup> dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem shall be called, <sup>d</sup> A city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, The holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, There shall yet <sup>e</sup> old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If it be marvellous <sup>f</sup> in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, <sup>i</sup> Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in <sup>k</sup> these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was <sup>1</sup> no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any <sup>m</sup> peace to him that went out or came in, because of the affliction: for I set <sup>a</sup> all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people <sup>o</sup> as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her <sup>p</sup> increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all <sup>a</sup> these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were <sup>r</sup> a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be <sup>s</sup> a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when <sup>t</sup> your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I <sup>u</sup> repented not;

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall <sup>x</sup> do, Speak ye every man the <sup>y</sup> truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment <sup>z</sup> of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And let none of you <sup>a</sup> imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The fast of the <sup>b</sup> fourth month, and the fast of the <sup>c</sup> fifth, and the fast of the <sup>d</sup> seventh, and the fast of the <sup>e</sup> tenth, shall be to the house of Judah <sup>f</sup> joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts: therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, It shall yet come to pass, that there shall <sup>g</sup> come people and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, <sup>h</sup> Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also.

22 Yea, <sup>i</sup> many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the <sup>k</sup> skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you; for <sup>1</sup> we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER IX.

1 God defendeth his church. 9 Zion is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ, and his peaceable kingdom. 12 God's promises of victory and defence.

THE <sup>a</sup> burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be <sup>b</sup> toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall lord there by; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be <sup>c</sup> very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a <sup>d</sup> strong hold, and heaped up silver <sup>e</sup> as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the LORD will <sup>f</sup> cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be <sup>g</sup> very sorrowful; and Ekron, for her expectation, shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And <sup>h</sup> a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod; and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will <sup>i</sup> take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be <sup>k</sup> for our God; and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

8 And I will <sup>l</sup> encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth; and no <sup>m</sup> oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, <sup>n</sup> thy King cometh <sup>o</sup> unto thee; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the <sup>p</sup> chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak <sup>q</sup> peace unto the heathen; and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the <sup>r</sup> blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn ye to the <sup>s</sup> strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to-day do I declare, that I will render double unto thee;

CHAPTER XI.

1 The destruction of Jerusalem. 3 The elect being cared for, the rest are rejected. 10 The staves of Beauty and Bands broken by the rejection of Christ. 15 The type and curse of a foolish shepherd.

OPEN thy doors, O <sup>a</sup> Lebanon, that <sup>b</sup> the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir-tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the <sup>c</sup> mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 There is a voice of the howling of the <sup>d</sup> shepherds; for their <sup>e</sup> glory is spoiled; a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God, <sup>f</sup> Feed the flock of the slaughter, 5 Whose <sup>g</sup> possessors slay them, and hold themselves <sup>h</sup> not guilty; and they that <sup>i</sup> sell them say, <sup>k</sup> Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more <sup>l</sup> pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD; but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his <sup>m</sup> king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O <sup>n</sup> poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called <sup>o</sup> Beauty, and the other I called <sup>p</sup> Bands: and I fed the flock.

8 <sup>q</sup> Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then <sup>r</sup> said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, <sup>s</sup> let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and <sup>t</sup> cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself, 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries. 6 The victorious restoring of Judah. 9 The repentance of Jerusalem.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which <sup>a</sup> stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him,

2 Behold, I will make <sup>b</sup> Jerusalem a <sup>c</sup> cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem <sup>d</sup> a burdensome stone for all people: all that <sup>e</sup> burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will <sup>f</sup> smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness; and I will <sup>g</sup> open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the <sup>h</sup> governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem, 2 from idolatry and false prophecy. 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

IN that day there shall <sup>a</sup> be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for <sup>b</sup> sin and for uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the <sup>c</sup> names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the <sup>d</sup> prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his <sup>e</sup> father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest <sup>f</sup> lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be <sup>g</sup> ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they wear <sup>h</sup> a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no <sup>i</sup> prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these <sup>k</sup> wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ <sup>1</sup>Awake, O sword, against my <sup>m</sup>Shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: <sup>n</sup>smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon the <sup>o</sup>little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, <sup>p</sup>two parts therein shall be cut off, and die; but the <sup>q</sup>third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part <sup>r</sup>through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them; I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, The LORD is <sup>s</sup>my God.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ, and the graces of his kingdom. 12 The plagues of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will <sup>a</sup>gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the <sup>b</sup>women ravished; and <sup>c</sup>half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the <sup>d</sup>residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD <sup>e</sup>go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet <sup>f</sup>shall stand in that day upon the <sup>g</sup>mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be <sup>h</sup>a very great valley: and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the <sup>i</sup>mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and the LORD my God shall come, and all the <sup>k</sup>saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be <sup>l</sup>clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be <sup>m</sup>one day <sup>n</sup>which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that <sup>o</sup>at evening-time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that <sup>p</sup>living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be <sup>q</sup>a king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned <sup>r</sup>as a plain, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and <sup>s</sup>inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's wine-presses.

11 And men shall <sup>t</sup>dwelt in it, and there shall be <sup>u</sup>no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great <sup>b</sup>tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall <sup>c</sup>lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem: and the <sup>d</sup>wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the <sup>e</sup>plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from year to year to <sup>f</sup>worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the <sup>g</sup>King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be <sup>h</sup>no rain.

18 And if the <sup>i</sup>family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain, there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the <sup>j</sup>punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the <sup>k</sup>pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem, and in Judah, shall be Holiness unto the LORD of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the <sup>l</sup>Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

CHAPTER I.

Before CHRIST
397.

1 Malachi complaineth of Israel's unkindness, 6 of their irreligiousness, 12 and profaneness.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to <sup>a</sup> Israel by Malachi.

3 And I <sup>e</sup> hated Esau, and laid <sup>f</sup> his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are <sup>g</sup> impoverished, but <sup>h</sup> we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The <sup>i</sup> border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

5 And <sup>k</sup> your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be <sup>l</sup> magnified from the border of Israel.

6 A son <sup>m</sup> honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a <sup>n</sup> father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, <sup>o</sup> O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein <sup>p</sup> have we despised thy name?

7 Ye offer <sup>q</sup> polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, <sup>r</sup> The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, <sup>s</sup> is it not evil? and if ye offer the <sup>t</sup> lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, <sup>u</sup> I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he <sup>x</sup> regard your person? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle <sup>y</sup> fire <sup>z</sup> on mine altar for nought. I have <sup>2</sup> no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my name shall be great <sup>a</sup> among the Gentiles; and <sup>b</sup> in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 But <sup>c</sup> ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is <sup>d</sup> polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a <sup>e</sup> weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts: and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the <sup>f</sup> deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great <sup>g</sup> King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER II.

1 He sharply reproveth the priests for neglecting their covenant; 11 and the people for idolatry, 14 for adultery, 17 and for infidelity.

AND now, O ye <sup>a</sup> priests, this commandment <sup>b</sup> is for you.

2 If ye will <sup>b</sup> not hear, and if ye will not lay <sup>c</sup> it to heart, to <sup>e</sup> give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and will <sup>d</sup> curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay <sup>e</sup> it to heart.

3 Behold, I will corrupt <sup>e</sup> your seed, and <sup>f</sup> spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall <sup>g</sup> know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that <sup>h</sup> my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him <sup>i</sup> of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was <sup>k</sup> afraid before my name.

6 The <sup>l</sup> law of truth was in his mouth, and <sup>m</sup> iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did <sup>n</sup> turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's <sup>o</sup> lips should keep knowledge, and they should <sup>p</sup> seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are <sup>q</sup> departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble <sup>r</sup> at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you <sup>s</sup> contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been <sup>t</sup> partial in the law.

10 Have we not all <sup>u</sup> one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal <sup>x</sup> treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 <sup>v</sup> Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath <sup>z</sup> married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will <sup>a</sup> cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that <sup>b</sup> offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done <sup>c</sup> again, covering the altar of the LORD with <sup>d</sup> tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good-will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been <sup>e</sup> witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he <sup>f</sup> make one? Yet had he the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly <sup>g</sup> seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none <sup>h</sup> deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel saith, that he hateth <sup>i</sup> putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts; therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have <sup>k</sup> wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that <sup>l</sup> doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of <sup>m</sup> judgment?

CHAPTER III.

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the rebellion, 8 sacrilege, 13 and infidelity of the people. 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God.

BEHOLD, I will send my <sup>a</sup> messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his <sup>b</sup> temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he <sup>c</sup> shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may <sup>d</sup> abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:

3 And he shall sit <sup>e</sup> as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem <sup>f</sup> be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will <sup>g</sup> come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and <sup>h</sup> fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, <sup>i</sup> I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are <sup>j</sup> not consumed.

7 Even from the days of <sup>k</sup> your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return <sup>l</sup> unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, <sup>m</sup> Wherein shall we return?

8 Will a man <sup>n</sup> rob God? yet ye have robbed <sup>o</sup> me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? in tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are <sup>p</sup> cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the <sup>q</sup> storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and <sup>r</sup> prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room <sup>s</sup> enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer <sup>t</sup> for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your <sup>u</sup> vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you <sup>v</sup> blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 Your words have been <sup>w</sup> stout against me saith the LORD: yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee.

14 Ye have said, <sup>x</sup> It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the <sup>y</sup> proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are <sup>z</sup> set up; yea, they that tempt God are <sup>a</sup> even delivered.

16 <sup>b</sup> Then they that feared the LORD <sup>c</sup> spake often one to another; and the LORD <sup>d</sup> hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my <sup>e</sup> jewels; and I will <sup>f</sup> spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall <sup>g</sup> ye return, and <sup>h</sup> discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

a 2 Kings
23, 21.
2 Chr. 35,
1.
5.

1 Josias his charge to the priests and Levites. 7 A great passover is kept. 32 His death is much lamented. 34 His successors. 53 The temple, city, and people are destroyed. 56 The rest are carried unto Babylon.

AND Josias held the <sup>a</sup> feast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover <sup>b</sup> the fourteenth day of the first month;

2 Having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord.

3 And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built:

4 And said, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you <sup>c</sup> after your families and kindreds,

5 According as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the temple according to the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel,

6 Offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses.

7 <sup>d</sup> And unto the people that was found there Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites.

8 And Helkias, Zacharias, and || Syelus, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves.

9 And Jeconias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Assabias, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and || seven hundred calves.

10 And when these things were done, the priests and Levites having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely order according to the kindreds, 11 And according to the several dignities of the fathers before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: <sup>e</sup> and thus did they in the morning.

12 And they roasted the passover with fire, as appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots, and pans, || with a good savour,

13 And set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron.

14 For the priests offered the fat until night: <sup>f</sup> and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron.

15 The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment <sup>g</sup> of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Jeduthun, who was <sup>h</sup> of the king's retinue.

16 Moreover, the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

17 <sup>i</sup> Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the passover, 18 And offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josias.

19 So the children of Israel which were present <sup>k</sup> held the passover at that time, and the feast of sweet bread seven days.

20 <sup>l</sup> And such a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel.

21 Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Jerusalem.

22 <sup>m</sup> In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this passover kept.

23 And the works of Josias were upright before his Lord, with an heart full of godliness.

24 As for the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and || did wickedly against the Lord above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved him || exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel.

25 <sup>n</sup> Now after all these acts of Josias it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchamis upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him.

26 <sup>o</sup> But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of Judea?

27 I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord.

28 <sup>p</sup> Howbeit Josias did not turn back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremy, spoken by the mouth of the Lord:

29 <sup>q</sup> But joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came against king Josias.

30 Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle.

31 Then gat he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, <sup>r</sup> and was buried in his father's sepulchre.

32 <sup>s</sup> And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias, yea, Jeremy the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel.

33 These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of Judah, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judea.

34 <sup>u</sup> And the people took Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old.

35 <sup>x</sup> And he reigned in Judea and in Jerusalem three months : and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem.

36 And he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

37 The king of Egypt also made king Joacim his brother king of Judea and Jerusalem.

38 And he bound Joacim and the nobles : but Zarahes his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt.

39 Five and twenty years old was <sup>y</sup> Joacim when he was made king in the land of Judea and Jerusalem ; and he did evil before the Lord.

40 <sup>a</sup> Wherefore against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him into Babylon.

41 (Nabuchodonosor <sup>b</sup> also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple at Babylon.)

42 But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

43 And Joacim his son reigned in his stead : he was made king being eighteen years old ;

44 And reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and did evil before the Lord.

45 So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord,

46 <sup>c</sup> And made Zedechias king of Judea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old ; and he reigned eleven years :

47 And he did evil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremy from the mouth of the Lord.

48 And after that king Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself <sup>d</sup> and rebelled, and hardening his neck and his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord God of Israel.

49 The governors also of the people and of the priests did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem.

50 Nevertheless, the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he spared them and his tabernacle also.

51 But they had his messengers in derision ; and look, when the Lord spake unto them, they made a sport of his prophets :

52 So far forth, that he <sup>e</sup> being wroth with his people for their great ungodliness, <sup>f</sup> commanded the kings of the Chaldees to come up against them ;

53 Who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them ; for he delivered all into their hands.

54 <sup>g</sup> And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of God, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon.

55 As for the house of the Lord, <sup>h</sup> they burnt it, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and set fire upon her towers :

56 And as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them all to nought : and the people that were not slain with the sword, he carried unto Babylon :

57 Who became servants to him and his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the <sup>i</sup> word of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Jeremy :

58 Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she || rest, until the full term of seventy years.

CHAPTER II.

1 Cyrus is moved by God to build the temple, 5 and giveth leave to the Jews to return, and contribute to it. 11 He delivereth again the vessels which had been taken thence. 25 Artaxerxes forbiddeth the jews to build any more.

IN the <sup>a</sup> first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that he had promised by the mouth of Jeremy ;

2 The Lord raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing,

3 Saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians ; The Lord of Israel, the most high Lord, hath made me king of the whole world,

4 <sup>b</sup> And commanded me to build him an house at Jerusalem in Jewry.

5 If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel : for || he is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem.

6 <sup>c</sup> Whosoever then dwell in the places about, let them help him (those, I say that are his neighbours) with gold, and with silver.

7 With gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem.

8 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Then the chief of the families of Judea and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up : the priests also and the Levites, and all they whose mind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build an house for the Lord at Jerusalem.

9 And they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with † horses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto.

10 King Cyrus <sup>e</sup> also brought forth the holy vessels which Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols.

11 Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithridates his treasurer :

12 And by him they were delivered to † Sanabasar the governor of Judea.

13 And this was the number of them ; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, † censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver <sup>f</sup> two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels.

14 So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which 15 These were brought back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

16 <sup>b</sup> But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and † Rathumus, Beeltethmus, and † Semellius the secretary, with others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem these letters following;

17 To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants Rathumus the story-writer, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Celosyria and Phenice.

18 Be it now known to the lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem (that rebellious and wicked city) do build the market-places, and repair the walls of it, and do lay the foundation of the temple.

19 Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, <sup>i</sup> they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings.

20 And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter,

21 But to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers:

22 <sup>k</sup> And thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities:

23 And that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein; for the which cause even this city was made desolate.

24 Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, (O lord the king) that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into Celosyria and Phenice.

25 <sup>l</sup> Then the king wrote back again to Rathumus the story-writer, to Beeltethmus, to Semellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria, and Syria, and Phenice, after this manner;

26 I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me; therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found, that that city was from the beginning practising against kings;

27 And the men therein were given to rebellion and war: <sup>m</sup> and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Celosyria and Phenice.

28 Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it;

29 And that those wicked workers proceed no further to the annoyance of kings.

30 Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste towards Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen, and <sup>n</sup> a multitude of people in battle-array, began to hinder the builders; <sup>n</sup> and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

4 Three strive to excel each other in wise speeches. 9 They refer themselves to the judgment of the king. 18 The first declareth the strength of wine.

CHAPTER III.

Before CHRIST
cir. 522.

NOW when Darius reigned, <sup>a</sup> he made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the princes of Media and Persia, <sup>a</sup> Esth. 1, 3

2 And to all the governors, and captains, and lieutenants that were under him, <sup>b</sup> from India unto Ethiopia, of an hundred twenty and seven provinces. <sup>b</sup> Esth. 1, 1

3 And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bed-chamber, and slept, and soon after awaked.

4 Then three young men that were of the guard, that kept the king's body, spake one to another;

5 Let every one of us speak a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king Darius give great gifts, and great things in token of victory:

6 As <sup>c</sup> to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and an head-tire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck: <sup>c</sup> See Esth. 8, 15

7 And he shall sit next to Darius, because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin.

8 And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow.

9 And said that, when the king is risen, some will give him the writings; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as was appointed;

10 The first wrote, Wine is the strongest.

11 The second wrote, The king is the strongest.

12 The third wrote, Women are strongest: But above all things truth beareth away the victory.

13 Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them:

14 And sending forth he called <sup>d</sup> all the princes of Persia and Media, and the governors, and the captains, and the lieutenants, and the chief officers; <sup>d</sup> Esth. 1, 3. & 2, 13.

15 And sat him down in the || royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read before them. || Or, council.

16 And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences. So they were called, and came in.

17 And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings. Then began the first, <sup>e</sup> who had spoken of the strength of wine; <sup>e</sup> verse 10.

18 And he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine! it causeth all men to err that drink it:

19 It maketh the mind of the king, and of the fatherless child, to be all one: of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich:

20 It turneth also every thought into <sup>f</sup> jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt: <sup>f</sup> Judges 9 13. Ps. 104, 15. Prov. 31, 6, 7.

21 And it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor, and it maketh to speak all things by talents;

22 And when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords:

23 But when they are from the wine, they remember not what they have done.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The second declareth the power of a king: 13 The third the force of women, 33 and of truth. 41 The third is judged to be wisest, and obtaineth letters of the king to build Jerusalem: 58 He praiseth God, and sheweth his brethren what he had done.

THEN the <sup>a</sup>second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say,

2 O ye men, do not men excel in strength, that || bear rule over sea and land, and all things in them?

3 But yet the king is more mighty: for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; <sup>b</sup> and whatsoever he commandeth them they do.

4 If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains, walls, and towers.

5 They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else.

6 Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, <sup>c</sup> but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king.

7 And yet he is but one man: <sup>d</sup> if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare;

8 If he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build;

9 If he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant.

10 So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest:

11 And these keep watch round about him, neither || may any one depart, and do his own business, <sup>e</sup> neither disobey they him in any thing.

12 O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

13 ¶ Then the <sup>f</sup>third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth (this was Zorobabel) began to speak.

14 O ye men, it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine that †excelleth: who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women?

15 Women have born the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land.

16 <sup>g</sup> Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards from whence the wine cometh.

17 These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be.

18 Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty?

19 And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever?

20 <sup>h</sup> A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife.

21 He sticketh not to <sup>i</sup>spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country.

22 By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman?

23 Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers;

24 And looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love.

25 <sup>k</sup> Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother.

26 Yea, many there be that have || run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes.

27 Many also have <sup>l</sup>perished, have erred, <sup>m</sup> and sinned, for women.

28 And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him?

29 Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable || Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, 30 And taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the king with her left hand.

31 And yet || for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might || be reconciled to him again.

32 O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

33 Then the king and the princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the <sup>n</sup>truth.

34 O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, <sup>o</sup> for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day.

35 Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things.

36 All the earth || calleth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing.

37 Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked works; and there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish.

38 As for the truth, <sup>p</sup> it endureth, and is always strong; it liveth and conquereth for evermore.

39 With her there is no accepting of persons or reward; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works.

40 Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, kingdom, power, and majesty of all ages: Blessed be the <sup>q</sup>God of truth.

41 And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is truth, and mighty above all things.

42 Then said the king unto him, <sup>r</sup> Ask what thou wilt more than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin.

43 Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to <sup>s</sup>build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, 45 Thou also hast vowed to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned, when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldees.

46 And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality proceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the King of heaven.

47 Then Darius the king stood up and kissed him, <sup>w</sup> and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers, and lieutenants, and captains, and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem.

48 He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Celosyria, and Phenice, and unto them in Libanus, <sup>z</sup> that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him.

49 Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, <sup>y</sup> that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor || treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors;

50 And that all the country which they hold should be free <sup>z</sup> without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held:

51 <sup>a</sup> Yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built;

52 And other ten talents yearly, to maintain the burnt-offerings upon the altar every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen:

53 <sup>b</sup> And that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away.

54 He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister;

55 And likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them, until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up.

56 And he commanded to give to all that kept the city || pensions and wages.

57 He sent away also <sup>c</sup> all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

58 Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven, towards Jerusalem, <sup>d</sup> and praised the King of heaven, 59 And said, From thee cometh <sup>e</sup> victory, from thee cometh <sup>f</sup> wisdom, and thine is the glory, and I am thy servant.

60 Blessed art thou, who hast given me wisdom: for to thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers.

61 And so he took the <sup>g</sup> letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren.

62 And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them <sup>h</sup> freedom and liberty.

63 To go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by his name: and they feasted with instruments of music and gladness seven days.

35 All the ministers of the temple, <sup>p</sup> and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two.

36 These came up from Thermeleth, and Theleis, Charaathalar leading them, and Aalar;

37 <sup>q</sup> Neither could they shew their families, nor their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of <sup>r</sup> Ladan, the sons of <sup>t</sup> Ban, the sons of <sup>u</sup> Necodan, six hundred fifty and two.

46 And so dwelt the priests, and the Levites, and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; <sup>e</sup> and all Israel in their villages.

47 But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came altogether with one consent into the open place of the first || gate which is towards the east.

48 Then stood up Jesus the son of <sup>f</sup> Josedec, and his brethren the priests, and Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, 49 To offer burnt-sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God.

50 And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt-offerings to the Lord both morning and evening.

51 <sup>g</sup> Also they held the feast of tabernacles, <sup>h</sup> as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet:

53 And all they that had † made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the first day of the seventh month, <sup>i</sup> although the temple of the Lord was not yet built.

54 And they gave unto the masons and carpenters, money, meat, and drink with cheerfulness.

55 Unto them of Sidon also and Tyre they gave cars, <sup>k</sup> that they should bring cedar trees from Libanus, which should be brought by floats to the haven of Joppe, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians.

57 And they laid the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the <sup>1</sup>second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem.

58 ¶ And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. Then stood up Jesus, and his sons and brethren, and Cadmiel his brother, and the sons of Madiabun, with the sons of Joda the son of Eliadun, with their sons and brethren, all Levites, with one accord ¶ setters forward of the business, labouring to advance the works in the house of God. So the workmen built the temple of the Lord.

34 I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with <sup>i</sup> diligence.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Sisinnas and others help forward the building. 5 The temple is finished, and dedicated. 10 The passover is kept.

THEN <sup>a</sup> Sisinnas the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the commandments of king Darius,

2 Did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the ancients of the Jews and governors of the temple.

3 And so the holy works prospered when <sup>b</sup> Aggeus and <sup>c</sup> Zacharias the prophets prophesied.

4 And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord God of Israel, and with || the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

5 And thus was the holy house finished in † the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of Darius king of the Persians.

6 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and others that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did <sup>d</sup> according to the things written in the book of Moses.

7 And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered an hundred <sup>e</sup> bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs;

8 And twelve goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the || chief of the tribes of Israel.

9 The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their † kindreds, in the service of the Lord God of Israel, according to the book of Moses: and the porters at every gate.

10 And the children of Israel || that were of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, after that the priests and the Levites were <sup>f</sup> sanctified.

11 They that were of the captivity were not all sanctified together: but the Levites were all sanctified together.

12 And so they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

13 And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did <sup>g</sup> eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought the Lord.

14 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread <sup>h</sup> seven days, <sup>h</sup> making merry before the Lord,

15 For that he had turned the || counsel of the king of Assyria towards them, <sup>i</sup> to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord God of Israel.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Esdras bringeth the king's commission to build; 8 The copy of it: 28 He declareth the names and number of those that came with him, 61 and his journey: 71 He lamenteth the sins of his people, 96 and sweareth the priests to put away their strange wives.

AND after these things, when <sup>a</sup> Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came Esdras the son of Saraïas, the son of || Ezerias, the son of Helchiah, the son of Salum,

2 The son of Sadduc, the son of Achitob, the son of Amarias, the son of || Ezias, the son of || Meremoth, the son of Zarias, the son of || Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisum, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron † the chief priest.

3 <sup>b</sup> This Esdras went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel.

4 And the king did him honour: <sup>c</sup> for he found grace in his sight in all his requests.

5 There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, of the priests, of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and || ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem,

6 In || the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the || prosperous journey which the Lord gave them.

7 For <sup>a</sup> Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but <sup>e</sup> taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments.

8 Now the copy of the || commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, and came to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, is this that followeth ;

9 <sup>f</sup> King Artaxerxes unto Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord sendeth greeting :

10 Having determined to deal graciously, <sup>g</sup> I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites being within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with thee unto Jerusalem.

11 As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and my <sup>h</sup> seven friends the counsellors ;

12 That they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord ;

13 And carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be || found, to the Lord in Jerusalem,

14 With that also <sup>i</sup> which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God at Jerusalem : and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining ;

15 To the end that they may <sup>k</sup> offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem.

16 And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do || with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy God.

17 And the holy vessels of the Lord which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, <sup>l</sup> thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury.

19 And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and the reader of the law of the most high God shall send for, they should give it him with speed, 20 To the sum of an hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to an hundred || cors, and an hundred pieces of wine, and other things in abundance.

21 Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons.

22 I command you also, <sup>m</sup> that ye require no tax, nor any other imposition of any of the priests or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose any thing upon them.

23 And thou, <sup>n</sup> Esdras, according to the wisdom of God, ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice † all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach.

24 And <sup>o</sup> whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment.

25 ¶ Then said Esdras the scribe, <sup>p</sup> Blessed be the only Lord God of my fathers, who hath put these things into the <sup>q</sup> heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem :

26 And hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends, and nobles.

27 Therefore was I <sup>r</sup> encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me.

28 And these are the <sup>s</sup> chief according to their families and several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes :

29 Of the sons of Phinees, Gerson : of the sons of Ithamar, || Gamael : of the sons of David, || Lettus <sup>t</sup> the son of Sechenias :

30 Of the sons of Pharez, Zecharias ; and with him were counted an hundred and fifty men :

31 Of the sons of Pahath Moab, Eliaonias, the son of || Zariaas, and with him two hundred men :

32 || Of the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him three hundred men : of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him † two hundred and fifty men :

33 Of the sons of Elam, Josias son of || Gotholias, and with him seventy men :

34 Of the sons of Saphatias, || Zariaas son of Michael, and with him || threescore and ten men :

35 Of the sons of Joab, || Abadias son of || Jezelus, and with him two hundred and || twelve men :

36 || Of the sons of Banid, Assalimoth son of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and threescore men :

38 Of the sons of || Astath, Johannes son of || Acatan, and with him an hundred and ten men :

39 Of the sons of Adonicam the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Jeuel, and || Samaias, and with them || seventy men :

40 Of the sons of † Bago, Uthi the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

41 And these I gathered together || to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days : and then || I surveyed them.

42 But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites,

43 Then sent I unto Eleazar, and || Iduel, and || Masman,

44 And Alnathan, and Mamaias, and || Joribas, and Nathan, Eunatan, Zecharias, and Mosollamon, principal men and learned.

45 And I bade them that they should go unto || Saddeus the captain, || who was in the place of || the treasury :

46 And commanded them that they should speak unto Daddeus, and to || his brethren, and to the treasure-holders in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priest's office in the house of the Lord.

son of Levi, the son of Israel, || Asebebia, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen.

48 || And Asebia and Annuus, and Osaia his brother, of the sons of Channuneus, and their sons, were twenty men.

49 And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites (to wit) the servants of the temple, two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed.

50 And there I || vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the † cattle:

51 For I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries.

52 <sup>u</sup> For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways.

53 And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us.

54 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, || Esebias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them:

55 And I weighed them <sup>v</sup> the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given.

56 And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and sixty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, 57 And twenty golden vessels, and † twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold.

58 And I said unto them, Both <sup>x</sup> ye are holy unto the Lord, <sup>y</sup> and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers.

59 Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God.

60 So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, <sup>z</sup> brought them unto Jerusalem into the temple of the Lord.

61 And from the river Theras <sup>a</sup> we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us; and from the || beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem.

62 And when we had been there three days, the gold and silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day <sup>b</sup> || unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri.

63 And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu, and || Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight.

64 And all the weight of them was written up the same hour.

65 Moreover, they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel, even <sup>c</sup> twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams,

66 † Threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace-offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord.

67 And they delivered <sup>d</sup> the king's commandments unto the king's stewards, and to the governors of Celosyria and Phenice; and they honoured the people and the temple of God.

68 Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said, 69 The nation of Israel, the princes, the priests, and Levites have not put away from them the strange people of the land, <sup>e</sup> nor the pollutions of the Gentiles, <sup>e</sup> to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pheresites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites.

70 <sup>f</sup> For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and <sup>g</sup> the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity.

71 And as soon as I had heard these things, <sup>h</sup> I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad <sup>i</sup> and very heavy.

72 So all they that were then moved at the word of the Lord God of Israel, assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the <sup>k</sup> evening sacrifice.

73 Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord,

74 I said, O Lord, <sup>l</sup> I am confounded and ashamed before thy face;

75 For our sins || are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven.

76 For ever since the time of <sup>m</sup> our fathers, we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day.

77 And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were <sup>n</sup> given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day.

78 And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of thy sanctuary;

79 And to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us † food in the time of our servitude.

80 Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; <sup>o</sup> but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food;

81 Yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Zion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Jewry and Jerusalem.

82 And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy commandments which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying, 83 That the land which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land <sup>p</sup> polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness.

84 Therefore now shall <sup>q</sup> ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons.

85 Moreover, ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore.

36 <sup>z</sup> All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

37 And the priests and Levites, and they that were of Israel <sup>a</sup> dwelt in Jerusalem, and in the country, in the first day of the seventh month: so the children of Israel were in their || habitations.

38 <sup>b</sup> And the whole multitude came together with one accord into the broad place of the holy porch towards the east:

39 And they spake unto <sup>c</sup> Esdras the priest and reader, that he would bring the law of Moses, that was given of the Lord God of Israel.

40 So Esdras the chief priest brought the <sup>d</sup> law unto the whole multitude from man to woman, and to all the priests, to hear the law in the first day of the seventh month.

41 And he read in the broad court before the holy porch from morning until mid-day, before both men and women; <sup>e</sup> and all the multitude gave heed unto the law.

42 And Esdras the priest, and reader of the law, stood up upon a <sup>f</sup> pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose.

43 And there stood up by him Mattathias, Sammus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, || Ezecias, || Balasamas, upon the right hand:

44 And upon his left hand stood || Phaldaius, Misael, Melchias, || Lothasubus, and || Nabarias.

45 Then took Esdras the book of the law before the multitude: for he sat † honourably in the first place in the sight of them all.

46 And when he opened the law, they stood all straight up. So Esdras blessed the Lord God most High, the God of hosts, Almighty.

47 <sup>g</sup> And all the people answered, Amen; and <sup>h</sup> lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord.

48 Also Jesus, Anus, Sarabias, Adinus, Jacobus, Sabatteas, || Auteas, Maianeas, and Calitas, Azarias, and Joazabdis, and Ananias, Biatas, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, making them withal to understand it.

49 || Then spake Attharates unto Esdras the chief priest and reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, saying,

50 This day is holy unto the Lord: (for they all wept when they heard the law.)

51 Go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send part to || them that have nothing;

52 For this day is holy unto the Lord: and be <sup>i</sup> not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honour.

53 So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, <sup>k</sup> This day is holy to the Lord; be not sorrowful.

54 Then went they their way, every one to <sup>l</sup> eat and drink, and make merry, and to give part to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer;

55 <sup>m</sup> Because they understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

II. ESDRAS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Esdras is commanded to reprove the people. 24 God threateneth to cast them off, 35 and to give their houses to a people of more grace than they.

2 The son of Achias, the son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Aziei, the son of Marimoth, the son of Arna, the son of Ozias, the son of Borith, the son of Abisei, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar,

4 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
5 Go thy way, and <sup>d</sup> shew my people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; <sup>e</sup> that they may tell their children's children:

6 Because the sins of their fathers are increased in them: for they have forgotten me, and have offered unto strange gods.

7 Am not I even he that brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage? but they have provoked me unto wrath, and despised my counsels.

f Isa. 1, 4.

8 Pull thou off then the hair of thy head, and cast all evil upon them, <sup>f</sup> for they have not been obedient unto my law, but it is a rebellious people.

9 <sup>g</sup> How long shall I forbear them unto whom I have done so much good?

10 Many kings have I destroyed for their sakes; <sup>h</sup> Pharaoh with his servants, and all his power have I smitten down.

11 <sup>i</sup> All the nations have I destroyed before them, and in the east I have scattered the people of two provinces, even of <sup>k</sup> Tyrus and Sidon, and have slain all their enemies.

12 Speak thou therefore unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord,

13 <sup>l</sup> I led you through the sea, and in the beginning gave you a large and safe || passage: <sup>m</sup> I gave you Moses for a leader, and Aaron for a priest.

14 <sup>n</sup> I gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; yet have ye forgotten me, saith the Lord.

15 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, The <sup>o</sup> quails were as a token to you; I gave you tents for your safeguard: nevertheless ye murmured there, 16 And triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do ye yet <sup>p</sup> murmur.

17 Where are the benefits that I have done for you? When ye were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, <sup>q</sup> did ye not cry unto me, 18 Saying, Why hast thou brought us into this wilderness to kill us? <sup>r</sup> It had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness.

19 Then had I pity upon your mournings, and gave you manna to eat: <sup>s</sup> so ye did eat angels' bread.

21 I divided among you a fruitful land, <sup>u</sup> I cast out the Canaanites, the Pherezites, and the Philistines, before you: <sup>x</sup> what shall I yet do more for you? saith the Lord.

22 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, When ye were in the wilderness, || in the river of the Amorites, being athirst, and blaspheming my name, 23 I gave you not fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet.

24 What shall I do unto thee, O Jacob? thou <sup>y</sup> Judah wouldest not obey me: <sup>z</sup> I will turn me to other nations, and unto those will I give my name, that they may keep my statutes.

25 Seeing ye have forsaken me, I will forsake you also; when ye desire me to be gracious unto you, I shall have no mercy upon you.

26 <sup>a</sup> Whensoever ye shall call upon me, I will not hear you: for ye have defiled your hands with blood, and your feet are swift to commit manslaughter.

27 Ye have not as it were forsaken me, <sup>b</sup> but your own selves, saith the Lord.

28 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Have I not prayed you as a father his sons, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, 29 That ye would be my people, || and I should be your God; that ye would be my children, and I should be your father?

30 <sup>c</sup> I gathered you together, as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings: but now, what shall I do unto you? <sup>d</sup> I will cast you out from my face.

31 <sup>e</sup> When ye offer unto me, I will turn my face from you: for your solemn feast-days, your new moons, and your circumcisions have I forsaken.

32 I sent unto you my servants the prophets, whom <sup>f</sup> ye have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, saith the Lord.

33 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Your house is desolate, <sup>g</sup> I will cast you out as the wind doth stubble.

34 And your children shall not be fruitful; for they have despised my commandment, and done the thing that is evil before me.

35 Your houses will I give to a people that shall come; <sup>h</sup> which not having heard of me, yet shall believe me: to whom I have shewed no signs, yet they shall do that I have commanded them.

36 They have seen no prophets, yet they shall call their sins to remembrance, and acknowledge them.

37 I take to witness the grace of the people to come, whose little ones rejoice in gladness: <sup>i</sup> and though they have not seen me with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they believe the thing that I say.

38 And now, brother, behold what glory; and see the people <sup>k</sup> that come from the east:

39 Unto whom I will give for leaders, <sup>l</sup> Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Oseas, Amos, and Micheas, Joel, Abdias, and Jonas.

40 Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggeus, Zachary, and Malachy, which is called also an angel of the Lord.

CHAPTER II.

1 God complaineth of his people: 10 yet Esdras is willed to comfort them. 34 Because they refused, the Gentiles are called. 43 Esdras seeth the Son of God, and those that are crowned by him.

THUS saith the Lord, <sup>a</sup> I brought this people out of bondage, and I gave them my commandments by my servants the prophets; whom they would not hear, but despised my counsels.

2 <sup>b</sup> The mother that bare them, saith unto them, Go your way, ye children; for I am a widow and forsaken.

3 I brought you up with gladness; but with sorrow and heaviness have I lost you: for ye have sinned before the Lord your God, and done that thing that is evil before him.

4 But what shall I now do unto you? <sup>c</sup> I am a widow and forsaken: go your way, O my children, and ask mercy of the Lord.

5 As for me, O father, I call upon thee for a witness over the mother of these children, which would not keep my covenant,

6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoil, that there may be no offspring of them.

7 <sup>d</sup> Let them be scattered abroad among the heathen, let their names be put out of the earth: for they have despised my || covenant.

8 Wo be unto thee, Assur, thou that hidest the unrighteous in thee! O thou wicked people, remember <sup>e</sup> what I did unto Sodom and Gomorrah;

9 Whose land lieth in clods of pitch and heaps of ashes: even so also will I do unto them that <sup>f</sup> hear me not, saith the Almighty Lord.

10 Thus saith the Lord unto Esdras, Tell my people, that I will give them the kingdom of Jerusalem, which I would have given unto Israel.

11 Their glory also will I take unto me, and give these the <sup>g</sup> everlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for them.

12 They shall have the <sup>h</sup> tree of life for an ointment of sweet savour; they shall neither labour, nor be weary.

13 Go, and ye shall receive: pray for few days unto you, that they may be shortened: <sup>i</sup> the kingdom is already prepared for you: <sup>k</sup> watch.

14 Take heaven and earth to witness; for I have broken the evil in pieces, and created the good: for I live, saith the Lord.

15 Mother, embrace thy children, and || bring them up with gladness, make their feet as fast as a pillar: for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord.

16 And those that be dead will I raise up again from their places, and bring them out of the graves: for I have known || my name in Israel.

17 Fear not, thou mother of the children: for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord.

18 For thy help will I send my servants, Esay and Jeremy, after whose counsel I have sanctified and prepared for thee <sup>l</sup> twelve trees laden with divers fruits, 19 And as many fountains flowing with milk and honey, <sup>m</sup> and seven mighty mountains, whereupon there grow <sup>n</sup> roses and lilies, whereby I will fill thy children with joy.

20 <sup>o</sup> Do right to the widow, judge for the fatherless, give to the poor, defend the orphan, clothe the naked,

CHAPTER III.

1 Esdras is troubled, 13 and acknowledgeth the sins of the people: 28 yet complaineth that the heathen were lords over them, being more wicked than they.

IN the thirtieth year after <sup>a</sup> the ruin of the city, I was <sup>a</sup> Jer. 52, 13, 14. in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart:

2 For I saw the <sup>b</sup> desolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon. <sup>b</sup> Lam. 1, 4, 6.

3 And <sup>c</sup> my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the Most High, and said, <sup>c</sup> Job 32, 8, 18.

4 O Lord, who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth (and that thyself alone) and commandedst the people,

5 <sup>d</sup> And gavest a body unto Adam without soul, <sup>d</sup> Gen. 2, 7. which was the workmanship of thine hands, and didst breathe into him the breath of life, <sup>e</sup> and he was made <sup>e</sup> 1 Cor. 15, 45. living before thee.

6 And <sup>f</sup> thou leddest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted, before ever the earth came forward. <sup>f</sup> Gen. 2, 8, 15.

7 And unto him thou gavest commandment to love thy way: which he transgressed, and immediately thou <sup>g</sup> appointedst death in him and in his generations, of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kindreds, out of number. <sup>g</sup> Gen. 2, 17.

8 <sup>h</sup> And every people walked after their own will, and did wonderful things before thee, and despised thy commandments. <sup>h</sup> Gen. 6, 12.

9 <sup>i</sup> And again in process of time thou broughtest <sup>i</sup> Gen. 7, 10. the flood upon those that dwelt in the world, <sup>k</sup> and destroyedst them. <sup>k</sup> Gen. 7, 21, 22, 23.

10 And it came to pass in every of them, that as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these.

12 And it happened that when they that dwelt upon the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, <sup>m</sup> they began again to be more ungodly than the first. <sup>m</sup> See Gen. 9, 21.

13 Now when they lived so wickedly before thee, <sup>n</sup> thou didst choose thee a man from among them, <sup>n</sup> Gen. 12, 1. whose name was <sup>o</sup> Abraham. <sup>o</sup> Gen. 17, 5.

14 Him thou lovedst, and unto him only thou shewedst thy will:

15 <sup>p</sup> And madest an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that thou wouldest never forsake his seed. <sup>p</sup> Gen. 17, 7.

18 And bowing the heavens, thou didst set fast the earth, movedst the whole world, and madest the depths to tremble, and troubledst the men of that age.

19 And thy glory went through four gates, of <sup>u</sup> fire, and of <sup>w</sup> earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that thou mightest give the law unto the seed of Jacob, || and diligence unto the generation of Israel.

20 And yet tookest thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them.

21 For the first Adam bearing a wicked heart, <sup>x</sup> transgressed, and was overcome; <sup>y</sup> and so be all they that are born of him.

22 Thus infirmity was made permanent; and the law (also) in the heart of the people with the malignity of the root; so that the good departed away, and the evil abode still.

23 So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: <sup>z</sup> then didst thou raise thee up a servant, called David:

24 <sup>a</sup> Whom thou commandedst to build a city unto thy name, and to offer incense and oblations unto thee therein.

25 When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city forsook thee,

26 And in all things did even as <sup>b</sup> Adam and all his generations had done: for they also had a wicked heart:

27 <sup>c</sup> And so thou gavest thy city over into the hands of thine enemies.

28 Are their deeds then any better that inhabit Babylon, that they should therefore have the dominion over Zion?

29 For when I came thither, and had seen impieties without number, then my soul saw many evil-doers in this thirtieth year, so that my heart failed me.

30 <sup>d</sup> For I have seen how thou sufferest them sinning, and hast spared wicked doers: <sup>e</sup> and hast destroyed thy people, and hast preserved thine enemies, and hast not signified it.

31 || I do not remember how this way may be left: Are they then of Babylon better than they of Zion?

32 <sup>f</sup> Or is there any other people that knoweth thee besides Israel? or what generation hath so believed thy covenants as Jacob?

33 And yet their reward appeareth not, <sup>g</sup> and their labour hath no fruit: for I have gone here and there through the heathen, and I see that they || flow in wealth, and think not upon thy commandments.

34 Weigh thou therefore our wickedness now in the balance, and theirs also that dwell in the world; and so shall thy name no where be found but in Israel.

35 Or when was it that they <sup>h</sup> which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what people hath so kept thy commandments?

36 Thou shalt find that <sup>i</sup> Israel by name hath kept thy precepts; but not the heathen.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The angel declareth the ignorance of Esdras in God's judgments, 13 and adviseth him not to meddle with things above his reach. 23 Nevertheless Esdras asketh divers questions, and receiveth answers to them.

AND the <sup>a</sup> angel that was sent unto me, whose name was Uriel, gave me an answer,

2 And said, Thy heart hath gone too far in this world, and <sup>b</sup> thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the Most High?

3 Then said I, Yea, my lord And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee three ways, and to set forth three similitudes before thee:

4 Whereof if thou canst declare me one, <sup>c</sup> I will shew thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart cometh

5 And I said, Tell on, my lord. Then said he unto me, Go thy way, weigh me the weight of the fire, or measure me the blast of the wind, or call me again the day that is past.

6 Then answered I and said, <sup>d</sup> What man is able to do that, that thou shouldest ask such things of me?

7 And he said unto me, If I should ask thee how great dwellings are in the <sup>e</sup> midst of the sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deep, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of paradise:

8 Peradventure thou wouldest say unto me, <sup>f</sup> I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell; neither did I ever climb up into heaven.

9 Nevertheless now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day wherethrough thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated, <sup>g</sup> and yet canst thou give me no answer of them.

10 He said moreover unto me, Thine own things, and such as are grown up with thee, canst thou not know;

11 How should thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the <sup>h</sup> Highest, and the world being now outwardly corrupted, to understand the || corruption that is evident in my sight?

12 Then said I unto him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we should live still in wickedness, and to suffer, <sup>i</sup> and not to know wherefore.

13 He answered me, and said, I went into a forest into a plain, <sup>k</sup> and the trees took counsel, 14 And said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods.

15 The floods of the sea also in like manner took counsel, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the woods of the plain, that there also we may make us another country.

16 The thought of the wood was in <sup>l</sup> vain, for the fire came and consumed it.

17 The thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to nought, <sup>m</sup> for the sand stood up and stopped them.

18 If thou wert judge now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou begin to justify? or whom wouldest thou condemn?

19 I answered and said, Verily it is a foolish thought that they both have devised, for || the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to bear his || floods.

20 Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgment, <sup>n</sup> but why judgest thou not thyself also?

21 For like as || the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his floods: even so they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth; <sup>o</sup> and he that dwelleth above the heavens may only understand the things that are above the height of the heavens.

22 Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, <sup>p</sup> let me have understanding:

23 For it was <sup>q</sup> not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as pass by us daily, namely, wherefore Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loved is given over unto ungodly nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written <sup>r</sup> covenants come || to none effect, 24 And we pass away out of the world, <sup>s</sup> as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment and fear, and we are not worthy to obtain mercy.

25 What will he then do unto his name whereby we are called? of these things have I asked.

26 Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvel; <sup>t</sup> for the world hasteth fast to pass away, 27 And <sup>u</sup> cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: <sup>x</sup> for this world is full of unrighteousness and infirmities.

28 But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee; for the evil is sown, but the destruction thereof is not yet come.

29 If therefore that which is sown be not turned upside down, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, then cannot it come that is sown with good.

30 <sup>y</sup> For the grain of evil seed hath been sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much ungodliness hath it brought up unto this time? and how much shall it yet bring forth until the || time of threshing come?

31 Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness <sup>z</sup> the grain of evil seed hath brought forth.

32 And when the ears shall be cut down, which are without number, how great a floor shall they fill?

33 Then I answered and said, How, and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years <sup>a</sup> few and evil?

34 And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten above the Most <sup>b</sup> High: for thy haste is in vain to be above him; for thou hast much exceeded.

35 Did not the souls also of the righteous ask question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the floor of our reward?

36 And unto these things || Uriel the archangel gave them answer, and said, Even when the number of seeds is filled in you: for he hath weighed the world in the balance.

37 By measure hath he measured <sup>c</sup> the times, and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doth not move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled.

38 Then answered I and said, O Lord that bearest rule, even we all are full of impiety.

39 <sup>d</sup> And for our sakes peradventure it is that the floors of the righteous are not filled, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth.

40 So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, <sup>e</sup> if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her.

41 Then said I, No, Lord, that can she not. And he said unto me, In the grave the chambers of souls are like the womb of a woman:

42 For like as a woman that travaileth maketh haste to escape the necessity of the travail: <sup>f</sup> even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them.

43 From the beginning, look, what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee.

44 Then answered I and said, <sup>g</sup> If I have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, <sup>g</sup> See verse 23.

45 Shew me then whether there be more to come than is past, or more past than is to come.

46 What is past I know, <sup>h</sup> but what is for to come I know not. <sup>h</sup> Deut. 29, 29.

47 And he said unto me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude unto thee.

48 So I stood, and saw, and behold, an hot <sup>i</sup> burning oven passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by I looked, and behold, the smoke remained still. <sup>i</sup> See chap. 3, 19.

49 After this there passed by before me a <sup>k</sup> watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained still. <sup>k</sup> See Ps 147, 8.

50 Then said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke; but the drops and the smoke remain behind: so the || quantity which is past did more exceed. || Or, measure.

51 Then I prayed, and said, 'May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or || what shall happen in those days?' <sup>l</sup> Mat. 24, 36.

52 He answered me, and said, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; <sup>m</sup> for I do not know it. || Or, who shall be? Manuscript. <sup>m</sup> Gen. 27, 2.

CHAPTER V.

<sup>1</sup> The signs of the times to come. <sup>23</sup> He asketh why God choosing but one people, did cast them off. <sup>30</sup> He is taught that God's judgments are unsearchable, 46 and that God doeth not all at once.

NEVERTHELESS as concerning the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth || shall be taken in a great number, <sup>a</sup> and the way of truth shall be hidden, and the land shall be barren of faith. || Or, shall be found with great wealth.

2 But <sup>b</sup> iniquity shall be increased above that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long ago. <sup>a 2</sup> Tim. 3, 1, 5.

3 And the land, || that thou seest now to have root, shalt thou see wasted suddenly. <sup>b</sup> Mat. 24, 12.

4 But if the Most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see after the third trumpet, <sup>c</sup> that the sun shall suddenly shine again in the night, and the moon thrice in the day: || Or, that thou treadest upon and seest. <sup>c</sup> Isa. 30, 26. & 60, 19, 20. <sup>z</sup>ech. 14, 7.

5 And blood shall drop out of the wood, and the <sup>d</sup> stone shall give his voice, and the people shall be troubled: <sup>d</sup> See Hab 2, 11. <sup>z</sup> Luke 19, 40.

6 And even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the earth, and the fowls shall take their flight away together.

7 And the Sodomitish sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but they shall all hear the voice thereof.

8 There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft || sent out again, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and menstuous women shall bring forth monsters: || Or, staked.

9 And salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and <sup>e</sup> all friends shall destroy one another; then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into his secret chamber. <sup>e</sup> Jer. 9, 4. <sup>z</sup> Micah 7, 5.

10 And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found: then shall unrighteousness and <sup>f</sup> incontinency be multiplied upon earth. <sup>f 2</sup> Tim. 3, 3.

11 One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? and it shall say, No.

12 At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obtain: <sup>g</sup> they shall labour, but their ways shall not prosper.

13 To shew thee such tokens I have leave; and if thou wilt pray again, and weep as now, and fast seven days, thou shalt hear yet greater things.

14 Then I awaked, <sup>h</sup> and an extreme fearfulness went through all my body, and my mind was troubled, so that it fainted.

15 So the angel <sup>i</sup> that was come to talk with me, held me, comforted me, and set me up upon my feet.

16 And in the second night it came to pass, that Salathiel the captain of the people came unto me, saying, Where hast thou been? <sup>k</sup> and why is thy countenance so heavy?

17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed unto thee in the land of their captivity?

18 Up then, and <sup>l</sup> eat bread, and forsake us not, as the shepherd that leaveth his flock in the hands of cruel wolves.

19 Then said I unto him, Go thy ways from me, and come not nigh me. And he heard what I said, and went from me.

20 And so I fasted seven days, mourning and weeping, like as <sup>m</sup> Uriel the angel commanded me.

21 And after seven days so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous unto me again,

22 And my soul recovered the spirit of understanding, and I began to talk with the Most High again,

23 And said, O Lord that bearest rule, of every wood of <sup>n</sup> the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee <sup>o</sup> one only vine:

24 And of all lands of the whole world thou hast chosen thee one pit: and of all the flowers thereof one lily:

25 And of all the depths of the sea thou hast filled thee one river: and of all builded cities thou hast hallowed <sup>p</sup> Sion unto thyself:

26 And of all the fowls that are created thou hast named thee one dove: and of all the cattle that are made thou hast provided thee one sheep:

27 And among all the multitude of peoples thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all.

28 And now, O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over unto many? and <sup>q</sup> upon the one root hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy only one people among many?

29 And they which did gainsay thy promises, and believed not thy covenants, <sup>r</sup> have trodden them down.

30 If thou didst so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punish them with thine own hands.

31 Now when I had spoken these words, <sup>s</sup> the angel that came to me the night afore was sent unto me, 32 And said unto me, Hear me, and I will instruct thee; hearken to the thing that I say, and I shall tell thee more.

33 And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, Thou art sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake: <sup>t</sup> lovest thou that people better than he that made them?

34 And I said, No, Lord: but of very grief have I spoken: for my reins pain me every hour, while I labour to comprehend the way of the Most High, and to seek out part of his judgment.

35 And he said unto me, <sup>u</sup> Thou canst not. And I <sup>t</sup> Job 11, 7 said, Wherefore, Lord? whereunto was I born then? or why was not my mother's womb then my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of Jacob, and the wearisome toil of the stock of Israel?

36 And he said unto me, <sup>v</sup> Number me the things that are not yet come, gather me together the drops that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers green again that are withered, 37 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut up, shew me the image of a voice: and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to know.

38 And I said, <sup>x</sup> O Lord that bearest rule, who may know these things, <sup>y</sup> but he that hath not his dwelling with men?

39 As for me, I am <sup>z</sup> unwise: how may I then speak of these things whereof thou askest me?

40 Then said he unto me, Like as thou canst do none of these things that I have spoken of, even so <sup>a</sup> canst thou not find out my judgment, or in the end the love that I have promised unto my people.

41 And I said, Behold, O Lord, yet art thou <sup>b</sup> nigh unto them that be reserved till the end: and what shall they do that have been before me, or we that be now, or they that shall come after us?

42 And he said unto me, I will liken my judgment unto a ring: like as there is no slackness of the last, even so there is no swiftness of the first.

43 So I answered and said, <sup>c</sup> Coudest thou not make those that have been made, and be now, and that are for to come, at once; that thou mightest shew thy judgment the sooner?

44 Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not haste above the maker; neither may the world hold them at once that shall be created therein.

45 And I said, As thou hast said unto thy servant, that thou which <sup>d</sup> givest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: even so it might now also bear them that now be present at once.

46 And he said unto me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say unto her, If thou bringest forth children, why dost thou it not together, but one after another? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

47 And I said, She cannot: but must do it by distance of time.

48 Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to <sup>e</sup> those that be sown in it in their times.

49 For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, even so have I disposed the world which I created.

50 And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee: for <sup>f</sup> our mother, of whom thou hast told me that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age.

51 He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee.

52 Say unto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou hast now brought forth, like those that were before, <sup>g</sup> but less of stature?

53 And she shall answer thee, They that be born in the <sup>h</sup> strength of youth are of one fashion, and they 54 Consider thou therefore also, how that ye are less of stature than those that were before you.

55 And so are they that come after you less than ye, as the creatures which now <sup>i</sup> begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth.

56 Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, if I have found favour in thy sight, shew thy servant by whom thou visitest thy creature.

CHAPTER VI.

1 God's purpose is eternal. 8 The next world shall follow this immediately. 13 What shall fall out at the last. 31 He is promised more knowledge, 38 and reckoneth up the works of the creation, 57 and complaineth that they have no part in the world for whom it was made.

AND he said unto me, <sup>a</sup> In the beginning, when the || earth was made, before the borders of the world stood, or ever the winds blew,

2 Before it thundered and <sup>b</sup> lightened, or ever the foundations of paradise were laid,

3 Before the fair <sup>c</sup> flowers were seen, or ever the moveable powers were established, before the innumerable <sup>d</sup> multitude of angels were gathered together,

4 Or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before the measures of <sup>e</sup> the firmament were named, or ever the chimneys in Sion were hot,

5 And ere the present years were sought out, and or ever the <sup>f</sup> inventions of them that now sin were turned, before they were <sup>g</sup> sealed that have gathered faith for a treasure :

6 Then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other : <sup>h</sup> by me also they shall be ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I and said, What shall be the parting asunder of the times : or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth ?

8 And he said unto me, From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of him, <sup>i</sup> Jacob's hand held || first the heel of Esau.

9 For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth.

10 The hand of man is betwixt the heel and the hand : <sup>k</sup> other question, Esdras, ask thou not.

11 ¶ I answered then and said, <sup>l</sup> O Lord that bearest rule, if I have found favour in thy sight, 12 I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst me part the last night.

13 So he answered and said unto me, Stand up upon thy feet, and hear a mighty sounding voice.

14 And it shall be as it were a great || motion ; but the place where thou standest shall not be moved.

15 And therefore when it speaketh be not afraid : for the word is of the <sup>m</sup> end, and the foundation of the earth is understood.

16 And why ? because the speech of these things trembleth and is moved : for it knoweth that the end of these things must be <sup>n</sup> changed.

17 And it happened that when I had heard it I stood up upon my feet, and hearkened, and behold, there was a voice that spake, and the sound of it was <sup>o</sup> like the sound of many waters.

18 And it said, Behold, the days come, that I will begin to draw nigh, and to <sup>p</sup> visit them that dwell upon the earth,

19 And will begin to make <sup>q</sup> inquisition of them, what they be that have hurt unjustly with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Sion shall be fulfilled ;

20 And when the world, that shall begin to vanish away, shall be || finished, then will I shew these tokens : <sup>r</sup> the books shall be opened before the firmament, and they shall see all together.

21 And the children of a year old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth <sup>s</sup> untimely children of three or four months old, and they shall live, and be raised up.

22 And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty :

23 <sup>t</sup> And the trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man heareth, <sup>u</sup> they shall be suddenly afraid.

24 At that time shall <sup>x</sup> friends fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the fountains shall stand still, and in three hours they shall not run.

25 Whosoever remaineth from all these that I have told thee shall escape, and see my salvation, and the end of your world.

26 And the men that are received shall see it, who have not tasted death from their birth : and the heart of the inhabitant shall be <sup>y</sup> changed, and turned into another meaning.

27 For evil shall be put out, and deceit shall be quenched.

28 As for faith it shall flourish, <sup>z</sup> corruption shall be overcome, and the truth which hath been so long without fruit shall be declared.

29 And when he talked with me, behold, I looked by little and little upon him before whom I stood.

30 And these words said he unto me ; I am come to shew thee the <sup>a</sup> time of the night to come.

31 If thou wilt pray yet more, and fast seven days again, I shall tell thee greater things || by day than I have heard.

32 For thy voice is heard before the Most High : for the Mighty hath seen thy righteous dealing, he hath seen also thy chastity, which thou hast had ever since thy youth.

33 And therefore hath he sent me <sup>b</sup> to shew thee all these things, and to say unto thee, <sup>c</sup> Be of good comfort, and fear not.

34 And hasten not with the times that are past, to think vain things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times.

35 And it came to pass after this, that I wept again, <sup>d</sup> and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfil the three weeks which he told me.

36 And in the eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the Most High.

37 <sup>e</sup> For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress.

38 And I said, O Lord, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, even the first day, and saidst thus, <sup>f</sup> Let heaven and earth be made ; and <sup>g</sup> thy word was a perfect work.

39 And then was the spirit, and darkness and silence were on every side ; <sup>h</sup> the sound of man's voice was not yet formed.

40 Then commandedst thou a fair <sup>i</sup> light to come forth of thy treasures, that thy work might appear.

41 Upon the second day thou madest the spirit of 43 For as soon as thy word went forth, the work was made.

<sup>n</sup> Gen. 1, 11, 12. 44 For immediately there was <sup>n</sup> great and innumerable fruit, and many and diverse pleasures for the taste, and flowers of unchangeable colour, and odours of wonderful smell : and this was done the third day.

<sup>n</sup> Gen. 1, 14. 45 <sup>o</sup> Upon the fourth day thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and the stars should be in order :

<sup>q</sup> Gen. 1, 20. 47 Upon the fifth day thou saidst unto the seventh part, <sup>q</sup> where the waters were gathered, that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes : and so it came to pass.

<sup>x</sup> Gen. 1, 21. 53 <sup>x</sup> Upon the sixth day thou gavest commandment unto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, cattle, and creeping things ;

<sup>y</sup> Gen. 1, 26, 27. z Ps. 8, 4, 8. 54 And after these, <sup>y</sup> Adam also, whom thou madest <sup>z</sup> lord of all thy creatures : of him come we all, and the people also whom thou hast chosen.

55 All this have I spoken before thee, O Lord, because thou madest the world for our sakes.

56 As for the other people which also come of Adam, thou hast said that they are nothing, but be like unto spittle : and hast likened the abundance of them unto <sup>a</sup> a drop that falleth from a vessel.

<sup>a</sup> Isa. 40, 15. 57 And now, O Lord, behold, these heathen, which have ever been reputed as nothing, have begun to be lords over us, and to devour us.

<sup>c</sup> Ps. 66, 11, 12. & 70, 2, 3. 59 If the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess an inheritance with the world ? how long shall this endure ?

CHAPTER VII.

4 The way is narrow. 12 When it was made narrow. 28 All shall die, and rise again. 33 Christ shall sit in judgment. 46 God hath not made paradise in vain : 62 He is merciful.

<sup>a</sup> See chap. 4, 1. AND when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent unto me the <sup>a</sup> angel which had been sent unto me the nights afore :

2 And he said unto me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I said, <sup>b</sup> Speak on, my God. Then said he unto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deep and <sup>c</sup> great. <sup>b</sup> 1 Sam. 3, 9. <sup>c</sup> Ps. 104, 25.

4 But put the case the entrance were narrow, and like a river :

5 Who then could go into the sea to lock upon it, and to rule it ? if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad ?

6 There is also another thing ; A city is builded, and set upon a broad field, <sup>d</sup> and is full of all good things : <sup>d</sup> Ps. 46, 4

7 The entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a || dangerous place to fall, like as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water : || Or, steep place.

8 And <sup>e</sup> one only path between them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once. <sup>e</sup> See Mat. 7, 13, 14.

9 If this city now were given unto a man for an inheritance, if he never shall pass the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance ?

10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he unto me, <sup>f</sup> Even so also is Israel's portion. <sup>f</sup> See John 16, 33.

11 Because for their sakes I made the world : and when Adam <sup>g</sup> transgressed my statute, then was decreed that now is done. <sup>g</sup> Gen. 3, 6

12 Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, <sup>h</sup> full of sorrow and travail : they are but few and evil, full of perils, and very painful. <sup>h</sup> Gen. 3, 16, 17, 18, 19.

13 For the entrances of the || elder world were wide and sure, and brought immortal fruit. || Or, greater.

14 If then they that live labour not to enter these strait and vain things, <sup>i</sup> they can never receive those that are laid up for them. <sup>i</sup> Acts 14, 22.

15 Now therefore why disquietest thou thyself, seeing thou art but a corruptible man ? and why art thou moved, <sup>k</sup> whereas thou art but mortal ? <sup>k</sup> 2 Cor. 4, 17.

16 Why hast thou not considered in thy mind this thing that is to come, rather than that which is present ?

17 Then answered I, and said, O Lord that bearest rule, thou hast ordained in thy <sup>l</sup> law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the ungodly should perish. <sup>l</sup> Deut. 8, 1.

18 Nevertheless, <sup>m</sup> the righteous shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide ; for they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide. <sup>m</sup> Ps. 34, 19.

19 And he said unto me, <sup>n</sup> There is no judge above God, and none that hath understanding above the Highest. <sup>n</sup> Ps. 50, 6 & 75, 7.

20 For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the law of God that is set before them.

21 For God hath given strait commandment to such as came, <sup>o</sup> what they should do to live, even as they came, and what they should observe to avoid punishment. <sup>o</sup> Deut. 30, 19.

22 Nevertheless, they were not obedient unto him ; but spake against him, and imagined vain things, 23 And deceived themselves by their wicked deeds ; and said of the Most High, <sup>p</sup> that he is not ; <sup>q</sup> and knew not his ways : <sup>p</sup> Ps. 14, 1. <sup>q</sup> Isa. 1, 3.

24 But his law have they despised, and denied his covenant ; in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not performed his works.

25 And therefore, Esdras, <sup>r</sup> for the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things <sup>r</sup> Mat. 13, 12.

26 Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I have told thee shall come to pass, and the <sup>s</sup> bride shall appear, and she coming forth shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the earth.

27 And whosoever is delivered from the aforesaid evils shall see my wonders.

28 For my son Jesus <sup>t</sup> shall be revealed with those that be with him, and they that remain shall rejoice within four hundred years.

29 And these years shall my son Christ <sup>u</sup> die, and all men that have life.

30 And the world shall be turned into the old silence seven days, like as in the || former judgments: so that no man shall remain.

31 And after seven days, the world, that yet awaketh not, shall be raised up, and that shall die that is corrupt.

32 And the earth shall * restore those that are asleep in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell in silence, and the secret places shall deliver those souls that were committed unto them.

33 And the Most High shall appear upon the <sup>y</sup> seat of judgment, and misery shall pass away, and the long-suffering shall have an end.

34 But judgment only shall remain, truth shall stand, and faith shall wax strong:

35 And <sup>z</sup> the work shall follow, and the reward shall be shewed, <sup>a</sup> and the good deeds shall be of force, and wicked deeds shall bear no rule.

36 Then said I, <sup>b</sup> Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and <sup>c</sup> Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness:

37 And Jesus after him for Israel in the time of || Achan:

38 And Samuel and <sup>d</sup> David for the destruction: and <sup>e</sup> Solomon for them that should come to the sanctuary:

39 And <sup>f</sup> Helias for those that received rain; and for the dead, that he might live:

40 And <sup>g</sup> Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib: and many for many.

41 Even so now, seeing corruption is grown up, and wickedness increased, and the righteous have prayed for the ungodly: <sup>h</sup> wherefore shall it not be so now also?

42 He answered me, and said, This present life is not the end where much glory doth abide; therefore have they prayed for the weak.

43 But the <sup>i</sup> day of doom shall be the end of this time, and the beginning of the immortality for to come, wherein corruption is past, 44 Intemperance is at an end, infidelity is cut off, righteousness is grown, and truth is sprung up.

45 <sup>k</sup> Then shall no man be able to save him that is destroyed, nor to oppress him that hath gotten the victory.

46 I answered then and said, <sup>l</sup> This is my first and last saying, that it had been better not to have given the earth unto Adam: or else, when it was given him, to have restrained him from sinning.

47 For what profit is it for men now in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment?

48 O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for though it was <sup>m</sup> thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee.

49 <sup>n</sup> For what profit is it unto us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done the works that bring death?

50 And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves being most wicked are made vain?

51 <sup>o</sup> And that there are laid up for us dwellings of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly? <sup>o</sup> See Isa. 3, 10, 11.

52 And that the glory of the Most High is kept to defend them which have led || a wary life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all? || Or, <sup>a</sup> chaste life

53 And that there should be shewed a paradise, whose fruit endureth for ever, <sup>p</sup> wherein is || security and medicine, since we shall not enter into it? <sup>p</sup> Rev. 22, 1, 2, 3. || Or, <sup>ful</sup> uses.

54 (For we have walked in unpleasant places.)

55 And that the faces of them which have used abstinence shall <sup>q</sup> shine above the stars, whereas our faces shall be <sup>r</sup> blacker than darkness? <sup>q</sup> Daniel 12, 3. <sup>r</sup> Jude 13.

56 For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death.

57 Then answered he me, and said, This is the || condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight; || Or, <sup>intent</sup>

58 That, if he be overcome, he shall suffer as thou hast said: <sup>s</sup> but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say. <sup>s</sup> Rev. 3, 21.

59 For this is the life whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, <sup>t</sup> Choose thee life, that thou mayest live. <sup>t</sup> Deut. 30, 19.

60 Nevertheless, <sup>u</sup> they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no, nor me which have spoken unto them, <sup>u</sup> Heb. 3, 18, 19.

61 That there should not be such heaviness in their destruction, <sup>x</sup> as shall be joy over them that are persuaded to salvation. <sup>x</sup> Luke 15, 7.

62 I answered then, and said, I know, Lord, that the Most High <sup>y</sup> is called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world, <sup>y</sup> Ex. 34, 6.

63 And upon those also that turn to his law;

64 And that <sup>z</sup> he is patient, and long suffereth those that have sinned, as his creatures; <sup>z</sup> Rom. 2, 4. <sup>2</sup> Peter 3, 9.

65 And that he is bountiful, for he is ready to give where it needeth;

66 And that he is of great mercy, <sup>a</sup> for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come. <sup>a</sup> Ps. 130, 7.

67 For <sup>b</sup> if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not continue with them that inherit therein. <sup>b</sup> Lam. 3, 22.

68 <sup>c</sup> And he pardoneth; for if he did not so of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousandth part of men should not remain living. <sup>c</sup> Mic. 7, 18.

70 There should be very few left peradventure in an innumerable multitude. || Or, <sup>con</sup> tempts

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Many created, but few saved. 6 He asketh why God destroyeth his own work, 26 and prayeth God to look upon the people which only serve him. 41 God answereth, that all seed cometh not to good, 52 and that glory is prepared for him, and such like.

AND he answered me, saying, The Most High hath made this world for many, but the world to come for <sup>a</sup> few.

2 I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras; As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it

4 So answered I and said, Swallow then down, O my soul, understanding, and devour wisdom.

5 For thou hast agreed to give ear, and art willing to prophesy: for thou hast no longer space than <sup>d</sup> only to live.

<sup>d</sup> Eccl. 3, 2. 6 O Lord, if thou suffer not thy servant, that we may pray before thee, and || thou give us seed unto our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it; how shall each man live that is corrupt, who beareth the place of a man?

<sup>e</sup> 1 Cor. 8, 6. 7 For thou art <sup>e</sup> alone, <sup>f</sup> and we all one workmanship of thine hands, like as thou hast said.

9 But that which keepeth and is kept shall both be preserved: and when the time cometh, the womb preserved delivereth up the things that <sup>h</sup> grew in it.

10 For thou hast commanded out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milk to be given, which is the fruit of the breasts.

11 That the thing which is fashioned may be <sup>i</sup> nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy.

<sup>i</sup> Ps. 22, 9, 10. & 71, 6. 12 Thou broughtest it up with thy righteousness, and nurturedst it in thy law, and reformedst it with thy judgment.

13 And thou shalt mortify it as thy creature, and quicken it as thy work.

<sup>k</sup> Job 10, 8. 14 If therefore thou shalt destroy him which with so great <sup>k</sup> labour was fashioned, it is an easy thing to be ordained by thy commandment, that the thing which was made might be preserved.

15 Now therefore, Lord, I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best; but touching <sup>l</sup> thy people, for whose sake I am sorry;

<sup>l</sup> Isa. 63, 4. 16 And for thine <sup>m</sup> inheritance, for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and for Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled;

<sup>n</sup> See Isa. 37, 4. 17 Therefore will I begin to <sup>n</sup> pray before thee for myself and for them: for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land.

18 But I have heard the swiftness of the judge which is to come.

<sup>o</sup> See Ezra 9, 5, 15. 19 Therefore hear my voice, and understand my words, and I shall speak before thee. This is the beginning of the words of <sup>o</sup> Esdras, before he was taken up: and I said, 20 O Lord, thou that dwellest in everlastingness, which beholdest from above things in the heaven and in the air;

23 Whose look drieth up the depths, and indignation maketh the mountains to melt away; which the truth witnesseth:

24 O hear the prayer of thy <sup>r</sup> servant, and give ear <sup>r</sup> Ps. 116, 16. to the petition of thy creature.

25 For while I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer.

26 O <sup>s</sup> look not upon the sins of thy people; but <sup>s</sup> Num. 23, 21. on them which serve thee in truth.

27 Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen, but the desire of those that keep thy testimonies in afflictions.

28 Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee: but <sup>t</sup> remember them, which according to thy will have known thy fear. <sup>t</sup> Neh. 13, 31.

29 Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy law.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed <sup>u</sup> worse than beasts; but love them that always put their trust in thy righteousness and glory. <sup>u</sup> Prov. 6, 6. 11. Isa. 1, 3.

31 For we and our fathers || do languish of such diseases: but because of us sinners thou shalt be called merciful. <sup>v</sup> Or, we sick, Ps. 106, 6.

32 For if thou || hast a desire to have mercy upon us, thou shalt be called merciful, to us namely, <sup>x</sup> that have no works of righteousness. <sup>x</sup> Tit. 3, 5.

33 For the just, which have many good works laid up with thee, shall out of their own deeds receive reward.

34 For what is man, that thou shouldest take <sup>y</sup> displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldest be so bitter towards it? <sup>y</sup> Ps. 6, 1. & 38, 1.

35 <sup>a</sup> For in truth there is no man among them that be born, but he hath dealt wickedly; and among the faithful there is none which hath not done amiss. <sup>a</sup> 1 Kings 8, 46. 2 Chron. 6, 36.

36 For in this, O Lord, thy <sup>b</sup> righteousness and thy goodness shall be declared, if thou be merciful unto them which have not the || confidence of good works. <sup>b</sup> Rom. 3, 26.

37 Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according unto thy words it shall be. <sup>c</sup> Or, substance.

38 For indeed I will not think on the disposition of them which have sinned <sup>c</sup> before death, before judgment, before destruction: <sup>c</sup> James 1, 14, 15.

39 But <sup>d</sup> I will rejoice over the disposition of the righteous, and I will remember also their <sup>e</sup> pilgrimage, and the salvation, and the <sup>f</sup> reward, that they shall have. <sup>d</sup> Gen. 4, 4. <sup>e</sup> Gen. 47, 9. <sup>f</sup> Ps. 19, 11.

40 Like as I have spoken now, so shall it come to pass.

41 For as the husbandman soweth much seed upon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sown good in his season cometh not up, neither doth all that is planted take root: <sup>g</sup> even so is it of them that are sown in the world; they shall not all be saved. <sup>g</sup> Mat. 13, 37, 43.

42 I answered then and said, If I have found grace, let me speak.

43 Like as the husbandman's seed perisheth, if it come not up, and receive not thy rain in due season: or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it:

44 <sup>h</sup> Even so perisheth man also, which is formed with thy hands, and is called <sup>i</sup> thine own image, because thou art like unto him, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him unto the husbandman's seed. <sup>h</sup> See Heb. 6, 7, 8. <sup>i</sup> Gen. 9, 6.

46 Then answered he me, and <sup>d</sup> said, Things present are for the present, and things to come for such as be to come.

<sup>m</sup> Rom. 5, 7, 8. 47 For thou <sup>m</sup> comest far short that thou shouldst be able to love my creature more than I: but I have oft-times drawn nigh unto thee, and unto it, but never to the unrighteous.

48 In this also thou art marvellous before the Most High:

51 But understand thou for thyself, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee.

<sup>p</sup> Isa. 22, 22. 52 For unto you is paradise <sup>p</sup> opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plenteousness is made ready, a city is builded, and rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodness and wisdom.

53 The root of evil is sealed up from you, weakness and the moth is hid from you, and corruption is fled into || hell to be forgotten;

55 And therefore ask thou no more <sup>r</sup> questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.

56 For when they had taken liberty, they despised the Most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways.

<sup>s</sup> Ps. 14, 1. & 53, 1. 57 Moreover they have trodden down his righteous, 58 And <sup>s</sup> said in their heart, that there is no God; yea, and that knowing they must die.

59 For as the things aforesaid shall receive you, so thirst and pain are prepared for them: for it was not his will <sup>t</sup> that men should come to nought

<sup>t</sup> Pict. 16, 4. 60 But they which be created have defiled the name of him that made them, and were unthankful unto him which prepared life for them.

62 These things have I not shewed unto all men, but unto thee, and a few like thee. Then answered I and said, 63 Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders, which thou wilt begin to do in the last times: <sup>x</sup> but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

CHAPTER IX.

7 Who shall be saved, and who not. 19 All the world is now corrupted; 22 yet God doth save a few. 33 He complaineth that those perish which keep God's law; 38 and seeth a woman lamenting in a field.

HE answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in itself; and when thou <sup>a</sup> seest part of the signs past, which I have told thee before,

2 Then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made.

<sup>c</sup> Jude 14. 4 Then shalt thou well understand, that the Most High spake of those things <sup>c</sup> from the days that were before thee, even from the beginning.

5 For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest:

<sup>d</sup> Isa. 46, 9, 10. 6 <sup>d</sup> Even so the times also of the Highest have plain beginnings in wonders and powerful works, and endings in effects and signs.

7 And every one that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape by his works, and by faith, whereby ye have believed,

8 Shall be <sup>e</sup> preserved from the said perils, and shall see my salvation in my land, and within my borders: for I have sanctified them for me from the beginning.

9 Then || shall they be in pitiful case, which now have abused my ways: and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell <sup>f</sup> in torments.

10 For such as in their life have received benefits, and have not known me;

11 And they that have loathed my law, while they had yet liberty, and when as yet place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised it;

12 <sup>g</sup> The same must know it after death by pain.

13 And therefore be thou not curious how the ungodly shall be punished, and when: <sup>h</sup> but inquire how the righteous shall be saved, whose the world is, and for whom the world is created.

14 Then answered I, and said,

15 I have said before, and now do speak, and will speak it also hereafter, <sup>i</sup> that there be many more of them which perish, than of them which shall be saved:

16 Like as a wave is greater than a drop.

17 And he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seed; as the flowers be, such are the colours also; such as the workman is, such also is the work; and as the husbandman is himself, so is his husbandry also: for it was the time of the world.

18 <sup>k</sup> || And now when I prepared the world which was not yet made, even for them to dwell in that now live, no man spake against me.

19 For then every one obeyed: || but now the manners of them which are created in this world that is made are corrupted by a perpetual seed, and by a law which is unsearchable rid themselves.

20 So I considered the world, and behold, there was peril because of the devices that were come into it.

21 And I saw, and spared it greatly, and have kept me a || grape of the cluster, and a plant of a great people.

22 Let the multitude perish then, which was born in vain; and let my || grape be kept, and my plant; for with great labour have I made it perfect.

23 Nevertheless, if thou wilt cease yet seven days more (but thou shalt not fast in them, 24 But go into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and eat only the flowers of the field; taste no flesh, drink no wine, but eat flowers only;)

25 And pray unto the <sup>l</sup> Highest continually, then will I come and talk with thee.

26 So I went my way into the field which is called Ardath, <sup>m</sup> like as he commanded me; and there I sat among the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me.

27 After seven days I sat upon the grass, and my heart was vexed within me, <sup>n</sup> like as before:

28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talk before the Most High, and said, 29 O Lord, thou that shewest thyself unto us, thou wast <sup>o</sup> shewed unto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man || treadeth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt.

30 And thou spakest, saying, <sup>p</sup> Hear me, O Israel; and mark my words, thou seed of Jacob.

31 For behold, I sow my law in you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and ye shall be honoured in it for ever.

32 But our fathers, which received the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances: and though the fruit of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine;

33 Yet they that received it <sup>q</sup> perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them.

34 And lo, it is a custom, when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was sown or cast into,

35 That thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with us: but with us it hath not happened so.

36 For we that have received the law <sup>r</sup> perish by sin, and our heart also which receiveth it.

37 Notwithstanding, <sup>s</sup> the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

38 And when I spake these things <sup>t</sup> in my heart, I looked back with mine eyes, and upon the right side I saw a <sup>u</sup> woman, and behold, she mourned and wept with a loud voice, and was much grieved in heart, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes upon her head.

39 Then let I my thoughts go that I was in, and turned me unto her, 40 And said unto her, <sup>x</sup> Wherefore weepest thou? why art thou so grieved in thy mind?

41 And she said unto me, Sir, let me alone, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I am sore vexed in my mind, and brought very low.

42 And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell me.

43 She said unto me, I thy servant have been barren, and had no child, though I had an husband thirty years.

44 And those thirty years I did nothing else <sup>y</sup> day and night, and every hour, but make my prayer to the Highest.

45 After thirty years God heard me, thine handmaid, looked upon my misery, considered my trouble, <sup>z</sup> and gave me a son: and I was very <sup>a</sup> glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbours: and we gave great honour unto the Almighty.

46 And I nourished him with great travail.

47 So when he grew up, and came to the time that he should have a wife, <sup>b</sup> I made a feast.

CHAPTER X.

6 He comforteth the woman in the field. 27 She vanisheth away, and a city appeareth in her place. 40 The angel declareth these visions in the field.

AND it so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his wedding <sup>a</sup> chamber, he fell down, and died.

2 Then we all overthrew the lights, and all my neighbours rose up to comfort me: so I took my rest unto the second day at night.

3 And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, to the end I might be quiet; then rose I up by night, and fled, and came hither into this field, as thou seest.

4 And I do now purpose not to return into the city, but here to stay, <sup>b</sup> and neither to eat nor drink, but continually to mourn and to fast until I die.

5 Then left I the <sup>c</sup> meditations wherein I was, and spake to her in anger, saying,

6 Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what happeneth unto us?

7 How that Sion <sup>c</sup> our mother is full of all heaviness, and much humbled, mourning very sore? c Gal. 4, 26.

8 And now, seeing we all mourn and are <sup>d</sup> sad, for we are all in heaviness, art thou grieved for one son? d Neh. 2, 1, 2, 3.

9 For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for the fall of so many that grow upon her.

10 For <sup>e</sup> out of her came all at the first, and out of her shall all others come, and behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and a multitude of them is utterly <sup>f</sup> rooted out. e Gen. 2, 7 & 3, 19.

11 Who then should make more mourning than she that hath lost so great a multitude; and not thou, which art sorry but for one? f Or, abo lished.

12 But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, because I have lost the fruit of my womb, which <sup>f</sup> I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows; f Gen. 3, 16.

13 <sup>g</sup> But the earth not so: for the multitude present in it, according to the course of the earth, is gone, as it came: g But the earth after the manner of the earth, whereinto the present multitude is gone again as it came out.

14 Then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labour; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever since the beginning unto him that made her.

15 Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage that which hath befallen thee.

16 For if thou shalt <sup>g</sup> acknowledge the determination of God to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be commended among women. g Job 1, 21

17 Go thy way then into the city to thine husband.

18 And she said unto me, That will I not do: I will not go into the city, <sup>h</sup> but here will I die. h Jonah 4, 3, 8.

19 So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said,

20 Do not so, but be counselled by me: for how many are the adversities of Sion? be comforted in regard of the sorrow of Jerusalem.

21 For thou seest that <sup>i</sup> our sanctuary is laid waste, our altar broken down, our temple destroyed; i Ps. 74, 3 & 7, 8, 9 & 79, 1, 2, 3.

22 Our psaltery is laid on the ground, our song is put to silence, our rejoicing is at an end, the light of our candlestick is put out, the ark of our covenant is spoiled, our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called upon us is almost profaned: our children are put to shame, our priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, our virgins are defiled, and our wives ravished; our righteous men carried away, our little ones destroyed, our <sup>j</sup> young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak; j Lam. 1. & 2. & 4. & 5

23 And, which is the greatest of all, the seal of Sion hath now lost her <sup>k</sup> honour; for she is delivered into the hands of them that hate us.

24 And therefore shake off thy great heaviness, and put away the multitude of sorrows, that the Mighty may be merciful unto thee again, and the Highest shall give thee rest and ease from thy labour. k See 1 Sam. 4, 21, 22. & 14, 3.

25 And it came to pass, while I was talking with her, behold, <sup>l</sup> her face upon a sudden shined exceedingly, and her countenance glistened, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be. l John 16, 29.

26 And behold, suddenly she made a great cry, very fearful: so that the <sup>m</sup> earth shook at the noise of the woman. m Hag. 2 6. Hebr. 12 26

27 And I looked, and behold, the woman appeared unto me no more, but there was a city builded, and a large place shewed itself from the foundations: then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said,

 28 Where is <sup>a</sup> Uriel the angel, who came unto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall || into many trances, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

29 And as I was speaking these words, behold, he came unto me, and looked upon me.

30 And lo, I lay <sup>o</sup> as one that had been dead, and mine understanding was taken from me: and he took <sup>p</sup> me by the right hand, and comforted me, and set me upon my feet, and said unto me, 31 What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart?

32 And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I did according to thy <sup>q</sup> words, and I went into the field, and lo, I have seen, and yet see, that I am not able to express.

33 And he said unto me, Stand up manfully, <sup>r</sup> and I will advise thee.

34 Then said I, Speak on, my lord, in me; only forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope.

35 For I have seen that I knew not, <sup>s</sup> and hear that I do not know.

36 Or is my sense deceived, or my soul in a dream?

37 Now therefore, I beseech thee, that thou wilt shew thy servant of this || vision.

38 He answered me then, and said, Hear me, and I shall inform thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the Highest will reveal many <sup>t</sup> secret things unto thee.

39 He hath seen that thy || way is right: for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, <sup>u</sup> and makest great lamentation for Sion.

40 This therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest:

41 Thou sawest <sup>x</sup> a woman mourning, and thou <sup>y</sup> begankest to comfort her:

42 But now seest thou the likeness of the woman no more, but there appeared unto thee a city builded.

43 And whereas she told thee of the death of her son, this is the || solution:

44 This woman, whom thou sawest, is Sion: and whereas she said unto thee, even she whom thou seest <sup>z</sup> as a city builded, 45 Whereas, I say, she said unto thee, that she hath been thirty years barren: those are the thirty years wherein there was no offering made in her.

46 But after thirty years <sup>a</sup> Solomon builded the city, <sup>b</sup> and offered offerings: and then bare the barren a son.

47 And whereas she told thee that she nourished him with labour: that was the dwelling in Jerusalem.

48 But whereas she said unto thee, That my son coming into his marriage-chamber happened to have a fall, and died: <sup>c</sup> this was the destruction that came to Jerusalem.

49 And behold, thou sawest her likeness, and because she mourned for her son, thou begankest to comfort her: and of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee.

50 For now the <sup>d</sup> Most High seeth that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty:

51 And therefore I bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded:

52 For I knew that the Highest <sup>e</sup> would shew this unto thee. e Rev. 21 9, 10. 11.

53 Therefore I commanded thee to go into the field, where no foundation of any building was.

54 For in the place wherein the Highest beginneth to shew his city, there can no man's building be able to stand.

55 And therefore <sup>f</sup> fear not, let <sup>g</sup> not thine heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see: f verse 27.
g verse 31

56 And then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend.

57 For thou art blessed <sup>h</sup> above many other, and || art called with the Highest; and so are but few. h See Luke
1, 28.
|| Or, art called to be with, &c. i verse 37
|| Or, last
things.

58 But to-morrow at night thou shalt remain here;

59 And so shall the Highest shew thee <sup>i</sup> visions of the || high things, which the Most High will do unto them that dwell upon earth in the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.

CHAPTER XI.

1 He seeth in his dream an eagle coming out of the sea, 37 and a lion out of a wood talking to the eagle.

THEN saw I a dream, and behold, there came up from the sea an <sup>a</sup> eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and three heads. a ch. 12. 11.

2 And I saw, and behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the winds of the air blew on her, and were gathered together.

3 And I beheld, and out of her <sup>b</sup> feathers there grew other contrary feathers; and they became little feathers and small. b verse 1.

4 But her <sup>c</sup> heads were at rest: the head in the midst was greater than the other, yet rested <sup>d</sup> it with the residue. c verse 1.
d Lat. sine

5 Moreover I beheld, and lo, the eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned upon earth, and over them that dwelt therein.

6 <sup>d</sup> And I saw that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon earth. d Dan. 2, 37, 38.

7 And I beheld, and lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and spake to her feathers, saying,

8 Watch not all at once: sleep every one in his own place, and watch by course:

9 But let the heads be preserved for the last.

10 And I beheld, and lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body.

11 And I numbered her <sup>e</sup> contrary feathers, and behold, there were eight of them. e verse 3

12 And I looked, and behold, on the right side there arose one feather, <sup>f</sup> and reigned over all the earth; it came, and <sup>g</sup> the place thereof appeared no more: so the next following stood up, and reigned, and had a great time; f verses 5, 6.
g 1st Cor 7, 31.

13 And so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so that it appeared no more.

14 And it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so that it appeared no more.

15 Then came there a voice unto it, and said, 16 <sup>h</sup> Hear thou that hast borne rule over the earth so long: this I say unto thee, before thou beginnest to appear no more, h Ps. 75, 4, 5, 6. 7.

17 There shall none after thee attain unto thy time, neither unto the half thereof.

18 Then arose the third, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also.

19 So went it with all the residue one after another, as that every one reigned, <sup>i</sup> and then appeared no more.

20 Then I beheld, and lo, in process of time the feathers <sup>k</sup> that followed stood up upon the right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more:

21 For some of them were set up, but ruled not.

22 After this I looked, and behold, the <sup>l</sup> twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the two little feathers:

23 And there was no more upon the eagle's body, but <sup>m</sup> three heads that rested, and six <sup>n</sup> little wings.

24 Then saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: for the four continued in their place.

25 And I beheld, and lo, the feathers that were under the wing thought to set up themselves, and to have the rule.

26 And I beheld, and lo, there was one set up, but shortly <sup>o</sup> it appeared no more.

27 And the second was sooner away than the first.

28 And I beheld, and lo, the two that remained thought also in themselves to reign:

29 And when they so thought, behold, there awakened one <sup>p</sup> of the heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads.

30 And then I saw that the two other heads were joined with it.

31 And behold, the head was turned with them that were with it, and did eat up the <sup>q</sup> two feathers under the wing that would have reigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in fear, and bare rule in it over all those <sup>r</sup> that dwelt upon the earth with much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been.

33 And after this I beheld, and lo, the head that was in the midst suddenly <sup>s</sup> appeared no more, like as the wings.

34 But there remained the two heads, which also in like sort ruled upon the earth, and over those that dwelt therein.

35 And I beheld, and lo, the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side.

36 Then I heard a voice, which said unto me, <sup>t</sup> Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

37 And I beheld, and lo as it were a roaring <sup>u</sup> lion chased out of the wood: and I saw that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, and said,

38 Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Highest shall say unto thee, 39 Art not thou it that remainest of the four beasts, whom I made to reign in my world, that the end of their times might come through them?

40 And the fourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and had power over the world with great fearfulness, <sup>v</sup> and over the whole compass of the earth with much wicked oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with deceit.

41 <sup>w</sup> For the earth hast thou not judged with truth.

42 For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of such as did thee no harm.

43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come up unto the Highest, and thy pride unto the Mighty.

44 The Highest also hath <sup>x</sup> looked upon the proud times, and behold, they are ended, and his abominations are fulfilled. z Ps. 14, 2. & 33, 13.

45 And therefore appear no more, <sup>a</sup> thou eagle, nor thy horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers, nor thy malicious heads, nor thy hurtful claws, nor all thy vain body: a verse 1.

46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and may return, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the <sup>b</sup> judgment and mercy of him <sup>c</sup> that made her. b Ps. 101, 1. c Gen. 1, 1. Pro. 16, 4.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The eagle which he saw, is destroyed. 10 The vision is interpreted. 37 He is bid to write his visions, 39 and to fast, that he may see more. 46 He doth comfort those that were grieved for his absence.

AND it came to pass, while the <sup>a</sup> lion spake these words unto the eagle, I saw, a ch. 11, 37.

2 And, behold, the head that remained, and the four wings appeared no more, and the two went unto it, and set themselves up to reign, and their kingdom was small and full of uproar.

3 And I saw, and behold, <sup>b</sup> they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great fear: then awakened I out of the trouble and trance of my mind, and from great fear, and said unto my spirit, b ch. 11, 14, 16, 18, 19, 20, 26.

4 Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou <sup>c</sup> searchest out the ways of the Highest. c Job 11, 7

5 Lo, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; and little strength is there in me, for the great fear wherewith I was affrighted this night.

6 Therefore will I now beseech the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end.

7 And I said, Lord <sup>d</sup> that bearest rule, if I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many others, and if my prayer indeed be come up before thy face; d Dan. 4, 35.

8 Comfort me then, and <sup>e</sup> shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain difference of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul. e ch. 10, 37.

9 For thou hast judged me worthy to shew me the last times.

10 And he said unto me, This is the interpretation of the vision:

11 The eagle whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is the kingdom which was seen in the <sup>f</sup> vision of thy brother Daniel. f Dan. 7, 7.

12 But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare it unto thee.

13 Behold, the days will come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be <sup>g</sup> feared above all the kingdoms that were before it. g ch. 11 32.

14 In the same shall twelve kings reign, one after another:

15 Whereof the second shall begin to reign, and shall have more time than any of the twelve.

16 And this do the twelve wings signify, <sup>h</sup> which thou sawest. h ch. 11, 1.

17 As for the voice which thou heardest speak, and that thou sawest <sup>i</sup> not to go out from the heads, but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation: i ch. 11, 10.

18 That after the time of that kingdom there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless, it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning.

k ch. 11,
11.

19 And whereas thou sawest the <sup>k</sup> eight small under-feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation:

20 That in him there shall arise eight kings, whose times shall be but small, and their years swift.

21 And two of them shall perish, the middle time approaching: four shall be kept until their end begin to approach: but two shall be kept unto the end.

l ch. 11, 23.

22 And whereas thou sawest <sup>l</sup> three heads resting, this is the interpretation:

23 In his last days shall the Most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many things therein, and they shall have the dominion of the earth, m ch. 11, 1.

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much oppression, above all those that were before them: therefore are they called the <sup>m</sup> heads of the eagle.

25 For these are they that shall accomplish his wickedness, and that shall finish his last end.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain.

27 For the two that remain shall be slain with the sword.

28 For the sword of the one shall devour the other: but at the last shall he fall through the sword himself.

n ch. 11,
21.

29 And whereas thou sawest <sup>n</sup> two feathers under the wings passing over the head that is on the right side;

30 It signifieth that these are they whom the Highest hath kept unto their end: this is the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest.

o ch. 11,
37.

31 And the lion, <sup>o</sup> whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness with all the words which thou hast heard;

q Ps. 50,
21.

33 For he shall set them before him alive in judgment, and shall rebuke them and correct them.

r Ps. 106,
43. 45.
Isa. 54, 7.

34 For the rest of my people shall he <sup>r</sup> deliver with mercy, those that have been preserved upon my borders, and he shall make them joyful until the coming of the day of judgment, whereof I have spoken unto thee from the beginning.

s ch. 11, 1.

35 This is <sup>s</sup> the dream that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou only hast been meet to know this secret of the Highest.

t Isa. 30, 8.
Hab. 2, 2.

37 Therefore <sup>t</sup> write all these things that thou hast seen in a book, and hide them:

38 And teach them to the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keep these secrets.

u ch. 9, 23.

39 But wait thou here thyself yet <sup>u</sup> seven days more, that it may be shewed thee, whatsoever it pleaseth the Highest to declare unto thee. And with that he went his way.

40 And it came to pass, when all the people saw that the seven days were past, and I not come again into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least unto the greatest, and came unto me, and said,

41 What have we offended thee? and what evil have we done against thee, that thou forsakest us, and sittest here in this place?

42 For of all the || prophets thou <sup>x</sup> only art left us, as a cluster of the vintage, and as a candle in a dark place, and as a haven or ship preserved from the tempest. || Or, people.
x 1 Kings
18, 22. &
19, 10. 14.
Rom. 11, 3

43 Are not the evils which are come to us sufficient?

44 If thou shalt forsake us, how much better had it been for us, if we also had <sup>y</sup> been burned in the midst of Sion? y Ps. 74, 7

45 For we are not better than they that died there. And they wept with a loud voice. Then answered I them, and said,

46 Be of good comfort, O Israel, and be not heavy, thou house of Jacob:

47 For the Highest hath you <sup>z</sup> in remembrance, and the * Mighty hath not forgotten you in temptation. z Isa. 49, 15.

48 As for me, I have not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you: but am come into this place, to pray for the desolation of Sion, and that I might seek mercy for the <sup>a</sup> low estate of your sanctuary. a Ps. 135
23.

49 And now go your way home every man, and after these days will I come unto you.

50 So the people went their way into the city, like as I commanded them:

51 But I remained still in the field seven days, as <sup>b</sup> the angel commanded me; and did eat only in those days of the flowers of the field, and had my meat of the herbs. b verse 39

CHAPTER XIII.

1 He seeth in his dream a man coming out of the sea. 25 The declaration of his dream. 54 He is praised, and promised to see more.

AND it came to pass after seven days, I <sup>a</sup> dreamed a dream by night: a ch. 11, 1.

2 And lo, there arose || a wind from the sea, that it moved all the waves thereof. || A certain man as the wind, Junius.

3 And I beheld, and lo, that man waxed strong with the || thousands of heaven: and when he turned his countenance to look, <sup>b</sup> all the things trembled that were seen under him. || Clouds.
b See Hab.
3, 10.

4 And whensoever the voice went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voice, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire.

5 And after this I beheld, and lo, there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from <sup>c</sup> the four winds of the heaven, to subdue the man that came out of the sea. c Ezek. 37, 9.

6 But I beheld, and lo, he had graved himself a great mountain, and flew up upon it.

7 But I would have seen the region or place whereout the hill was graven, and I could not.

8 And after this I beheld, and lo, all they which were gathered together to <sup>d</sup> subdue him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight. d verse 5

9 And lo, as he saw the violence of the multitude that came, he neither lifted up his hand, nor held sword, nor any instrument of war:

10 But only I saw that he sent <sup>e</sup> out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast out sparks and tempests. e Rev. 11, 5.

11 And they were all mixed together; the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest; and fell with violence upon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burned them up every one, so that

f verse 5. upon a sudden of an <sup>f</sup> innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only dust and smell of smoke: when I saw this I was afraid.

g verse 6. 12 Afterward I saw the same man come down <sup>g</sup> from the mountain, and call unto him another peaceable multitude.

h Ezra 3, 12, 13. 13 And there came much people unto him, <sup>h</sup> where- of some were glad, some were sorry, some of them were bound, and other some brought || of them that were offered: then was I sick through great fear, and I awaked, and said,

14 Thou hast shewed thy servant these wonders from the beginning; and hast counted me worthy that thou shouldest receive my prayer:

i ch. 12, 10. 15 Shew me now yet <sup>i</sup> the interpretation of this dream.

16 For as I conceived in mine understanding, wo unto them that shall be left in those days! and much more wo unto them that are not left behind!

k 1 Pet. 1, 6. 17 For they that were not left were in <sup>k</sup> heaviness.

18 Now understand I the things that are laid up in the latter days, which shall happen unto them, and to those that are left behind.

l 2 Cor. 6, 4, 5. 19 Therefore are they come into great <sup>l</sup> perils and many necessities, like as these dreams declare.

20 Yet is it easier for him that is in danger to come into || these things, than to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen in the last days. And he answered unto me, and said, m verse 15. 21 <sup>m</sup> The interpretation of the vision shall I shew thee, and I will open unto thee the thing that thou hast required.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation:

n Mat. 24, 13. 23 He that shall <sup>n</sup> endure the peril in that time hath kept himself: they that be fallen into danger are such as have works, and faith towards the Almighty.

24 Know this therefore, that they which be left behind are more blessed than they that be dead.

35 But he shall <sup>u</sup> stand upon the top of the mount <sup>u</sup> Rev. 14, 1 Sion.

36 And Sion shall come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill graven without hands.

37 And this my Son shall <sup>x</sup> rebuke the wicked inventions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest;

38 And shall lay before them their <sup>y</sup> evil thoughts, <sup>y</sup> Mat. 15, 19. and the torments wherewith they shall begin to be tormented, which are like unto a flame: and he shall destroy them without labour by the law which is like unto fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest that he gathered another <sup>z</sup> peaceable multitude unto him; <sup>z</sup> verse 12.

40 Those are the ten tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, whom <sup>a</sup> Salmanasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the <sup>b</sup> waters, and so came they into another land. <sup>a</sup> 2 Kings 17, 3. <sup>b</sup> Josh. 24, 2, 3. 15.

41 But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt,

50 And then shall he shew them great wonders.

51 Then said I, O Lord that bearest rule, shew me this: Wherefore have I seen the man coming up from the midst of the sea?

52 And he said unto me, <sup>g</sup> Like as thou canst neither seek out nor know the things that are in the deep of the sea: even so can no man upon earth see my Son, or those that be with him, but in the day-time. <sup>g</sup> Ps. 77, 19. & 104, 24, 25.

53 This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and whereby thou <sup>h</sup> only art here lightened. <sup>h</sup> ch. 12, 12.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine own way, and applied thy diligence unto my law, and sought it.

55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and hast called understanding thy mother.

56 And therefore have I shewed thee the treasures of the Highest: after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee mighty and wondrous things.

57 Then went I forth into <sup>i</sup> the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the Most High because of his wonders, which he did in time; <sup>i</sup> ch. 9, 24.

58 And because he governeth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons : and there I sat <sup>k</sup> three days.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 A voice out of a bush calleth Esdras, 10 and telleth him that the world waxeth old. 22 He desireth, because the law was burnt, to write all again. 24 and is bid to get swift writers. 39 He and they are filled with understanding. 45 But he is charged not to publish all that is written.

AND it came to pass upon the third day, I sat under an oak, and behold, there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras.

2 And I said, Here am I, Lord. And I stood up upon my feet.

3 Then said he unto me, <sup>b</sup> In the bush I did manifestly reveal myself unto Moses, and talked with him, when my people served in Egypt :

4 And I sent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him up to the <sup>c</sup> mount of Sinai, where I held him by me a long season,

5 And told him many <sup>d</sup> wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end ; and commanded him, saying,

6 These words shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide,

7 And now I say unto thee,

8 That thou lay up in thy heart the signs that I have shewed, and the <sup>e</sup> dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard :

9 For thou shalt be <sup>f</sup> taken away from all, and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my Son, and with such as be like thee, until the times be ended.

10 For the world hath lost his youth, <sup>g</sup> and the times begin to wax old.

11 For the world is divided into twelve parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and half of a tenth part :

12 And there remaineth that which is after the half of the tenth part :

13 Now therefore <sup>h</sup> set thine house in order, and reprove thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption.

14 Let go from thee mortal thoughts, cast away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature, 15 And set aside the thoughts that are most heavy unto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times.

16 For <sup>i</sup> yet greater evils than those which thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter.

17 For look how much the world shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein.

18 For the truth is fled far away, and leasing is hard at hand : for now hasteth the vision to come, <sup>k</sup> which thou hast seen.

19 Then answered I before thee, and said,

20 Behold, Lord, I will go, as thou hast commanded me, and reprove the people which are present : but they that shall be born afterward, <sup>l</sup> who shall admonish them ? thus the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light.

21 For thy law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the works that shall begin.

22 But if I have found grace before thee, <sup>m</sup> send the Holy Ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, which were written in thy law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will live in the latter days may live.

23 And he answered me, saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, that they seek thee not <sup>n</sup> for forty days.

24 But look thou prepare thee many <sup>o</sup> boxtrees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, <sup>p</sup> Ecanus, and Asiel, these five which are ready to write swiftly ;

25 And <sup>o</sup> come hither, and I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, and some things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise : to-morrow this hour shalt thou begin <sup>q</sup> to write.

27 Then went I forth as he commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said, 28 Hear these words, <sup>r</sup> O Israel.

29 <sup>r</sup> Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were delivered :

30 <sup>s</sup> And received the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also have transgressed after them.

31 Then was the land, even the land of Sion, <sup>t</sup> parted among you by lot : but your fathers, and ye yourselves, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Highest commanded you.

32 And forasmuch as he is a righteous judge, he took from you in time the thing that he had given you.

33 And now <sup>u</sup> are ye here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore if so be that ye will subdue your own understanding, and reform your hearts, ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall <sup>x</sup> obtain mercy.

35 For after death shall the judgment come, when we shall live again : and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works of the ungodly shall be declared.

36 Let no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me these <sup>y</sup> forty days.

37 So I took <sup>z</sup> the five men, as he commanded me, and we went into the field, and remained there.

38 And the next day, behold, a voice called me, saying, Esdras, <sup>a</sup> open thy mouth, and drink that I give thee to drink.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was like fire.

40 And I took it, and drank : and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my spirit strengthened my memory :

41 And my <sup>b</sup> mouth was opened, and shut no more.

42 The Highest gave understanding unto the five men, <sup>c</sup> and they wrote the wonderful visions of the night that were told, which they knew not : and they sat <sup>d</sup> forty days, and they wrote in the day, and at night they ate bread.

43 As for me, I spake in the day, <sup>e</sup> and I held not my tongue by night.

44 In forty days they wrote <sup>f</sup> two hundred and four books.

45 And it came to pass, when the forty days were fulfilled, that the Highest spake, saying, The first that thou hast written <sup>g</sup> publish openly, that the worthy and unworthy may read it :

46 But keep the seventy last, <sup>h</sup> that thou mayest

CHAPTER XV.

<sup>2</sup> And cause them to be written in paper : for they are faithful and true.

<sup>12</sup> Egypt shall mourn, and the foundation of it shall be smitten with the plague and punishment that God shall bring upon it.

<sup>n</sup> Mal. 1, 11. <sup>20</sup> Behold, saith God, I will call together all the kings of the earth to reverence me, <sup>n</sup> which are from the rising of the sun, from the south, from the east, and Libanus ; to turn themselves one against another, and repay the things that they have done to them.

<sup>27</sup> For now are the plagues come upon the whole earth, and ye shall remain in them : for God shall not deliver you, because ye have sinned against him.

<sup>29</sup> Where the nations of the dragons of Arabia shall come out with many chariots, and the multitude of them shall be carried as the wind upon earth, <sup>t</sup> that all they which hear them may fear and tremble. <sup>t</sup> Ps. 43, 4, 5, 6.

<sup>30</sup> Also the Carmanians raging in wrath shall go forth as the wild boars of the wood, and with great power shall they come, and join battle with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

42 And they shall break down the cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn.

43 And they shall go steadfastly unto Babylon, and || make her afraid.

44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, the star and all wrath shall they pour out upon her: then shall the dust and smoke go up unto the heaven, and all they that be about her shall bewail her.

45 And they that remain under her shall do service unto them that have put her in fear.

47 Wo be unto thee, thou wretch, because thou hast made thyself <sup>h</sup> like unto her; and hast decked thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have always desired to commit whoredom with thee!

48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her works and inventions: therefore saith God,

49 I will send <sup>i</sup> plagues upon thee; widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shall be dried up <sup>k</sup> as a flower, when the heat shall arise that is sent over thee.

51 Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that the mighty and lovers shall not be able to receive thee.

58 They that be in the mountains shall die of hunger, <sup>n</sup> and eat their own flesh, and drink their own blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water.

59 Thou as unhappy shall come through the sea, and receive plagues again.

60 And in the passage they shall rush on the idle city, and shall destroy some portion of thy land, and consume part of thy glory, and shall return to <sup>o</sup> Babylon that was destroyed.

61 And thou shalt be cast down by them as stubble, and they shall be unto thee as fire;

CHAPTER XVI.

<sup>1</sup> Babylon and other places are threatened with plagues that cannot be avoided, 23 and with desolation. 40 The servants of the Lord must look for troubles: 51 and not hide their sins, 74 but leave them, and they shall be delivered.

3 A sword is sent upon you, and who may turn it back?

4 A fire is sent among you, and who may quench it?

5 <sup>f</sup> Plagues are sent unto you, and what is he that may drive them away?

6 May any man drive away an hungry lion in the wood? or may any one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath begun to burn?

7 May one turn again the arrow that is shot of a strong archer?

8 The <sup>g</sup> Mighty Lord sendeth the plagues, and who is he that can drive them away?

9 A fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it?

10 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not fear? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence?

12 The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; <sup>h</sup> the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also, before the Lord, and before the glory of his power:

13 For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, his arrows that he shooteth are sharp, and shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

14 Behold, the plagues are sent, <sup>i</sup> and shall not re- turn again, until they come upon the earth.

15 The fire is kindled, <sup>k</sup> and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundation of the earth.

16 Like as an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer returneth not backward: even so the plagues that shall be sent upon earth shall not return again.

17 <sup>l</sup> Wo is me! wo is me! who will deliver me in those days?

19 Behold, famine and plague, <sup>n</sup> tribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment.

20 But for all these things they shall not turn from their wickedness, nor be always mindful of thy scourges.

24 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it.

25 The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them?

26 The grapes shall ripen, and who shall tread them? <sup>q</sup> for all places shall be desolate of men:

27 So that one man shall desire to see another, and to hear his voice.

28 For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of

21. 29 As in an orchard of olives upon every tree there are left three or four olives;

30 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through the vineyard:

31 Even so in those days there shall be three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword.

32 And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her ways and all her paths shall grow full of thorns, because no man shall travel there-through.

34 In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

<sup>r</sup> Ps. 135. 1. 35 Hear now these things, and understand them, ye servants of the Lord.

36 Behold the word of the Lord, receive it: believe not the gods of whom the Lord spake.

38 As when a woman with child in the ninth month bringeth forth her son, within two or three hours of her birth great pains compass her womb, which pains, when the child cometh forth, they slack not a moment:

<sup>x</sup> verses 13, 19. 39 Even so shall not the plagues be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall mourn, <sup>x</sup> and sorrows shall come upon it on every side.

<sup>y</sup> Heb. 11, 1. 40 O my people, hear my word: make you ready to the battle, and in those evils be even <sup>y</sup> as pilgrims upon the earth.

41 He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose:

42 He that occupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it: and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein:

43 He that soweth, as if he should not reap: so also he that planteth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes:

<sup>z</sup> 1 Cor. 7, 29. 44 <sup>z</sup> They that marry, as they that shall get no children: and they that marry not, as the widowers.

45 And therefore they that labour, labour in vain:

47 And they that occupy their merchandise with robbery, the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons:

48 The more will I be angry with them for their sin, saith the Lord.

49 Like as a whore envieth a right honest and virtuous woman:

50 So shall righteousness hate iniquity, when she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently <sup>c</sup> searcheth out every sin upon earth.

<sup>c</sup> Jer. 17, 10. 51 And therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the works thereof.

52 For yet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign among you.

<sup>d</sup> 1 John 1, 9, 10. 53 Let not the sinner say <sup>d</sup> that he hath not sinned: for God shall burn coals of fire upon his head, which saith before the Lord God and his glory, I have not sinned.

54 Behold, the Lord knoweth all the works of men, <sup>e</sup> their imaginations, their thoughts, and their hearts: <sup>e</sup> Luke 16, 15.

55 Which spake but the word, Let the earth be made; <sup>f</sup> and it was made: Let the heaven be made; <sup>f</sup> Gen. 1, 1 and it was created.

56 In his word were the stars made, and he knoweth the <sup>g</sup> number of them. <sup>g</sup> Ps. 147, 4.

57 He searcheth the deep, and the treasures thereof; he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth.

58 He hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word hath he <sup>h</sup> hanged the earth upon the waters. <sup>h</sup> Job 26, 7.

59 He spreadeth out the heavens like a vault; upon the waters hath he founded it.

60 In <sup>i</sup> the desert hath he made springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might pour down from the high rocks to water the earth. <sup>i</sup> Isa. 41, 18. & 43, 19.

61 <sup>k</sup> He made man, and put his heart in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding. <sup>k</sup> Gen. 2, 7.

62 Yea, and the <sup>l</sup> Spirit of Almighty God, which made all things, <sup>m</sup> and searcheth out all hidden things in the secrets of the earth, <sup>l</sup> Gen. 1, 2 <sup>m</sup> 1 Cor. 2, 10.

63 Surely he knoweth your inventions, and what ye think in your hearts, even them that sin, <sup>n</sup> and would hide their sin. <sup>n</sup> Job 34, 22.

64 Therefore hath the Lord exactly searched out all your works, and he will put you all to shame.

65 And when your sins are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, and your own sins shall be your accusers in that day.

66 What will ye do? <sup>o</sup> or how will ye hide your sins before God and his angels? <sup>o</sup> Ps. 139, 3. 12.

67 Behold, <sup>p</sup> God himself is the judge, fear him: leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them for ever: so shall God lead you forth, and deliver you from all trouble. <sup>p</sup> Ps. 50, 6 & 75, 7.

68 For behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and feed you, <sup>q</sup> being idle, with things offered unto idols. <sup>q</sup> Or, being unable to resist.

69 And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and trodden under foot.

70 <sup>r</sup> For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear the Lord. <sup>r</sup> Acts 21, 27. 30.

71 They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but still spoiling and destroying those that fear the Lord.

72 For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of their houses.

73 Then shall they be known who are my chosen; <sup>r</sup> and they shall be tried as the gold in the fire. <sup>r</sup> Ps. 66, 10 <sup>s</sup> Zech. 13, 9.

74 Hear, O ye my beloved, saith the Lord: behold, the days of trouble are at hand, but I will deliver you from the same. <sup>t</sup> Pet. 1, 6, 7.

75 <sup>s</sup> Be ye not afraid, neither doubt; for God is your guide, <sup>s</sup> Isa. 41, 10.

76 And the <sup>t</sup> guide of them who keep my commandments and precepts, saith the Lord God: let not your sins weigh you down, and let not your iniquities lift up themselves. <sup>t</sup> Ps. 43, 14.

77 Wo be unto them that are bound with their sins, and covered with their iniquities, like as a field is covered over with bushes, and the path thereof covered with thorns, that no man may travel through!

78 It is <sup>u</sup> left undressed, and is cast into the fire <sup>u</sup> to be consumed therewith. <sup>u</sup> Or, shut out. <sup>n</sup> Heb. 6, 8.

TOBIT.

CHAPTER I.

Tobit's stock, and devotion in his youth: 9 His marriage, 10 and captivity: 13 His preferment, 16 alms and charity in burying the dead, 19 for which he is accused and fleeth, 22 and after returneth to Nineve.

¶ Or, acts.

THE book of the ¶ words of Tobit, son of Tobiel, the son of Ananiel, the son of Aduel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asael, of the tribe <sup>a</sup> of Nephthali;

2 Who in the time of <sup>b</sup> Enemessar king of the Assyrians was led captive out of Thisbe, which is at the right hand of that city, which is called ¶ properly Nephthali in Galilee above Aser.

3 I Tobit have walked all the days of my life in the way of truth and justice, and I did many alms-deeds to my brethren, and my nation, who came with me to Nineve, into the land of the Assyrians.

c 1 Kings 12, 16.
d Deut. 12, 5.

4 And when I was in mine own country, in the land of Israel, being but young, <sup>c</sup> all the tribe of Nephthali my father fell from the house of Jerusalem, <sup>d</sup> which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, where the temple of the habitation of the Most High was consecrated and built for all ages.

5 Now all the tribes which together revolted, and the house of my father Nephthali, sacrificed ¶ unto the <sup>e</sup> heifer Baal.

6 But I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, as it was ordained unto all the people of Israel by an everlasting decree, <sup>f</sup> having the first-fruits and tenths of increase, with that which was first shorn; and them gave I at the altar to the priests the children of Aaron.

¶ Or, Levi.

7 The first tenth part of all increase I gave to the sons of ¶ Aaron, who ministered at Jerusalem: another tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it every year at Jerusalem:

g Sam. 1, 1.
Judges 4, 2.

8 And the third I gave unto them to whom it was meet, <sup>g</sup> as Debora my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father.

9 Furthermore, when I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna of mine <sup>h</sup> own kindred, and of her I begat Tobias.

14 And I went into Media, and left in trust with Gabael, the brother of Gabrias, ¶ at Rages, a city of Media, ten talents of silver.

15 Now when Enemessar was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his stead; † whose estate was troubled, that I could not go into Media.

16 And in the time of Enemessar I gave many alms to my brethren, <sup>k</sup> and gave my bread to the hungry, 17 And my clothes to the naked: and if I saw any of my nation dead, or cast ¶ about the walls of Nineve, I buried him.

18 And if the king Sennacherib had slain any, when he was come, and <sup>l</sup> fled from Judea, I buried them privily; for in his wrath he killed many; but the bodies were not found, when they were sought for of the king.

19 And when one of the Ninevites went and complained of me to the king, that I buried them, and hid myself; understanding that I was sought for to be put to death, <sup>m</sup> I withdrew myself for fear.

n Mat. 10, 23.

20 Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there any thing left me, besides my wife Anna and my son Tobias.

21 And there passed not five and fifty days before two of his sons <sup>n</sup> killed him, and they fled into the mountains of Ararath; and ¶ Sarchedonus his son reigned in his stead; who appointed over his father's accounts, and over all his affairs, Achiacharus my brother Anael's son.

CHAPTER II.

1 Tobit leaveth his meat to bury the dead, 10 and becometh blind. 11 His wife taketh in work to get her living. 14 Her husband and she fall out about a kid.

NOW when I was come home again, and <sup>a</sup> my wife Anna was restored unto me, with my son Tobias, in the feast of Pentecost, which is <sup>b</sup> the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I sat down to eat.

a ch. 1, 20.

2 And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what <sup>c</sup> poor man soever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and lo, I tarry for thee.

b Ex. 34, 22.
Deut. 16, 9, 10, 11.

3 But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the market-place.

c ch. 1, 16, 17.

4 Then before I had tasted of any meat, I started up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun.

5 Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness,

6 Remembering that prophecy of <sup>d</sup> Amos, as he said, Your feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation.

d Amos 8, 10.

7 Therefore I wept: and after the going down of the sun I went <sup>e</sup> and made a grave, and buried him.

e ch. 1, 17.

8 But my neighbours mocked me, and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter: <sup>f</sup> who fled away; and yet lo, he burieth the dead again.

f ch. 1, 19.

9 The same night also I returned from the burial, and slept by the wall of my court-yard, <sup>g</sup> being polluted, and my face was uncovered:

g Num. 19, 11.

10 And I knew not that there were ¶ sparrows in the wall, and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and ¶ a whiteness came in mine eyes; and I went to the physicians, but they helped me not: moreover, Achiacharus did nourish me, until I went into Elymais.

¶ Or, swallows.

¶ Or, white films.

11 And my wife Anna ¶ did take women's works to do.

¶ Or, was hired to spin in the women's rooms.
¶ Or, her work.

12 And when she had sent ¶ them home to the owners, they paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid.

h Ex. 23, 4. Deut. 22, 1. 13 And when it was in my house, and began to cry, I said unto her, From whence is this kid? is it not stolen? render it to the owners; <sup>b</sup> for it is not lawful to eat any thing that is stolen.

i Job 2, 9. 14 <sup>i</sup> But she replied upon me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. Howbeit I did not believe her, but made her render it to the owners: and I was abashed at her. But she replied upon me, <sup>k</sup> Where are thine alms and thy righteous deeds? || behold, thou and all thy works are known.

CHAPTER III.

1 Tobit grieved with his wife's taunts, prayeth. 11 Sara, reproached by her father's maids, prayeth also. 17 An angel is sent to help them both.

a ch. 2, 7. THEN I being grieved <sup>a</sup> did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying,

b Ps. 145, 17. 2 O Lord, thou art just, <sup>b</sup> and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest truly and justly for ever.

c Ex. 20, 5. 3 Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and ignorances, <sup>c</sup> and the sins of my fathers, who have sinned before thee:

d Deut. 22, 15, 37. 4 For they obeyed not thy commandments: wherefore thou hast delivered us for a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, <sup>d</sup> and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed.

e Rev. 19, 2. 5 And now thy <sup>e</sup> judgments are many and true: deal with me according to my sins and my fathers': because we have not kept thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before thee.

f 1 Sam. 3, 13. 6 Now therefore deal with me <sup>f</sup> as seemeth best unto thee, and command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be || dissolved, and become earth: for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow: command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the <sup>g</sup> everlasting place: turn not thy face away from me.

7 It came to pass the same day, that in Ecbatane a city of Media, Sara the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her father's maids;

h See Mat. 22, 25, 26. 8 Because that she had been married to <sup>h</sup> seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the evil spirit had killed before they had lien with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them.

9 Wherefore dost thou beat us for them? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter.

i verse 8. 10 When she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have <sup>i</sup> strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and I shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave.

k Dan. 6, 10. 11 Then <sup>k</sup> she prayed towards the window, and said, Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honourable for ever: <sup>l</sup> let all thy works praise thee for ever.

l Ps. 145, 10. 12 And now, O Lord, I set mine eyes and my face towards thee, m Jonah 4, 3, 8. 13 And say, <sup>m</sup> Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach.

14 Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man,

15 And that I never polluted my name, nor the name of <sup>n</sup> my father, in the land of my captivity: I <sup>n</sup> verse 10 am the only daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to be his heir, neither any || near kinsman, || Or, brother. nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife: my seven husbands are already dead; <sup>o</sup> and why should I live? but if it please not thee that <sup>o</sup> verse 13 I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me that I hear no more reproach.

16 So the prayers of them both <sup>p</sup> were heard before <sup>p</sup> Ps. 65, 2. the majesty of the great God.

17 And Raphael was sent to heal them both, that is, to scale away the <sup>q</sup> whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give <sup>r</sup> Sara the daughter of Raguel for a wife to <sup>r</sup> verse 7. Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind <sup>s</sup> Asmodeus the <sup>s</sup> verse 8. evil spirit; because she belonged to Tobias by right of inheritance. The self-same time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sara the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

CHAPTER IV.

3 Tobit giveth instructions to his son Tobias, 20 and telleth him of money left with Gabael in Media.

IN that day Tobit remembered the <sup>a</sup> money which <sup>a</sup> ch. 1, 14. he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media,

2 And said with himself, <sup>b</sup> I have wished for death; <sup>b</sup> ch. 3, 13 15. wherefore do I not call for my son Tobias, that I may signify to him of the money before I die?

3 And when he had called him, he said, My son, when I am dead, bury me; and despise not thy mother, <sup>c</sup> but honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not.

4 Remember, my son, that she saw many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb; and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave.

5 My son, <sup>d</sup> be mindful of the Lord our God all thy days, and let not thy will be set to sin, or to transgress his commandments: do <sup>e</sup> uprightly all thy life long, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness.

6 For if thou deal truly, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that live justly.

7 <sup>f</sup> Give alms of thy substance; and when thou givest alms, let not thine eye be envious, neither turn thy face from any poor, and the face of God shall not be turned away from thee.

8 If thou hast abundance, <sup>g</sup> give alms accordingly: if thou have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little:

9 For thou layest up a good <sup>h</sup> treasure for thyself against the day of necessity.

10 <sup>i</sup> Because that alms do deliver from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness.

11 For alms is a good gift unto all that give it in the sight of the Most High.

12 Beware of all <sup>k</sup> whoredom, my son, and chiefly take a wife, of the seed of thy fathers, and take not a <sup>k</sup> 1 Thess 4, 3. strange woman to wife, which is not of thy father's tribe: for we are the children of the prophets, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: remember, my son, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land.

13 Now therefore, my son, love <sup>m</sup> thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sons and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them: for in pride is destruction and much trouble, and in lewdness is decay and great want: for lewdness is the mother of famine.

16 <sup>q</sup> Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked ; and according to thine abundance <sup>r</sup> give alms ; and let not thine eye be envious, when thou givest alms.

17 Pour out thy bread on the burial of the just, but give nothing to the wicked.

18 Ask counsel of all that are wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable.

<sup>x</sup> Eccles. 12, 13. 21 And fear not, my son, that we are made poor : for thou hast much wealth, if thou <sup>x</sup> fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight.

CHAPTER V.

<sup>b</sup> ch. 4, 20. 2 But how can I receive the <sup>b</sup> money, seeing I know him not ?

3 Then he gave him the hand-writing, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, while I yet live, and I will give him wages : and go and receive the money.

4 Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found Raphael that was an angel.

<sup>c</sup> ch. 5, 20. 5 But he knew not ; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to <sup>c</sup> Rages ? and knowest thou those places well ?

<sup>d</sup> ch. 4, 1. <sup>20</sup>. 6 To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well : for I have lodged with our brother <sup>d</sup> Gabael.

7 Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father.

8 Then he said unto him, Go, and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee.

<sup>e</sup> Phil. 4, 21. 9 So he called him, and he came in, and they <sup>e</sup> saluted one another.

10 Then Tobit said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art.

<sup>f</sup> verse 8. 11 To whom he said, Dost thou seek for a tribe or family, or an hired man to go with thy son ? Then Tobit said unto him, <sup>f</sup> I would know, brother, thy kindred and name.

12 Then he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren.

13 Then Tobit said, Thou art welcome, brother ; be not now angry with me, because I have inquired to know thy tribe and thy family ; for thou art my brother, of an honest and good stock : for I know Ananias and Jonathas, sons of that great Samaïas, as we <sup>g</sup> went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the first-born, and the tenths of the fruits ; and they were not seduced <sup>h</sup> with the error of our brethren : my brother, thou art of a good stock. <sup>g</sup> ch. 1, 6. <sup>h</sup> ch. 1, 4, 5.

14 But tell me, <sup>i</sup> what wages shall I give thee ? <sup>i</sup> See verse 11. <sup>wilt</sup> thou a drachm a day, and things necessary, as to mine own son ?

15 Yea, moreover, if ye return safe, I will add something to thy wages.

16 So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, <sup>k</sup> and God send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things for the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and God, which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the <sup>l</sup> angel of God keep you company. So they went forth both, and the young man's dog with them. <sup>k</sup> See Gen 24, 12. <sup>l</sup> Ex. 23, 20.

17 But <sup>m</sup> Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our son ? is he not the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us ? <sup>m</sup> ch. 1, 9

18 || Be not greedy to add money to money, but let it be as refuse in respect of our child. || Or, let not money be added, but be the off-scouring of our son.

19 || For that which the Lord hath given us to live with, doth suffice us. || Or, So long as God hath granted us to live, this is sufficient.

20 Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, my sister ; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him. <sup>n</sup> Ps. 121, 7, 8.

21 For the good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, <sup>n</sup> and he shall return safe.

22 Then she made an end of weeping.

CHAPTER VI.

2 And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him.

3 Then the <sup>b</sup> angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish, and || drew it to land. <sup>b</sup> ch. 3, 17. || Or, cast it upon the land.

4 To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely.

5 So the young man did as the angel commanded him ; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it : then they both went on their way, till they drew near to <sup>c</sup> Ecbatane. <sup>c</sup> ch. 3, 7.

6 Then the young man said to the angel, Brother <sup>d</sup> Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gall of the fish ? <sup>d</sup> ch. 5, 12.

7 And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed.

8 As for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath <sup>e</sup> whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed. <sup>e</sup> ch. 2, 10 & 3, 17.

9 And when they were come near to Rages, ch. 3, 7. 10 The angel said to the young man, Brother, to-day we shall lodge with <sup>f</sup>Raguel; who is thy cousin; g ch. 3, 7. he also hath one only daughter, named <sup>g</sup>Sara; I will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife.

11 For to thee doth the <sup>h</sup>right of her appertain, seeing thou only art of her kindred.

12 And the maid is fair and wise: now therefore hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according to the law of Moses, but he shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other.

13 Then the young man answered the angel, I have heard, brother Azarias, <sup>i</sup>that this maid hath been given to seven men, who all died in the marriage-chamber.

14 <sup>k</sup>And now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest, if I go in unto her, I die, as the other before: for a <sup>l</sup>wicked spirit loveth her, which hurteth nobody, but those which come unto her: wherefore I also fear lest I die, and bring my father's and my mother's life, because of me, to the grave with sorrow: for they have no other son to bury them.

15 Then the angel said unto him, <sup>m</sup>Dost thou not remember the precepts which thy father gave thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred? wherefore hear me, O my brother; for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of the <sup>n</sup>evil spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage.

16 And when thou shalt come into the marriage-chamber, thou shalt take the <sup>o</sup>ashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it:

17 And the devil shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise up both of you, <sup>p</sup>and pray to God <sup>q</sup>which is merciful, who will have pity on you, and save you: fear not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning; and thou shalt preserve her, and <sup>r</sup>she shall go with thee. Moreover, I suppose that she shall bear thee children. Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was <sup>s</sup>effectually joined to her.

CHAPTER VII.

11 Raguel telleth Tobias what had happened to his daughter: 12 and giveth her in marriage unto him. 17 She is conveyed to her chamber, and weepeth. 18 Her mother comforteth her.

AND when they were come to <sup>a</sup>Ecbatane, they came to the house of Raguel, <sup>b</sup>and Sara met them; and after they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house.

2 Then said Raguel to Edna his wife, How like is this young man to Tobit my cousin!

3 And Raguel asked them, From whence are ye, brethren? To whom they said, We are of the sons of <sup>c</sup>Nephthali, <sup>d</sup>which are captives in Nineve.

4 Then he said to them, Do ye know Tobit our kinsman? and they said, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health?

5 And they said, He is both alive and in good health: and Tobias said, <sup>e</sup>He is my father.

6 Then Raguel leaped up, and kissed him, and wept.

7 And blessed him, and said unto him, Thou art the son of an honest and good man: but when he had heard that Tobit <sup>f</sup>was blind, he was sorrowful, and wept. f ch. 2, 10

8 And likewise <sup>g</sup>Edna his wife and Sara his daughter wept. Moreover, they entertained them cheerfully; and after that they had killed <sup>h</sup>a ram of the flock, they set store of meat on the table. Then said Tobias to <sup>i</sup>Raphael, Brother Azarias, speak of those things of which thou didst talk in the way, and let this business be despatched. g verse 2. <sup>h</sup>Or, a sucking ram, or lamb, Junius. h ch. 3, 17.

9 So he communicated the matter with Raguel: and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat and drink, and make merry:

10 For it is <sup>i</sup>meet that thou shouldest marry my daughter: nevertheless, I will declare unto thee the truth. i ch. 6, 11, 12.

11 I have given my daughter in marriage to <sup>k</sup>seven men, who died that night they came in unto her: nevertheless, for the present be merry. But Tobias said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and swear one to another. k ch. 5, 9.

12 Raguel said, Then take her from henceforth according to the <sup>l</sup>manner, for thou art her cousin, and she is thine, and the merciful God give you good success in all things. <sup>l</sup>Or, law.

13 Then he <sup>m</sup>called his daughter Sara, and she came to her father, and he took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her after <sup>n</sup>the law of Moses, and lead her away to thy father. <sup>n</sup>And he blessed them; i See Gen. 24, 57. m Num. 36, 6. n verse 7.

14 And called Edna his wife, and took paper, and did write an instrument <sup>o</sup>of covenants, <sup>o</sup>and sealed it. o See verse 11.

15 Then they began to eat.

16 After Raguel called his wife Edna, and said unto her, Sister, prepare another <sup>p</sup>chamber, and bring her in thither. p ch. 6, 16.

17 Which when she had done as he had bidden her, she brought her thither: and she wept, and she <sup>q</sup>received the tears of her daughter, and said unto her, <sup>q</sup>Or, licked.

18 Be of good comfort, my daughter: the <sup>r</sup>Lord of heaven and earth give thee joy for this thy sorrow: be of good comfort, my daughter. q Acts 17, 24. r Lord

CHAPTER VIII.

3 Tobias driveth the wicked spirit away, as he was taught: 4 He and his wife rise up to pray. 10 Raguel thought he was dead: 15 but finding him alive, praiseth God, 19 and maketh a wedding-feast.

AND when they had <sup>a</sup>supped, they brought Tobias as in unto her. a ch. 7, 11.

2 And as he went he remembered the words of Raphael, and took the <sup>b</sup>ashes of the perfumes, and put the heart and the liver of the fish thereupon, <sup>b</sup>and made a smoke <sup>c</sup>therewith. <sup>b</sup>Or embers b ch. 6, 7.

3 The which smell when the evil spirit had smelled, he fled into the utmost parts of Egypt, and <sup>c</sup>the angel bound him. c ch. 5, 21.

4 And after that they were both shut in together, Tobias rose out of the bed, and said, Sister, arise, <sup>d</sup>and let us pray that God would have pity on us. d ch. 6, 17.

5 Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thy holy and glorious name for ever; let the heavens bless thee, and all thy creatures.

6 <sup>e</sup>Thou madest Adam, and gavest him Eve his wife for an helper and stay: of them came mankind thou hast said, It is not good that man should be alone; let us make unto him an aid like unto himself. e Gen. 2, 7.

7 And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for lust, <sup>f</sup>but uprightly: therefore mercifully ordain that we may become aged together. f 1Thess 4, 4, 5.

g 1 Cor. 14, 16. 8 And she said with him, <sup>g</sup> Amen.
 9 So they slept both that night. And Raguel arose, and went and made a grave,
 10 Saying, I fear lest he also be dead.
 11 But when Raguel was come into his house,
 h ch. 7, 2. 12 He said unto his <sup>h</sup> wife Edna, Send one of the maids, and let her see whether he be alive: if he be not, that we may bury him, and no man know it.
 13 So the maid opened the door, and went in, and found them both asleep, 14 And came forth, and told them that he was alive.
 i Ps. 147, . 15 Then Raguel <sup>i</sup> praised God, and said, O God, thou art worthy to be praised with all pure and holy praise; therefore let thy saints praise thee with all thy creatures; and let all thine angels and thine elect praise thee for ever.
 k Eccl. 7, 14. 16 Thou art to be praised <sup>k</sup> for thou hast made me joyful; and that is not come to me which I suspected; but thou hast dealt with us according to thy great mercy.

l verse 4. 17 Thou art to be praised, because thou hast had mercy of <sup>l</sup> two that were the only-begotten children of their fathers: grant them mercy, O Lord, and finish their life in health with joy and mercy.

m Judges 14, 10. Mat. 22, 1. 18 Then Raguel bade his servants to fill the grave.
 19 And he kept the <sup>m</sup> wedding-feast fourteen days.
 20 For before the days of the marriage were finished, Raguel had said unto him by an oath, that he should not depart till <sup>n</sup> the fourteen days of the marriage were expired;

n See Judges 14, 12. 21 And then he should take the half of his goods, and go in safety to his father; and should have the rest when I and my wife be dead.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Tobias sendeth the angel unto Gabael for the money: 6 The angel bringeth it and Gabael to the wedding.

a ch. 5, 4. THEN Tobias called <sup>a</sup> Raphael, and said unto him, b ch. 4, 1. 2 Brother Azarias, take with thee a servant, and two camels, and go to <sup>b</sup> Rages of Media, to Gabael, and bring me the money, and bring him to the wedding.

3 For Raguel hath sworn that I shall not depart.

4 But my father counteth the days; and if I tarry long, he will be very sorry.

c ch. 1, 14. 5 So Raphael went out, and lodged with <sup>c</sup> Gabael, and gave him the hand-writing: who brought forth bags which were sealed up, and gave them to him.

d Or, Gabael blessed Tobias and his wife, Junius. 6 And early in the morning they went forth both together, and came to the wedding: and || Tobias blessed his wife.

CHAPTER X.

1 Tobit and his wife long for their son: 7 She will not be comforted by her husband. 10 Raguel sendeth Tobias and his wife away with half their goods, 12 and blesseth them.

a ch. 9, 4. NOW Tobit his father <sup>a</sup> counted every day: and when the days of the journey were expired, and they came not,

2 Then Tobit said, Are they detained? or is Gabael dead, and there is no man to give him the money?

3 Therefore he was very sorry.

4 Then his wife said unto him, My son is dead, seeing he stayeth long; and she began to bewail him, and said, b 1 Sam. 10, 2. 5 Now <sup>b</sup> I care for nothing, my son, since I have let thee go, the light of mine eyes.

c Phil 4 6 6 To whom Tobit said, Hold thy peace, <sup>c</sup> take no care, for he is safe.

7 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deceive me not; my son is dead. And she went out every day into the way which they went, and did eat no meat on the day-time, and ceased not whole nights to bewail her son Tobias, until <sup>d</sup> the fourteen days of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there. Then Tobias said to Raguel, <sup>e</sup> Let me go, for my father and my mother look no more to see me. d ch. 3, 20 e Gen. 24, 54, 56.

8 But his father-in-law said unto him, Tarry with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare unto him how things go with thee.

9 But Tobias said, No; but let me go to my father.

10 Then Raguel arose, and gave him Sara his wife, and half his goods, servants, and cattle, and money:

11 And <sup>f</sup> he blessed them, and <sup>g</sup> sent them away, saying, The God of heaven give you a prosperous journey, my children. f Gen. 24, 60. g Gen. 24, 59.

12 And he said to his daughter, <sup>h</sup> Honour thy father and thy mother-in-law, which are now thy parents, that I may hear good report of thee. And he kissed her. Edna also said to Tobias, The Lord of heaven restore thee, my dear brother, and grant <sup>i</sup> that I may see thy children of my daughter Sara before I die, that I may rejoice before the Lord: behold, I commit my daughter unto thee || of special trust; wherefore do not entreat her evil. h Ex. 20, 12. i Job 42, 16 j Or, to be safely kept

CHAPTER XI.

6 Tobias's mother spieth her son coming: 10 His father meeteth him at the door, and recovereth his sight: 14 He praiseth God, 17 and welcometh his daughter-in-law.

AFTER these things Tobias <sup>a</sup> went his way, <sup>a</sup> praising God that he had given him a prosperous journey, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew near unto <sup>b</sup> Nineve. a Acts 8, 39. b Gen. 10, 11.

2 Then <sup>c</sup> Raphael said to Tobias, Thou knowest, brother, how thou didst leave thy father: c ch. 9, 1.

3 Let us haste before thy wife, and prepare the house.

4 And take in thine hand the gall of the fish. So they went their way, <sup>d</sup> and the dog went after them. d ch. 5, 16

5 Now Anna sat looking about towards the way for her son.

6 And when she espied him coming, she said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and <sup>e</sup> the man that went with him. e ch. 5, 8

7 Then said Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes.

8 Therefore anoint thou his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and <sup>f</sup> the whiteness shall fall away, and he shall see thee. f ch. 2, 10

9 Then Anna ran forth, and <sup>g</sup> fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, Seeing I have seen thee, my son, from henceforth <sup>h</sup> I am content to die. And they wept both. g Gen. 46, 29. h Gen. 46, 30.

10 Tobit also went forth towards the door, and stumbled; but his son ran unto him, 11 And took hold of his father; and he strake of the gall on his father's eyes, saying, Be of good hope, my father.

12 And when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them;

13 And <sup>i</sup> the whiteness pilled away from the corners of his eyes: and when he saw his son, he fell upon his neck. i verse 8

14 And he wept, and said, Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy name for ever; and blessed are all thine holy angels:

k Ps. 103,
13.

15 For thou hast scourged, <sup>k</sup> and hast taken pity on me: for behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media.

11, 12, 13.

16 Then Tobit went out to meet his daughter-in-law at the gate of <sup>l</sup> Nineve, rejoicing, and praising God: and they which saw him go marvelled, <sup>m</sup> because he had received his sight.

n verse 14.

17 But Tobit gave thanks before them, because God had mercy on him. And when he came near to Sara his daughter-in-law, he blessed her, saying, 'Thou art welcome daughter: <sup>n</sup> God be blessed, which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed be thy father and thy mother. And there was joy among all his brethren which were at Nineve.

CHAPTER XII.

5 Tobit offereth half to the angel for his pains. 6 But he calleth them both aside, and exhorteth them, 15 and telleth them that he was an angel, 21 and was seen no more.

a ch. 5, 14,
15.

THEN Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, My son, <sup>a</sup> see that the man have his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more.

2 And Tobias said unto him, O father, it is no harm to me to give him half of those things which I have brought:

b ch. 7, 11.
& 8, 2, 3.
c ch. 9, 5.

3 For he hath brought me again to thee in safety, <sup>b</sup> and made whole my wife, <sup>c</sup> and brought me the money, and likewise healed thee.

4 Then the old man said, It is due unto him.

d verse 2.

5 So he called the angel, and he said unto him, <sup>d</sup> Take half of all that ye have brought, and go away in safety.

e Ps. 117,
1.
Or, with

6 Then he took them both apart, and said unto them, Bless God, praise him, and magnify him, and praise him for the things which he hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. <sup>e</sup> It is good to praise God, and exalt his name, and ¶ honourably to shew forth the works of God; therefore be not slack to praise him.

7 It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honourable to reveal the works of God. Do that which is good, <sup>f</sup> and no evil shall touch you.

f 1 Pet. 3, 13.

8 Prayer is good with fasting, and alms, and righteousness. <sup>g</sup> A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold:

g Ps. 37,

9 For alms doth deliver from death, and shall purge away all sin. Those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with life:

11 <sup>i</sup> Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, It was good to keep close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable to reveal the works of God.

k Acts 10,
4.

12 Now therefore, when thou didst pray, and Sara thy daughter-in-law, <sup>k</sup> I did bring the remembrance of your prayers before the Holy One: and when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee likewise.

13 And when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, <sup>l</sup> to go and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with thee.

14 And <sup>l</sup> now God hath sent me to heal thee and Sara thy daughter-in-law.

15 I am Raphael, one of the seven holy angels, which present the prayers of the saints, and which go in and out before the glory of the Holy One.

16 Then they were both troubled, and <sup>m</sup> fell upon their faces: for they feared. <sup>m</sup> Judges 13, 20.

17 But he said unto them, Fear not, for it shall go well with you; praise God therefore.

18 For not of any favour of mine, but by the will of our God I came; wherefore praise him for ever.

19 <sup>n</sup> All these days I did appear unto you; but I did neither eat nor drink, but ye did see a vision. <sup>n</sup> Gen. 13, 8. & 19, 3. Judges 13, 16.

20 Now therefore give God thanks; for I go up to him that sent me; but write all things which are done in a book.

21 And when they arose, <sup>o</sup> they saw him no more. <sup>o</sup> Acts 8, 39.

22 Then they confessed the great and wonderful works of God, and how the angel of the Lord had appeared unto them.

CHAPTER XIII.

The thanksgiving unto God, which Tobit wrote.

THEN Tobit wrote a prayer of rejoicing, and said, Blessed be God that liveth for ever, and blessed be his kingdom.

2 <sup>a</sup> For he doth scourge, and hath mercy: he leadeth down to hell, and bringeth up again: neither is there any that can avoid his hand. <sup>a</sup> Deut. 32, 39. 1 Sam. 2, 6.

3 <sup>b</sup> Confess him before the Gentiles, ye children of Israel: for he hath scattered us among them. <sup>b</sup> Wis. 16, 13. Ps. 18, 49. Rom. 15, 9.

4 There declare his greatness, and extol him before all the living: for he is our Lord, and he is the God our Father for ever.

5 And he will scourge us for our iniquities, and will have mercy again, and will gather us out of all nations, among whom he hath scattered us.

6 <sup>c</sup> If ye turn to him with your whole heart, and with your whole mind, and deal uprightly before him, then will he turn unto you, and will not hide his face from you. <sup>c</sup> 1 Kings 8, 47. 51.

Therefore see what he will do with you, and confess him with your whole mouth, and praise the Lord of might, and extol the everlasting King. In the land of my captivity do I praise him, and declare his might and majesty to a sinful nation. O ye sinners, turn and do justice before him: <sup>d</sup> who can tell if he will accept you, and have mercy on you? <sup>d</sup> Joel 2, 14.

7 I will extol my God, and my soul shall praise the King of heaven, and shall rejoice in his greatness.

8 Let all men speak, <sup>e</sup> and let all praise him for his righteousness. <sup>e</sup> Ps. 67, 5.

9 O Jerusalem, the holy city, ¶ he will scourge thee for thy children's works, and will have mercy again on the sons of the righteous. ¶ Or, he will lay a scourge upon the works of thy children.

10 Give praise to the Lord, <sup>f</sup> for he is good: and praise the everlasting King, that his tabernacle may be builded in thee again with joy, and ¶ let him make joyful there in thee those that are captives, and love in thee for ever those that are miserable. <sup>f</sup> Ps. 106, 1.

11 <sup>g</sup> Many nations shall come from far to the name of the Lord God <sup>h</sup> with gifts in their hands, even gifts to the King of heaven; all generations shall praise thee with great joy. <sup>g</sup> Isa. 2, 3. <sup>h</sup> Ps. 72, 10.

12 Cursed are all they which hate thee, and blessed shall all be which love thee for ever. ¶ Or, to make.

13 Rejoice and be glad for the children of the just: for they shall be gathered together, and shall bless the Lord of the just.

|| Or, prosperity. shall rejoice in thy || peace: blessed are they which have been sorrowful for all thy scourges; for they shall rejoice for thee, when they have seen all thy glory, and shall be glad for ever.

k Ps. 103, 1, 2. 15 Let <sup>k</sup> my soul bless God the great King.

m verse 18. Rev. 21, 21. 17 And <sup>m</sup> the streets of Jerusalem shall be paved with beryl, and carbuncle, and stones of Ophir.

18 And all her streets shall say, Alleluia; and they shall praise him, saying, Blessed be God, which hath extolled it for ever.

CHAPTER XIV.

3 Tobit giveth instructions to his son, 8 specially to leave Nineve; 11 he and his wife die, and are buried. 12 Tobias removeth to Ecbatane, 14 and there dieth, after he had heard of the destruction of Nineve.

SO Tobit made an end of praising God.

2 And he was eight and fifty years old when he lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight years: <sup>a</sup> and he gave alms, and he || increased in the fear of the Lord God, and praised him.

3 And when he was very aged, <sup>b</sup> he called his son, and the six sons of his son, and said to him, My son, take thy children; for behold, I am aged, and am ready to depart out of this life.

c Jonah 1, 1. d ch. 1, 14. 4 Go into Media, my son, for I surely believe those things which <sup>c</sup> Jonas the prophet spake of Nineve, that it shall be overthrown; and that for a time peace shall rather be in <sup>d</sup> Media; and that our brethren shall lie scattered in the earth from that good land: and Jerusalem shall be desolate, and the house of God in it shall be burned, and shall be desolate for a time;

2 Arphaxad doth fortify Ecbatane. 5 Nabuchodonosor maketh war against him, 7 and craveth aid. 12 He threateneth those that would not aid him, 15 and killeth Arphaxad, 16 and returneth to Nineve.

a Tobit 14, 15. b Jonah 1, 2. & 3, 2, 3. IN the twelfth year of the reign of <sup>a</sup> Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineve, <sup>b</sup> the great city; in the days of Arphaxad, which reigned over the Medes in Ecbatane, c Ps. 127, 1. verse 14. 2 And built in Ecbatane <sup>c</sup> walls round about of stones hewn three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits:

3 And set the towers thereof upon the gates of it, an hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits:

4 And he made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen:

5 Even in those days king Nabuchodonosor made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of Ragau.

6 And there came unto him all they that dwelt in the hill-country, and all they that dwelt by <sup>d</sup> Euphrates, and Tigres, and Hydaspes, and the plain of Arioch the king of the Elymeans, and very many nations of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle.

d Gen. 2, 14.

7 Then Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians sent unto all that dwelt in <sup>e</sup> Persia, and to all that dwelt westward, and to those that dwelt in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt upon the sea-coast,

Egypt, and Taphnes, and Ramesse, and all the land of Gesem, 10 Until ye come beyond Taxis and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, until ye come to the borders of <sup>i</sup> Ethiopia.

11 But all the inhabitants of the land made light of the commandment of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him: yea, he was before them as one man, and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with disgrace.

12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this country, and sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of <sup>k</sup> Cilicia, and <sup>l</sup> Damascus, and <sup>m</sup> Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, till ye come to the borders of the two seas.

13 Then he marched in battle-array with his power against king Arphaxad in the seventeenth year, and he prevailed in his battle: for he overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots, 14 And became lord of his cities, and came unto Ecbatane, and took the <sup>n</sup> towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame.

15 He took also <sup>o</sup> Arphaxad in the mountains of Ragan, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day.

16 So he returned afterward to <sup>p</sup> Nineve, both he and all his company of sundry nations, being a very great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease, and banqueted, both he and his army, an hundred and twenty days.

CHAPTER II.

4 Holofernes is appointed general, 11 and charged to spare none that will not yield: 15 His army and provision: 23 the places which he won and wasted as he went.

AND <sup>a</sup> in the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, that he should, <sup>b</sup> as he said, avenge himself on all the earth.

2 So he called unto him all his officers, and all his nobles, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and <sup>c</sup> concluded the afflicting of the whole earth out of his own mouth.

3 Then they decreed to destroy <sup>d</sup> all flesh that did not obey the commandment of his mouth.

4 And when he had ended his counsel, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians called Holofernes the chief captain of his army, which was <sup>e</sup> next unto him, and said unto him,

5 Thus saith the great king, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their own strength, of footmen an hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand.

6 And thou shalt go against all the west country, because they disobeyed my commandment.

7 And thou shalt declare unto them, that they prepare for me || earth and water: for I will go forth in my wrath against them, and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoil unto them:

8 So that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks, and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow:

9 And <sup>e</sup> I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth.

10 Thou therefore shall go forth, and take beforehand for me all their coasts: and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt reserve them for me till the day of their punishment.

11 But concerning them that rebel, let not thine eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter, and spoil them wheresoever thou goest.

12 For <sup>f</sup> as I live, and <sup>g</sup> by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I do by mine hand.

13 And take thou heed that thou transgress none of the commandments of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to do them.

14 Then Holofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called <sup>h</sup> all the governors and captains, and the officers of the army of Assur;

15 And he mustered the chosen men for the battle, as his lord had commanded him, <sup>i</sup> unto an hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback;

16 And he ranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war.

17 <sup>k</sup> And he took camels and asses for their carriages, a very great number; and sheep, and oxen, and goats without number, for their provision:

18 And plenty of victual for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the king's house.

19 Then he went forth and all his power to go before king Nabuchodonosor in the voyage, and <sup>l</sup> to cover all the face of the earth westward with the chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen footmen.

20 A great multitude also of sundry countries came with them like locusts, and like the sand of the earth: for the multitude was <sup>m</sup> without number.

21 And they went forth of Nineve three days' journey towards the plain of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper Cilicia.

22 Then he took all his army, his footmen, and horsemen, and chariots, and went from thence into the hill-country;

23 And destroyed <sup>n</sup> Phud and <sup>o</sup> Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rassess, and the children of <sup>p</sup> Ismael, which were towards the wilderness at the south of the land of the Chellians.

24 Then he went over Euphrates, and went through <sup>q</sup> Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till ye come to the sea.

25 And he took the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Japheth, which were towards the south, over against Arabia.

26 He compassed also all the children of <sup>r</sup> Madian, and burned up their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheep-cotes.

27 Then he went down into the plain of Damascus in the time of <sup>s</sup> wheat harvest, and burned up all their fields, and destroyed their flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities, and utterly wasted their countries, and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword.

CHAPTER III.

1 They of the sea-coast entreat for peace. 7 Holofernes is received there: 8 yet he destroyeth their gods, that they might worship only Nabuchodonosor: 9 He cometh near to Judea.

SO they sent ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying, a ch. 2, 5. 2 Behold, we the servants of Nabuchodonosor<sup>a</sup> the great king lie before thee; use us as shall be good in thy sight.

b ch. 2, 27. 3 Behold, our houses, and all our places, <sup>b</sup> and all our fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the lodges of our tents, lie before thy face; use them as it pleaseth thee.

4 Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy servants; come and deal with them as seemeth good unto thee.

c ch. 2, 4. 5 So the men came to <sup>c</sup> Holofernes, and declared unto him after this manner.

6 Then came he down towards the sea-coast, both he and his army, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aid.

7 So they and all the country round about received them with <sup>d</sup> garlands, with <sup>e</sup> dances, and with timbrels.

8 Yet he did cast down their frontiers, and cut down their groves: for he had decreed to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god.

9 Also he came over against || Esdraelon near unto || Judea, over against the † great strait of Judea.

10 And he pitched between Geba and Scythopolis, and there he tarried a whole month, that he might gather together all the carriages of his army.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The Jews are afraid of Holofernes, 5 and fortify the hills: 6 They of Bethulia take charge of the passages. 9 All Israel fall to fasting and prayer.

NOW the children of Israel that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Holofernes the chief captain of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, <sup>a</sup> and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to nought.

a ch. 3, 8. 2 <sup>b</sup> Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were <sup>c</sup> troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of the Lord their God:

3 For they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people || of Judea were lately gathered together: and the vessels, and the altar, and the house, were sanctified <sup>d</sup> after the profanation.

4 Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Samaria, and the villages, and to Bethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of Salem:

5 And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid up victuals for the provision of war: for their fields were of late reaped.

6 Also Joacim the high priest, which was in those days in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in Bethulia, and Betomestham, which is over against || Esdraelon towards the || open country, near to Dothaim,

|| Or, Esdraelon.
|| Or, plain

7 Charging them to keep the passages of the hill-country: for by them there was an entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them that would come up, because the passage was strait, || for two men at the most.

|| Or, two against all

8 And the children of Israel did as Joacim the high priest had commanded them, with the || <sup>e</sup> ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem.

|| Or, governors.
e Ezek. 3

9 Then every man of Israel <sup>f</sup> cried to God with great fervency, and with great vehemency did they humble their souls:

11. f Jonah 1, 5.

10 Both they, <sup>g</sup> and their wives, and their children, <sup>h</sup> and their cattle, and every stranger and hireling, and their servants bought with money, put sackcloth upon their loins.

g Zech. 12, 12.
h Jonah 3, 8.

11 Thus every man and woman, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, fell before the temple, and cast ashes upon their heads, and spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord: also they put sackcloth about the altar, 12 And cried to the God of Israel all <sup>i</sup> with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives for a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation and reproach, and for the nations to rejoice at.

i Zeph. 3, 9.

13 <sup>k</sup> So God heard their prayers, and looked upon their afflictions: for the people fasted many days in all Judea and Jerusalem before the sanctuary of the Lord Almighty.

k Ps. 106, 44.

14 And Joacim the high priest, <sup>l</sup> and all the priests that stood before the Lord, and they which ministered unto the Lord, had their loins girt with sackcloth, and offered the daily burnt-offerings, with the vows and free gifts of the people, l Joel 2, 17.

15 And had ashes on their <sup>m</sup> mitres, and cried unto the Lord with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel graciously.

CHAPTER V.

1 Achior telleth Holofernes what the Jews are, 8 and what their God had done for them; 21 and adviseth not to meddle with them.

22 All that heard him were offended at him. THEN was it declared to Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, that <sup>a</sup> the children of Israel had prepared for war, and had <sup>b</sup> shut up the passages of the hill-country, and had fortified † all the tops of the high hills, and had laid impediments in the campaign countries:

d Luke 1, 39.

4 And why have they determined not to come and meet me, <sup>e</sup> more than all the inhabitants of the west.

e ch. 3, 1

5 <sup>f</sup> Then said Achior, <sup>g</sup> the captain of all the sons of Ammon, Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will declare unto thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth near thee, and inhabiteth the hill-countries: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant.

8 For they || left the way of their ancestors, and worshipped the God of heaven, the God whom they knew : so they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many days.

9 Then <sup>k</sup> their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Chanaan : where they dwelt, and were increased with gold and silver, and with very much cattle.

21 But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend them, and <sup>b</sup> their God be for them, and we become a reproach before all the world.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Holofernes despiseth God. 7 He threateneth Achior, and sendeth him away. 14 The Bethulians receive and hear him. 18 They call to prayer, and comfort Achior.

AND when the <sup>a</sup> tumult of men that were about <sup>a</sup> ch. 5, 22 the council was ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the army of Assur, said unto Achior and all the Moabites before all the company of other nations,

2 And who art thou, Achior, and the hirelings of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied among us as today, and hast said, that we should not make war with the people of Israel, because their God will defend them ? <sup>b</sup> and who is God but Nabuchodonosor ?

3 He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God shall not deliver them : but we his servants <sup>c</sup> will destroy them as one man ; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses.

4 For with them we will tread them under foot, and <sup>d</sup> their mountains shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, saith king Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth : for he said, None of my words shall be in vain.

<sup>d</sup> ch. 2, 8

5 And thou, Achior, <sup>e</sup> an hireling of Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I take vengeance of this nation <sup>f</sup> that came out of Egypt.

6 And then shall the sword of mine army, and the multitude of them that serve me, pass through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slain, when I return.

7 Now therefore <sup>g</sup> my servants shall bring thee back into the hill-country, and shall set thee in one of the cities <sup>h</sup> of the passages :

8 And thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them.

9 And if thou persuade thyself in thy mind that they shall not be taken, let not thy countenance fall : I have spoken it, and none of my words shall be in vain.

10 Then Holofernes commanded his servants, that waited in his <sup>i</sup> tent, to take Achior, and bring him to Bethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel.

11 So his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into <sup>k</sup> the plain, and they went from the midst of the plain into the hill-country, and came unto the fountains that were under Bethulia.

<sup>k</sup> verse 7

12 And when the men of the city saw them, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city to the top of the hill : and every man that used <sup>l</sup> a sling kept them from coming up by casting of stones against them.

13 Nevertheless, having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their <sup>m</sup> lord.

<sup>m</sup> ch. 5, 24

14 But the Israelites descended from their city, and came unto him, and loosed him, and brought him into <sup>n</sup> Bethulia, and presented him to the governors of the city :

15 Which were in those days Ozias the son of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charmis the son of Melchiel.

16 And they called together all <sup>o</sup> the ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women, to the assembly, and they sat Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done.

17 And he answered and declared unto them the words of <sup>p</sup> the council of Holofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Holofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel.

18 Then the people <sup>q</sup> fell down and worshipped God, and cried unto God, saying, 19 O <sup>r</sup> Lord God of heaven, behold their pride, and pity the low estate of our nation, and look upon the face of those that are sanctified unto thee this day.

20 Then <sup>s</sup> they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly.

21 And Ozias took him out of the assembly unto his house, and made a feast to the elders; <sup>t</sup> and they called on the God of Israel all that night for help.

CHAPTER VII

1 Holofernes besiegeth Bethulia, 7 and stoppeth the water from them.

22 They faint and murmur against the governors, 30 who promise to yield within five days.

THE next day Holofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should remove their camp against <sup>a</sup> Bethulia, to take aforehand the ascents of the hill-country, and to make war against the children of Israel.

2 Then their strong men removed their <sup>b</sup> camps in that day, and the army of the men of war was <sup>b</sup> an hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelve thousand horsemen, besides the baggage, and other men that were <sup>c</sup> afoot among them, a very great multitude.

3 And they camped in the valley near unto Bethulia, <sup>c</sup> by the fountain, and they spread themselves in breadth <sup>d</sup> over Dothaim even to Belmain, and in length from Bethulia unto <sup>e</sup> Cyamon, which is over against Esdraelom.

4 Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbour, <sup>d</sup> Now will these men lick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to bear their weight.

5 Then every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and <sup>e</sup> watched all that night.

6 But in the second day Holofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel which were in Bethulia;

7 And viewed <sup>f</sup> the passages up to the city, and came to <sup>g</sup> the fountains of their waters, and took them, and set garrisons of men of war over them, and he himself removed towards his people.

8 Then came unto him all the chief of the children of Esau, and all the governors of the people of Moab, and the captains of the sea-coast, and said, 9 Let our lord now hear <sup>h</sup> a word, that there be not an overthrow in thine army.

10 For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their <sup>i</sup> spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, because it is <sup>j</sup> not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains.

11 Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battle-array, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish.

12 Remain in thy camp, and keep all the men of thine army, and let thy servants get into their hands

13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia have their water thence : <sup>k</sup> so shall thirst kill them, and they shall give up their city, and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will camp upon them, to watch that none go out of the city.

14 So they and their wives and their children shall be consumed <sup>l</sup> with famine, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell.

15 Thus shalt thou render them an evil reward; because they <sup>m</sup> rebelled, and <sup>n</sup> met not thy person peaceably.

16 And these words pleased Holofernes and all his servants, and he appointed to do as they had spoken.

17 So the camp of the children of Ammon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and <sup>o</sup> took the waters, and the fountains of the waters of the children of Israel.

18 Then the children of Esau went up with the children of Ammon, and camped in the hill-country over against <sup>p</sup> Dothaim : and they sent some of them towards the south, and towards the east, over against Ekrebel, which is near unto Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plain, and <sup>q</sup> covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and carriages were pitched to a very great multitude.

19 Then the <sup>r</sup> children of Israel cried unto the Lord their God, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them.

20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots, and horsemen, four and thirty days, <sup>s</sup> so that all their vessels of water failed all the inhabitants of Bethulia.

21 And the <sup>t</sup> cisterns were emptied, and they had not water to drink their fill for one day; for they gave them drink by measure.

22 Therefore their young children were out of heart, and their women <sup>u</sup> and young men fainted for thirst, and fell down in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them.

23 Then all the people assembled to <sup>v</sup> Ozias, and to the chief of the city, both young men, and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and said before all the elders, 24 God be <sup>w</sup> judge between us and you : for ye have done us great injury, <sup>x</sup> in that ye have not required peace of the children of Assur.

25 For now we have no helper : <sup>y</sup> but God hath sold us into their hands, that we should be thrown down before them with thirst and great destruction.

26 Now therefore call them unto you, and deliver the whole city for a spoil to the people of Holofernes, and to all his army.

27 For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them, than to die for thirst : for we will be his servants, that our souls may live, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our children to die.

28 <sup>a</sup> We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins and the sins

<sup>|| Or, lest he do, meaning Holofernes.</sup> of our fathers, || that he do not according as we have said this day.

29 Then there was great weeping with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto the Lord God with a loud voice.

<sup>b verse 23.</sup> 30 Then said <sup>b</sup> Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, let us yet endure five days, in the which space the Lord our God may turn his mercy towards us; <sup>c</sup> for he will not forsake us utterly.

<sup>c Isa. 54, 7.</sup> 31 And if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do according to your word.

<sup>d Ps. 116, 6.</sup> 32 And he dispersed the people, every one to their own charge; and they went unto the walls and towers of their city, and sent the women and children into their houses: <sup>d</sup> and they were very low brought in the city.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The state and behaviour of Judith a widow. 12 She blameth the governors for their promise to yield, 17 and adviseth them to trust in God. 28 They excuse their promise. 32 She promiseth to do something for them.

<sup>a 1 Chr. 6, 29.</sup> NOW at that time Judith heard thereof, which was the daughter of <sup>a</sup> Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Oziel, the son of Elcia, the son of Ananias, the son of Gideon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Eliu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of || Samael, the son of Salasadai, the son of Israel.

<sup>d ch. 4, 6.</sup> 4 So Judith was a widow in her house three years and four months.

5 And she made her a tent upon the top of her house, and put on sackcloth upon her loins, and ware her widow's apparel.

<sup>e Luke 2, 37.</sup> 6 And <sup>e</sup> she fasted all the days of her widowhood, save the eves of the sabbaths, and the sabbaths, and the eves of the new moons, and the new moons, and the feasts and solemn days of the house of Israel.

<sup>|| Or, and she kept them</sup> 7 She was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautiful to behold: and her husband Manasses had left her gold, and silver, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and cattle, and lands; || and she remained upon them.

8 And there was none that gave her an ill word; for she feared God greatly.

<sup>f ch. 7, 22, 29.</sup> 9 Now when she heard <sup>f</sup> the evil words of the people against the governor, that they fainted for lack of water; for Judith had heard all <sup>g</sup> the words that Ozias had spoken unto them, and that he had sworn to deliver the city unto the Assyrians after five days;

<sup>g ch. 7, 30, 31.</sup> 10 Then she sent her waiting-woman, that had the government of all things that she had, to call Ozias and <sup>b</sup> Chabris and Charmis, <sup>i</sup> the ancients of the city.

<sup>h verse 9.</sup> 11 And they came unto her, and she said unto them, Hear me now, O ye governors of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words that ye have spoken before the people this day are not right, touching this <sup>k</sup> oath which ye made and pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turn to help you.

this day, and stand instead of God among the children of men?

13 And now try the Lord Almighty, but ye shall never know any thing.

14 For ye cannot find the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceive the things that he thinketh: <sup>m</sup> then how can ye search out God, that hath made all these things, and know his mind, or comorehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, provoke not the Lord our God to anger.

15 For if he will not help us within these five days, <sup>n</sup> he hath power to defend us when he will, even every day, or to destroy us before our enemies.

16 Do not || bind the counsels of the Lord our God: for <sup>o</sup> God is not as man, that he may be threatened; neither is he as the son of man, that he should be wavering.

17 Therefore let us <sup>p</sup> wait for salvation of him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if it please him.

18 For there arose none in our age, neither is there any now in these days, neither tribe nor family, nor || people, nor city, among us, which worship gods made with hands, <sup>q</sup> as hath been aforetime.

19 For the which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and had a great fall before our enemies.

20 But we know none other God, therefore <sup>r</sup> we trust that he will not despise us, nor any of our nation.

21 For if we be taken so, all Judea shall lie waste, <sup>s</sup> and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and he will require the profanation thereof at our mouth.

22 And the || slaughter of our brethren, and the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will he turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, wheresoever we shall be in bondage; <sup>t</sup> and we shall be an offence and a reproach to all them that possess us.

23 For our servitude shall not be directed to favour: but the Lord our God shall turn it to dishonour.

24 Now therefore, O brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend upon us, <sup>u</sup> and the sanctuary, and the house, and the altar, rest upon us.

25 Moreover, let us give thanks to the Lord our God, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers.

26 Remember what things he did to <sup>x</sup> Abramam, and how he tried Isaac, and what happened to <sup>y</sup> Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother.

27 For he hath not tried us in the fire, as he did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us: <sup>z</sup> but the Lord doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them.

28 Then said <sup>a</sup> Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken, hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words.

29 For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thy understanding, because the disposition of thine heart is good.

30 <sup>b</sup> But the people were very thirsty, and compelled us to do unto them as we have spoken, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break.

31 Therefore now <sup>c</sup> pray thou for us, because thou art a godly woman, and the Lord will send us rain to fill our cisterns, and we shall faint no more.

32 Then said Judith unto them, Hear me, and I will do a thing which shall go throughout all generations to the children of our nation.

33 Ye shall stand this night in the gate, and I will go forth with my waiting-woman: and within the days that ye have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, the Lord will <sup>a</sup> visit Israel by mine hand.

34 But inquire not ye of mine act: for I will not declare it unto you, till the things be finished that I do.

35 Then said Ozias and the princes unto her, <sup>e</sup> Go in peace, and the Lord God be before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies.

36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wards.

THEN Judith <sup>a</sup> fell upon her face, and put ashes upon her head, and uncovered the sackcloth wherewith she was clothed; and about the time <sup>b</sup> that the incense of that evening was offered in Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord, Judith cried with a loud voice, and said,

2 O Lord God of my father <sup>c</sup> Simeon, to whom thou gavest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maid to defile her, and discovered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproach; <sup>d</sup> for thou saidst, It shall not be so; and yet they did so:

3 Wherefore thou gavest their rulers to be slain, so that they dyed their bed in blood, being deceived, and smotest the servants with their lords, and the lords upon their thrones;

4 <sup>e</sup> And hast given their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoils to be divided among thy dear children; which were moved with thy zeal, and abhorred <sup>f</sup> the pollution of their blood, and called upon thee for aid: O God, O my God, hear me also <sup>g</sup> a widow.

5 For thou hast wrought not only those things, but also the things which fell out before and which ensued after; thou hast thought upon the things which are now, and which are to come.

6 Yea, <sup>h</sup> what things thou didst determine were ready at hand, and said, Lo, we are here: for all thy ways are prepared, and thy judgments are in thy foreknowledge.

7 For, behold, the Assyrians <sup>i</sup> are multiplied in their power; they are exalted with horse and man; they glory in the strength of their footmen; they trust in shield and spear, and bow and sling; and know not that thou art the Lord that breakest the battles: the Lord is thy name.

8 Throw down their strength in thy power, and bring down their force in thy wrath: <sup>k</sup> for they have purposed to defile thy sanctuary, and to pollute the tabernacle where thy glorious name resteth, and to cast down with the sword the horn of thy altar.

9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath upon their heads: give into mine hand, which am a widow, the power that I have conceived.

10 <sup>l</sup> Smite by the deceit of my lips the servant with the prince, and the prince with the servant: break down their stateliness by the hand of a woman.

11 <sup>m</sup> For thy power standeth not in multitude, nor thy might in strong men: for thou art a God of the afflicted, an helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a protector of the forlorn, a saviour of them that are without hope.

12 I pray thee, I pray thee, <sup>n</sup> O God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, <sup>o</sup> Lord of the heavens and earth, Creator of the waters, King of every creature, hear thou my prayer:

13 And make my speech and <sup>p</sup> deceit to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed cruel things against thy covenant, and thy hallowed house, and against the top of <sup>q</sup> Sion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

14 And make <sup>r</sup> every nation and tribe to acknowledge that thou art the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the people of Israel but thou.

CHAPTER X.

3 Judith doth set forth herself. 10 She and her maid go forth into the camp. 17 The watch take and conduct her to Holofernes.

NOW after that she had ceased <sup>a</sup> to cry unto the God of Israel, and had made an end of all these words,

2 She rose where she had fallen down, and called <sup>b</sup> her maid, and went down into the house, in the which she abode in the sabbath-days, and in her feast-days.

3 And pulled off <sup>c</sup> the sackcloth which she had on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body all over with water, and anointed herself with precious ointment, and braided the hair of her head, and put on a <sup>d</sup> tire upon it, and put on her garments of gladness, wherewith she was clad during the life of <sup>d</sup> Manasses her husband.

4 And she took sandals upon her feet, and <sup>e</sup> put about her her bracelets, and her chains, and her rings, and her ear-rings, and all her ornaments, and decked herself bravely, to allure the eyes of all men that should see her.

5 Then she gave her maid a bottle of wine, and a cruse of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, and lumps of figs, and with fine bread; so she || folded all these things together, and laid them upon her.

6 Thus they went forth to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and found standing there <sup>f</sup> Ozias, and the ancients of the city, Chabris and Charmis.

7 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, <sup>g</sup> and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her,

8 The God, <sup>h</sup> the God of our fathers, give thee favour, and accomplish thine enterprises to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshipped God.

9 And she said unto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things whereof ye have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken.

10 And when they had done so, Judith went out, she, and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, <sup>i</sup> and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

11 Thus they went straight forth in the valley: and the first watch of the <sup>k</sup> Assyrians met her,

12 And took her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? <sup>1</sup> And she said, I am a woman of the Hebrews, and am fled from them: for they shall be given you to be consumed:

13 And I am coming before Holofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth; and I will shew him a way whereby he shall go, and win all the hill-country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men.

14 Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, <sup>m</sup> they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her,

15 Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast hastened to come down to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall conduct thee, until they have delivered thee to his hands.

16 And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart but shew unto him <sup>n</sup> according to thy word; and he will entreat thee well.

17 Then they chose out of them an hundred men || to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of Holofernes.

18 Then was there a concourse throughout all the camp: for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Holofernes, till they told him of her.

19 <sup>o</sup> And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbour, <sup>p</sup> Who would despise this people that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left, who being let go might deceive the whole earth.

20 And they that lay near Holofernes went out, and all his servants, and they brought her into <sup>q</sup> the tent.

21 Now Holofernes rested upon his bed under a canopy, which was woven with purple, and gold, and emeralds, and precious stones.

22 So they shewed him of her; and he came out before his tent with silver lamps going before him.

23 And when Judith was come before him and his servants, <sup>r</sup> they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance; <sup>s</sup> and she fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him: and his servants took her up.

CHAPTER XI.

3 Holofernes asketh Judith the cause of her coming. 6 She telleth him how and when he may prevail. 20 He is much pleased with her wisdom and beauty.

1 <sup>a</sup> THEN said Holofernes unto her, Woman, <sup>a</sup> be of good comfort, fear not in thine heart: for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Nabuchodonosor, <sup>b</sup> the king of all the earth.

2 Now therefore, if thy people <sup>c</sup> that dwelleth in the mountains had not set light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done these things to themselves.

3 But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come unto us: for thou art come for safeguard <sup>d</sup> be of good comfort, thou shalt live this night, and hereafter:

4 For none shall hurt thee, but entreat thee well, as they do the servants of king Nabuchodonosor my lord.

5 Then Judith said unto him, Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speak in thy presence, <sup>e</sup> and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.

6 And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring the thing perfectly to pass by thee; and my lord shall not fail of his purposes.

7 As Nabuchodonosor <sup>f</sup> king of all the earth liveth, and as his power liveth, <sup>g</sup> who hath sent thee for the upholding of every living thing: for not only men shall serve him by thee, but also the beasts of the field, and the cattle, and the fowls of the air, shall live by thy power under Nabuchodonosor and all his house.

8 For we have heard of thy wisdom and thy policies, and it is reported in all the earth, that thou only art || excellent in all the kingdom, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war.

9 Now as concerning the matter, <sup>h</sup> which Achior did speak in thy council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia || saved him, and he declared unto them all that he had spoken unto thee.

10 Therefore, O lord and governor, reject not his word; but <sup>i</sup> lay it up in thine heart, for it is true; for our nation shall not be punished, neither can the sword prevail against them, except they sin against their God.

11 And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them, and their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they will provoke their God to anger, whensoever they shall do that which is not fit to be done:

12 For their victuals fail them, <sup>k</sup> and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle, and purposed to consume all those things, that God hath forbidden them to eat by his laws:

13 And are resolved to spend the first-fruits of the corn, and the tenths of wine and oil, which they had sanctified, <sup>l</sup> and reserved for the priests that serve in Jerusalem before the face of our God; the which things it is not lawful for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands.

14 For they have sent some to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done the like, to bring them a license from the senate.

15 Now when they shall bring them word, they will forthwith do it, <sup>m</sup> and they shall be given thee to be destroyed the same day.

16 Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, <sup>n</sup> am fled from their presence; and God hath sent me to work things with thee, whereat all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall hear it.

17 For thy servant is religious, and serveth the God of heaven <sup>o</sup> day and night: now therefore, my lord, I will remain with thee, and thy servant will go out by night into the valley, and I will pray unto God, and he will tell me when they have committed their sins:

18 And I will come and shew it unto thee: then thou shalt go forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee.

19 And <sup>p</sup> I will lead thee through the midst of Judea, until thou come before Jerusalem; and I will set thy throne in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them as sheep that have no shepherd, and <sup>q</sup> a dog shall not so much as || open his mouth at thee: for || these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared unto me, and I am sent to tell thee.

20 Then her words pleased Holofernes and all his servants; and they marvelled at <sup>r</sup> her wisdom, and said, 21 There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both <sup>s</sup> for beauty of face, and wisdom of words.

22 Likewise Holofernes said unto her, <sup>t</sup> God hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands, and destruction upon them that lightly regard my lord.

23 And now thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words: surely if thou do as thou hast spoken, <sup>u</sup> thy God shall be my God; and thou shalt dwell in the house of king Nabuchodonosor, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

CHAPTER XII.

2 Judith will not eat of Holofernes' meat. 7 She tarrieth three days in the camp, and every night went forth to pray. 13 Bagoas moveth her to be merry with Holofernes, 20 who for joy of her company drank much.

THEN he commanded to bring her in where his plate was set; and bade that they should prepare for her <sup>a</sup> of his own meats, and that she should drink of his own wine.

2 And Judith said, I <sup>b</sup> will not eat thereof, lest there be an offence: but provision shall be made for me of the things that I have brought.

3 Then Holofernes said unto her, If thy provision should fail, how should we give thee the like? for there be none with us of <sup>c</sup> thy nation.

4 Then said Judith unto him, As thy soul liveth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before the Lord work by mine hand the things that he hath determined.

5 Then <sup>d</sup> the servants of Holofernes brought her into the tent, and she slept till midnight, and she arose when it was towards the morning watch,

6 And sent to Holofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid <sup>e</sup> may go forth unto prayer.

7 Then Holofernes commanded his guard that they should not stay her: thus she abode in the camp three days, and went out in the night into <sup>f</sup> the valley of Bethulia, and washed herself in a fountain of water by the camp.

8 And when she came out, she besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way to the raising up of the children of her people.

9 So she came in clean, and remained in the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening.

10 And in the fourth day Holofernes made a feast to <sup>g</sup> his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet.

11 Then said he to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this <sup>h</sup> Hebrew woman which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us.

12 For lo, it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let <sup>i</sup> such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she will laugh us to scorn.

13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Holofernes, and came to her, and he said, <sup>k</sup> Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with us, and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, <sup>l</sup> which serve in the house of Nabuchodonosor.

14 Then said Judith unto him, <sup>m</sup> Who am I now, that I should gainsay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him I will do speedily, and it shall be my joy unto the day of my death.

15 So she arose, <sup>n</sup> and decked herself with her apparel, and all her women's attire, and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Holofernes, which she had received of <sup>o</sup> Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them.

16 Now when Judith came in and sat down, Holofernes' heart was ravished with her, and his mind was moved, and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her.

17 Then said Holofernes unto her, Drink now, <sup>p</sup> and be merry with us.

18 So Judith said, I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born.

19 Then she took and ate and drank before him what <sup>q</sup> her maid had prepared.

20 And Holofernes took great delight in her, and drank much more wine than he had drunk at any time in one day <sup>r</sup> since he was born.

CHAPTER XIII.

2 Judith is left alone with Holofernes in his tent. 4 She prayeth God to give her strength. 7 She cutteth off his head while he slept, 10 and returneth with it to Bethulia. 17 They seeing it, commend her.

NOW when the evening was come, <sup>a</sup> his servants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his lord; and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had been long.

2 And Judith was left alone in the tent, and Holofernes lying along upon his bed: for he was filled with <sup>b</sup> wine.

3 Now Judith had commanded her maid to stand without her bed-chamber, and to wait for her coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth <sup>c</sup> to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas according to the same purpose.

4 So all went forth, and none was left in the bed-chamber, neither little nor great. Then Judith, standing by his bed, said <sup>d</sup> in her heart, O Lord God of all power, look at this present upon the works of mine hands for <sup>e</sup> the exaltation of Jerusalem.

5 For now is the time to help thine inheritance, and to execute mine enterprises to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against us.

6 Then she came to the pillar of the bed which was at Holofernes' head, and took down his saucion from thence,

7 And approached to his bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, <sup>f</sup> Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day.

8 <sup>g</sup> And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and she took away his head from him.

9 And tumbled his body down from the bed, and pulled down the canopy from the pillars, and anon after she went forth, and gave Holofernes' head to <sup>h</sup> her maid;

10 And she put it in her bag of meat: so they twain went together according to their custom unto prayer: and when they passed the camp, they compassed <sup>i</sup> the valley, and went up the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

11 Then said Judith afar off to the watchmen <sup>k</sup> at the gate, Open, open now the gate: God, even our o See Judges 5, 24, 25, 26, 27. 16 As the Lord liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath <sup>p</sup> deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath he not committed sin with me. <sup>q</sup> to defile and shame me.

q ch. 12, 16. 17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people.

r Gen. 14, 19. 18 Then said Ozias unto her, O daughter, <sup>r</sup> blessed art thou of the most high God above all the women upon the earth ; and <sup>s</sup> blessed be the Lord God, <sup>t</sup> which hath created the heavens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies.

u ch. 8, 20. 20 And God turn these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things, because thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of <sup>u</sup> our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our God. And all the people said, So be it, so be it.

CHAPTER XIV.

8 Achior heareth Judith shew what she had done, and is circumcised. 11 The head of Holofernes is hanged up : 15 He is found dead, and much lamented.

THEN said Judith unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this <sup>a</sup> head, and hang it upon the highest place of your walls.

a 2 Mac. 15, 35. 2 And so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, take ye <sup>b</sup> every one his weapons, and go forth every valiant man out of the city, and set ye a captain over them, as though ye would go down into the field toward <sup>c</sup> the watch of the Assyrians ; but go not down.

c ch. 10, 11. 3 Then they shall take their armour, and shall go into their camp, and raise up the captains of the army of Assur, and they shall run to the tent of Holofernes, but shall not find him : then fear shall fall upon them, <sup>d</sup> and they shall flee before your face.

d 1 Sam. 17, 52. Heb. 11, 34. 4 So ye, and all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they go.

e ch. 5, 5. & 6, 5. & 11, 9. 5 But before ye do these things, call me <sup>e</sup> Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to us, as it were to his death.

6 Then they called Achior out of the house of Ozias ; and when he was come, and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, and his spirit failed.

7 But when they had recovered him, <sup>f</sup> he fell at Judith's feet, and revered her, and said, <sup>g</sup> Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Juda, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be astonished.

8 Now therefore tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. Then Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the day that she went forth until that hour she spake unto them.

9 And when she had left off speaking, <sup>h</sup> the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city.

10 And when Achior had seen all that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God greatly, and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was <sup>i</sup> joined unto the house of Israel unto this day.

11 And as soon as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto the || straits of the mountain.

12 But when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to <sup>k</sup> their leaders, which came to their captains and tribunes, and to every one of their rulers.

13 So they came to Holofernes' tent, and said to <sup>l</sup> him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord : for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed.

14 Then went in Bagoas, and knocked at the door of the tent ; for he thought that he had slept with Judith.

15 But because none answered, <sup>m</sup> he opened it, and went into the bed-chamber, and found him cast upon the floor dead, <sup>n</sup> and his head was taken from him.

16 || Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, <sup>o</sup> and rent his garments.

17 After, he went into the tent where Judith lodged : and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cried, 18 <sup>p</sup> These slaves have dealt treacherously ; one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nabuchodonosor : for behold, Holofernes lieth upon the ground without a head.

19 When <sup>q</sup> the captains of the Assyrian army heard these words, <sup>r</sup> they rent their coats, and their minds were wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The Assyrians are chased and slain. 8 The high priest cometh to see Judith. 11 The stuff of Holofernes is given to Judith. 13 The women crown her with a garland.

AND when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done.

2 And <sup>a</sup> fear and trembling fell upon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out all together, they fled into every way of the plain, and of the hill-country.

3 They also that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia fled away. <sup>b</sup> Then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them.

c ch. 13, 18. 4 Then sent <sup>c</sup> Ozias to Betomasthem, and to Bebai, and Chobai, and Cola, and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should <sup>d</sup> rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them.

d verse 2. 5 Now when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell upon them with one consent, and slew them unto <sup>e</sup> Chobai: likewise also they that came from Jerusalem, and from all the hill-country, (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies,) and they that were in Galaad, and in Galilee, || chased them with a great slaughter, until they were passed Damascus and the borders thereof.

f 2 Kings 7, 16. 6 And the residue, that dwelt in Bethulia, fell upon the camp of Assur, <sup>f</sup> and spoiled them, and were greatly enriched.

g verse 6. 7 And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter, had that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, <sup>g</sup> gat many spoils: for the multitude was very great.

h ch. 4, 6. i Ezek. 8, 11. 8 Then <sup>h</sup> Joacim the high priest, and <sup>i</sup> the ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to salute her.

k ch. 13, 4. 9 And when they came unto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art the <sup>k</sup> exaltation of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel, thou art the great rejoicing of our nation:

l ch. 13, 18. 10 Thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith: <sup>l</sup> blessed be thou of the Almighty Lord for evermore. And all the people said, So be it.

m verse 6. 11 And the people <sup>m</sup> spoiled the camp the space of thirty days: and they gave unto Judith Holofernes' tent, and all his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his stuff: and she took it, and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts, and laid them thereon.

n Mat. 21, 8. 12 Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her: and she took <sup>n</sup> branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that were with her.

o Acts 14, 13. 13 And they put <sup>o</sup> a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her, and she went before all the people in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour with garlands, and with songs in their mouths.

CHAPTER XVI.

i The song of Judith. 19 She dedicateth the stuff of Holofernes. 23 She dieth at Bethulia, a widow of great honour. 24 All Israel lament her death.

a Exod. 15, 1. b Judges 5, 1. c Or, this praising. 1 THEN Judith began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang after her || this song of praise.

2 And Judith said, Begin unto my God with timbrels, sing unto my Lord with cymbals: tune unto him a || new psalm: exalt him, and call upon his name.

3 For God breaketh the battles: for among the camps in the midst of the people he hath delivered me out of the hands of them that persecuted me.

b ch. 2, 19. c ch. 2, 8. 4 Assur came out of the mountains from the north, he came with ten thousands of his army, the <sup>b</sup> multitude whereof <sup>c</sup> stopped the torrents, and their horsemen have covered the hills.

5 He bragged that he would burn up my borders, and kill my young men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a prey, and my virgins as a spoil.

6 But the Almighty <sup>d</sup> Lord hath disappointed them <sup>d</sup> Ps. 33, 10. by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mighty one did not fall by the young men, neither did the sons of the Titans smite him, nor high giants set upon him: but Judith the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her countenance.

8 For <sup>e</sup> she put off the garment of her widowhood <sup>e</sup> ch. 10, 3. for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anointed her face with ointment, and bound her hair in a † tire, and took a linen garment to deceive him. † Gr. mitre.

9 Her sandals ravished his eyes, <sup>f</sup> her beauty took <sup>f</sup> verse 7. his mind prisoner, and the fauchion passed through his neck.

10 The Persians quaked at her boldness, and the Medes were || daunted at her hardness. || Or, confounded.

11 Then my afflicted shouted for joy, and my weak ones cried aloud; but || they were astonished: <sup>g</sup> these || The Assyrians. lifted up their voices, but they were overthrown. <sup>g</sup> ch. 14, 19. & 15, 2.

12 The sons of the damsels have pierced them through, and wounded them as fugitives' children: they perished by the battle of the Lord.

13 I will sing unto the Lord || a new song: || Or, a song of praise, verse 2. O Lord, thou art great and glorious, wonderful in strength, and invincible.

14 Let all creatures serve thee; <sup>h</sup> for thou spakest, <sup>h</sup> Ps. 33, 6. and they were made, thou didst send forth thy spirit, and it created them, and there is none that can resist thy voice.

15 For <sup>i</sup> the mountains shall be moved from their foundations with the waters, the rocks shall melt as wax at thy presence: <sup>k</sup> yet thou art merciful to them <sup>i</sup> Ps. 46, 2. that fear thee. <sup>k</sup> Gen. 18, 26, 28, 29, 32.

16 For all sacrifice is too little for a sweet savour unto thee, and all the fat is not sufficient for thy burnt-offering: but he that feareth the Lord is great at all times.

17 Wo to the nations that rise up against my kindred! the Lord Almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of judgment, in putting <sup>l</sup> fire and worms in their flesh; and they shall feel them, and weep for ever. <sup>l</sup> Isa. 66, 24. Mark 9, 44.

18 Now as soon as they entered into Jerusalem, they worshipped the Lord; and as soon as the people <sup>m</sup> were purified, they offered their burnt-offerings, and their free-offerings, and their gifts. <sup>m</sup> Mal. 3, 3.

19 <sup>n</sup> Judith also dedicated all the stuff of Holofernes, which the people had given her, and gave the canopy, which she had taken out of his bed-chamber, for a gift unto the Lord. <sup>n</sup> ch. 15, 11

20 So the people continued feasting in Jerusalem before the sanctuary for the space of three months, and Judith remained with them.

21 After this time every one returned to his own inheritance, and Judith went to Bethulia, and remained in her own possession, and was in her time <sup>o</sup> honourable in all the country. <sup>o</sup> 1 Sam. 2, 30.

22 And many desired her, but none <sup>p</sup> knew her all the days of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people. <sup>p</sup> Gen. 4, 1.

23 But <sup>q</sup> she increased more and more in honour, and waxed old in her husband's house, being an hundred and five years old, and made her maid free; so <sup>q</sup> Luke 2, 52.

she died in Bethulia: and they buried her in the || cave of her husband Manasses.
 24 And the house of Israel lamented her <sup>r</sup> seven days: and <sup>s</sup> before she died, she did distribute her goods to all them that were nearest of kindred to Ma-nasses her husband, and to them that were the nearest of her kindred.

25 And <sup>t</sup> there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraid in the days of Judith nor a long time after her death. t Jer. 32 37.

Mardocheus remembereth and expoundeth his dream of the river and the two dragons.

a Ps. 126,
2, 3.

THEN Mardocheus said, <sup>a</sup> God hath done these things.

5 For I remember a dream which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed.

b See Esth.
2, 7, 15, 16,
17.

6 <sup>b</sup> A little fountain became a river, and there was light, and the sun, and much water: this river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen.

7 And the two dragons are I and Aman.

8 And the nations were those that were assembled to destroy the name of the Jews:

c Ps. 106,
44.

9 And my nation is this Israel, which cried to God, <sup>c</sup> and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath delivered us from all those evils, <sup>d</sup> and God hath wrought signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the Gentiles.

d Ps. 105,
27.

e Isa. 3, 10,
11

10 Therefore hath he made <sup>e</sup> two lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles.

11 And these two lots came at the hour, and time, and day of judgment, before God among all nations.

f Esth. 9, 21.

12 So God remembered his people, and justified his inheritance.

13 Therefore those days shall be unto them in <sup>f</sup> the month Adar, the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the same month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladness before God, according to the generations for ever among his people.

CHAPTER XI.

3 The stock and quality of Mardocheus: 6 he dreameth of two dragons coming forth to fight, 10 and of a little fountain which became a great water.

IN the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemeus and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemeus his son, brought this epistle of Phurim, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the son of Ptolemeus, that was in Jerusalem, had interpreted it.

a Ezra 7,

Neh. 2, 1.
b ch. 10, 4.

2 In the second year of the reign of <sup>a</sup> Artaxerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, <sup>b</sup> Mar-docheus the son of Jairus, the son of Semel, the son of Cisai of the tribe of Benjamin, <sup>c</sup> had a dream;

c ch. 10, 5.

3 Who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of Susa, a great man, being a servitor in the king's court.

4 He was also one of the captives, which Nabu-chodonosor the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Judea; and this was his dream.

5 Behold, a noise of a tumult, with thunder, and earthquakes, and uproar in the land:

a ch. 10, 7.

6 And behold, <sup>d</sup> two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry was great.

7 And at their cry all nations were prepared to battle, that they might fight against <sup>e</sup> the righteous people.

e Ps. 118,
20.
Isa. 26, 2.
f Joel 2, 2

8 And lo a day of <sup>f</sup> darkness and obscurity, tribulation and anguish, affliction and great uproar, upon the earth.

9 And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own evils, and were ready to perish.

10 Then they cried unto God, and upon their cry, <sup>g</sup> as it were from a little fountain, was made a great flood, even much water.

g ch. 10, 6.

11 <sup>h</sup> The light and the sun rose up, and the lowly were exalted, and devoured the glorious.

h ch. 10, 6

12 Now when Mardocheus, who had seen this dream, and what God had determined to do, was awake, he bare this dream in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it.

CHAPTER XII.

2 The conspiracy of the two eunuchs is discovered by Mardocheus,
 5 for which he is entertained by the king, and rewarded.

AND Mardocheus took his rest in the court <sup>a</sup> with Gabatha and Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, and keepers of the palace.

a Esth. 2,
21.

2 <sup>b</sup> And he heard their devices, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artaxerxes the king; and so he certified the king of them.

b Esth. 2,
21. & 6, 1e

3 Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, <sup>c</sup> they were strangled.

4 And the king made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof.

5 So the king commanded Mardocheus to serve in the court, <sup>d</sup> and for this he rewarded him.

d Esth. 6, 3

6 Howbeit <sup>e</sup> Aman the son of Amadathus the Aga-

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The copy of the king's letters to destroy the Jews. 8 The prayer of Mardocheus for them.

THE copy of the letters was this: The great king Artaxerxes writeth these things to the princes and governors that are under him from <sup>a</sup> India unto Ethiopia, in an hundred and seven and twenty provinces.

a Esth. 1, 1

2 After that I became lord <sup>b</sup> over many nations, and had dominion over the whole world, not lifted up with presumption of my authority, but carrying myself always with equity and mildness, I purposed to settle my subjects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom || peaceable, and open for passage || Or, mild to the utmost coasts, to renew peace which is desired of all men.

c ch. 10, 7. & 12, 6.
d Esth. 3, 1.
3 Now when I asked my counsellors how this might be brought to pass, <sup>c</sup> Aman that excelled in wisdom among us, and was approved for his constant good will and steadfast fidelity, <sup>d</sup> and had the honour of the second place in the kingdom, e Esth. 5, 8.

4 Declared unto us, that in all nations throughout the world there was scattered <sup>e</sup> a certain malicious people, that had laws contrary to all nations, and continually despised the commandments of kings, so as the uniting of our kingdoms, honourably intended by us, cannot || go forward.

|| Or, be settled.
f Ps. 120, 3.
5 Seeing then we understand that this people alone is continually in opposition unto all men, differing in the strange manner of their laws, and evil-affected to our state, <sup>f</sup> working all the mischief they can, that our kingdom may not be firmly established :

g Esth. 9, 21.
6 Therefore have we commanded, that all they that are signified in writing unto you by Aman, who is ordained over the affairs, and is || next unto us, shall all with their wives and children be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, the fourteenth day of the twelfth month <sup>g</sup> Adar of this present year :

h Ps. 115, 2.
7 That they who of old and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence go into the grave, and so ever hereafter cause our affairs to be well settled, and without trouble.

i Dan. 4, 35.
8 Then Mardocheus <sup>h</sup> thought upon all the works of the Lord, and made his prayer unto him,

9 Saying, O Lord, Lord, the King Almighty : for the whole world <sup>i</sup> is in thy power, and if thou hast appointed to save Israel, there is no man that can gain-say thee :

10 For thou hast made heaven and earth, and all the wondrous things under the heaven.

11 Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord.

k Esth. 3, 2, 5.
12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Lord, <sup>k</sup> that it was neither in contempt nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that I did not bow down to proud Aman.

l See Rom. 9, 2, 3, & 10, 1.
13 For <sup>l</sup> I could have been content with good will for the salvation of Israel to kiss the soles of his feet.

14 But I did this, that I might not prefer the glory of man above the glory of God : neither will I worship any but thee, O God, neither will I do it in pride.

m Joel 2, 17.
15 And now, O Lord God and King, <sup>m</sup> spare thy people : for their eyes are upon us to bring us to nought ; yea, they desire to destroy the inheritance, that hath been thine from the beginning.

n Deut. 32, 9.
16 Despise not <sup>n</sup> the portion which thou hast delivered out of Egypt for thine own self.

o Ps. 118, 17.
17 Hear my prayer, and be merciful unto thine inheritance : turn our sorrow into joy, that we may live, O Lord, <sup>o</sup> and praise thy name : and || destroy not the mouths of them that praise thee, O Lord.

|| Or, shut, or, stop not.
† Gr. mightily.
18 All Israel in like manner cried most † earnestly unto the Lord, because their death was before their eyes.

Q U E E N Esther also, being in fear of death, <sup>a</sup> resorted unto the Lord :

2 <sup>b</sup> And laid away her glorious apparel, and put on the garments of anguish and mourning : and instead of precious ointments, she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body greatly, and all the places of her joy she filled with her torn hair.

3 And <sup>c</sup> she prayed unto the Lord God of Israel, <sup>c</sup> ch. 13, 9. saying, O my Lord, thou only art our King : help me, desolate woman, which have no helper but thee :

4 <sup>d</sup> For my danger is in mine hand. d 1 Sam. 28, 21.

5 <sup>e</sup> From my youth up I have heard in the tribe of my family, that thou, O Lord, tookest Israel from among all people, and our fathers from all their predecessors, for a perpetual inheritance, and thou hast performed whatsoever thou didst promise them. Job 13, 14 Ps. 119, 109. e Ps. 71, 1. & 78, 3, 4.

6 And now we have sinned before thee : therefore hast thou given us into the hands of our enemies,

7 Because we worshipped their gods : O Lord, thou art righteous.

8 Nevertheless it satisfieth them not, that we are in bitter captivity : but they have stricken hands with their idols,

9 That they will abolish the thing <sup>f</sup> that thou with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy <sup>g</sup> thine inheritance, and stop the mouth of them that praise thee, and quench the glory of thy house, and of thine altar, f Ps. 78, a g Ps. 79, 1.

11 O Lord, give not thy sceptre unto them that † be nothing, and let them not laugh at our fall ; but turn their device upon themselves, and make him an example, that hath begun this against us. † Gr. be not

12 <sup>i</sup> Remember, O Lord, make thyself known in time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O King of the || nations, and Lord of all power. i Ps. 89, 50. || Or, gods.

13 Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion : turn his heart to hate him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are like-minded to him :

14 But deliver us with thine hand, and help me that <sup>k</sup> am desolate, and which have no other helper but thee. k verse 3

19 O thou mighty God above all, hear the voice of the <sup>o</sup> forlorn, and deliver us out of the hands of the mischievous, and deliver me out of my fear. o verses 14, 16.

CHAPTER XV.

6 Esther cometh into the king's presence. 7 He looketh angrily, and she fainteth. 8 The king taketh her up and comforteth her.

A N D <sup>a</sup> upon the third day, when she had ended her prayer, she laid away her mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparel. a See Esth. 5, 1.

2 And being gloriously adorned, <sup>b</sup> after she had b Neh. 2, 4. Phil. 4, 6.

called upon God, who is the beholder and saviour of all things, she took two maids with her :

3 And upon the one she leaned, as carrying herself || daintily :

4 And the other followed, bearing up her train.

5 And she was || ruddy through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cheerful and || very amiable : <sup>c</sup> but her heart was in anguish for fear.

6 Then having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king, <sup>d</sup> who sat upon his royal throne, and was clothed with all his robes of majesty, all glittering with gold and precious stones ; and he was very dreadful.

7 Then lifting up his countenance that shone with majesty, he looked very fiercely upon her : and the queen fell down, and was pale, and fainted, and bowed herself upon the head of the maid that went || before her.

8 Then <sup>e</sup> God changed the spirit of the king into mildness, who <sup>f</sup> in a fear leaped from his throne, and took her in his arms, till she came to herself again, and comforted her with loving words, and said unto her,

9 Esther, what is the matter ? I am thy brother, be of good cheer :

10 Thou shalt not die, though <sup>f</sup> our commandment be || general : come near.

11 And <sup>g</sup> so he held up his golden sceptre, and laid it upon her neck, 12 And embraced her, and said, Speak unto me.

13 Then said she unto him, I saw thee, my lord, as an angel of God, <sup>h</sup> and my heart was troubled for fear of thy majesty.

14 For wonderful art thou, lord, and thy countenance is full of grace.

15 And as she was speaking, || she fell down for faintness.

16 Then the king was troubled, and all his servants <sup>i</sup> comforted her.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The letter of Artaxerxes, 10 wherein he taxeth Aman, 17 and revoketh the decree procured by Aman to destroy the Jews, 22 and commandeth the day of their deliverance to be kept holy.

THE great king Artaxerxes unto the princes and governors of an hundred and seven and twenty provinces, from India unto Ethiopia, and unto all || our faithful subjects, greeting.

2 Many, the more often they are honoured with the great bounty of † their gracious princes, the more proud they are waxen,

3 And endeavour <sup>a</sup> to hurt not our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practise also against those that do them good :

4 And take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the glorious words of || lewd persons, || that were never good, they think to escape the justice of God, that seeth all things, and hateth evil.

5 Oftentimes also fair speech || of those that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remediless calamities :

6 Beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of their lewd disposition <sup>b</sup> the innocency and goodness of princes.

7 Now ye may see this, as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behaviour of them <sup>c</sup> that are unworthily placed <sup>c</sup> Esth. 3, 1 in authority.

8 And we must take care for the time to come, that our kingdom may be <sup>d</sup> quiet and peaceable for <sup>d</sup> 1 Tim. 2, 2 all men, 9 Both by changing our purposes, and always judging things that are evident with more equal proceeding.

10 For Aman, a Macedonian, the son of Amadatha, being indeed a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, and as a stranger received of us, 11 <sup>e</sup> Had so far forth obtained the favour that we <sup>e</sup> Esth. 2, 1 shew towards every nation, as that he was called our father, and was continually honoured of all men, as the next person unto the king.

12 But he, not bearing his great dignity, went about to deprive us of our kingdom and life :

13 <sup>f</sup> Having by manifold and cunning deceits sought of us the destruction as well of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blameless Esther, partaker of our kingdom, with their whole nation.

14 For by these means he thought, finding us destitute of friends, to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians.

15 But we find that the Jews, whom this wicked wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, <sup>g</sup> are no evil-doers, but live by most just laws :

16 And that they be children of the most high and most mighty living God, who hath || ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent manner.

17 Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution <sup>h</sup> the letters sent unto you by Aman the son of Amadatha.

18 For he, that was the worker of these things, <sup>i</sup> is hanged at the gates of Susa with all his family : God, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his deserts.

19 <sup>k</sup> Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places, that the Jews may freely live after their own laws.

20 And ye shall aid them, that even the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelve month Adar, they may be avenged on them, who in the time of their affliction shall set upon them.

21 For Almighty God hath turned to joy unto them <sup>l</sup> the day wherein the chosen people should have perished.

22 Ye shall therefore among your solemn feasts keep it an high day with all feasting :

23 That both now and hereafter there may be safety to us, and the well-affected Persians ; <sup>m</sup> but to those which do conspire against us, a memorial of destruction.

24 <sup>n</sup> Therefore every city and country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be destroyed without mercy, with fire and sword, and shall be made not only unpassable for men, but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls for ever.

THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON.

CHAPTER I.

2 To whom <sup>a</sup>God sheweth himself, 4 and wisdom herself. 6 An evil speaker cannot be hid. 12 We procure our own destruction: 13 For God created not death.

LOVE <sup>a</sup>righteousness, ye that be judges of the earth: think of the Lord with a good (heart,) and in simplicity of heart seek him.

2 For he will be found of them <sup>b</sup>that tempt him not; and sheweth himself unto such as do not <sup>c</sup>dis-trust him.

3 For froward thoughts separate from God: and his power, when it is tried, || reproveth the unwise.

4 For into a malicious soul wisdom shall not enter; nor dwell in the body that is subject unto sin.

5 <sup>d</sup>For the holy spirit of discipline will flee deceit, and remove from thoughts that are without under-standing, and || will not abide when unrighteousness cometh in.

6 For wisdom is a <sup>e</sup>loving spirit; and will not ac-quit a blasphemer of his || words: for God is witness of his reins, and a true beholder of his heart, and a hearer of his tongue.

7 For the Spirit of the Lord filleth the world: and that which || containeth all things, hath knowledge of the voice.

8 Therefore he that speaketh unrighteous things <sup>f</sup>cannot be hid: neither shall vengeance, when it punisheth, pass by him.

9 For inquisition shall be made into the counsels of the ungodly: and the sound of his words shall come unto the Lord for the || manifestation of his wicked deeds.

10 For the ear of jealousy heareth all things: and the noise of murmurings is not hid.

11 Therefore beware of <sup>g</sup>murmuring, which is un-profitable; and refrain your tongue from backbiting: for there is no word so secret, that shall go for nought: and the mouth that || belieth, slayeth the soul.

12 Seek not death in the error of your life: and pull not upon yourselves <sup>h</sup>destruction with the works of your hands.

13 For God made not death: <sup>i</sup>neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the living.

14 For <sup>k</sup>he created all things, that they might have their being: and the generations of the world were healthful; and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor the kingdom of death upon the earth:

15 (For righteousness is immortal:)

16 <sup>l</sup>But ungodly men with their works and words called it to them: for when they thought to have it their friend, they consumed to nought, and made a covenant with it, because they are worthy to take part with it.

CHAPTER II.

1 The wicked think this life short, 5 and of no other after this. 6 Therefore they will take their pleasure in this, 10 and conspire against the just. 21 What that is which doth blind them.

FOR the <sup>a</sup>ungodly said, reasoning with themselves, but not aright, <sup>a</sup>Our life is short and tedious, <sup>b</sup>and in the death of a man there is no remedy: nei-ther was there any man known to have returned from the grave.

2 For we are born at all adventure: and we shall be hereafter as though we had never been: for the breath in our nostrils is as smoke, and a little spark in the moving of our heart:

3 Which being extinguished, <sup>c</sup>our body shall be turned into ashes, and our spirit shall vanish as the || soft air, <sup>c</sup>Eccles. 3, 20

4 And our name shall be forgotten in time, and no man shall have our works in remembrance, and our life shall pass away as the trace of a cloud, and shall be dispersed as the mist that is driven away with the beams of the sun, and || overcome with the heat thereof. <sup>d</sup>Or, moist

5 <sup>d</sup>For our time is a very shadow that passeth away; and after our end there is no returning: for || it is fast sealed, so that no man cometh again. <sup>e</sup>Or, he.

6 Come on therefore, let us enjoy the good things <sup>e</sup>that are present: and let us || speedily use the crea-tures like as in youth. <sup>f</sup>Isa. 22, 13. & 56, 12.

7 Let us fill ourselves with costly wine and oint-ments: and let no flower of the spring pass by us: <sup>g</sup>Or, ear-nestly.

8 Let us crown ourselves with rose-buds, <sup>h</sup>before they be withered. <sup>i</sup>Isa. 40, 7

9 Let none of us go without his part of our || vo-luptuousness: let us leave tokens of our joyfulness in every place: <sup>j</sup>for this is our portion, and our lot is this. <sup>k</sup>Or, jolli-ty.

10 <sup>l</sup>Let us oppress the poor righteous man, let us not spare the widow, nor reverence the ancient gray hairs of the aged. <sup>m</sup>Isa. 1, 17

11 Let our strength be the law of justice: for that which is feeble is found to be nothing worth.

12 Therefore <sup>n</sup>let us lie in wait for the righteous; because he is not for our turn, and he is clean contra-ry to our doings: he upbraideth us with our offending the law, and objecteth to our infamy the transgres-sions of our education. <sup>o</sup>Ps. 10, 9.

13 <sup>p</sup>He professeth to have the knowledge of God: and he calleth himself the child of the Lord. <sup>q</sup>Rom. 1, 22.

14 He was made to <sup>r</sup>reprove our thoughts. <sup>r</sup>John 7, 7

15 <sup>s</sup>He is grievous unto us even to behold: for his life is not like other men's, his ways are of ano-ther fashion. <sup>s</sup>Eph. 5, 13 <sup>t</sup>Isa. 53, 3.

16 We are esteemed of him as || counterfeits: he abstaineth from our ways as from filthiness: he pro-nounceth <sup>u</sup>the end of the just to be blessed, and mak-eth his boast that God is his father. <sup>u</sup>Or, false coin.

17 Let us see if his words be true: and let us prove what shall happen in the end of him. <sup>v</sup>Ps. 37 37.

18 For if the just man be the <sup>w</sup>son of God, he will help him, and deliver him from the hand of his enemies. <sup>w</sup>Ps. 22, 9

19 Let us <sup>x</sup>examine him with despitefulness and torture, that we may know his meekness, and prove his patience. <sup>x</sup>Mat. 27, 43.

20 Let us condemn him with a shameful death: for by his own saying he shall be respected. <sup>y</sup>Jer. 11, 19.

21 Such things they did imagine, <sup>z</sup>and were de-ceived: for their own wickedness hath blinded them. <sup>z</sup>Ps. 50, 21.

22 As for the mysteries of God, <sup>aa</sup>they knew them not: neither hoped they for the wages of righteous-ness, nor <sup>ab</sup>discerned a reward for blameless souls. <sup>aa</sup>Gr. pre-ferred, or, esteemed the reward.

23 For God created man to be immortal, and made him to be an <sup>ac</sup>image of his own eternity. <sup>ac</sup>Gen. 1, 26, 27. & 5 1.

24 <sup>ad</sup>Nevertheless, through envy of the devil came death into the world: and they that do hold of his side do find it. <sup>ad</sup>Ecclus. 17 3. <sup>ae</sup>Gen. 3, 13

CHAPTER III.

1 The godly are happy in their death, 5 and in their troubles : The wicked are not, nor their children. 13 But they that are pure, are happy, though they have no children : 16 For the adulterer and his seed shall perish.

BUT <sup>a</sup> the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them.

<sup>b</sup> In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die : and their departure is taken for misery,

3 And their going from us to be utter destruction : but they are in peace.

4 For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their <sup>c</sup> hope full of immortality.

5 And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly || rewarded : for God <sup>d</sup> proved them, and found them || worthy for himself.

6 <sup>e</sup> As gold in the furnace hath he tried them, and received them as a burnt-offering.

7 And in the time of their visitation, <sup>f</sup> they shall shine, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble.

8 They <sup>g</sup> shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reign for ever.

9 They that put their trust in him shall understand the truth : || and such as be faithful in love shall abide with him : for grace and mercy is to his saints, and he hath care for his elect.

10 But the <sup>h</sup> ungodly shall be punished according to their own imaginations, which have neglected the righteous, and forsaken the Lord.

11 For whoso despiseth wisdom and nurture, he is miserable, and their hope is vain, <sup>i</sup> their labours unfruitful, and their works unprofitable :

12 Their wives are || foolish, and their children wicked :

13 Their offspring is cursed. Wherefore blessed is the barren that is undefiled, which hath not known the sinful bed : she <sup>k</sup> shall have fruit in the visitation of souls.

14 And blessed is the <sup>l</sup> eunuch, which with his hands hath wrought no iniquity, nor imagined wicked things against God : for unto him shall be given † the special gift of faith and an inheritance || in the temple of the Lord more acceptable to his mind.

15 For <sup>m</sup> glorious is the fruit of good labours : and the root of wisdom shall never fall away.

16 As for the children of adulterers, they shall not || come to their perfection, and the seed of an unrighteous bed shall be rooted out

17 For though they live long, yet shall they be nothing regarded : and their last age shall be without honour :

18 Or, if they die quickly, <sup>n</sup> they have no hope, neither comfort in the day of || trial.

19 For horrible is the end of the unrighteous generation.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The chaste man shall be crowned. 3 Bastard slips shall not thrive. 6 They shall witness against their parents. 7 The just die young, and are happy. 19 The miserable end of the wicked.

BBETTER it is to have no children, and <sup>a</sup> to have virtue for the memorial thereof is immortal : because it is || known with God, and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example at it : and when it is gone, they desire it : it weareth <sup>b</sup> a crown, and triumpheth for ever, having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards.

3 But the multiplying brood of the ungodly shall not thrive, nor take deep rooting from bastard slips, nor lay any fast foundation.

4 For though they flourish in branches for a time ; <sup>c</sup> yet standing not fast, they shall be shaken with the wind, and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out. <sup>c</sup> Mat. 7, 19.

5 <sup>d</sup> The imperfect branches shall be broken off, their fruit unprofitable, not ripe to eat, yea, meet for nothing. <sup>d</sup> Rom. 11, 17.

6 For children begotten of unlawful † beds, are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial. † Gr. sleeps.

7 But though the righteous be prevented with death, <sup>e</sup> yet shall he be at rest. <sup>e</sup> Isa. 57, 2.

8 For <sup>f</sup> honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years. <sup>f</sup> Ps. 15, 4.

9 But wisdom is the gray hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age.

10 <sup>g</sup> He pleased God, and was beloved of him : so that living among sinners he was translated. <sup>g</sup> Gen. 5, 24. Heb. 11, 5.

11 Yea, speedily was he taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul.

12 For <sup>h</sup> the bewitching of naughtiness doth obscure things that are honest ; and the wandering of concupiscence doth † undermine the simple mind. <sup>h</sup> Gal. 3, 1.

13 He, being made || perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time : † Gr. pervert. || Or, sanctified, or, consummated, Heb. 12, 23.

14 For his soul pleased the Lord : therefore hasted he to take him away from among the wicked.

15 This the people saw, and understood it not, neither laid they up this in their minds, <sup>i</sup> That his grace and mercy is with his saints, and that he hath respect unto his chosen. <sup>i</sup> Ps. 103, 17, 18. chap. 3, 9.

16 Thus the righteous <sup>k</sup> that is dead shall condemn the ungodly which are living ; and youth that is soon perfected, the many years and old age of the unrighteous. <sup>k</sup> Mat. 12, 41, 42.

17 For they shall see the end of the wise, and shall not understand what God in his counsel hath decreed of him, and to what end the Lord hath set him in safety.

18 They shall see him, and despise him ; but <sup>l</sup> God shall laugh them to scorn : and they shall hereafter be a vile carcase, and a reproach among the dead for evermore. <sup>l</sup> Ps. 2, 4. & 37, 15. Fro. 1, 26.

19 For he shall rend them, and cast them down headlong, that they shall be speechless ; and he shall shake them from the foundation ; and they shall be utterly laid waste, and be in sorrow ; and their memorial shall perish.

20 And || when they cast up the accounts of their sins, they shall come with fear : and their own iniquities shall convince them to their face. || Or, to the casting up of the account.

CHAPTER V.

1 The wicked shall wonder at the godly, 4 and confess their error, 5 and the vanity of their lives. 15 God will reward the just, 17 and war against the wicked.

THEN shall the righteous man stand in <sup>a</sup> great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no account of his labours. <sup>a</sup> 1 Tim. 3, 13.

2 When they see it, <sup>b</sup> they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that they looked for. <sup>b</sup> Ps. 11, 6.

3 And they repenting and groaning for anguish of spirit shall say within themselves, This was he, whom we had sometimes in derision, and a || proverb of reproach : || Or, para-
h12

c ch. 3, 2.

4 ° We fools accounted his life madness, and his end to be without honour :

d John 1
12.

5 How is he numbered <sup>d</sup> among the children of God, and his lot is among the saints !

e Mal. 4, 2.

6 Therefore have we erred from the way of truth, and the light of righteousness hath not shined unto us, and <sup>e</sup> the sun of righteousness rose not upon us.

|| Or, filled ourselves, or, surfeited.

7 We || wearied ourselves in the way of wickedness and destruction : yea, we have gone through deserts, where there lay no way : but as for the way of the Lord, we have not known it.

f James 4, 6.

8 <sup>f</sup> What hath pride profited us ? or what good hath riches with our vaunting brought us ?

g 1 Chr.
29, 15.
chap. 2, 5.

9 All those things are <sup>g</sup> passed away like a shadow, and as a post that hasteth by ;

h Ps. 77,
19.

10 And as a ship that passeth over the waves of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof cannot be found, <sup>h</sup> neither the pathway of the keel in the waves ;

i Prov. 30,
19.
|| Or, flieth.

11 <sup>i</sup> Or as when a bird || hath flown through the air, there is no token of her way to be found, but the light air being beaten with the stroke of her wings, and parted with the violent noise and motion of them, is passed through, and therein afterward no sign where she went is to be found ;

k Ps. 58, 3.

12 Or like as when an arrow is shot at a mark, it parteth the air, which immediately cometh together again, so that a man cannot know where it went through :

l Job 8, 9.
† Gr. thistledown.
|| Or, chaff.
m Ps. 1, 4.
& 103, 14.

13 Even so we in like manner, <sup>k</sup> as soon as we were born, began to draw to our end, and had no sign of virtue to shew ; but were consumed in our own wickedness.

n John 11,
19.

14 <sup>l</sup> For the hope of the ungodly is like † dust that is blown away with the wind ; like a thin froth that is driven away with the storm ; like as the || smoke which is <sup>m</sup> dispersed here and there with a tempest, and passeth away as the remembrance of a guest that tarrieth but a day.

|| Or, pul-ver, unless the word be taken improperly, as 2 Mac. 2,
17.

15 <sup>n</sup> But the righteous live for evermore ; their reward also is with the Lord, and the care of them is with the Most High.

16 Therefore shall they receive a glorious || kingdom, and a beautiful crown from the Lord's hand : for with his right hand shall he cover them, and with his arm shall he protect them.

o Isa. 59,
16, 17.

17 He shall take to him his jealousy for complete armour, and make the creature his weapon for the revenge of his enemies.

|| Or, equipt.

18 He shall put on <sup>o</sup> righteousness as a breastplate, and true judgment instead of an helmet.

p Ps. 90,
11.

19 He shall take || holiness for an invincible shield.

20 His <sup>p</sup> severe wrath shall he sharpen for a sword, and the world shall fight with him against the unwise.

q Job 38,
22, 23.

21 Then shall the right-aiming thunderbolts go abroad ; and from the clouds, as from a well-drawn bow, shall they fly to the mark.

22 <sup>q</sup> And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast as out of a stone-bow, and the water of the sea shall rage against them, and the floods shall cruelly drown them.

r Ps. 11, 6.

23 Yea, a mighty wind shall stand up against them, <sup>r</sup> and like a storm shall blow them away : thus iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and ill-dealing shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

CHAPTER VI

1 Kings must give ear : 3 They have their power from God, 5 who will not spare them. 12 Wisdom is soon found. 21 Princes must seek for it : 24 For a wise prince is the stay of his people.

HEAR therefore, <sup>a</sup> O ye kings, and understand ; <sup>a</sup> Ps. 2, 10 learn, ye that be judges of the ends of the earth.

2 Give ear, ye that rule the people, and glory in the multitude of nations.

3 For <sup>b</sup> power is given you of the Lord, and sovereignty from the Highest, who shall try your works, and search out your counsels. <sup>b</sup> Rom. 13, 1, 2.

4 Because, being <sup>c</sup> ministers of his kingdom, ye have not judged aright, nor kept the law, nor walked after the counsel of God ; <sup>c</sup> Rom. 13, 4.

5 <sup>d</sup> Horribly and speedily shall he come upon you : <sup>d</sup> Rev. 1, 7 for a sharp judgment shall be to them that be in high places.

6 For mercy will soon pardon the meanest : but mighty men shall be mightily tormented.

7 For he which is Lord over all shall fear no <sup>e</sup> man's person, neither shall he stand in awe of any man's greatness : for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike. <sup>e</sup> Deut. 10, 17. 2 Chr. 19, 7. Job 34, 19. Eccles. 35, 12, 16.

8 But a sore trial shall come upon the mighty.

9 Unto you therefore, <sup>f</sup> O kings, do I speak, that ye may learn wisdom, and not fall away : <sup>f</sup> verse 1.

10 For they that keep holiness holily, <sup>g</sup> shall be || judged holy : and they that have learned such things shall find || what to answer. <sup>g</sup> Rev. 22, 11. || Or, justified. || Or, a defence.

11 Wherefore set your affection upon my words ; desire them, and ye shall be instructed.

12 Wisdom is glorious, and never fadeth away : yea, she is easily seen of them that love her, <sup>h</sup> and found of such as seek her. <sup>h</sup> Mat. 7, 7.

13 She preventeth them that desire her, in making herself first known unto them.

14 Whoso seeketh her <sup>i</sup> early shall have no great travail : for he shall find her sitting at his doors. <sup>i</sup> Pro. 8, 17.

15 To think therefore upon her is perfection of wisdom : and whoso watcheth for her shall quickly be without care.

16 For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, sheweth herself favourably unto them in the ways, and meeteth them in every thought.

17 For the very true beginning of her is the desire of || discipline ; and the care of discipline is love : <sup>|| Or, nurture.</sup>

18 <sup>k</sup> And love is the keeping of her laws ; and the giving heed unto her laws is the assurance of incorruption ; <sup>k</sup> Rom 13 8, 10.

19 And incorruption maketh us near unto God :

20 Therefore <sup>l</sup> the desire of wisdom bringeth to a kingdom. <sup>l</sup> ch. 5, 16.

21 If your delight be then in thrones and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, honour wisdom, that ye may reign for evermore.

22 As for wisdom, what she is, and how she came up, <sup>m</sup> I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you : but will seek her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not pass over the truth. <sup>m</sup> Ps. 78, 2

23 Neither will I go with consuming envy ; for such a man shall have no fellowship with wisdom.

24 But <sup>n</sup> the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world : and a wise king is the upholding of the people. <sup>n</sup> Isa. 6, 13

25 <sup>o</sup> Receive therefore instruction through my words, and it shall do you good <sup>o</sup> Pro. 1, 3

† Or, govern. 14 I shall || set the people in order, and the nations shall be subject unto me.

† Or, appear. 15 Horrible tyrants shall be afraid when they do but hear of me; I shall || be found good among the multitude, and valiant in war.

† Or, Being entered into mine house. 16 || After I have come into mine house, I will repose myself with her: for her conversation hath no bitterness; and to live with her hath no sorrow, but mirth and joy.

† Or, marry her. 19 For I was a witty child, and had a good spirit.

20 Yea rather, being good, I came into a body undefiled.

<sup>n</sup> James 1, 17. 21 Nevertheless, when I perceived that I could not otherwise obtain her, <sup>n</sup> except God gave her me; and that was a point of wisdom also to know whose gift she was; I || prayed unto the Lord, and besought <sup>o</sup> Ps. 138. him, and with <sup>o</sup> my whole heart I said,

CHAPTER IX.

1 A prayer unto God for his wisdom, 6 without which the best man is nothing worth, 13 neither can he tell how to please God.

<sup>a</sup> Rev. 4, 11. O GOD of my fathers, and Lord of mercy, <sup>a</sup> who hast made all things with thy word,

<sup>b</sup> Gen. 1, 28. 2 And ordained man through thy wisdom, that he should <sup>b</sup> have dominion over the creatures which thou hast made,

3 And order the world according to equity and righteousness, and execute judgment with an upright heart:

<sup>c</sup> 1 Kings 3, 9. 4 Give <sup>c</sup> me wisdom, that sitteth by thy throne; and reject me not from among thy children:

<sup>d</sup> Ps. 116, 16. & 119, 125. & 143, 12. 5 For I <sup>d</sup> thy servant, and son of thine handmaid, am a feeble person, and of a short time, and too young for the understanding of judgment and laws.

6 For though a man be never so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing regarded.

<sup>e</sup> 1 Chr. 22, 5. 7 Thou hast chosen me to be a <sup>e</sup> king of thy people, and a judge of thy sons and daughters:

<sup>g</sup> Prov. 3, 22. 9 And <sup>g</sup> wisdom was with thee: which knoweth thy works, <sup>h</sup> and was present when thou madest the world, and knew what was acceptable in thy sight, and right in thy commandments.

<sup>i</sup> Isa. 40, 13. 10 O send her out of thy holy heavens, and from the throne of thy glory, that being present she may labour with me, that I may know what is pleasing unto thee.

† Or, by her power, or, glory. 11 For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me soberly in my doings, and preserve me || in her power.

<sup>i</sup> Isa. 40, 13. 12 So shall my works be acceptable, and then shall I judge thy people righteously, and be worthy to sit in my father's seat.

† Cor. 2, 16. 13 For <sup>i</sup> what man is he that can know the counsel of God? or who can think what the will of the Lord is?

14 For the thoughts of mortal men are || miserable, || Or, feels and our devices are but uncertain. <sup>ful.</sup>

15 For the corruptible body presseth down the soul, and <sup>k</sup> the earthly tabernacle weigheth down the mind that museth upon many things. <sup>k</sup> 2 Cor. 5, 1.

17 And thy counsel who hath known, except thou give wisdom, and send thy <sup>m</sup> Holy Spirit from above? <sup>m</sup> Isa. 63, 11.

18 For so the ways of them which lived on the earth were reformed, and men were taught the things that are pleasing unto thee, and were saved through wisdom.

CHAPTER X.

1 What wisdom did for Adam, 4 Noe, 5 Abraham, 6 Lot, and against the five cities, 10 for Jacob, 13 Joseph, 16 Moses, 17 and the Israelites.

SHE preserved <sup>a</sup> the first-formed father of the world, that was created alone, and brought him out of his fall, <sup>a</sup> Luke 3, 33.

2 And <sup>b</sup> gave him power to rule all things. <sup>b</sup> Gen. 1, 28.

3 <sup>c</sup> But when the unrighteous went away from her in his anger, he perished also in the fury wherewith he murdered his brother. <sup>c</sup> Gen. 4, 8.

4 For whose cause the earth <sup>d</sup> being drowned with the flood, wisdom again preserved it, <sup>e</sup> and directed the course of the righteous in a piece of wood of small value. <sup>d</sup> Gen. 7, 21. <sup>e</sup> Heb. 11, 7.

5 Moreover, <sup>f</sup> the nations in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, she found out the righteous, and preserved him blameless unto God, and <sup>g</sup> kept him strong || against his tender compassion towards his son. <sup>f</sup> Gen. 11, 9. <sup>g</sup> Gen. 22, 10.

6 When the ungodly perished, <sup>h</sup> she delivered the righteous man, who fled from the fire which fell down upon † the <sup>i</sup> five cities. <sup>h</sup> Or, in. <sup>i</sup> Gen. 19, 16.

7 Of whose wickedness even to this day the waste land that smoketh is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness: and a <sup>k</sup> standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving soul. † Gr. Pentapolis. <sup>k</sup> Gen. 14, 8. <sup>k</sup> Gen. 19, 26.

8 For regarding not wisdom, they gat not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good; but also left behind them to the world a memorial of their foolishness: so that in the things wherein they offended they could not so much as be hid.

9 But wisdom delivered from pain those that attended upon her.

10 <sup>i</sup> When the righteous fled from his brother's wrath, she guided him in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. <sup>i</sup> Gen. 23, 5, 12.

11 <sup>m</sup> In the covetousness of such as oppressed him she stood by him, and made him rich. <sup>m</sup> Gen. 31, 1.

12 She defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, <sup>n</sup> and in a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. <sup>n</sup> Gen. 32, 24.

13 <sup>o</sup> When the righteous was sold, she forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit, <sup>o</sup> Gen. 37, 23. & 39, 7. <sup>o</sup> Acts 7, 10.

14 And left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and || power against those that oppressed him: as for them that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory. † Or, the power of them that ruled over him.

|| Or, holy. 15 She delivered the || righteous people and blameless seed <sup>p</sup> from the nation that oppressed them.

16 She entered into the soul of the servant of the Lord, and <sup>q</sup> withstood dreadful kings in wonders and signs;

17 Rendered to the righteous a reward of their labours, guided them in a marvellous way, and was unto them for a covert by day, and a || light of stars in the night season;

18 <sup>r</sup> Brought them through the Red Sea, and led them through much water:

19 But <sup>s</sup> she drowned their enemies, and cast them up out of the bottom of the deep.

20 Therefore the righteous spoiled the ungodly, and <sup>t</sup> praised thy holy name, O Lord, and magnified with one accord thine hand that fought for them.

21 For wisdom <sup>u</sup> opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of them that cannot speak eloquent.

CHAPTER XI.

5 The Egyptians were punished, and the Israelites reserved, in the same thing. 15 They were plagued by the same things wherein they sinned. 20 God could have destroyed them otherwise, 23 but he is merciful to all.

SHE prospered their works in the hand of <sup>a</sup> the holy prophet.

2 <sup>b</sup> They went through the wilderness that was not inhabited, and pitched tents in places where there lay no way.

3 <sup>c</sup> They stood against their enemies, and were avenged of their adversaries.

4 When they were thirsty, they called upon thee, <sup>d</sup> and water was given them out of the flinty rock, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.

5 For by what things their enemies were punished, by the same they in their need were benefited.

6 For instead of a fountain of a perpetual running river <sup>e</sup> troubled with foul blood,

7 For a manifest reproof of that commandment, <sup>f</sup> whereby the infants were slain, thou gavest unto them abundance of water by a means which they hoped not for:

8 Declaring by that thirst then <sup>g</sup> how thou hadst punished their adversaries.

9 For when they were tried, albeit but in mercy chastised, they knew how the ungodly were judged in wrath and tormented, thirsting in another manner than the just.

10 For these thou didst admonish and try, <sup>h</sup> as a father: but the other, as a severe king, thou didst condemn and punish.

11 Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike.

12 For a double grief came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of things past.

13 For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, they || had some feeling of the Lord.

14 For whom they rejected with scorn, when he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of the infants, him in the end, when they saw what came to pass, they admired.

15 But for <sup>i</sup> the foolish devices of their wickedness, wherewith being deceived they worshipped serpents void of reason, and vile beasts, thou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance;

16 That they might know, that <sup>k</sup> wherewithal a man sinneth by the same also shall he be punished.

17 For thy Almighty hand, that made the world of matter <sup>l</sup> without form, wanted not means to send <sup>l</sup> Gen. 1, 2. among them a multitude of bears, or fierce lions,

18 Or unknown <sup>m</sup> wild beasts, full of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapour, or filthy scents of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes:

19 Whereof not only the harm might despatch them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy them.

20 Yea, and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of vengeance, and scattered abroad through the breath of thy power: but thou hast ordered all things in measure and number and weight.

21 For thou canst shew thy great strength at all times when thou wilt; and who may withstand <sup>n</sup> the power of thine arm? <sup>n</sup> Ps. 89, 13.

22 For the whole world before thee is as a || little grain of the balance, yea, as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth.

23 But thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and <sup>o</sup> winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend.

24 For thou lovest all the things that are, <sup>p</sup> and abhorrest nothing which thou hast made: for never wouldst thou have made any thing, if thou hadst hated it.

25 And how could any thing have endured, if it had not been thy will? or been preserved, if not called by thee?

26 But <sup>q</sup> thou sparest all: for they are thine, O Lord, thou lover of souls. <sup>q</sup> ch. 12, 16

CHAPTER XII.

2 God did not destroy those of Chanaan all at once. 12 If he had done so, who could control him? 19 But by sparing them he taught us. 27 They were punished with their gods.

FOR thine incorruptible <sup>a</sup> Spirit is in all things. <sup>a</sup> Gen. 1, 2.

2 Therefore <sup>b</sup> chasteneth thou them by little and little that offend, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance wherein they have offended, that leaving their wickedness they may believe on thee, O Lord.

3 For it was thy will to destroy by the hands of our fathers both those || old inhabitants of thy holy land,

4 Whom thou hatedst for doing most odious works of || witchcrafts, and wicked sacrifices;

5 And also those <sup>c</sup> merciless murderers of children, and devourers of man's flesh, and the feasts of blood,

6 With their priests out of the midst of their idolatrous crew, and the parents that killed with their own hands souls destitute of help:

7 That the land, which thou esteemedst above all other, might receive a worthy || colony of God's children. <sup>|| Or, new inhabitants.</sup>

8 Nevertheless, even those thou sparedst as men, and didst send <sup>d</sup> wasps, forerunners of thine host, to destroy them by little and little.

9 <sup>e</sup> Not that thou wast unable to bring the ungodly under the hand of the righteous in battle, or to destroy them at once with cruel beasts, or with one rough word:

10 But executing thy judgments upon them by little and little, <sup>f</sup> thou gavest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a naughty generation, and that their malice was bred in them, and that their cogitation would never be changed.

11 For it was a <sup>g</sup> cursed seed from the beginning; neither didst thou for fear of any man give them pardon for those things wherein they sinned. <sup>g</sup> Gen. 9, 25.

- <sup>h</sup> Rom. 9, 20. <sup>i</sup> Or, in thy presence. <sup>j</sup> Or, a revenger.
- 12 For who shall say, <sup>b</sup> What hast thou done? or who shall withstand thy judgment? or who shall accuse thee for the nations that perish, whom thou hast made? or who shall come to stand || against thee, to be || revenged for the unrighteous men?
- <sup>i</sup> 1 Peter 5, 7. <sup>k</sup> Job 9, 4. 13 For neither is there any God but thou that carest for all, to whom thou mightest shew that thy judgment is not unright.
- 14 <sup>k</sup> Neither shall king or tyrant be able to set his face against thee for any of whom thou hast punished.
- <sup>l</sup> Job 10, 2. 15 Forsomuch then as thou art righteous thyself, thou orderest all things righteously: <sup>l</sup> thinking it not agreeable with thy power to condemn him that hath not deserved to be punished.
- <sup>m</sup> Ps. 145, 9. 16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousness, and because thou art the Lord of all, <sup>m</sup> it maketh thee to be gracious unto all.
- <sup>n</sup> Job 34, 10. <sup>o</sup> Mat. 5, 7. 17 For when men will not believe that thou art of a || full power, thou shewest thy strength, and among them that know it thou makest their boldness manifest.
- 18 But thou, mastering thy power, judgest with equity, and orderest us with great favour: <sup>n</sup> for thou mayest use power when thou wilt.
- 19 But by such works hast thou taught thy people that the just man should be <sup>o</sup> merciful, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope that thou givest repentance for sins.
- 20 For if thou didst punish the enemies of thy children, and the condemned to death, with such deliberation, giving them time and place, whereby they might be delivered from their malice:
- <sup>p</sup> Ps. 105, 8, 9, 10. <sup>q</sup> Prov. 3, 11, 12. 21 With how great circumspection didst thou judge thine own sons, <sup>p</sup> unto whose fathers thou hast sworn, and made covenants of good promises?
- 22 Therefore, <sup>q</sup> whereas thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that, when we judge we should carefully think of thy goodness, and when we ourselves are judged, we should look for mercy.
- <sup>r</sup> Rom. 1, 23. 23 Wherefore, whereas men have lived dissolutely and unrighteously, thou hast tormented them with their own || abominations.
- 24 <sup>r</sup> For they went astray very far in the ways of error, and held them for gods, which even among the beasts of their enemies were despised, being deceived, as children of no understanding.
- <sup>s</sup> Pro. 1, 26. 25 Therefore unto them, as to children without the use of reason, thou didst send a judgment to <sup>s</sup> mock them.
- <sup>t</sup> Rom. 2, 2. 26 But they that would not be reformed by that correction, wherein he dallied with them, shall feel a judgment worthy of God.
- 27 For, look, for what things they grudged, when they were punished, that is, for them whom they thought to be gods; [now] being punished in them, when they saw it, they acknowledged him to be the true God, whom before they denied <sup>u</sup> to know; and therefore came extreme damnation upon them.
- <sup>u</sup> 2 Thes. 1, 8.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 They were not excused that worshipped any of God's works. 10 But most wretched are they that worship the works of men's hands.

SURELY vain are all men by nature, who are ignorant of God, and <sup>a</sup> could not out of the good things that are seen know him that is: neither, by considering the works, did they acknowledge the work-master;

2 <sup>b</sup> But deemed either fire, or wind, or the swift air, or the circle of the stars, or the violent water, or <sup>c</sup> the lights of heaven, to be the gods which govern the world.

3 With whose beauty if they <sup>d</sup> being delighted took them to be gods; let them know how much better the Lord of them is: for the first author of beauty hath created them.

4 But if they were astonished at their power and virtue, let them understand by them, how much mightier he is that made them.

5 For by the greatness and beauty of the creatures, proportionably the maker of them <sup>e</sup> is seen.

6 But yet for this they are the less to be blamed: for they peradventure err, seeking God, and desirous to find him.

7 For being <sup>f</sup> conversant in his works, they || search him diligently, and believe their sight: because the things are beautiful that are seen.

8 Howbeit, <sup>g</sup> neither are they to be pardoned.

9 For if they were able to know so much, that they could aim at the world; how did they not sooner find out the Lord thereof?

10 But miserable are they, and in <sup>h</sup> dead things is their hope, who called them gods <sup>i</sup> which are the works of men's hands, gold and silver, to shew art in, and resemblances of beasts, or a stone good for nothing, the work of an ancient hand.

11 <sup>k</sup> Now a || carpenter that felleth timber, after he hath sawn down a tree meet for the purpose, and taken off all the bark skilfully round about, and hath wrought it handsomely, and made a vessel thereof fit for the service of man's life;

12 And after spending the || refuse of his work to dress his meat, hath filled himself;

13 And taking the very refuse among those which served to no use, being a crooked piece of wood, and full of knots, hath carved it diligently, when he had nothing else to do, <sup>l</sup> and formed it by the skill of his understanding, and fashioned it to the image of a man;

14 Or made it like some <sup>m</sup> vile beast, laying it over with vermilion, and with paint colouring it red, and covering every spot therein;

15 And when he had made a convenient room for it, set it in a wall, and made it fast with iron:

16 For he provided for it that it might <sup>n</sup> not fall, knowing that it was unable to help itself; for it is an image, and hath need of help:

17 Then maketh he prayer for his goods, for his wife and children, and is not ashamed to speak to that <sup>o</sup> which hath no life.

18 For health, he called upon that which is weak: for life, prayeth to that which is dead: for aid, humbly beseecheth <sup>p</sup> that <sup>p</sup> which hath least means to help: and for a good journey, he asketh of that which cannot set a foot forward:

19 And for gaining and getting, and for good success of his hands, asketh ability to do, of him that is most unable to do any thing.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Though men do not pray to their ships, <sup>5</sup> yet are they saved rather by them, than by their idols. 8 Idols are accursed, and so are the makers of them. 14 The beginning of idolatry, <sup>23</sup> and the effects thereof. 30 God will punish them that swear falsely by their idols.

A GAIN, one preparing himself to sail, and about to pass through the raging waves, calleth upon ¶ Or, ship. a piece of wood, more rotten than the || vessel that carrieth him.

¶ Or, vessel, or, ship. 2 For verily desire of gain devised || that, and the workman built it by his skill.

3 But thy providence, O Father, governeth it: for thou hast <sup>a</sup> made a way in the sea, and a safe path in the waves;

4 Shewing that thou canst save from all danger: <sup>b</sup> yea, though a man went to sea without art.

5 Nevertheless thou wouldest not that the works of thy wisdom should be idle, and therefore do men commit their lives to a small piece of wood, and passing the rough sea in a weak vessel are saved.

6 <sup>c</sup> For in the old time also, when the proud giants perished, the hope of the world, governed by thy hand, <sup>d</sup> escaped in a weak vessel, and left to all ages a seed of generation.

7 For blessed is the wood whereby righteousness cometh.

8 But <sup>e</sup> that which is made with hands is cursed, as well it, as he that made it: he, because he made it; and it, because being corruptible, it was called god.

9 <sup>f</sup> For the ungodly and his ungodliness are both alike hateful unto God.

10 For <sup>g</sup> that which is made shall be punished together with him that made it.

11 Therefore even || upon the idols of the Gentiles shall there be a visitation: because in the creature of God they are become an abomination, and <sup>h</sup> † stumbling-blocks to the souls of men, and a || snare to the feet of the unwise.

12 For the devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them the corruption of life.

13 For neither were they from <sup>i</sup> the beginning, neither shall they be for ever.

14 For by the vain-glory of men they entered into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end.

15 For a father afflicted with untimely mourning, when he hath made <sup>k</sup> an image of his child soon taken away, now honoured him as a god, which was then a dead man, and delivered to those that were under him ceremonies and sacrifices.

16 Thus † in process of time an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, <sup>l</sup> and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of || kings.

17 Whom men could not honour || in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king <sup>m</sup> whom they honoured, to the end that by this their forwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present.

18 Also the singular diligence of <sup>n</sup> the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more superstition.

19 For he, peradventure, willing to please one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance † of the best fashion.

20 And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a god, which a little before was but honoured as a man.

21 And this was an occasion to <sup>o</sup> deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks the incommunicable || name.

22 Moreover, this was not enough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of God; but whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace.

23 For whilst they <sup>p</sup> slew their children in sacrifices, or used secret ceremonies, or made revellings of strange rites;

24 They kept neither lives nor marriages any longer undefiled: but either one slew another traitorously, or grieved him by adultery.

25 So that there reigned in all men || without exception, <sup>q</sup> blood, manslaughter, theft, and dissimulation, corruption, unfaithfulness, tumults, perjury,

26 Disquieting of good men, forgetfulness of good turns, defiling of souls, changing of || kind, disorder in marriages, adultery, and shameless uncleanness.

27 For the worshipping of idols † not to be named is <sup>r</sup> the beginning, the cause, and the end, of all evil.

28 For either they are mad when they be merry, or prophesy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly forswear themselves.

29 For insomuch as their trust is in idols <sup>s</sup> which have no life; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt.

30 Howbeit, for both causes shall they be justly punished: both because they thought not well of God, || giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly swore in deceit, <sup>t</sup> despising holiness.

31 For it is not the power of them by whom they swear: but it is the just vengeance of sinners, that punisheth always the offence of the ungodly.

CHAPTER XV.

1 We do acknowledge the true God. 7 The folly of idol-makers, 14 and of the enemies of God's people; 15 because, besides the idols of the Gentiles, 18 they worshipped vile beasts.

BUT <sup>a</sup> thou, O God, art gracious and true, long-suffering, and in mercy ordering all things.

2 For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy power: <sup>b</sup> but we will not sin, knowing that we are <sup>c</sup> counted thine.

3 For to know thee is perfect righteousness: yea, to know thy power is the root of immortality.

4 For neither did the mischievous invention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with divers colours, the painter's fruitless labour;

5 The sight whereof || enticeth fools to lust after it, and so they desire the form of a dead image, that hath no breath.

6 Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such things to trust upon.

7 For the <sup>d</sup> potter, tempering soft earth, fashioneth every vessel with much labour for our service: yea, of the same clay he maketh <sup>e</sup> both the vessels that serve for clean uses, and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of either sort, the potter himself is the judge.

8 And employing his labours lewdly, he maketh a vain god of the same clay, even he <sup>f</sup> which a little before was made of earth himself, and within a little while after returneth to the same, out of the which he was taken, when his <sup>g</sup> life which was lent him shall be demanded.

9 Notwithstanding his care is, not that he shall || have much labour, nor that his life is short: but striveth to excel goldsmiths and silversmiths, and endeavoureth to do like the workers in brass, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit things.

CHAPTER XVI.

2 God gave strange meat to his people, to stir up their appetite, and vile beasts to their enemies, to take it from them : 5 He stung them with his serpents, 12 but soon healed them by his word only. 17 The creatures altered their nature to pleasure God's people, and to offend their enemies.

3 To the end that they, desiring food, might, <sup>d</sup> for the ugly sight of the beasts sent among them, loathe even that which they must needs desire ; but these, suffering penury for a short space, might be made partakers of a strange taste.

4 For it was requisite, that upon them exercising tyranny should come penury, which they could not avoid : but to these it should only be shewed how their enemies were tormented.

|| Or, thy people. e Num. 21, 6.

5 For when the horrible fierceness of beasts came upon || these, and they perished with the <sup>e</sup> stings of crooked serpents, thy wrath endured not for ever :

FOR <sup>a</sup> great are thy judgments, and cannot be expressed; therefore || unnurtured souls have erred.

2 For when unrighteous men thought to oppress the holy nation; they being shut up || in their houses, <sup>b</sup> the prisoners of darkness, and fettered with the bonds of a long night, lay [there] || exiled from the eternal providence.

3 For while they supposed to lie hid in their secret sins, they were scattered || under a dark vail of forgetfulness, being horribly astonished, and troubled with [strange] || apparitions.

4 For neither might the corner that held them keep them from fear: but noises [as of waters] falling down sounded about them, and <sup>c</sup> sad visions appeared unto them with heavy countenances.

5 No power of the fire might give them light: <sup>d</sup> neither could the bright flames of the stars endure to lighten that horrible night.

6 Only there appeared unto them a fire kindled of itself, very dreadful: for being much terrified, they thought the things which they saw to be worse than the sight they saw not.

7 <sup>e</sup> As for the illusions of art magic, they were put down, and their vaunting in wisdom was reprov'd with disgrace.

8 For they that promised to drive away terrors and troubles from a sick soul, were sick themselves of fear, worthy to be laughed at.

9 For though no terrible thing did fear them; yet being scared <sup>f</sup> with beasts that passed by, and hissing of serpents,

10 They died for fear, || denying that they saw the air, which could of no side be avoided.

11 For wickedness, condemned by her own witness, <sup>g</sup> is very timorous, and being pressed with conscience, always forecasteth grievous things.

12 For fear is nothing else but a betraying of the succours which reason offereth.

13 And the expectation from within, being less, counteth the ignorance more than the cause which bringeth the torment.

14 But they sleeping the same sleep that night, || which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them out of the bottoms of inevitable hell,

15 Were partly vexed with <sup>h</sup> monstrous apparitions, and partly fainted, <sup>i</sup> their heart failing them: for a sudden fear, and not looked for, came upon them.

16 So then whosoever there fell down was straitly kept, shut up in a prison without iron bars.

17 For whether he were husbandman, or shepherd, or a labourer in the || field, he was overtaken, and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided: for they were all bound with <sup>k</sup> one chain of darkness.

18 Whether it were a whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of water running violently,

19 Or a || terrible sound of stones cast down, or a running that could not be seen of skipping beasts, or a roaring voice of <sup>l</sup> most savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; <sup>m</sup> these things made them to swoon for fear.

20 For the whole world shined with clear light, and none were hindered in their labour:

21 Over them only was spread <sup>n</sup> an heavy night, an image of that darkness which should afterward receive them: but yet were they unto themselves more grievous than the darkness.

CHAPTER XVIII.

4 Why Egypt was punished with darkness, 5 and with the death of their children. 18 They themselves saw the cause thereof. 20 God also plagued his own people. 21 By what means that plague was stayed.

NEVERTHELESS thy saints had a very great <sup>a</sup> light, whose voice they hearing, and not seeing their shape, because they also had not suffered the same things, they counted them <sup>b</sup> happy.

2 But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon for that they had been enemies.

3 <sup>c</sup> Instead whereof thou gavest them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the unknown journey, and an harmless sun to entertain them honourably.

4 For they were worthy to be deprived of light, and imprisoned in darkness, who had kept thy <sup>d</sup> sons shut up, by whom the || uncorrupt light of the law was to be given unto the world.

5 <sup>e</sup> And when they had determined to slay the babes of the saints, <sup>f</sup> one child being cast forth, and saved, to reprove them, thou tookest away the multitude of their children, and destroyedst them altogether in a mighty water.

6 <sup>g</sup> Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that assuredly knowing unto what oaths they had given credence, they might afterward be of good cheer.

7 So of thy people was accepted both <sup>h</sup> the salvation of the righteous, and <sup>i</sup> destruction of the enemies.

8 For wherewith thou didst punish our adversaries, by the same thou didst glorify us, whom thou hadst called.

9 <sup>k</sup> For the righteous children of good men did sacrifice secretly, and with one consent made || a holy law, that the saints should be alike partakers of the same good and evil, the fathers now singing out the songs of praise.

10 But on the other side there sounded an ill-according cry of the enemies, <sup>l</sup> and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed.

11 <sup>m</sup> The master and the servant were punished after one manner; and like as the king, so suffered the common person.

12 So they all together <sup>n</sup> had innumerable dead with one kind of death: neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

13 For whereas they would not believe any thing by reason of <sup>o</sup> the enchantments; upon the destruction of the first-born, they acknowledged this people to be the sons of God.

14 For while all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course,

15 Thine Almighty word leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne, as a fierce <sup>p</sup> man of war into the midst of a land of destruction, 16 And brought thine unfeigned commandment as a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death; and it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth.

THE WISDOM OF JESUS THE SON OF SIRACH, OR, ECCLESIASTICUS.

A Prologue made by an uncertain Author.

Some refer this Prologue to Athanasius, because it is found in his Synopsis.
Or, collected.

THIS Jesus was the son of Sirach, and grandchild to Jesus of the same name with him : this man therefore lived in the latter times, after the people had been led away captive, and called home again, and almost after all the prophets. Now his grandfather Jesus, as he himself witnesseth, was a man of great diligence and wisdom among the Hebrews, who did not only gather the grave and short sentences of wise men, that had been before him, but himself also uttered some of his own, full of much understanding and wisdom. When as therefore the first Jesus died, leaving this book almost || perfected, Sirach his son receiving it after him, left it to his own son Jesus, who having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one volume, and called it Wisdom, entitling it both by his own name, his father's name, and his grandfather's ; alluring the hearer by the very name of Wisdom to have a greater love to the study of this book. It containeth therefore wise sayings, dark sentences, and parables, and certain particular ancient godly stories of men that pleased God ; also his prayer and song ; moreover, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues he had heaped upon their enemies. This Jesus did imitate Solomon, and was no less famous for wisdom and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and so reputed also.

WHEREAS many and great things have been delivered unto us by the law and the prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom ; and whereof not only the readers must needs become skilful themselves, but also they that desire to learn be able to profit them which are || without, both by speaking and writing : my grandfather Jesus, when he had much given himself to the reading of the law, and the prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgment, was drawn on also himself to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom ; to the intent that those which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the law. Wherefore let me entreat you to read it with favour and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words which we have laboured to interpret. For the same things uttered in Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, have not the same force in them : and not only these things, but the law itself, and the † prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small || difference, when they are spoken in their own language. For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Euergetes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a || book of no small learning : therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travail to interpret it ; using great watchfulness and skill in that space to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which in a strange country are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the law.

1 All wisdom is from God. 10 He giveth it to them that love him.
11 The fear of God is full of many blessings. 28 To fear God without hypocrisy.

ALL <sup>a</sup> wisdom cometh from the Lord, and is with him for ever.

2 <sup>b</sup> Who can number the sand of the sea, and the drops of rain, and the days of eternity ?

3 Who can find out the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth, and the deep, and wisdom ?

4 Wisdom hath been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting.

5 The word of <sup>c</sup> God Most High is the fountain of wisdom ; and her ways are everlasting commandments.

6 <sup>d</sup> To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed ? or who hath known her wise counsels ?

7 [Unto whom hath the knowledge of wisdom been made manifest ? and who hath understood her great experience ?]

8 There is <sup>e</sup> one wise and greatly to be feared, the Lord sitting upon his throne.

9 He created her, and saw her, and numbered her, and poured her out upon all his works.

10 She is with all flesh according to his gift, <sup>f</sup> and he hath given her to them that love him.

11 The fear of the Lord is honour, and glory, and gladness, and a crown of rejoicing.

12 The fear of the Lord maketh a merry heart, and giveth joy, and gladness, and a long life.

13 Whoso feareth the Lord, it shall go well with him at the last, and he || shall find favour in the day of his death.

14 <sup>g</sup> To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom : and it was created with the faithful in the womb.

15 She hath built an everlasting foundation with men, and she shall continue <sup>h</sup> with their seed.

16 To fear the Lord is fulness of wisdom, and filleth men with her fruits.

17 She filleth all their house with things desirable, and the garners with her increase.

18 The fear of the Lord is <sup>i</sup> a crown of wisdom, making peace and perfect health to flourish ; both which are the gifts of God : and it enlargeth their rejoicing that love him.

19 Wisdom raineth down skill and knowledge of understanding, and exalteth them to honour that hold her fast.

20 The root of wisdom is <sup>k</sup> to fear the Lord, and the branches thereof are long life.

21 The fear of the Lord driveth away sins : and where it is present, it turneth away wrath.

22 A furious man cannot || be justified ; for the sway of his fury shall be his destruction.

23 <sup>l</sup> A patient man will bear for a time, and afterward joy shall spring up unto him.

24 He will hide his words for a time, and the lips of many shall declare his wisdom.

25 The parables of knowledge are in the treasures of wisdom : but godliness is an abomination to a sinner.

26 If thou desire wisdom, keep the commandments, <sup>m</sup> and the Lord shall give her unto thee.

1 God's servants must look for trouble, 7 and be patient, and trust in him. 12 For wo to them that do not so. 15 But they that fear the Lord, will do so.

MY son, if thou come to serve the Lord, prepare thy soul <sup>a</sup> for temptation.

2 Set thy heart aright, and constantly endure, and make not haste in time of trouble.

3 Cleave unto him, and depart not away, <sup>b</sup> that thou mayest be increased at thy last end.

11 For the Lord is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, and very pitiful, and forgiveth sins, <sup>f</sup> and saveth in time of affliction.

12 Wo be to fearful hearts, and faint hands, and the sinner that goeth two ways !

13 Wo unto him that is faint-hearted ! <sup>g</sup> for he believeth not ; therefore shall he not be defended.

14 Wo unto you that have lost patience ! and what will ye do when the Lord shall visit you ?

15 They that fear the Lord will not disobey his word ; and <sup>h</sup> they that love him will keep his ways.

16 They that fear the Lord will seek that which is well-pleasing unto him ; and they that love him <sup>i</sup> shall be filled with the law.

17 They that fear the Lord will prepare their hearts, and humble their souls in his sight,

6 He that honoureth his father <sup>c</sup> shall have a long life ; and he that is obedient unto the Lord shall be a comfort to his mother.

7 He that feareth the Lord <sup>d</sup> will honour his father, and will do service unto his parents, as to his masters.

8 <sup>e</sup> Honour thy father and mother both in word and deed, that a blessing may come upon thee from them.

9 For <sup>f</sup> the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of children ; but the curse of the mother rooteth out foundations.

10 Glory not in the dishonour of thy father ; for thy father's dishonour is no glory unto thee.

11 <sup>g</sup> For the glory of a man is from the honour of his father ; and a mother in dishonour is a reproach to the children.

12 My son, help thy father in his age, and grieve him not as long as he liveth.

13 And if his understanding fail, have patience with him ; and despise him not when thou art || in thy full strength.

14 For the relieving of thy father shall not be forgotten : and instead of sins it shall be added to build thee up.

15 In the day of thine affliction it shall be <sup>h</sup> remembered ; thy sins also shall melt away, as the ice in the fair warm weather.

16 He that forsaketh his father is as a blasphemer ; and he that angereth his mother is cursed of God.

17 My son, go on with thy business in meekness ; so shalt thou be beloved of him that is approved.

18 <sup>i</sup> The greater thou art, the more humble thyself, and thou shalt find favour before the Lord.

19 Many are in high place, and of renown : <sup>k</sup> but mysteries are revealed unto the meek.

20 For the power of the Lord is great, and he is honoured of the lowly.

21 <sup>l</sup> Seek not out the things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things that are above thy strength.

22 But what is commanded thee, think thereupon with reverence ; for it is not needful for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are in secret.

23 <sup>m</sup> Be not curious in unnecessary matters : for more things are shewed unto thee than men understand.

24 For many are deceived by their own vain opinion ; and an evil suspicion hath overthrown their judgment.

25 Without eyes thou shalt want light : <sup>n</sup> profess not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.

26 A stubborn heart shall fare evil at the last ; and he that loveth danger shall perish therein.

27 An obstinate heart shall be laden with sorrows : <sup>o</sup> and the wicked man shall heap sin upon sin.

28 || In the punishment of the proud there is no remedy ; for the plant of wickedness hath taken root in him.

29 The heart of the prudent will understand a parable ; and an attentive ear is the desire of a wise man.

30 Water will quench a flaming fire ; <sup>p</sup> and alms maketh an atonement for sins.

31 And he that requiteth good turns is mindful of that which may come hereafter ; and <sup>q</sup> when he falleth, he shall find a stay.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We may not despise the poor or fatherless, 11 but seek for wisdom, 20 and not be ashamed of some things, nor gainsay the truth, 30 nor be as lions in our houses.

MY son, <sup>a</sup> defraud not the poor of his living, and make not the needy eyes to wait long.

2 Make not an hungry soul sorrowful; neither provoke a man in his distress.

3 Add not more trouble to an heart that is vexed; <sup>b</sup> and defer not to give to him that is in need.

4 Reject not the supplication of the afflicted; neither turn away thy face from a poor man.

5 Turn not away thine eye from || the needy, and give him none occasion to curse thee:

6 For if he curse thee in the bitterness of his soul, <sup>c</sup> his prayer shall be heard of him that made him.

7 Get thyself the love of the congregation, and bow thy head to a great man.

8 Let it not grieve thee to bow down thine ear to the poor, and give him a friendly answer with meekness.

9 <sup>d</sup> Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not faint-hearted when thou sittest in judgment.

10 Be as a father unto the fatherless, and instead of a husband unto their mother: so shalt thou be <sup>e</sup> as a son of the Most High, and he shall love thee more than thy mother doth.

11 Wisdom exalteth her children, and layeth hold of them that seek her.

12 He that loveth her loveth life; and they that <sup>f</sup> seek to her early shall be filled with joy.

13 He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory; and wheresoever she entereth, the Lord will bless.

14 They that serve her shall minister || to the Holy One: and them that love her the Lord doth love.

15 Whoso giveth ear unto her, <sup>g</sup> shall judge the nations: and he that attendeth unto her shall dwell securely.

16 If a man commit himself unto her he shall inherit her; and his generation shall hold her in possession.

17 For at the first she will walk with him by crooked ways, and bring fear and dread upon him, and torment him with her discipline, until she may trust his soul, <sup>h</sup> and try him by her laws.

18 Then will she return the straight way unto him, and comfort him, and shew him her secrets.

19 But if he go wrong, she will forsake him, and <sup>i</sup> give him over to his own ruin.

20 Observe the opportunity, and beware of evil; and be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soul.

21 For there is a shame that bringeth sin; <sup>k</sup> and there is a shame which is glory and grace.

22 Accept no person against thy soul, and let not the reverence of any man cause thee to fall.

23 And refrain not to speak, † when there is occasion to do good, and hide not thy wisdom in her beauty.

24 For by speech wisdom shall be known: and learning by the word of the tongue.

25 In no wise speak against the truth; but be abashed of the error of thine ignorance.

26 Be not ashamed <sup>l</sup> to confess thy sins; || and force not the course of the river.

27 Make not thyself an underling to a foolish man; neither accept the person of the mighty.

28 Strive for the truth <sup>m</sup> unto death, and the Lord shall fight for thee.

29 Be not hasty in thy tongue, and in thy deeds slack and remiss.

30 Be not as a lion in thy house, nor frantic among thy servants.

31 Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive, and shut when thou shouldest || repay.

CHAPTER V.

1 We must not presume of our wealth and strength, 6 nor of the mercy of God, to sin. 9 We must not be double-tongued, 12 nor answer without knowledge.

SET not thy heart upon thy goods; and say not, <sup>a</sup> I have enough for my life.

2 Follow not thine own mind and thy strength, to walk in the ways of thine heart:

3 And say not, <sup>b</sup> Who shall control me for my works? for the Lord will surely revenge thy pride.

4 Say not, I have sinned, <sup>c</sup> and what harm hath happened unto me? for the Lord is long-suffering, he will in no wise let thee go.

5 Concerning propitiation, <sup>d</sup> be not without fear to add sin unto sin:

6 And say not, His mercy is great; he will be pacified for the multitude of my sins: <sup>e</sup> for mercy and wrath come from him, and his indignation resteth upon sinners.

7 Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord, and put not off from day to day: <sup>f</sup> for suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord come forth, and in thy security thou shalt be destroyed, and perish in the day of vengeance.

8 <sup>g</sup> Set not thine heart upon goods unjustly gotten: for they shall not profit thee in the day of calamity.

9 Winnow not with every wind, and go not into every way: for so doth the sinner that hath a double tongue.

10 <sup>h</sup> Be steadfast in thy understanding; and let thy word be the same.

11 <sup>i</sup> Be swift to hear; and let thy life be sincere; and with patience give answer.

12 If thou hast understanding, answer thy neighbour; if not, <sup>k</sup> lay thy hand upon thy mouth.

13 Honour and shame is in talk: and the tongue of man is his fall.

14 Be not called a whisperer, and lie not in wait with thy tongue: for a foul shame is upon the thief, and an evil condemnation <sup>l</sup> upon the double tongue.

15 Be not ignorant of any thing in a great matter or a small.

CHAPTER VI.

2 Do not extol thine own conceit, 7 but make choice of a friend. 18 Seek wisdom betimes: 20 It is grievous to some, 28 yet the fruits thereof are pleasant. 35 Be ready to hear wise men.

INSTEAD of a friend become not an enemy; [for thereby] thou shalt inherit an ill name, shame and reproach: even so shall a sinner <sup>a</sup> that hath a double tongue.

2 Extol not thyself in the counsel of thine own heart; that thy soul be not torn in pieces as a bull [straying alone.]

3 Thou shalt eat up thy leaves, and lose thy fruit, and leave thyself as <sup>b</sup> a dry tree.

4 A wicked soul shall destroy him that hath it, and shall make him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies.

5 † Sweet language will multiply friends; and a fair-speaking tongue will increase kind greetings.

6 Be in peace with many: nevertheless have but one counsellor of a thousand.

8 For some man is a friend for his own occasion, and will not abide in the day of thy trouble.

9 And there is a friend, who, being turned to enmity and strife, will discover thy reproach.

10 <sup>c</sup> Again, some friend is a companion at the table, and will not continue in the day of thy affliction.

11 But in thy prosperity he will be as thyself, and will be bold over thy servants.

12 If thou be brought low, <sup>d</sup> he will be against thee, and will hide himself from thy face.

13 Separate thyself from thine enemies, and take heed of thy friends.

14 A faithful friend is a strong defence : and he that hath found such an one hath found a treasure.

15 Nothing doth countervail a faithful friend, and his excellency is invaluable.

16 A faithful friend is the medicine of life ; and <sup>e</sup> they that fear the Lord shall find him.

17 Whoso feareth the Lord shall direct his friendship aright : for as he is, so shall his neighbour be also.

18 My son, gather instruction from thy youth up : so shalt thou find wisdom till thine old age.

19 Come unto her as one that ploweth and soweth, <sup>f</sup> and wait for her good fruits : for thou shalt not toil much in labouring about her, but thou shalt eat of her fruits right soon.

20 She is very unpleasant to the unlearned : he that is without || understanding will not remain with her.

21 She will lie upon him as a <sup>g</sup> mighty stone of trial ; and he will cast her from him ere it be long.

22 For wisdom is according to her name, and she is not manifest unto many.

23 Give ear, my son, receive my advice, and refuse not <sup>h</sup> my counsel.

24 And put thy feet into her fetters, and thy neck into her || chain.

25 Bow <sup>i</sup> down thy shoulder, and bear her, and be not grieved with her bonds.

26 Come unto her with thy whole heart, and keep her ways with all thy power.

27 <sup>k</sup> Search, and seek, and she shall be made known unto thee : and when thou hast got hold of her, let her not go.

28 For at the last thou shalt find her rest, and that shall be turned to thy joy.

29 Then shall her fetters be a strong defence for thee, and her chains a robe of glory.

30 For there is a golden ornament upon her, and her bands are || purple lace.

31 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour, and shalt put her about thee as a crown of joy.

32 My son, <sup>l</sup> if thou wilt, thou shalt be taught : and if thou wilt apply thy mind, thou shalt be prudent.

33 If thou love to hear, thou shalt receive understanding : and if thou bow thine ear, thou shalt be wise.

34 Stand in the multitude of the <sup>m</sup> elders ; and cleave unto him that is wise.

35 Be willing to hear every godly discourse ; and let not the <sup>n</sup> parables of understanding escape thee.

36 And if thou seest a man of understanding, get thee betimes unto him, and let thy foot wear the steps of his door.

37 Let thy mind be upon the ordinances of the Lord, and <sup>o</sup> meditate continually in his commandments : he shall establish thine heart, and give thee wisdom at thine own desire.

CHAPTER VII.

1 We are dehorted from sin, 4 from ambition, 8 presumption, 10 and fainting in prayer : 12 from lying and backbiting. 18 How to esteem a friend : 19 a good wife : 20 a servant : 22 our cattle : 23 our children and parents : 31 the Lord and his priests : 32 the poor and those that mourn.

DO no evil, <sup>a</sup> so shall no harm come unto thee. <sup>a</sup> 1 Pet. 3, 13.

2 Depart from the unjust, and iniquity shall turn away from thee.

5 <sup>c</sup> Justify not thyself before the Lord : and boast not of thy wisdom before the king. <sup>c</sup> Job 9, 20. Ps. 143, 2. Eccles. 7, 16.

6 Seek not to be judge, being not able to take away iniquity ; lest at any time thou fear the person of the mighty, and lay a stumbling-block in the way of thy uprightness. <sup>d</sup> Luke 18, 11.

7 <sup>d</sup> Offend not against the multitude of a city, and then thou shalt not cast thyself down among the people. <sup>d</sup> Mat. 18, 7.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Whom we may not strive with, 8 nor despise, 10 nor provoke, 15 nor have to do with.

STRIVE not with a mighty man, lest thou fall into his hands.

2 <sup>a</sup> Be not at variance with a rich man, lest he overweigh thee: for gold <sup>b</sup> hath destroyed many, and perverted the hearts of kings.

3 Strive not <sup>with</sup> a man that is || full of tongue, and heap not wood upon his fire.

4 Jest not with a rude man, lest thy ancestors be disgraced.

5 <sup>c</sup> Reproach not a man that turneth from sin, but remember that we are all worthy of punishment.

6 <sup>d</sup> Dishonour not a man in his old age: for even some of us wax old.

7 <sup>e</sup> Rejoice not over thy greatest enemy being dead, but remember that we die all.

8 Despise not the discourse of the wise, but acquaint thyself with their <sup>f</sup> proverbs: for of them thou shalt learn instruction, and how to serve great men with ease.

9 <sup>g</sup> Miss not the discourse of the elders: for they also learned of their fathers, and of them thou shalt learn understanding, and to give answer as need requireth.

10 Kindle not the coals of a sinner, lest thou be burnt with the flame of his fire.

11 Rise not up [in anger] at the presence of an injurious person, lest he lie in wait || to entrap thee in thy words.

12 Lend not unto him that is mightier than thyself: for if thou lendest him, count it but lost.

13 <sup>h</sup> Be not surety above thy power: for if thou be surety, take care to pay it.

14 Go not to law with a judge, for they will judge for him according to his || honour.

15 <sup>i</sup> Travel not by the way with a bold fellow, lest he become grievous unto thee: for he will do according to his own will, and thou shalt perish with him through his folly.

16 <sup>k</sup> Strive not with an angry man, and go not with him into a solitary place: for blood is as nothing in his sight, and where there is no help, <sup>l</sup> he will overthrow thee.

17 Consult not with a fool, for he cannot keep counsel.

18 Do no secret thing before a stranger: for thou knowest not what he will bring forth.

19 <sup>m</sup> Open not thine heart to every man, lest he requite thee with a shrewd turn.

CHAPTER IX.

1 We are advised how to use our wives: 3 What women to avoid: 10 And not to change an old friend: 13 Not to be familiar with men in authority: But to know our neighbours; 15 and to converse with wise men.

BE <sup>a</sup> not jealous over the wife of thy bosom, and teach her not an evil lesson against thyself.

2 Give not thy soul unto a woman to set her foot upon thy substance.

3 Meet not with an harlot, lest thou fall into her snares.

4 Use not much the company of a woman that || is a singer, lest thou be taken with her attempts.

5 <sup>b</sup> Gaze not on a maid, that thou fall not by those things that are precious in her.

6 Give not thy soul unto harlots, that thou lose not thine inheritance.

7 Look not round about thee in the streets of the city, neither wander thou in the solitary places thereof.

8 <sup>c</sup> Turn away thine eye from a beautiful woman, and look not upon another's beauty; for many have been deceived by the beauty of a woman; for herewith love is kindled as a fire.

9 Sit not at all with another man's wife, nor sit down with her in thine arms, and spend not thy money with her at the wine; <sup>d</sup> lest thine heart incline unto her, and so through thy desire thou fall into destruction.

10 Forsake not an old friend; for the new is not comparable to him: a new friend is as new wine; when it is old, thou shalt drink it with pleasure.

11 Envy not the glory of a sinner: <sup>e</sup> for thou knowest not what shall be his end.

12 Delight not in the thing that the ungodly have pleasure in: but remember they shall not go unpunished unto their grave.

13 <sup>f</sup> Keep thee far from the man that hath power to kill; so shalt thou not doubt the fear of death: and if thou come unto him, make no fault, lest he take away thy life presently: remember that thou goest in the midst of snares, and that thou walkest upon the battlements of the city.

14 As near as thou canst, guess at thy neighbour, and <sup>g</sup> consult with the wise.

15 Let thy talk be with the wise, and all thy communication in the law of the Most High.

16 And let just men eat and drink with thee: and let thy glorying be in the fear of the Lord.

17 For the hand of the artificer the work shall be commended: and the wise ruler of the people for his speech.

18 <sup>h</sup> A man of an ill tongue is dangerous in his city; and he that is rash in his talk shall be hated.

17 He took some of them away, and destroyed them, and hath made their memorial to cease from the earth.

18 Pride was not made for men, nor furious anger for them that are born of a woman.

19 They that fear the Lord are a sure seed, and they that love him <sup>i</sup> an honourable plant: they that regard not the law are a dishonourable seed; they that transgress the commandments are a || deceivable seed.

20 Among brethren he that is chief is honourable; <sup>k</sup> so are they that fear the Lord, in his eyes.

21 The fear of the Lord goeth before || the obtaining of authority: but roughness and pride is the losing thereof.

22 Whether he be rich, noble, or poor, their glory is the fear of the Lord.

23 <sup>l</sup> It is not meet to despise the poor man that hath understanding; neither is it convenient to magnify a sinful man.

24 <sup>m</sup> Great men, and judges, and potentates, shall be honoured; yet is there none of them greater than he that feareth the Lord.

25 <sup>n</sup> Unto the servant that is wise shall they that are free do service: and he that hath knowledge <sup>o</sup> will not grudge when he is reformed.

26 Be not overwise in doing thy business; and boast not thyself in the time of thy distress.

27 <sup>p</sup> Better is he that laboureth, and aboundeth in all things, than he that boasteth himself, and wanteth bread.

28 My son, glorify thy soul in meekness, and give it honour according to the dignity thereof.

29 Who will justify him <sup>q</sup> that sinneth against his own soul? and who will honour him that dishonour-eth his own life?

30 The poor man is honoured for his skill, and <sup>r</sup> the rich man is honoured for his riches.

31 He that is honoured in poverty, how much more in riches? and he that is dishonourable in riches, how much more in poverty?

CHAPTER XI.

4 We may not vaunt nor set forth ourselves, 8 nor answer rashly, 10 nor meddle with many matters. 14 Wealth and all things else are from God. 24 Brag not of thy wealth, 29 nor bring every man into thy house.

WISDOM lifeth up the head || of him that is of low degree, and <sup>a</sup> maketh him to sit among great men.

2 Commend not a man for his beauty, neither abhor a man for his outward appearance.

3 The bee is little among such as fly; but her fruit <sup>b</sup> is the chief of sweet things.

4 <sup>c</sup> Boast not of thy clothing and raiment, and exalt not thyself in the day of honour: for the works of the Lord are wonderful, and his works among men are hidden.

5 Many † kings have sat down upon the ground; and one that was never thought of hath worn the crown.

6 <sup>d</sup> Many mighty men have been greatly disgraced; and the honourable delivered into other men's hands.

7 <sup>e</sup> Blame not before thou hast examined the truth: understand first, and then rebuke.

8 <sup>f</sup> Answer not before thou hast heard the cause: neither interrupt men in the midst of their talk.

9 Strive not in a matter that concerneth thee not; and sit not || in judgment with sinners.

10 My son, meddle not with many matters: for if thou meddle much, thou shalt not be innocent: and if thou follow after, thou shalt not obtain, neither shalt thou || escape by fleeing.

11 <sup>g</sup> There is one that laboureth, and taketh pains, and maketh haste, and is so much the more behind.

12 Again, there is another that is slow, and hath need of help, wanting ability, and full of poverty; <sup>h</sup> yet the eye of the Lord looked upon him for good, and set him up from his low estate, 13 And lifted up his head from misery; so that many that saw it marvelled at him.

14 <sup>i</sup> Prosperity and adversity, life and death, poverty and riches, come of the Lord.

15 <sup>k</sup> Wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of the law, are of the Lord: love, and the way of good works, are from him.

16 Error and darkness had their beginning together with sinners: and evil shall wax old with them that glory therein.

17 The gift of the Lord remaineth with the godly, and <sup>l</sup> his favour bringeth prosperity for ever.

18 There is that waxeth rich by his wariness and pinching, and this is the portion of his reward:

19 Whereas he saith, <sup>m</sup> I have found rest, and now will eat continually of my goods; and yet he knoweth not what time shall || come upon him, and that he must leave those things to others, and die.

20 <sup>n</sup> Be stedfast in thy covenant, and be conversant therein, and wax old in thy work.

21 Marvel not at the works of sinners; but trust in the Lord, <sup>o</sup> and abide in thy labour: for it is an easy thing in the sight of the Lord, on the sudden to make a poor man rich.

22 The blessing of the Lord is || in the reward of the godly, and suddenly he maketh his blessing to flourish.

23 Say not, <sup>p</sup> What profit is there of my service? and what good things shall I have hereafter?

24 Again, say not, I have enough, and possess many things, and what evil can come to me hereafter?

25 <sup>q</sup> In the day of prosperity there is a forgetfulness of affliction: and in the day of affliction there is no more remembrance of prosperity.

26 For it is an easy thing unto the Lord in the day of death <sup>r</sup> to reward a man according to his ways.

27 The affliction of an hour maketh a man forget pleasure: and in his end his deeds shall be discovered.

28 Judge <sup>s</sup> none blessed before his death: for a man shall be known in his children.

29 Bring not every man into thine house: for the deceitful man hath many trains.

30 Like as a partridge taken [and kept] in a cage, so is the heart of the proud; and like as a spy, watcheth he for thy fall:

31 For he lieth in wait, and turneth good into evil, and in things worthy praise will lay blame upon thee.

32 <sup>t</sup> Of a spark of fire, a heap of coals is kindled: and a sinful man layeth wait for blood.

33 Take heed of a mischievous man, <sup>u</sup> for he worketh wickedness; lest he bring upon thee a perpetual blot.

34 Receive a stranger into thine house, and he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own.

CHAPTER XII.

2 Be not liberal to the ungodly. 10 Trust not thine enemy, nor the wicked.

WHEN thou wilt do good, <sup>a</sup> know to whom thou doest it; so shalt thou be thanked for thy benefits.

2 Do good to the godly man, and thou shalt find a recompence; and if not from him, <sup>b</sup> yet from the Most High.

3 There can no good come to him that is always occupied in evil, nor to him that giveth no alms.

4 Give to the <sup>c</sup> godly man, and help not a sinner.

5 Do well unto him that is lowly, but give not to the ungodly: hold back thy bread, and give it not unto him, lest he overmaster thee thereby: for [else] thou shalt receive twice as much evil for all the good thou shalt have done unto him.

6 For the Most High hateth sinners, <sup>d</sup> and will repay vengeance unto the ungodly, <sup>e</sup> and keepeth them against the mighty day of their punishment.

7 Give unto the good, and help not the sinner.

8 <sup>f</sup> A friend cannot be known in prosperity: and an enemy cannot be hid in adversity.

9 In the prosperity of a man, enemies will be grieved: but in his adversity, even a friend will depart.

10 Never trust thine enemy: for like as || iron rusteth, so is his wickedness.

11 Though he humble himself, and go crouching, yet take good heed and beware of him, and thou shalt be unto him as if thou hadst wiped a looking-glass, and thou shalt know that his <sup>g</sup> rust hath not been altogether wiped away.

12 Set him not by thee, lest, when he hath overthrown thee, he stand up in thy place; neither let him <sup>h</sup> sit at thy right hand, lest he seek to take thy seat, and thou at the last remember my words, and be pricked therewith.

13 Who will pity the charmer that is bitten with a serpent, or any such as come nigh wild beasts?

14 So one that goeth to a sinner, and is || defiled with him in his sins, who will pity?

15 For a while he will abide with thee, but if thou begin to fall, he will not tarry.

16 <sup>i</sup> An enemy speaketh sweetly with his lips, but in his heart he imagineth how to throw thee into a pit: he will <sup>k</sup> weep with his eyes, but if he find opportunity, he will not be satisfied with blood.

17 <sup>l</sup> If adversity come upon thee, thou shalt find him there first; and though he pretend to help thee, yet shall he || undermine thee.

18 He will shake his head, and clap his hands, and whisper much, and change his countenance.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Keep not company with the proud, or a mightier than thyself. 15 Like will be like. 21 The difference between the rich and the poor. 25 A man's heart will change his countenance.

HE that toucheth pitch shall be defiled therewith; and <sup>a</sup> he that hath fellowship with a proud man shall be like unto him.

2 <sup>b</sup> Burden not thyself above thy power while thou livest; and have no fellowship with one that is mightier and richer than thyself: for how agree the kettle and the earthen pot together? for <sup>c</sup> if the one be smitten against the other, it shall be broken.

3 The rich man hath done wrong, and yet he threateneth withal: the poor is wronged, and he must entreat also.

4 If thou be for his profit, he will use thee: but if thou have nothing, he will forsake thee.

5 If thou have any thing, he will live with thee: yea, he will make thee bare, and will not be sorry for it.

6 If he have need of thee, <sup>c</sup> he will deceive thee, and smile upon thee, and put thee in hope; he will speak thee fair, and say, What wantest thou?

7 And he will shame thee by his meats, until he have drawn thee dry twice or thrice, and at the last he will laugh thee to scorn: afterward, when he seeth thee, he will forsake thee, and <sup>d</sup> shake his head at thee.

8 Beware that thou be not deceived, and brought down || in thy jollity.

9 If thou be invited of a mighty man, withdraw thyself, and so much the more will he invite thee.

10 Press thou not upon him, lest thou be put back; stand not far off, lest thou be forgotten.

11 || Affect not to be made equal unto him in talk, || and believe not his many words: for with much communication will he tempt thee, and smiling upon thee will get out thy secrets:

12 But cruelly he will lay up thy words, and will not spare to do thee hurt, and to put thee in prison.

13 <sup>e</sup> Observe, and take good heed, for thou walkest in peril of thy overthrowing: when thou hearest these things, awake in thy sleep.

14 <sup>f</sup> Love the Lord all thy life, and call upon him for thy salvation.

15 Every beast loveth his like, and every man loveth his neighbour.

16 All flesh consorteth according to kind, and a man will cleave to his like.

17 What fellowship hath the wolf with the lamb? <sup>g</sup> so the sinner with the godly.

18 What agreement is there between the hyena and a dog? and what peace between the rich and the poor?

19 As the wild ass is the lion's prey in the wilderness: <sup>h</sup> so the rich eat up the poor.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 It is better to have none, than many lewd children. 6 The wicked are not spared for their number. 12 Both the wrath and the mercy of the Lord are great. 17 The wicked cannot be hid. 20 God's works are unsearchable.

DESIRE not a multitude of unprofitable children, <sup>a</sup> neither delight in ungodly sons.

2 Though they multiply, rejoice not in them, except the fear of the Lord be with them.

3 Trust not thou in their life, neither respect their multitude: for one that is just is better than a thousand; and better it is to die without children, than to have them that are ungodly.

4 For by one that hath understanding shall the city be replenished: but the || kindred of the wicked shall speedily become desolate.

5 Many such things have I seen with mine eyes, and mine ear hath heard greater things than these.

6 <sup>b</sup> In the congregation of the ungodly shall a fire be kindled; and in a rebellious nation wrath || is set on fire.

7 He was not pacified towards the <sup>c</sup> old giants who fell away in the strength of their foolishness.

8 <sup>d</sup> Neither spared he the place where Lot sojourned, but abhorred them for their pride.

9 He pitied not the people of perdition, who were taken away in their sins:

10 <sup>e</sup> Nor the six hundred thousand footmen, who were gathered together in the hardness of their hearts.

11 And if there be one stiff-necked among the people, it is marvel if he escape unpunished: for <sup>f</sup> mercy and wrath are with him; he is mighty to forgive, and to pour out displeasure.

12 As his mercy is great, so is his correction also: he judgeth a man according to his works.

13 The sinner shall not escape with his spoils: and <sup>g</sup> the patience of the godly shall not be frustrate.

14 Make way for every work of mercy: for every man shall find according to his works.

15 <sup>h</sup> The Lord hardened Pharaoh, that he should not know him, that his powerful works might be known to the world.

16 His mercy is manifest to every creature; and he hath separated his light from the darkness with an || adamant.

17 Say not thou, <sup>i</sup> I will hide myself from the Lord: shall any remember me from above? I shall not be remembered among so many people: for what is my soul among such an infinite number of creatures?

18 <sup>k</sup> Behold, the heaven, and the heaven of heavens, the deep, and the earth, and all that therein is, shall be moved when he shall visit.

19 The mountains also and foundations of the earth shall be shaken with trembling, when the Lord looketh upon them.

20 No heart can think upon these things worthily: and <sup>l</sup> who is able to conceive his ways?

21 It is a tempest which no man can see: for the most part of his works are hid.

22 <sup>m</sup> Who can declare the works of his justice? or who can endure them? for his covenant is afar off, and the trial of all things is in the end.

23 He that wanteth understanding, will think upon vain things: <sup>n</sup> and a foolish man erring, imagineth follies.

24 My son, hearken unto me, and learn knowledge, and mark my words with thy heart.

25 I will shew forth doctrine in weight, and declare his knowledge exactly.

26 <sup>o</sup> The works of the Lord are done in judgment from the beginning: and from the time he made them he disposed the parts thereof.

27 He garnished his works for ever, and in his hand are the || chief of them unto all generations: <sup>p</sup> they neither labour, nor are weary, nor cease from their works.

28 None of them hindereth another, and they shall never disobey his word.

29 After this the <sup>q</sup> Lord looked upon the earth, and filled it with his blessings.

30 With all manner of living things hath he covered the face thereof; and they shall return into it again.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 How God created and furnished man. 14 Avoid all sin: 19 for God seeth all things. 25 Turn to him while thou livest.

THE Lord <sup>a</sup> created man of the earth, and turned him into it again.

2 He gave them <sup>b</sup> few days, and a short time, and power also over the things therein.

3 He endued them with strength by themselves, and <sup>c</sup> made them according to his image,

4 And put the fear || of man upon all flesh, <sup>d</sup> and gave him dominion over beasts and fowls.

5 [They received the use of the five operations of the Lord, and in the sixth place he imparted them understanding, and in the seventh speech, an interpreter of the cogitations thereof.]

6 Counsel, and a tongue, and eyes, ears, and a heart, gave he them to understand.

7 Withal he filled them with the knowledge of understanding, and shewed them <sup>e</sup> good and evil.

8 He set his eye upon their hearts, that he might shew them the greatness of his works.

9 He gave them to glory in his marvellous acts for ever, <sup>f</sup> that they might declare his works with understanding.

10 And <sup>g</sup> the elect shall praise his holy name.

11 Besides this, he gave them knowledge, and the law of life for an heritage.

12 He made an <sup>h</sup> everlasting covenant with them, and shewed them his judgments.

13 Their eyes saw the majesty of his glory, and their ears heard his glorious voice.

14 And he said unto them, Beware of all unrighteousness; and he <sup>i</sup> gave every man commandment concerning his neighbour.

15 Their ways are ever before him, and shall not be hid from his eyes.

16 <sup>k</sup> Every man from his youth is given to evil; neither could they make to themselves fleshly hearts for stony.

17 For <sup>l</sup> in the division of the nations of the whole earth, he set a <sup>m</sup> ruler over every people; but <sup>n</sup> Israel is the Lord's portion:

18 Whom, <sup>o</sup> being his first-born, he nourisheth with discipline, and, giving him the light of his love, doth not forsake him.

19 Therefore all their works are as the sun before him, and his eyes are continually upon their ways.

20 <sup>p</sup> None of their unrighteous deeds are hid from him, but all their sins are before the Lord.

21 But the Lord being gracious, and knowing his workmanship, neither left nor forsook them, but spared them.

22 The <sup>a</sup>alms of a man is as a signet with him, and he will keep the good deeds of man as the apple of the eye, and give repentance to his sons and daughters.

23 <sup>r</sup> Afterward he will rise up and reward them, and render their recompence upon their heads.

24 <sup>s</sup> But unto them that repent, he granted them return, and comforted those that failed in patience.

25 <sup>t</sup> Return unto the Lord, and forsake thy sins, make thy prayer before his face, and || offend less.

26 Turn again to the Most High, and turn away from iniquity: for he will lead thee out of darkness into the || light of health; and hate thou abomination vehemently.

27 <sup>u</sup> Who shall praise the Most High in the grave, instead of them which live and give thanks?

28 Thanksgiving perisheth from the dead, as from one that is not: the living and sound in heart shall praise the Lord.

29 <sup>x</sup> How great is the loving-kindness of the Lord our God, and his compassion unto such as turn unto him in holiness!

30 For all things cannot be in men, because the son of man is not immortal.

31 <sup>y</sup> What is brighter than the sun? yet the light thereof faileth: and flesh and blood will imagine evil.

32 He vieweth the power of the height of heaven, and all men are but <sup>z</sup> earth and ashes.

CHAPTER XVIII.

4 God's works are to be wondered at. 9 Man's life is short. 11 God is merciful. 15 Do not blemish thy good deeds with ill words. 22 Defer not to be justified. 30 Follow not thy lusts.

HE that liveth for ever <sup>a</sup> created all things in general.

2 The Lord only is righteous, and there is none other but he.

3 <sup>b</sup> Who governeth the world with the palm of his hand, and all things obey his will: for he is the King of all, by his power <sup>c</sup> dividing holy things among them from profane.

4 To whom hath he given power to declare his works? <sup>d</sup> and who shall find out his noble acts?

5 Who shall number the strength of his majesty? <sup>e</sup> and who shall also tell out his mercies?

6 As for the wondrous works of the Lord, there may nothing be taken from them, neither may any thing be put unto them, neither can the ground of them be found out.

7 When a man hath done, then he beginneth; and when he leaveth off, then he shall be doubtful.

8 <sup>f</sup> What is man, and whereto serveth he? what is his good, and what is his evil?

9 <sup>g</sup> The number of a man's days at the most are an hundred years.

10 As a drop of water unto the sea, and a gravel-stone in comparison of the sand; so are a <sup>h</sup> thousand years to the days of eternity.

11 Therefore is God patient with them, and poureth fourth his mercy upon them.

12 He saw and perceived their end to be evil; therefore he multiplied his compassion.

13 The mercy of man is towards his neighbour: <sup>i</sup> but the mercy of the Lord is upon all flesh: he reproveth, and nuretureth, and teacheth, and bringeth again, as a shepherd his flock.

14 He hath mercy on them that receive discipline, and that diligently seek after his judgments.

15 <sup>k</sup> My son, blemish not thy good deeds, neither use uncomfortable words when thou givest any thing.

16 Shall not the dew assuage the heat? so is a word better than a gift.

17 Lo, is not a word better than a gift? but both are with a gracious man.

18 A fool will upbraid churlishly, and a gift of the envious consumeth the eyes.

19 <sup>l</sup> Learn before thou speak, and use physic or ever thou be sick. <sup>1 James 1, 19.</sup>

20 Before judgment <sup>m</sup> examine thyself, and in the day of visitation thou shalt find mercy. <sup>m 1 Cor. 11, 28, 31.</sup>

21 Humble thyself before thou be sick, and in the time of sins shew repentance.

22 <sup>n</sup> Let nothing hinder thee to pay thy vow in due time, and defer not until death to be justified. <sup>n Eccles. 5, 4, 5.</sup>

23 Before thou prayest, prepare thyself; and be not as one that tempteth the Lord.

24 <sup>o</sup> Think upon the wrath that shall be at the end, and the time of vengeance, when he shall turn away his face. <sup>o ch. 16, 11, 12.</sup>

25 When thou hast enough, remember the time of hunger: and when thou art rich, think upon poverty and need.

26 From the morning until the evening <sup>p</sup> the time is changed, and all things are soon done before the Lord. <sup>p 1 Cor. 7, 31.</sup>

27 <sup>q</sup> A wise man will fear in every thing, and in the day of sinning he will beware of offence: but a fool will not observe time. <sup>q Prov. 28, 14.</sup>

28 Every man of understanding knoweth wisdom, and will give praise unto him that found her.

29 <sup>r</sup> They that were of understanding in sayings, became also wise themselves, and poured forth exquisite parables. <sup>r 1 Kings 4, 31, 32.</sup>

30 <sup>s</sup> Go not after thy lusts, but refrain thyself from thine appetites. <sup>s Rom. 6, 6, & 13, 14.</sup>

31 If thou givest thy soul the desires that please her, she will make thee a laughing-stock to thine enemies that malign thee.

32 Take not pleasure in much good cheer, neither be tied to the expense thereof.

33 Be not made a beggar by banqueting upon borrowing, <sup>t</sup> when thou hast nothing in thy purse: for thou shalt lie in wait for thine own life, and be talked on. <sup>t Ps. 37, 21.</sup>

CHAPTER XIX.

2 Wine and women seduce wise men. 7 Say not all thou hearest. 17 Reprove thy friend without anger. 22 There is no wisdom in wickedness.

A LABOURING man that is given to drunkenness shall not be rich: and he that contemneth <sup>a</sup> small things shall fall by little and little.

2 <sup>b</sup> Wine and <sup>c</sup> women will make men of understanding to fall away: and he that cleaveth to harlots will become impudent.

3 Moths and worms shall have him to heritage, and a bold man shall be taken away.

4 He that is hasty to give credit is light-minded; and he that sinneth shall offend against his own soul.

5 Whoso taketh <sup>d</sup> pleasure in wickedness shall be condemned: but he that resisteth pleasures crowneth his life. <sup>d 2 Tim. 3, 4.</sup>

6 <sup>e</sup> He that can rule his tongue shall live without strife; and he that hateth babbling shall have less evil. <sup>e James 3, 13, 14.</sup>

7 <sup>f</sup> Rehearse not unto another that which is told unto thee, and thou shalt fare never the worse. <sup>f Ps. 15, 3.</sup>

8 Whether it be || to a friend or foe, talk not of other men's lives; and if thou canst without offence, <sup>|| Or, of friend or foe.</sup> reveal them not.

9 For he heard and observed thee, and when time cometh he will || hate thee.

10 If thou hast heard a word, let it die with thee; and be bold, it will not burst thee.

11 <sup>g</sup> A fool travaileth with a word, as a woman in labour of a child.

12 As an arrow that sticketh in a man's thigh, so is a word within a fool's || belly.

13 <sup>h</sup> Admonish a friend, it may be he hath not done it: and if he have done it, that he do it no more.

14 || Admonish thy friend, it may be he hath not said it: and if he have, that he speak it not again.

15 Admonish a friend: for many times it is a slander, <sup>i</sup> and believe not every tale.

16 There is one that slippeth in his speech, but not || from his heart; and who is he that hath not offended with his <sup>k</sup> tongue?

17 || Admonish thy neighbour before thou threaten him; and not being angry, give place to the law of the Most High.

18 The fear of the Lord is the first step || to be accepted [of him,] and wisdom obtaineth his love.

19 <sup>l</sup> The knowledge of the commandments of the Lord is the doctrine of life: and they that do things that please him shall receive the fruit of the tree of immortality.

20 <sup>m</sup> The fear of the Lord is all wisdom; and in all wisdom is the performance of the law, and the knowledge of his omnipotency.

21 If a servant say to his master, I will not do as it pleaseth thee; though afterward he do it, <sup>n</sup> he angereth him that nourisheth him.

22 The knowledge of wickedness is not wisdom, neither at any time the counsel of sinners prudence.

23 There is a wickedness, and the same an abomination; and there is a fool wanting in wisdom.

24 He that hath small understanding, <sup>o</sup> and feareth God, is better than one that hath much wisdom, and transgresseth the law of the Most High.

25 There is an exquisite subtilty, and the same is unjust; and there is one that turneth aside to make judgment appear; and there is <sup>p</sup> a wise man that || justifieth in judgment.

26 There is a wicked man that hangeth down his head || sadly; but <sup>q</sup> inwardly he is full of deceit,

27 Casting down his countenance, and making as if he heard not: where he is not known, he will do thee a mischief before thou be aware.

28 And if for want of power he be hindered from sinning, <sup>r</sup> yet when he findeth opportunity he will do evil.

29 A man may be known by his look, and one that hath understanding by his countenance, when thou meetest him.

30 A man's attire, and <sup>s</sup> excessive laughter, and gait, shew what he is.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Of silence and speaking. 10 Of gifts and gain. 18 Of slipping by the tongue. 24 Of lying. 27 Of divers advertisements.

THERE is a reproof that is not || comely: again, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise.

2 It is much better to reprove, than to be angry secretly: <sup>a</sup> and he that confesseth his fault shall be preserved from hurt.

3 How good is it, when thou art reproved, to shew repentance! for so shalt thou escape wilful sin.

4 As is the lust of <sup>b</sup> an eunuch to deflower a virgin; so is he that executeth judgment with violence.

5 <sup>c</sup> There is one that keepeth silence, and is found wise: and another by much babbling becometh hateful.

6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not to answer: and some keepeth silence, <sup>d</sup> knowing his time.

7 A wise man will hold his <sup>e</sup> tongue till he see opportunity: but a babbler and a fool will regard no time.

8 <sup>f</sup> He that useth many words shall be abhorred; and he that taketh to himself authority therein shall be hated.

9 There is a sinner that hath good success in evil things; <sup>g</sup> and there is a gain that turneth to loss.

10 There is a gift that shall not profit thee; and there is a gift whose recompence is double.

11 There is an abasement because of glory; and there is that lifteth up his head from a low estate.

12 There is that buyeth much for a little, and repayeth it seven-fold.

13 <sup>h</sup> A wise man by his words maketh himself beloved: but the || graces of fools shall be || poured out.

14 The gift of a fool shall do thee no good when thou hast it; neither yet of the envious for his necessity: <sup>i</sup> for he looketh to receive many things for one.

15 He giveth little, <sup>j</sup> and upbraideth much; he openeth his mouth like a crier; to-day he lendeth, and to-morrow will he ask it again: such a one is to be hated of God and man.

16 <sup>k</sup> The fool saith, I have no friends, I have no thanks for all my good deeds, and they that eat my bread speak evil of me.

17 How oft, and of how many shall he be laughed to scorn! for he knoweth not aright what it is to have; and it is all one unto him as if he had it not.

18 To slip upon a pavement is better than to slip with the tongue; <sup>l</sup> so the fall of the wicked shall come speedily.

19 || An unseasonable tale will always be in the mouth of the unwise.

20 A wise sentence shall be rejected when it cometh out of a fool's mouth; for he will not speak it <sup>m</sup> in due season.

21 There is that is hindered from sinning through want: and when he taketh rest, he <sup>n</sup> shall not be troubled.

22 There is that <sup>o</sup> destroyeth his own soul through bashfulness, and by accepting of persons overthroweth himself.

23 There is that for bashfulness promiseth to his friend, and maketh him his enemy for nothing.

24 <sup>p</sup> A lie is a foul blot in a man, yet it is continually in the mouth of the untaught.

25 A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie: but they both shall have destruction to heritage.

26 The disposition of a liar is || dishonourable, and his shame is ever with him.

27 A wise man shall promote himself to honour with his words: and he that hath understanding will please great men.

28 <sup>q</sup> He that tilleth his land shall increase his heap: and he that pleaseth great men shall get pardon for iniquity.

29 <sup>r</sup> Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise, and || stop up his mouth that he cannot reprove.

30 Wisdom that is hid, and treasure that is hoarded up, what profit is in them both?

31 Better is he that hideth his folly than a man that hideth his wisdom.

32 <sup>s</sup> Necessary patience in seeking the Lord is better than he that leadeth his life without a guide.

CHAPTER XXI.

2 Flee from sin as from a serpent. 4 His oppression will undo the rich. 9 The end of the unjust shall be naught. 12 The difference between the fool and the wise.

M<sup>a</sup>Y son, hast thou sinned? do so no more, but ask pardon for thy former sins.

2 <sup>b</sup>Flee from sin as from the face of a serpent: for if thou comest too near it, it will bite thee: the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a lion, slaying the souls of men.

3 All iniquity is as a two-edged sword, the wounds whereof cannot be healed.

4 To terrify and do wrong will waste riches: thus the house of proud men shall be made desolate.

5 <sup>c</sup>A prayer out of a poor man's mouth reacheth to the ears of God, and his judgment cometh speedily.

6 <sup>d</sup>He that hateth to be reprov'd is in the way of sinners: but he that feareth the Lord will †repent from his heart.

7 An eloquent man is known far and near; but a man of understanding knoweth when he slippeth.

8 <sup>e</sup>He that buildeth his house with other men's money is like one that gathereth himself stones for the tomb of his burial.

9 <sup>f</sup>The congregation of the wicked is like tow wrapped together: and the end of them is a flame of fire to destroy them.

10 The way of sinners is made plain with stones, but at the end thereof is <sup>g</sup>the pit of hell.

11 <sup>h</sup>He that keepeth the law of the Lord getteth the understanding thereof: and the perfection of the fear of the Lord is wisdom.

12 He that is not <sup>i</sup>wise will not be taught: <sup>j</sup>but there is a wisdom which multiplieth bitterness.

13 The <sup>k</sup>knowledge of a wise man shall abound like a flood: and his counsel is like a pure fountain of life.

14 <sup>k</sup>The inner parts of a fool are like a broken vessel, and he will hold no knowledge as long as he liveth.

15 If a skilful man hear a wise word, he will commend it, and <sup>l</sup>add unto it: but as soon as one of no understanding heareth it, it displeaseth him, and he casteth it behind his back.

16 The talking of a fool is like a burden in the way: but <sup>m</sup>grace shall be found in the lips of the wise.

17 They <sup>n</sup>inquire at the mouth of the wise man in the congregation, and they shall ponder his words in their heart.

18 As is a house that is destroyed, so is wisdom to a fool: and the knowledge of the unwise is as talk <sup>o</sup>without sense.

19 Doctrine unto fools is as fetters on the feet, and like manacles on the right hand.

20 <sup>o</sup>A fool lifteth up his voice with laughter; but a wise man doth scarce smile a little.

21 Learning is unto a wise man <sup>p</sup>as an ornament of gold, and like a bracelet upon his right arm.

22 A foolish man's foot is soon in his [neighbour's] house: but a man of experience is ashamed of him.

23 A fool will peep in at the door into the house: but he that is well nurtured will stand without.

24 <sup>q</sup>It is the rudeness of a man to hearken at the door: but a wise man will be grieved with the disgrace.

25 <sup>r</sup>The lips of talkers will be telling such things as pertain not unto them: but the words of such as have understanding are weighed in the balance.

26 The heart of fools is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wise is in their heart.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Of the slothful man, 3 and a foolish daughter. 11 Weep rather for fools, than for the dead. 13 Meddle not with them. 16 The wise man's heart will not shrink. 20 What will lose a friend.

<sup>a</sup>A SLOTHFUL man is compared to a filthy stone, and every one will hiss him out to his disgrace.

2 A slothful man is compared to the filth of a dung-hill: every man that takes it up will shake his hand.

3 <sup>b</sup>An evil-nurtured son is the dishonour of his father that begat him: and a [foolish] daughter is born to his loss.

4 <sup>c</sup>A wise daughter || shall bring an inheritance to her husband: but she that liveth dishonestly is her father's heaviness.

5 She that is bold dishonoureth both her father and her husband, but they both shall despise her.

6 A tale out of season [is as] music in mourning: but <sup>d</sup>stripes and correction of wisdom are never out of time.

7 Whoso teacheth a fool is as one that glueth a potsherd together, and as he that waketh one from a sound sleep.

8 He that telleth a tale to a fool speaketh to one in a slumber: when he hath told his tale, he will say,

9 If children live honestly, and have || wherewithal, || <sup>f</sup>Or, an art they shall cover the baseness of their parents.

10 <sup>f</sup>But children, being haughty, through disdain and want of nurture do stain the nobility of their kindred.

11 <sup>g</sup>Weep for the dead, for he hath lost the light: and weep for the fool, for he wanteth understanding: make little weeping for the dead, for he is at rest: but the life of the fool is worse than death.

12 <sup>h</sup>Seven days do men mourn for him that is dead; but for a fool and an ungodly man all the days of his life.

13 Talk not much with a fool, and go not to him that hath no understanding: <sup>i</sup>beware of him, lest thou have trouble, and thou shalt never be defiled || with his fooleries: depart from him, and thou shalt find rest, and never be || disquieted with madness.

14 What is heavier than lead? and what is the name thereof, but a fool?

15 <sup>k</sup>Sand, and salt, and a mass of iron, is easier to bear than a man without understanding.

16 As timber girt and bound together in a building cannot be loosed with shaking: so the heart that is established by advised counsel shall <sup>l</sup>fear at no time.

17 A heart settled upon a thought of understanding is as a fair plastering || on the wall of a gallery.

18 Pales set on an high place will never stand against the wind: so a fearful heart in the imagination of a fool cannot stand against any fear.

19 He that pricketh the eye will make tears to fall: and he that <sup>m</sup>pricketh the heart maketh it to shew her knowledge.

20 Whoso casteth a stone at the birds frayeth them away: and he <sup>n</sup>that upbraideth his friend breaketh friendship.

21 Though thou drewest a sword at thy friend, yet despair not: for there may be a returning [to favour.]

crets, or a treacherous wound: for, for these things every friend will depart.

23 Be faithful to thy neighbour in his poverty, that thou mayest rejoice in his prosperity: <sup>p</sup> abide stedfast unto him in the time of his trouble, that thou mayest be heir with him in his heritage: for a mean estate is not always to be contemned: nor the rich that is foolish to be had in admiration.

24 As the vapour and smoke of a furnace goeth before the fire; so reviling before blood.

25 I will not be ashamed to defend a friend; neither will I hide myself from him.

26 And if any evil happen unto me by him, every one that heareth it will beware of him.

27 <sup>q</sup> Who shall set a watch before my mouth, and a seal of wisdom upon my lips, that I fall not suddenly by them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 A prayer for grace to flee sin. 9 We may not use swearing: 14 but remember our parents. 16 Of three sorts of sin. 23 The adulterous wife sinneth many ways.

O LORD, <sup>a</sup> Father and Governor of all my whole life, <sup>b</sup> leave me not to their counsels, and let me not fall by them.

2 Who will set scourges over my thoughts, and the discipline of wisdom over mine heart? that they spare me not for mine ignorances, and it pass not by my sins:

3 Lest mine ignorances increase, and my sins abound to my destruction, and I fall before mine adversaries, and mine enemy rejoice over me, whose hope is far from thy mercy.

4 <sup>c</sup> O Lord, Father and God of my life, give me not a proud look, but turn away from thy servants always || a haughty mind.

5 Turn away from me vain hopes and concupiscence, and thou shalt hold him up that is desirous always to serve thee.

6 <sup>d</sup> Let not the greediness of the belly nor lust of the flesh take hold of me; and give not over me thy servant into an impudent mind.

7 Hear, O ye children, the discipline of the mouth: he that keepeth it shall never be taken in his lips.

8 The sinner shall be left in his foolishness: both the evil speaker and the proud shall fall thereby.

9 <sup>e</sup> Accustom not thy mouth to swearing; neither use thyself to the naming of the Holy One.

10 For as a servant that is continually beaten shall not be without a blue mark: so he that sweareth and nameth God continually shall not be <sup>f</sup> faultless.

11 A man that useth much swearing shall be filled with iniquity, and the plague shall never depart from his house: if he shall offend, his sin shall be upon him: and if he acknowledge not his sin, he maketh a double offence: and if he swear in vain, he shall not be † innocent, but his house shall be full of calamities.

12 There is a word <sup>g</sup> that is clothed about with death: God <sup>h</sup> grant that it be not found in the heritage of Jacob; for all such things shall be far from the godly, and they shall not wallow in their sins.

13 Use not thy mouth to intemperate swearing, for therein is the word of sin.

14 Remember thy father and thy mother, when thou sittest among great men. Be not forgetful before them, and so thou by thy custom become a fool, and wish that thou hadst not been born, <sup>i</sup> and curse the day of thy nativity.

15 <sup>k</sup> The man that is accustomed to opprobrious words will never be reformed all the days of his life.

16 Two sorts of men multiply sin, and the third will bring wrath: a hot mind is as a burning fire, it will never be quenched till it be consumed: a fornicator in the body of his flesh will never cease till he hath kindled a fire.

17 <sup>l</sup> All bread is sweet to a whoremonger, he will not leave off till he die.

18 A man that breaketh wedlock, saying thus in his heart, <sup>m</sup> Who seeth me? I am compassed about with darkness, the walls cover me, and no body seeth me; what need I to fear? the Most High will not remember my sins:

19 Such a man only feareth the eyes of men, and knoweth not that the eyes of the Lord are ten thousand times brighter than the sun, <sup>n</sup> beholding all the ways of men, and considering the most secret parts.

20 He knew all things ere ever they were created; so also after they were perfected he looked upon them all.

21 <sup>o</sup> This man shall be punished in the streets of the city, and where he suspecteth not he shall be taken.

22 Thus shall it go also with the wife that leaveth her husband, and bringeth in an heir by || another.

23 For first, she hath disobeyed the <sup>p</sup> law of the Most High; and secondly, she hath trespassed against her own husband; and thirdly, she hath played the whore in adultery, <sup>q</sup> and brought children by another man.

24 She shall be brought out into the congregation, and || inquisition shall be made of her children.

25 Her <sup>r</sup> children shall not take root, and her branches shall bring forth no fruit.

26 She shall leave her memory to be cursed, and her reproach shall not be blotted out.

27 And they that remain <sup>s</sup> shall know that there is nothing better than the fear of the Lord, and that there is nothing sweeter than to take heed unto the commandments of the Lord.

28 <sup>t</sup> It is great glory to follow the Lord, and to be received of him is long life.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Wisdom doth praise herself, shewing her beginning, 4 her dwelling, 13 her glory, 17 her fruit, 26 her increase and perfection.

WISDOM shall praise herself, and shall glory in the midst of her people.

2 In the congregation of <sup>a</sup> the Most High shall she open her mouth, and triumph before his power.

3 I came out of the mouth of the Most High, and covered the earth as || a cloud.

4 <sup>b</sup> I dwelt in high places, and my throne is <sup>c</sup> in a cloudy pillar.

5 I alone compassed the circuit of heaven, and walked in the bottom of the deep.

6 <sup>d</sup> In the waves of the sea, and in all the earth, and in every people and nation, I got a possession.

7 With all these I sought rest: and in whose inheritance shall I abide?

8 So <sup>e</sup> the Creator of all things gave me a commandment, and he that made me caused my tabernacle to rest, and said, Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thine inheritance in Israel.

9 He created me <sup>f</sup> from the beginning before the world, and I shall never fail.

10 In the <sup>g</sup> holy tabernacle I served before him; and so was I established in Sion.

11 <sup>b</sup> Likewise in the || beloved city he gave me rest, and in Jerusalem was my power.

12 And I took root in an honourable people, <sup>i</sup> even in the portion of the Lord's inheritance.

13 I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress-tree upon the mountains of Hermon.

14 I was exalted like a palm-tree in || Engaddi, and as a rose-plant in Jericho, as a fair olive-tree in a pleasant field, and grew up as a plane-tree || by the water.

15 I gave a sweet smell <sup>k</sup> like cinnamon and aspalathus, and I yielded a pleasant odour like the best myrrh, as galbanum, and onyx, and sweet storax, and as the fume of frankincense in the <sup>l</sup> tabernacle.

16 As the turpentine-tree I stretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honour and grace.

17 <sup>m</sup> As the vine brought I forth a pleasant savour, and my flowers are the fruit of <sup>n</sup> honour and riches.

18 I am the mother of fair love, and fear, and knowledge, and holy hope: I therefore, being eternal, am given to all my children which are || named of him.

19 Come unto me, all ye that be desirous of me, and fill yourselves with my fruits.

20 For my memorial is <sup>o</sup> sweeter than honey, and mine inheritance than the honey-comb.

21 <sup>p</sup> They that eat me shall yet be hungry, and they that drink me shall yet be thirsty.

22 He that obeyeth me shall never be confounded, and they that work by me shall not do amiss.

23 All these things are the book of the covenant of <sup>q</sup> the most high God, even the <sup>r</sup> law which Moses commanded for an heritage unto the congregations of Jacob.

24 Faint not to be strong in the Lord: that he may confirm you, cleave unto him: for the Lord Almighty <sup>s</sup> is God alone, and besides him there is no other Saviour.

25 He filleth all things with his wisdom, as <sup>t</sup> Phison and as Tigris in the time of the new fruits.

26 He maketh the understanding to abound like <sup>u</sup> Euphrates, and as <sup>x</sup> Jordan in the time of the harvest.

27 He maketh the doctrine of knowledge appear as the light, and as Geon in the time of vintage.

28 <sup>y</sup> The first man knew her not perfectly: no more shall the last find her out.

29 For her thoughts are more than the sea, and her counsels profounder than the great deep.

30 I also came out as a || brook from a river, and as a conduit into a garden.

31 I said, I will water my best garden, and will water abundantly my garden-bed: and lo, <sup>z</sup> my brook became a river, and my river became a sea.

32 I will yet make doctrine to shine <sup>a</sup> as the morning, and will send forth her light afar off.

33 I will yet pour out doctrine as prophecy, and leave it to all ages for ever.

34 <sup>b</sup> Behold that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all them that seek wisdom.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 What things are beautiful, and what hateful. 6 What is the crown of age. 7 What things make man happy. 13 Nothing worse than a wicked woman.

IN three things I || was beautified, and stood up beautiful both before God and men: the <sup>a</sup> unity of brethren, the love of neighbours, a man and a wife that agree together.

2 Three sorts of men <sup>b</sup> my soul hateth, and I am greatly offended at their life: a poor man that is proud, a rich man that is a liar, and an old adulterer that doteth.

3 If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, how canst thou find any thing in thine age?

4 O how comely a thing is judgment for gray hairs, <sup>c</sup> and for ancient men to know counsel!

5 O how comely is the wisdom of old men, and understanding and counsel to men of honour!

6 Much <sup>d</sup> experience is the crown of old men, and the fear of God is their glory.

7 There be nine things which I have judged in mine heart to be happy, and the tenth I will utter with my tongue: <sup>e</sup> A man that hath joy of his children; and he that liveth to see the fall of his enemy:

8 Well is him that dwelleth with a wife of understanding, and that hath not <sup>f</sup> slipped with his tongue, and that hath not served a man more unworthy than himself:

9 Well is him that hath found || prudence, and he that speaketh in the ears of them that will hear:

10 O how great is he <sup>g</sup> that findeth wisdom! yet is there none above him that feareth the Lord.

11 But the love of the Lord passeth all things for illumination: he that holdeth it, || whereto shall he be likened?

12 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of his love: <sup>h</sup> and faith is the beginning of cleaving unto him.

13 [Give me] any plague, but the plague of the heart: and any wickedness, but the wickedness of a woman:

14 And any affliction, but <sup>i</sup> the affliction from them that hate me: and any revenge, but the revenge of enemies.

15 <sup>k</sup> There is no head above the head of a serpent; and there is no wrath above the wrath of an enemy.

16 I had <sup>l</sup> rather dwell with a lion and a dragon, than to keep house with a wicked woman.

17 The wickedness of a woman changeth her face, and darkeneth her countenance || like sackcloth.

18 Her husband shall sit among his neighbours; and when he heareth it shall sigh bitterly.

19 All wickedness is but little to the wickedness of a woman: <sup>m</sup> let the portion of a sinner fall upon her.

20 As the climbing of a sandy way is to the feet of the aged, so is a wife || full of words to a quiet man.

21 <sup>n</sup> Stumble not at the beauty of a woman, and desire her not for pleasure.

22 A woman, if she maintain her husband, is full of anger, impudence, and much reproach.

23 A wicked woman abateth the courage, maketh an heavy countenance and a wounded heart: a woman that will not comfort her husband in distress maketh <sup>o</sup> weak hands and feeble knees.

24 Of <sup>p</sup> the woman came the beginning of sin, and through her we all die.

25 Give the water no passage; neither a wicked woman liberty to gad abroad.

26 If she go not as thou wouldest have her, <sup>q</sup> cut her off from thy flesh, and give her a bill of divorce, and let her go.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 A good wife, 4 and a good conscience do glad men. 6 A wicked wife is a fearful thing. 13 Of good and bad wives. 28 Of three things that are grievous. 29 Merchants and hucksters are not without sin.

BLESSED is the man that hath a virtuous wife, for the number of his days shall be double.

2 A virtuous woman rejoiceth her husband, and he shall fulfil the years of his life in peace.

3 <sup>b</sup> A good wife is a good portion, which shall be given in the portion of them that fear the Lord.

4 Whether a man be rich or poor, if he have a <sup>c</sup> good heart towards the Lord, he shall at all times rejoice with a cheerful countenance.

5 There be three things that mine heart feareth; and for the fourth I was sore afraid: † the slander of a city, and gathering together of an unruly multitude, and a false accusation: all these are worse than death.

6 But a grief of heart and sorrow is a woman that <sup>d</sup> is jealous over another woman, and a scourge of the tongue which communicateth with all.

7 An evil wife is || a yoke shaken to and fro: he that hath hold of her is as though he held a scorpion.

8 A drunken woman and a gadder abroad causeth great anger, and she will not cover her own shame.

9 The whoredom of a woman may be known <sup>e</sup> in her haughty looks and eyelids.

10 <sup>f</sup> If thy daughter be shameless, keep her in straitly, lest she abuse herself through overmuch liberty.

11 Watch over an <sup>g</sup> impudent eye: and marvel not if she trespass against thee.

12 She will open her mouth <sup>h</sup> as a thirsty traveller when he hath found a fountain, and drink of every water near her: by every || hedge she will sit down, and open her quiver against every arrow.

13 The grace of a wife delighteth her husband, and her discretion will fatten his bones.

14 A silent and loving woman is a gift of the Lord; <sup>i</sup> and there is nothing so much worth as a mind well instructed.

15 A shamefaced and a faithful woman is a double grace, and her continent mind cannot be valued.

16 As the sun when it riseth † in the high heaven: so is the beauty of a good wife in the || ordering of her house.

17 As the clear light is upon the holy candlestick; so is the beauty of the face || in ripe age.

18 As the golden pillars are upon the sockets of silver; so are the || fair feet with a constant || heart.

19 My son, keep the flower of thine age sound; and give not thy strength to <sup>k</sup> strangers.

20 When thou hast gotten a fruitful possession through all the field, sow it with thine own seed, trusting in the goodness of thy stock.

21 So thy race which thou leavest <sup>l</sup> shall be magnified, having the confidence of their good descent.

22 An harlot shall be accounted as || spittle, but a married woman is a tower against death to her husband.

23 A wicked woman is given as a portion to a wicked man: but a godly woman is given to him that feareth the Lord.

24 A dishonest woman contemneth shame: <sup>m</sup> but an honest woman will reverence her husband.

25 A shameless woman shall be accounted <sup>n</sup> as a dog; but she that is shamefaced will fear the Lord.

26 A woman <sup>o</sup> that honoureth her husband shall be judged wise of all; but she that dishonoureth him in her pride shall be counted ungodly of all.

27 A loud crying woman and a scold shall be sought out to drive away the enemies.

28 <sup>p</sup> There be two things that grieve my heart; and the third maketh me angry: a man of war that suffereth poverty; <sup>q</sup> and men of understanding that are not set by; <sup>r</sup> and one that returneth from righteousness to sin; the Lord prepareth such an one for the sword.

29 <sup>s</sup> A merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong: and an huckster shall not be freed from sin.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Of sins in selling and buying. 7 Our speech will tell what is in us. 16 A friend is lost by discovering his secrets. 25 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it.

MANY <sup>a</sup> have sinned for || a small matter; and he that <sup>b</sup> seeketh for abundance will turn his eyes away.

2 As a nail sticketh fast between the joinings of the stones; so doth sin stick close <sup>c</sup> between buying and selling.

3 Unless a man hold himself diligently in the fear of the Lord, his house shall soon be overthrown.

4 As when one sifteth with a sieve, the refuse remaineth; so the filth of man in his || talk.

5 <sup>d</sup> The furnace proveth the potter's vessels; so the trial of man is in his reasoning.

6 <sup>e</sup> The fruit declareth if the tree have been dressed; so is the utterance of a conceit in the heart of man.

7 Praise no man before thou hearest him speak; for this is the trial of men.

8 <sup>f</sup> If thou followest righteousness, thou shalt obtain her, and put her on, as a glorious long robe.

9 The birds will resort unto their like; so will truth return unto them that practise in her.

10 As the lion lieth in wait for the prey; <sup>g</sup> so sin for them that work iniquity.

11 <sup>h</sup> The discourse of a godly man is always with wisdom; but a fool changeth as the moon.

12 If thou be among the indiscreet, observe the time; but be continually among men of understanding.

13 The discourse of fools is irksome, and their sport is in the wantonness of sin.

14 <sup>i</sup> The talk of him that sweareth much maketh the hair stand upright; and their brawls make one stop his ears.

15 The strife of the proud is blood-shedding, and their revilings are grievous to the ear.

16 Whoso discovereth secrets loseth his credit; and shall never find a friend to his mind.

17 Love thy friend, and be faithful unto him: <sup>j</sup> but if thou bewrayest his secrets, follow no more after him.

18 For as a man hath destroyed his enemy; so hast thou lost the love of thy neighbour.

19 As one that letteth a bird go out of his hand, so hast thou let thy neighbour go, and shalt not get him again.

20 <sup>k</sup> Follow after him no more, for he is too far off; he is as a roe escaped out of the snare.

21 As for a wound, it may be bound up; and after reviling there may be reconciliation: but he that bewrayeth secrets is without hope.

22 He <sup>m</sup> that winketh with the eyes worketh evil: and he that knoweth him will depart from him.

23 When thou art present, he will speak sweetly, and will admire thy words: but at the last he will || writhe his mouth, and slander thy sayings.

24 I have hated many things, but nothing like him; for the Lord will hate him.

25 Whoso casteth a stone on high casteth it on his own head; and a deceitful stroke shall make wounds.

26 <sup>n</sup> Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that setteth a trap shall be taken therein.

27 He that worketh mischief, it shall fall upon him, and he shall not know whence it cometh.

21 The death thereof is an evil death, the grave were better than it.

n Ps. 31, 20.

22 <sup>n</sup> It shall not have rule over them that fear God, neither shall they be burned with the flame thereof.

23 Such as forsake the Lord shall fall into it; and it shall burn in them, and not be quenched; it shall be sent upon them as a lion, and devour them as a leopard.

24 Look that thou hedge thy possession about with thorns, and bind up thy silver and gold:

25 And weigh thy words in a balance, <sup>o</sup> and make a door and bar for thy mouth

26 Beware thou slide not by it, <sup>p</sup> lest thou fall before him that lieth in wait.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 We must shew mercy and lend: 4 but the borrower must not defraud the lender. 9 Give alms. 14 A good man will not undo his surety. 18 To be surety, and undertake for others, is dangerous. 22 It is better to live at home, than to sojourn.

HE that is merciful will lend unto his neighbour; and he that strengtheneth his hand keepeth the commandments.

2 <sup>b</sup> Lend to thy neighbour in time of his need, and pay thou thy neighbour again in due season.

3 Keep thy word, and deal faithfully with him, and thou shalt always find the thing that is necessary for thee.

4 Many, when a thing was lent them, reckoned it to be found, and put them to trouble that helped them.

5 Till he hath received, he will kiss a man's hand; and for his neighbour's money he will speak submissly: <sup>c</sup> but when he should repay, he will prolong the time, and return words of grief, and complain of the time.

6 || If he prevail, he shall hardly receive the half, and he will count as if he had found it: if not, he hath deprived him of his money, and he hath gotten him an enemy without cause: <sup>d</sup> he payeth him with cursings and railings; and for honour he will pay him disgrace.

7 Many therefore have refused to lend for other men's ill dealing, fearing to be defrauded.

8 Yet have thou patience with a man in poor estate, and delay not to shew him mercy.

9 <sup>e</sup> Help the poor for the commandment's sake, and turn him not away because of his poverty.

10 Lose thy money for thy brother and thy friend, <sup>f</sup> and let it not rust under a stone to be lost.

11 <sup>g</sup> Lay up thy treasure according to the commandments of the Most High, and it shall bring thee more profit than gold.

12 Shut up alms in thy <sup>h</sup> storehouses: and it shall deliver thee from all affliction.

13 It shall fight for thee against thine enemies better than a mighty shield and strong spear.

14 An honest man is surety for his neighbour: but he that is impudent will || forsake him.

15 Forget not the friendship of thy surety, for he hath given his life for thee.

16 A sinner will overthrow the good estate of his surety:

17 And he that is of an unthankful mind will leave him [in danger] that delivered him.

18 <sup>i</sup> Suretiship hath undone many of good estate, and shaken them as a wave of the sea: mighty men hath it driven from their houses, so that they wandered among strange nations.

19 A wicked man transgressing the commandments of the Lord shall fall into suretiship: and he that undertaketh and followeth other men's business for gain shall fall into suits.

20 Help thy neighbour <sup>k</sup> according to thy power, and beware that thou thyself fall not into the same.

21 The <sup>l</sup> chief thing for life is water, and bread, and clothing, and an house to cover shame.

22 Better is the life of a poor man in a mean cottage, than delicate fare in another man's house.

25 Thou shalt entertain, and feast, and have no thanks: moreover, <sup>n</sup> thou shalt hear bitter words:

26 Come, thou stranger, and furnish a table, and feed me of that thou hast ready.

27 <sup>o</sup> Give place, thou stranger, to an honourable man; my brother cometh to be lodged, and I have need of mine house.

28 These things are grievous to a man of understanding; the upbraiding of house-room, and reproaching of the lender.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 It is good to correct our children, <sup>7</sup> and not to cocker them. 14 Health is better than wealth. 22 Health and life are shortened by grief.

HE <sup>a</sup> that loveth his son causeth him oft to feel the rod, that he may have joy of him in the end.

2 He that chastiseth his son shall have || joy in him, and shall rejoice in him among his || acquaintance.

3 He that <sup>b</sup> teacheth his son grieveth the enemy: and before his friends he shall rejoice of him.

4 Though his father die, yet he is as though he were not dead: for he hath left one behind him that is like himself.

5 While he lived, he <sup>c</sup> saw and rejoiced in him: and when he died, he was not sorrowful.

6 He left behind him an avenger against his enemies, and one that shall <sup>d</sup> requite kindness to his friends.

7 He that maketh too much of his son shall bind up his wounds; and his bowels will be troubled at every cry.

8 An horse not broken becometh headstrong: and a child left to himself will be wilful.

9 <sup>d</sup> Cocker thy child, and he shall make thee || afraid: play with him, and he will bring thee to heaviness.

10 Laugh not with him, lest thou have sorrow with him, and lest thou gnash thy teeth in the end.

11 <sup>e</sup> Give him no liberty in his youth, and wink not at his follies.

12 Bow down his neck while he is young, and beat him on the sides while he is a child, lest he wax stubborn, and be disobedient unto thee, <sup>f</sup> and so bring sorrow to thine heart.

13 <sup>g</sup> Chastise thy son, and hold him to labour, lest his lewd behaviour be an offence unto thee.

14 Better is the poor, being sound and strong of constitution, than a rich man that is afflicted in his body.

15 Health and good estate of body are above all gold, and a strong body above infinite wealth.

16 There is no riches above a sound body, and no joy above the joy of the heart.

17 <sup>h</sup> Death is better than a bitter life or continual sickness.

18 Delicates poured upon a mouth shut up, are as messes of meat set upon a grave.

19 What good doeth the offering unto an idol? for neither can it eat nor smell: so is he that is || persecuted of the Lord.

20 He seeth with his eyes and groaneth, <sup>i</sup> as an eunuch that embraceth a virgin and sigheth.

21 <sup>k</sup> Give not over thy mind to heaviness, and afflict not thyself in thine own counsel.

22 The gladness of the heart is the life of man, and the || joyfulness of a man prolongeth his days.

23 Love thine own soul, and comfort thy heart, remove sorrow far from thee: <sup>1</sup> for sorrow hath killed many, and there is no profit therein.

24 Envy and wrath shorten the life, and carefulness bringeth age before the time.

25 || A cheerful and good heart will have a care of his meat and diet.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 Of the desire of riches. 12 Of moderation and excess in eating, or drinking wine.

WATCHING for <sup>a</sup> riches consumeth the flesh, and the care thereof driveth away sleep.

2 <sup>b</sup> Watching care will not let a man slumber, as a sore disease breaketh sleep.

3 The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together; and when he resteth, he is filled with his delicates.

4 The poor laboureth in his poor estate; and when he leaveth off, he is still needy.

5 <sup>c</sup> He that loveth gold shall not be justified, and he that followeth corruption shall have enough thereof.

6 <sup>d</sup> Gold hath been the ruin of many, and their destruction was present.

7 It is a stumbling-block unto them that sacrifice unto it, and every fool shall be taken therewith.

8 <sup>e</sup> Blessed is the rich that is found without blemish, and hath not gone after gold.

9 Who is he? and we will call him blessed: for wonderful things hath he done among his people.

10 Who hath been <sup>f</sup> tried thereby, and found perfect? then let him glory. Who might offend, and hath not offended? or done evil, and hath not done it?

11 His goods shall be established, and the congregation shall declare his alms.

12 If thou sit at a bountiful table, <sup>g</sup> † be not greedy upon it, and say not, There is much meat on it.

13 Remember that a wicked eye is an evil thing: and what is created more wicked than an eye? therefore it weepeth || upon every occasion.

14 Stretch not thine hand whithersoever it looketh, and thrust it not with him into the dish.

15 <sup>h</sup> Judge of thy neighbour by thyself: and be discreet in every point.

16 Eat, as it becometh a man, those things which are set before thee; and devour not, lest thou be hated.

17 Leave off first for manners' sake; <sup>i</sup> and be not unsatiable, lest thou offend.

18 <sup>k</sup> When thou sittest among many, reach not thine hand out first of all.

19 A very little is sufficient for a man well-nurtured, || and he fetcheth not his wind short upon his bed.

20 Sound sleep cometh of moderate eating: he riseth early, and his wits are with him: <sup>1</sup> but the pain of watching, and choler, and pangs of the belly, are with an unsatiable man.

21 And if thou hast been forced to eat, arise, go forth, vomit, and thou shalt have rest.

22 My son, hear me, and despise me not, and at the last thou shalt find as I told thee: <sup>m</sup> in all thy works be quick, so shall there no sickness come unto thee.

23 <sup>n</sup> Whoso is liberal of his meat, men shall speak well of him; and the report of his good house-keeping will be believed.

27 <sup>a</sup> Wine is as good as life to a man, if it be drunk moderately: what is life then to a man that is without wine? for it was made to make men glad.

28 Wine measureably drunk and in season, bringeth gladness of the heart, and cheerfulness of the mind:

29 But <sup>r</sup> wine drunken with excess maketh bitterness of the mind, with brawling and quarrelling.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Of his duty that is chief or master in a feast. 14 Of the fear of God. 18 Of counsel. 20 Of a rugged and smooth way. 23 Trust not to any but to thyself, and to God.

4 <sup>c</sup> Pour not out words where there is a musician, and shew not forth wisdom out of time.

5 A concert of music in a banquet of wine is as a signet of carbuncle set in gold.

16 They that fear the Lord shall find judgment, and shall kindle justice as a light.

17 A sinful man will not be reprov'd, but findeth an excuse according to his will.

i Hag. 1, 5, 7.

18 A man of counsel will be <sup>i</sup> considerate; but a strange and proud man is not daunted with fear, even when of himself he hath done without counsel.

19 Do nothing without advice; and when thou hast once done, repent not.

20 Go not in a way wherein thou mayest fall, <sup>k</sup> and stumble not among the stones.

21 Be not confident in a plain way.

22 And beware of thine own children.

23 In every good work trust thy own soul; for this is the keeping of the commandments.

24 He that believeth in the Lord taketh heed to the commandment; and he that trusteth in him || shall fare never the worse.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 The safety of him that feareth the Lord. 2 The wise and the foolish. 7 Times and seasons are of God. 10 Men are in his hands as clay in the hands of the potter. 19 Chiefly regard thyself. 24 Of servants.

THERE shall no evil happen unto him that feareth the Lord; <sup>b</sup> but in temptation even again he will deliver him.

2 A wise man hateth not the law; but he that is an hypocrite therein is as a ship in a storm.

3 A man of understanding trusteth in the law; and the law is faithful unto him, || as an oracle.

4 Prepare what to say, and so thou shalt be heard: and bind up instruction, and then make answer.

5 The † heart of the <sup>c</sup> foolish is like a cart-wheel; and his thoughts are like a rolling axle-tree.

6 A stallion horse is as a mocking friend, he neigheth under every one that sitteth upon him.

7 Why doth one day excel another, when as <sup>d</sup> all the light of every day in the year is of the sun?

8 By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished: and he altered <sup>e</sup> seasons and feasts.

9 Some of them hath he made high days, and hallowed them, and some of them hath he || made ordinary days.

10 And all men are from the ground, and <sup>f</sup> Adam was created of earth.

11 In much knowledge the Lord hath divided them, and made their ways diverse.

12 <sup>g</sup> Some of them hath he blessed and exalted, and some of them hath he sanctified, and set near himself: but some of them hath he cursed and brought low, and turned out of their || places

13 <sup>h</sup> As the clay is in the potter's hand, to fashion it at his pleasure; so man is in the hand of him that made him, to render to them as liketh him best.

14 <sup>i</sup> Good is set against evil, and life against death: so is the godly against the sinner, and the sinner against the godly.

15 So look upon all the works of the Most High; and there are <sup>k</sup> two and two, one against another.

16 I awaked up last of all, as one that || gathereth after the grape-gatherers: by the blessing of the Lord I profited, and filled my wine-press like a gatherer of grapes.

17 <sup>l</sup> Consider that I laboured not for myself only, but for all them that seek learning.

18 Hear me, O ye great men of the people, and hearken with your ears, <sup>m</sup> ye rulers of the congregation.

19 Give not thy son and wife, thy brother and friend, power over thee while thou livest, and give not thy goods to another: lest it repent thee, <sup>n</sup> and thou entreat for the same again.

20 As long as thou livest and hast breath in thee, || give not thyself over to any.

21 For better it is that thy children should seek to thee, than that thou shouldst || stand to their courtesy.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Of dreams. 13 The praise and blessing of them that fear the Lord. 18 The offering of the ancient, and prayer of the poor innocent.

THE hopes of a man void of understanding are vain and false: and <sup>a</sup> dreams lift up fools.

2 Whoso || regardeth dreams is like him that catcheth at a shadow, and followeth after the wind.

3 The vision of dreams is the resemblance of one thing to another, even as the <sup>b</sup> likeness of a face to a face.

4 <sup>c</sup> Of an unclean thing what can be cleansed? and from that thing which is false what truth can come?

5 <sup>d</sup> Divinations, and soothsayings, and dreams, are vain: and the heart fancieth, as a woman's heart in travail.

6 If they be not sent from the Most High in thy visitation, || set not thy heart upon them.

7 For dreams have deceived many, and they have failed that put their trust in them.

8 <sup>e</sup> The law shall be found perfect without lies: and wisdom is perfection to a faithful mouth.

9 A man that hath travelled knoweth many things; and he that hath much experience will declare wisdom.

10 He that hath no experience knoweth little: but he that hath travelled is full of prudence.

11 When I travelled, I saw many things; and I understood more than I can express.

12 I was oft-times <sup>f</sup> in danger of death: yet I was delivered because of these things.

13 The spirit of those that fear the Lord shall live; <sup>g</sup> for their hope is in him that saveth them.

14 Whoso feareth the Lord shall not fear nor be afraid; for he is his hope.

15 Blessed is the soul of him that feareth the Lord: to whom doth he look? and who is his strength?

16 For <sup>h</sup> the eyes of the Lord are upon them that love him, <sup>i</sup> he is their mighty protection and strong stay, a defence from heat, <sup>k</sup> and a cover from the sun at noon, a preservation from stumbling, and an help from falling.

17 He raiseth up the soul, and lighteneth the eyes: he giveth health, life, and blessing.

18 <sup>l</sup> He that sacrificeth of a thing wrongfully gotten, his offering is ridiculous; and || the gifts of unjust men are not accepted.

19 <sup>m</sup> The Most High is not pleased with the offerings of the wicked; neither is he pacified for sin by the multitude of sacrifices.

20 Whoso bringeth an offering of the goods of the poor, doeth as one that killeth the son, before his father's eyes.

21 The bread of the needy is their life: <sup>n</sup> he that defraudeth him thereof is a man of blood.

22 He that taketh away his neighbour's living slayeth him; and he that <sup>o</sup> defraudeth the labourer of his hire is a blood-shedder.

23 When one buildeth, and another pulleth down, what profit have they then but labour?

24 When one prayeth, and another curseth, whose voice will the Lord hear?

25 <sup>p</sup> He that washeth himself after the touching of a dead body, if he touch it again, what availeth his washing?

26 So it is with a man that fasteth for his sins, and goeth again, and doeth the same: <sup>q</sup> who will hear his prayer? or what doth his humbling profit him?

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Sacrifices pleasing to God. 14 The prayer of the fatherless, of the widow, and of the humble in spirit. 20 Acceptable mercy.

HE <sup>a</sup> that keepeth the law bringeth offerings enough: he that taketh heed to the commandment offereth a peace-offering.

2 He that requiteth a good turn offereth fine flour; and he that giveth alms <sup>b</sup> sacrificeth praise.

3 To depart from wickedness is a thing pleasing to the Lord; and to forsake unrighteousness is a propitiation.

4 <sup>c</sup> Thou shalt not appear empty before the Lord.

5 For all these things [are to be done] because of the commandment.

6 The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fat, and the sweet savour thereof is before the Most High.

7 <sup>d</sup> The sacrifice of a just man is acceptable, and the memorial thereof shall never be forgotten.

8 Give the Lord his honour with a good eye, and diminish not the first-fruits of thine hands.

9 <sup>e</sup> In all thy gifts shew a cheerful countenance, and || dedicate thy tithes with gladness.

10 <sup>f</sup> Give unto the Most High according as he hath enriched thee; and as thou hast gotten, give with a cheerful eye.

11 For the Lord recompenseth, and will give thee seven times as much.

12 || Do not think to corrupt with gifts; <sup>g</sup> for such he will not receive: and trust not to unrighteous sacrifices; for the Lord is judge, and with him is <sup>h</sup> no respect of persons.

13 He will not accept any person against a poor man, but will hear the prayer of the oppressed.

1 The remembrance of death. 3 Death is not to be feared. 5 The ungodly shall be accursed. 11 Of an evil and a good name. 14 Wisdom is to be uttered. 16 Of what things we should be ashamed.

a Ps. 17, 14.

O DEATH, how bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that liveth at rest <sup>a</sup> in his possessions, unto the man that hath nothing to vex him, and that hath prosperity in all things : yea, unto him that is yet able to receive meat !

b Job 6, 8, 9, 10.

2 O death, <sup>b</sup> acceptable is thy sentence unto the needy, and unto him whose strength faileth, that is now in the last age, and || is vexed with all things, and to him that despaireth, and hath lost patience !

|| Or, to whom every thing is troublesome.

3 Fear not the sentence of death, remember them that have been before thee, and that come after : <sup>c</sup> for this is the sentence of the Lord over all flesh.

c Heb. 9, 27.

4 And why art thou against the pleasure of the Most High ? <sup>d</sup> there is no inquisition in the grave, whether thou have lived ten, or an hundred, or a thousand years.

d Ps. 88, 12. Eccles. 7, 10. & 9, 5.

5 The children of sinners are abominable children, and they that are conversant in the dwelling of the ungodly.

6 The inheritance of sinners' children shall perish, and their posterity shall have a perpetual reproach.

7 The children will complain of an ungodly father, <sup>e</sup> because they shall be reproached for his sake.

e Ex. 20, 5.

8 <sup>f</sup> Wo be unto you, ungodly men, which have forsaken the law of the most high God ! for if ye increase, it shall be to your destruction :

f Isa. 3, 11.

9 And if ye be born, ye shall be born to a curse : and if ye die, a curse shall be your portion.

g ch. 40, 11.

10 <sup>g</sup> All that are of the earth shall turn to earth again : so the ungodly shall go from a curse to destruction.

11 The mourning of men is about their bodies : but an ill name of sinners shall be blotted out.

h Prov. 22, 1. Eccles. 7, 1.

12 Have regard to <sup>b</sup> thy name ; for that shall continue with thee above a thousand great treasures of gold.

13 A good life hath but few days : but a good name endureth for ever.

i ch. 20, 30.

14 My children, keep discipline in peace : <sup>i</sup> for wisdom that is hid, and a treasure that is not seen, what profit is in them both ?

15 A man <sup>k</sup> that hideth his foolishness is better than a man that hideth his wisdom.

20 And of silence before them that salute thee ; and to look upon an harlot ;

21 And to turn away thy face from thy kinsman ; or to take away a portion or a gift : <sup>n</sup> or to gaze upon another man's wife ;

teous woman, a woman, I say, which bringeth shame and reproof.

15 I will now remember <sup>h</sup> the works of the Lord, and declare the things that I have seen : In the words of the Lord are his works.

16 The sun that giveth light <sup>i</sup> looketh upon all things, and the work thereof is full of the glory of the Lord.

17 The Lord hath not given power to the saints to declare all his marvellous works, which the Almighty Lord firmly settled, that whatsoever is, might be established for his glory.

18 He seeketh out the deep, and the heart, and considereth their crafty devices : for || the Lord <sup>k</sup> knoweth all that may be known, and he beholdeth the signs of the world.

19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and revealeth the steps of hidden things.

20 <sup>l</sup> No thought escapeth him, neither any word is hidden from him.

21 He hath garnished the excellent works of his wisdom, and he is <sup>m</sup> from everlasting to everlasting : unto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished, and he hath no need of any counsellor.

22 O <sup>n</sup> how desirable are all his works ! and that a man may see even to a spark.

23 All these things live and remain for ever for all uses, and they are all obedient.

24 All things are <sup>o</sup> double one against another : and he hath made nothing imperfect.

25 One thing establisheth the good of another : and who shall be filled <sup>p</sup> with beholding his glory ?

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The works of God in heaven, and in earth, and in the sea, are exceeding glorious and wonderful. 29 Yet God himself in his power and wisdom is above all.

THE pride of the <sup>a</sup> height, the clear firmament, the beauty of heaven, with his glorious shew ;

2 The sun when it appeareth, declaring at his rising a marvellous || instrument, <sup>b</sup> the work of the Most High :

3 At noon it parcheth the country, and who can abide the burning heat thereof ?

4 A man blowing a furnace is in works of heat, but the sun burneth the mountains three times more ; breathing out fiery vapours, and sending forth bright beams, it dimmeth the eyes.

5 <sup>c</sup> Great is the Lord that made it ; and at his commandment || it runneth hastily.

6 <sup>d</sup> He made the moon also to serve in her season for a declaration of times, and a sign of the world.

7 <sup>e</sup> From the moon is the sign of feasts, a light that decreaseth in her perfection.

8 The month is called after her name, increasing wonderfully in her changing, being an instrument of the armies above, shining in the <sup>f</sup> firmament of heaven ;

9 The beauty of heaven, the glory of the <sup>g</sup> stars, an ornament giving light in the highest places of the Lord.

10 At the commandment of the Holy One they will stand in their order, and never faint in their watches.

11 <sup>h</sup> Look upon the rainbow, and praise him that made it ; very beautiful it is in the brightness thereof.

12 It compasseth the heaven about with a glorious circle, and the <sup>i</sup> hands of the Most High have bended it.

13 By his commandment he maketh the snow to fall apace, and sendeth swiftly <sup>k</sup> the lightnings of his judgment.

14 Through this the treasures are opened : and clouds fly forth as fowls.

15 By his great power he maketh the clouds firm, and the hailstones are broken small.

16 At his sight <sup>l</sup> the mountains are shaken, and at his will the south wind bloweth.

17 The noise of the thunder maketh the earth || to tremble : so doth the northern storm and the whirlwind : as birds flying he scattereth the snow, and the falling down thereof is as the lighting of grasshoppers :

18 The eye marvelleth at the beauty of the whiteness thereof, and the heart is astonished at the raining of it.

19 <sup>m</sup> The hoar-frost also as salt he poureth on the earth, and being congealed, || it lieth on the top of sharp stakes.

20 When the cold <sup>n</sup> north wind bloweth, and the water is congealed into ice, it abideth upon every gathering together of water, and clotheth the water as with a breast-plate.

21 It devoureth the mountains, and burneth the wilderness, and consumeth the grass as fire.

22 A present remedy of all is a mist coming speedily : a dew coming || after heat, refresheth.

23 By his counsel he appeaseth the deep, and planteth islands therein.

24 <sup>o</sup> They that sail on the sea, tell of the danger thereof ; and when we hear it with our ears, we marvel thereat.

25 <sup>p</sup> For therein be strange and wondrous works, variety of all kinds of beasts and whales created.

26 By him the end of them hath prosperous success, and by his word all things <sup>q</sup> consist.

27 We may speak much, and yet come short : wherefore in sum, he is all.

28 How shall we be able to magnify him ? for he is great above all his works.

29 <sup>r</sup> The Lord is terrible and very great, and marvellous is his power.

30 When ye glorify the Lord, exalt him as much as ye can ; for even yet <sup>s</sup> will he far exceed : and when ye exalt him, put forth all your strength, and be not weary ; for ye can never go far enough.

31 <sup>t</sup> Who hath seen him that he might tell us ? and who can magnify him as he is ?

32 There are yet hid greater things than these be, for we have seen but a few of his works.

33 For the <sup>u</sup> Lord hath made all things ; and to the godly hath he given wisdom.

18 An <sup>m</sup> everlasting covenant was made with him, that all flesh should perish no more by the flood.

19 Abraham was a <sup>n</sup> great father of many people: in glory was there none like unto him;

20 Who kept the law of the Most High, and was in covenant with him: he established the covenant in <sup>o</sup> his flesh; and when he was proved, he was found faithful.

21 Therefore he assured him by an <sup>p</sup> oath, that he would bless the nations in his seed, and that he would multiply him as the dust of the earth, and exalt his seed as the stars, and cause them to inherit from sea to sea, and from the river unto the utmost part of the land.

22 <sup>q</sup> With Isaac did he establish likewise [for Abraham his father's sake] the blessing of all men, and the covenant, 23 And made it rest upon the head of <sup>r</sup> Jacob. He acknowledged him in his blessing, and gave him an heritage, and divided his portions; among the twelve tribes did he part them.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The praise of Moses, 6 of Aaron, 23 and of Phinees.

AND he brought out of him a merciful man, which found favour in the sight of all flesh, even <sup>a</sup> Moses, beloved of God and men, whose memorial is blessed.

2 He made him like to the glorious saints, and magnified him, <sup>b</sup> so that his enemies stood in fear of him.

3 By his words he caused the wonders to cease, and he made him <sup>c</sup> glorious in the sight of kings, and gave him a commandment for his people, and shewed him part of his glory.

4 He sanctified him in his faithfulness <sup>d</sup> and meekness, and chose him out of all men.

5 He made him to hear his voice, and brought him into the dark cloud, and <sup>e</sup> gave him commandments before his face, even the law of life and knowledge, that he might teach Jacob his <sup>f</sup> covenants, and Israel his judgments.

6 He <sup>g</sup> exalted Aaron, an holy man like unto him, even his brother, of the tribe of Levi.

7 An everlasting covenant he made with him, and gave him the priesthood among the people; <sup>h</sup> he beautified him with comely ornaments, and clothed him with a robe of glory.

8 He put upon him perfect glory; and strengthened him with <sup>i</sup> rich garments, with breeches, with a long robe, and the ephod.

9 And he compassed him with pomegranates, and with many golden bells round about, that as he went there might be a <sup>j</sup> sound, and a noise made that might be heard in the temple, for a memorial to the children of his people;

10 With an holy garment, with gold, and blue silk, and purple, the work of the embroiderer, with a breastplate of judgment, and with <sup>k</sup> Urim and Thummim;

11 With twisted scarlet, the work of the cunning workman, with precious stones graven like seals, and set in gold, the work of the jeweller, with a writing engraved for a memorial, <sup>l</sup> after the number of the tribes of Israel.

12 He set a crown of gold upon the mitre, <sup>m</sup> wherein was engraved Holiness, an ornament of honour, a costly work, the desires of the eyes, goodly and beautiful.

13 Before him there were none such, neither did ever any stranger put them on, but only his children and his children's children perpetually.

14 Their sacrifices shall be wholly consumed <sup>n</sup> every day twice continually.

15 <sup>o</sup> Moses consecrated him, and anointed him with holy oil: this was appointed unto him by an everlasting covenant, and to his seed, so long as the heavens should remain, that they should minister unto him, and execute the office of the priesthood, and bless the people in his name.

16 <sup>p</sup> He chose him out of all men living to offer sacrifice to the Lord, incense, and a sweet savour, for a memorial, to make reconciliation for his people.

17 <sup>q</sup> He gave unto him his commandments, and authority in the statutes of judgments, that he should teach Jacob the testimonies, and inform Israel in his laws.

18 <sup>r</sup> Strangers conspired together against him, and maligned him in the wilderness, even the men that were of Dathan's and Abiron's side, and the congregation of Core, with fury and wrath.

19 This the Lord saw, and it displeased him, <sup>s</sup> and in his wrathful indignation were they consumed: he did wonders upon them, to consume them with the fiery flame.

20 <sup>t</sup> But he made Aaron more honourable, and gave him an heritage, and divided unto him the first-fruits of the increase; especially he prepared bread in abundance:

21 For they ate of the sacrifices of the Lord, which he gave unto him and his seed.

22 <sup>u</sup> Howbeit, in the land of the people he had no inheritance, neither had he any portion among the people: for the Lord himself is his portion and inheritance.

23 <sup>v</sup> The third in glory is Phinees the son of Eleazar, because he had zeal in the fear of the Lord, and stood up with good courage of heart when the people were turned back, and made reconciliation for Israel.

24 <sup>w</sup> Therefore was there a covenant of peace made with him, that he should be the chief of the sanctuary and of his people, and that he and his posterity should have the dignity of the priesthood for ever:

25 <sup>x</sup> According to the covenant made with David son of Jesse, of the tribe of Juda, that the inheritance of the king should be to his posterity alone: so the

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The praise of Nathan, 2 of David, 12 of Solomon; his glory and infirmities, 23 of his end and punishment.

AND after him rose up <sup>a</sup> Nathan to prophesy in the time of David.

2 As is the fat taken away from the peace-offering, so was David chosen out of the children of Israel.

3 <sup>a</sup> He played with <sup>b</sup> lions as with kids, and with bears as with lambs.

4 <sup>c</sup> Slew he not a giant, when he was yet but young? and did he not take away reproach from the people, when he lifted up his hand with the stone in the sling, and beat down the boasting of Goliath?

5 For he called upon the most high Lord; and he gave him strength in his right hand to slay that mighty warrior, and set up the horn of his people.

6 So the people honoured him with <sup>d</sup> ten thousands, and praised him in the blessings of the Lord, in that he gave him a crown of glory.

7 For <sup>e</sup> he destroyed the enemies on every side, and <sup>e</sup> brought to nought the Philistines his adversaries, and brake their horn in sunder unto this day.

8 In all his works <sup>f</sup> he praised the Holy One most high with words of glory; with his whole heart he sung songs, and loved him that made him.

9 <sup>g</sup> He set singers also before the altar, that by their voices they might make sweet melody, and daily sing praises in their songs.

10 He beautified their feasts, and set in order the solemn times <sup>h</sup> until the end, that they might praise his holy name, and that the temple might sound from morning.

11 <sup>h</sup> The Lord took away his sins, and exalted his horn for ever: he gave him a covenant of kings, and the throne <sup>i</sup> of glory in Israel.

12 After him rose up a wise son, and for his sake he dwelt at large.

13 <sup>i</sup> Solomon reigned in a peaceable time, and was honoured; for God made all quiet round about him, that he might build an house in his name, and prepare his sanctuary for ever.

14 <sup>k</sup> How wise wast thou in thy youth, and as a flood, filled with understanding!

15 Thy soul covered the whole earth, and thou fillest it with dark parables.

16 Thy name went far unto the islands; and, for thy peace thou wast beloved.

17 The countries marvelled at thee <sup>l</sup> for thy songs, and proverbs, and parables, and interpretations.

18 By the name of the Lord God, which is called the Lord God of Israel, thou didst <sup>m</sup> gather gold as tin, and didst multiply silver as lead.

19 <sup>n</sup> Thou didst bow thy loins unto women, and <sup>n</sup> by thy body thou was brought into subjection.

20 Thou didst stain thy honour, and pollute thy seed: so that thou broughtest wrath upon thy children, and wast grieved for thy folly.

23 <sup>q</sup> In his time the sun went backward, and he lengthened the king's life.

24 He saw by an excellent spirit what should come to pass at the last, and he comforted them that mourned in Sion.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 The praise of Josias, 4 of David and Ezekias, 6 of Jeremy, 8 of Ezekiel, 11 Zorobabel, 12 Jesus the son of Josedec: 13 of Neemias, Enoch, Seth, Sem, and Adam.

THE remembrance of <sup>a</sup> Josias is like the composition of the perfume that is made by the art of the apothecary: it is sweet as honey in all mouths, and as music at a banquet of wine.

2 He || behaved himself uprightly in the conversion of the people, and took away the abominations of iniquity.

3 He directed his heart unto the Lord, and <sup>b</sup> in the time of the ungodly he established the worship of God.

4 All, except David, and Ezekias, and Josias, were defective: for they forsook the law of the Most High, even the kings of Juda failed.

5 Therefore he gave their || power unto others, and their glory to a strange nation.

6 <sup>c</sup> They burnt the chosen city of the sanctuary, and made the streets desolate, || according to the prophecy of Jeremias.

7 For they <sup>d</sup> entreated him evil, who nevertheless was a prophet, <sup>e</sup> sanctified in his mother's womb, that he might root out, and afflict, and destroy ; and that he might build up also, and plant.

8 <sup>f</sup> It was Ezekiel who saw the glorious vision, which was shewed him upon the chariot of the cherubims.

9 For he <sup>g</sup> made mention of the enemies under the figure of the rain, and || directed them that went right.

10 And of the twelve prophets let the memorial be blessed, and <sup>h</sup> let their bones flourish again out of their place : for they comforted Jacob, and delivered them by assured hope.

11 How shall we magnify <sup>i</sup> Zorobabel ? even he was a signet on the right hand :

12 So was <sup>k</sup> Jesus the son of Josedec : who in their time builded the house, and set up an holy temple to the Lord, which was prepared for everlasting glory.

13 And among the elect was Neemias, whose renown is great, <sup>l</sup> who raised up for us the walls that were fallen, and set up the gates and the bars, and raised up our ruins again.

14 But upon the earth was no man created like <sup>m</sup> Enoch ; for he was taken from the earth.

15 Neither was there a man born like unto <sup>n</sup> Joseph, a governor of his brethren, a stay of the people, whose bones were regarded of the Lord.

16 <sup>o</sup> Sem and Seth were in great honour among men, and so was Adam above every living thing in the creation.

CHAPTER L.

Before CHRIST cir. 200. 1 Of Simon the son of Onias. 22 How the people were taught to praise God, and pray. 27 The conclusion.

a Heb. 5, 1. SIMON<sup>a</sup> the high priest, the son of Onias, who in his life repaired the house again, and in his days fortified the temple :

2 And by him was built from the foundation the double height, the high fortress of the wall about the temple :

3 In his days the<sup>b</sup> cistern to receive water, being in compass as the sea, was covered with plates of brass :

4 He took care of the temple that it should not fall, and fortified the city against besieging :

5 How was he honoured in the midst of the people in his coming out of † the sanctuary !

6 He was as the morning-star in the midst of a cloud, and as the moon at the full :

7 As the sun shining upon the temple of the Most High, and as<sup>c</sup> the rainbow giving light in the bright clouds :

8 And as the flower of roses in the spring of the year, as lilies by the rivers of waters, and as the branches of the frankincense-tree in the time of summer :

9 As fire and incense in the<sup>d</sup> censer, and as a vessel of beaten gold set with all manner of precious stones :

10 And as a fair olive-tree budding forth fruit, and as a cypress-tree which groweth up to the clouds.

11 When he put on the robe of honour,<sup>e</sup> and was clothed with the perfection of glory, when he went up to the holy altar, he made the garment of holiness honourable.

12 When he took the portions out of the priests' hands, he himself stood by the hearth of the altar, compassed with his brethren round about,<sup>f</sup> as a young cedar in Libanus ; and as palm-trees compassed they him round about.

13 So were all the sons of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of the Lord in their hands, before all the congregation of Israel.

14 And finishing the service at the altar, that he might adorn the offering of the most high Almighty.

15 He stretched out his hand to the cup, and poured of the blood of the grape ; he poured out at the foot of the altar<sup>g</sup> a sweet-smelling savour unto the most high King of all.

16 Then shouted the sons of Aaron, and sounded the || silver trumpets, and made a great noise to be heard, for a remembrance before the Most High.

17 Then all the people together hasted, and<sup>h</sup> fell down to the earth upon their faces to worship their Lord God Almighty, the Most High.

18 The singers also sang praises with their voices, with great variety of sounds was there made sweet melody.

19 And the people besought the Lord, the Most High, by prayer before him that is merciful, till the solemnity of the Lord was ended, and they<sup>i</sup> had finished his service.

20 Then he went down,<sup>k</sup> and lifted up his hands over the whole congregation of the children of Israel, to give the blessing of the Lord with his lips, and to rejoice in his name.

21 And they bowed themselves down to worship the second time, that they might receive a blessing from the Most High.

22 Now therefore bless ye the God of all, which only doeth wondrous things every where, which exalteth our days from the womb, and dealeth with us according to his mercy.

23 He grant us joyfulness of heart, and that<sup>l</sup> peace may be in our days in Israel for ever :

24 That he would confirm his mercy with us, and deliver us<sup>m</sup> at his time !

25 There be two manner of nations which my heart abhorreth, and the third is no nation :

26 They that sit upon the mountain of Samaria, and they that dwell among the Philistines, and that foolish people that dwell in Sichem.

27 Jesus the son of Sirach of Jerusalem hath written in this book the instruction of understanding and knowledge who out of his heart poured forth wisdom.

28<sup>n</sup> Blessed is he that shall be exercised in these things ; and he that layeth them up in his heart shall become wise.

29 For if he do them, he shall be strong to all things : for the light of the Lord leadeth him, who giveth wisdom to the godly. <sup>o</sup> Blessed be the Lord for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER LI.

¶ A prayer of Jesus the son of Sirach.

I WILL thank thee, O Lord and King,<sup>a</sup> and praise thee, O God my Saviour : I do give praise unto thy name :

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and hast been mine helper against mine adversaries :

3 And hast delivered me,<sup>b</sup> according to the multitude of thy mercies and greatness of thy name, from † the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had ;

4 From the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not ;

5 From the depth of<sup>c</sup> the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words.

6 By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue, my soul drew near even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath.

7 They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me : <sup>d</sup> I looked for the succour of men, but there was none.

8 Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies.

9 Then lifted I up my supplication from the earth, and prayed for deliverance from death.

10 I called upon the Lord, the Father of<sup>e</sup> my Lord, that he would not leave me in the days of my trouble, and in the time of the proud, when there was no help.

11 I will praise thy name continually, and will sing praise with thanksgiving ; || and so my prayer was heard :

12 For thou<sup>f</sup> savedst me from destruction, and deliveredst me from the evil time : therefore will I give thanks, and praise thee, and bless thy name, O Lord.

13<sup>g</sup> When I was yet young, or ever I || went abroad, I desired wisdom openly in my prayer.

14 I prayed for her before the temple, and will seek her out even to the end.

15 Even from the flower till the grape was ripe,

BARUCH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Baruen wrote a book in Babylon. 5 The Jews there wept at the reading of it. 7 They send money and the book to the brethren at Jerusalem.

a Jer. 36, 4.

AND these are the words of the book, which <sup>a</sup> Baruch the son of Nerias, the son of Maasias, the son of Sedecias, the son of Asadias, the son of Chelcias, wrote in Babylon.

b 2 Chr.
36, 19.

2 In the fifth year, and in the seventh day of the month, what time as <sup>b</sup> the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire.

|| Or,

3 And Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of Jechonias the son of || Joachim king of Juda, and in the ears of all the people that came to hear the book,

c Ps. 137, 1.
|| Or, and

4 And in the hearing of the nobles, and of the king's sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and of all the people, from the lowest unto the highest, even of all them that dwelt at Babylon by the river Sud.

5 Whereupon they <sup>c</sup> wept, fasted, || and prayed before the Lord.

6 They made also a collection of money according to every man's power :

|| Or,
Jocchim.

7 And they sent it to Jerusalem unto || Joachim the high priest, the son of Chelcias, son of Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem,

1 2 Kings

8 At the same time when he received the vessels of the house of the Lord, <sup>d</sup> that were carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Juda, the tenth day of the month Sivan, namely, silver vessels, which Sedecias the son of Josias king of Juda had made,

ver. 29, 7.

10 And they said, Behold, we have sent you money to buy you burnt-offerings, and sin-offerings, and incense, and prepare ye † manna, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God ;

11 <sup>e</sup> And pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of Balthasar his son, that their days may be upon earth as the days of heaven :

12 And the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes, and we shall live <sup>f</sup> under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of Balthasar his son, and we shall serve them many days, and find favour in their sight. f Ezek. 31, 21.

13 Pray for us also unto the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God ; and unto this day the fury of the Lord and his wrath is not turned from us.

14 And ye shall read this book which we have sent unto you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the feasts and solemn days.

15 And ye shall say, <sup>g</sup> To the Lord our God belongeth righteousness, but unto us the confusion of faces, as it is come to pass this day, unto them of Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, g ch. 2, 6.

16 And to our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers :

17 For we have <sup>h</sup> sinned before the Lord, h Dan. 9, 5

18 And disobeyed him, and have not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in the commandments that he gave us openly :

19 <sup>i</sup> Since the day that the Lord brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, unto this present day, we have been disobedient unto the Lord our God, and we have been negligent in not hearing his voice. i Ezra 9, 7, 8, 9.

20 <sup>k</sup> Wherefore the evils cleaved unto us, and the curse, which the Lord appointed by Moses his servant, at the time that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land that floweth with milk and honey, like as it is to see this day. k Deut. 28, 15.
Dan. 9, 11.

21 Nevertheless we have <sup>l</sup> not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, according unto all the words of the prophets, whom he sent unto us : l Dan. 9, 10

22 But every man followed the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do evil in the sight of the Lord our God.

CHAPTER II.

The prayer and confession which the Jews at Babylon made, and sent in that book unto the brethren in Jerusalem.

THEREFORE the Lord hath <sup>a</sup> made good his word, which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our a Dan. 9, 12, 13.

kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Judah,

2 To bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, as it came to pass in Jerusalem, according to the things that were written in the law of Moses;

3 That a man should <sup>b</sup> eat the flesh of his own son, and the flesh of his own daughter.

4 Moreover he hath delivered them to be <sup>c</sup> in subjection to all the kingdoms that are round about us, to be as <sup>d</sup> a reproach and desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them.

5 Thus we † were cast down, and not exalted, because we have sinned against the Lord our God, and have not been obedient unto his voice.

6 <sup>e</sup> To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousness: but unto us and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day.

7 For all these plagues are come upon us, <sup>f</sup> which the Lord hath pronounced against us.

8 <sup>g</sup> Yet have we not prayed before the Lord, that we might turn every one from the imaginations of his wicked heart.

9 Wherefore the Lord watched over us for evil, and the Lord hath brought it upon us: for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he hath commanded us.

10 Yet we have not hearkened unto his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord, that he hath set before us.

11 <sup>h</sup> And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and high arm, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thyself a name, as appeareth this day:

12 O Lord our God, we have sinned, we have done ungodlily, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances.

13 <sup>i</sup> Let thy wrath turn from us: <sup>k</sup> for we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us.

14 Hear our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliver us for thine own sake, and give us favour in the sight of them which have led us away:

15 <sup>l</sup> That all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, because † <sup>m</sup> Israel and his posterity is called by thy name.

16 O Lord, <sup>n</sup> look down from thy holy house, and consider us: bow down thine ear, O Lord, to hear us.

17 Open thine eyes and behold; for the <sup>o</sup> dead that are in the graves, whose † souls are taken from their bodies, will give unto the Lord neither praise nor righteousness:

18 But the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give thee praise and righteousness, O Lord.

19 <sup>p</sup> Therefore we do not make our humble supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings.

20 For thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by thy servants the prophets, saying,

21 <sup>q</sup> Thus saith the Lord, Bow down your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon: so shall ye remain in the land that I gave unto your fathers.

22 But if ye will not hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon, 23 <sup>r</sup> I will cause to cease out of the cities of Juda, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of joy, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: and the whole land shall be desolate of inhabitants.

24 But we would not hearken unto thy voice, to serve the king of Babylon: <sup>s</sup> therefore hast thou made good the words that thou spakest by thy servants the prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their places.

25 And lo, they are cast out <sup>t</sup> to the heat of the day, and to the frost of the night, and they died in great miseries by famine, by sword, and by pestilence.

26 And the house which is called by thy name hast thou laid waste, as it is to be seen this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Juda.

27 O Lord our God, thou hast dealt with us after all thy goodness, and according to all that great mercy of thine,

28 As thou spakest by thy <sup>u</sup> servant Moses in the day when thou didst command him to write thy law before the children of Israel, saying,

29 <sup>x</sup> If ye will not hear my voice, surely, † this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them.

30 For I knew that they would not hear me, because it is a stiff-necked people: but in the land of their captivities they shall || remember themselves,

31 And shall know that I am the Lord their God: for I will give them an heart, and ears to hear:

32 And they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and <sup>y</sup> think upon my name, 33 And return from their stiff † neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord.

34 And I will bring them again into the land which I promised with an oath unto their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished.

35 <sup>z</sup> And I will make an everlasting covenant with them to be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more drive my people of Israel out of the land that I have given them.

CHAPTER III.

3 The rest of their prayer and confession contained in that book which Baruch wrote and sent to Jerusalem. 30 Wisdom was shewed first to Jacob, and was seen upon the earth.

O LORD Almighty, God of <sup>a</sup> Israel, the soul in anguish, the troubled spirit, crieth unto thee.

2 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy; for thou art merciful: and have pity upon us, because we have sinned before thee.

3 For thou endurest for ever, and we perish utterly.

4 O Lord Almighty, thou God of Israel, hear now the prayers of <sup>b</sup> the dead Israelites, and of their children, which have sinned before thee, and not hearkened unto the voice of thee their God: for the which cause these plagues cleave unto us.

5 <sup>c</sup> Remember not the iniquities of our forefathers: but think upon thy power and thy name now at this time.

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise.

7 And for this cause thou hast put thy fear in our hearts, to the intent that we should call upon thy name, and praise thee in our captivity: for <sup>d</sup> we have <sup>h</sup> Job 28, 12, 20. 15 <sup>h</sup> Who hath found out her place? or who hath come into her treasures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen become, and such as ruled the beasts upon the earth;

CHAPTER IV.

<sup>t</sup> The book of commandments, is that wisdom which was commanded in the former chapter. <sup>25</sup> The Jews are moved to patience, and to hope for their deliverance.

THIS is the book of <sup>a</sup> the commandments of God, and the law that endureth for ever: all they that keep it shall come to life; but such as leave it shall die. <sup>a</sup> 1 John 3, 24.

2 Turn thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it: walk † in the presence of the light thereof, that thou mayest be illuminated. † Gr. to the shining before the light thereof.

3 Give not thine honour to another, nor the things that are profitable unto thee, to a strange nation.

4 O Israel, happy are we: <sup>b</sup> for things that are pleasing to God are made known unto us. <sup>b</sup> Ps. 147, 19, 20.

5 Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel.

6 <sup>c</sup> Ye were sold to the nations, not for [your] destruction: but because ye moved God to wrath, ye were delivered unto the enemies. <sup>c</sup> Isa. 50, 1 & 52, 3

7 For ye provoked him that made you by <sup>d</sup> sacrificing unto devils, and not to God. <sup>d</sup> 1 Cor. 10, 20.

8 Ye have forgotten the everlasting God, that brought you up; and ye have grieved Jerusalem, that nursed you.

9 For when she saw the wrath of God coming upon you, she said, Harken, O ye that dwell about Sion: God hath brought upon me great mourning;

10 For I saw the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the <sup>e</sup> Everlasting brought upon them. <sup>e</sup> verse 8.

11 With joy did I nourish them; but sent them away with weeping and mourning.

13 They knew not his statutes, nor walked in the ways of his commandments, nor trode in the paths || of discipline in his righteousness. || Or, of his discipline in righteousness.

14 Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember ye the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting hath brought upon them.

15 For <sup>g</sup> he hath brought a nation upon them from far, a shameless nation, and of a strange language, who neither revered old man, nor pitied child. <sup>g</sup> Deut. 28, 49, 50.

16 These have carried away the dear beloved children of the widow, and left her that was alone desolate without daughters.

17 But what can I help you?

18 For <sup>h</sup> he that brought these plagues upon you, will deliver you from the hands of your enemies. <sup>h</sup> Hos. 6, 1, 2.

19 Go your way, O my children, go your way: for I am left desolate.

20 I have put off the clothing of || peace, and put upon me the sackcloth of my prayer: I will cry unto the Everlasting || in my days. || Or, prosperity.

21 Be of good cheer, O my children, cry unto the Lord, and he shall deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies. || Or, in the time of mine affliction. <sup>i</sup> Ps. 116, 2 & 137, 7.

22 For my hope is in the Everlasting, that he will save you; and joy is come unto me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come unto you from <sup>k</sup> the Everlasting our Saviour.

<sup>k</sup> Isa. 9, 6. 23 For I sent you out with mourning and weeping: <sup>l</sup> but God will give you to me again with joy and gladness for ever.

24 Like as now the neighbours of Sion have seen your captivity: so shall they see shortly your salvation from our God, which shall come upon you with great glory, and brightness of the Everlasting.

|| Or, My darlings. 26 || My delicate ones have gone rough ways, and were taken away as a flock caught of the enemies.

<sup>n</sup> Isa. 40, 1, 2. 27 <sup>n</sup> Be of good comfort, O my children, and cry unto God: for ye shall be remembered of him that brought these things upon you.

28 For as it was your mind to go astray from God: so, being returned, seek him ten times more.

<sup>o</sup> Isa. 54, 7, 8. 29 For he that hath brought these plagues upon you <sup>o</sup> shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation.

30 Take a good heart, O Jerusalem: for he that gave thee that name will comfort thee.

31 Miserable are they that afflicted thee, and rejoiced at thy fall.

32 Miserable are the cities which thy children served: miserable is she that received thy sons.

<sup>Isa. 47, 1.</sup> 34 For I will take away the rejoicing of her great multitude, and her pride shall be turned into mourning.

35 For fire shall come upon her from the Everlasting, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited of devils for a great time.

CHAPTER V.

1 Jerusalem is moved to rejoice, <sup>5</sup> and to behold their return out of captivity with glory.

2 Cast about thee a double garment of the righteousness which cometh from God; and set a diadem on thine head of the glory of the Everlasting.

3 For God will shew thy brightness unto every country under heaven.

4 For thy name shall be called of God for ever, The peace of righteousness, and, The glory of God's worship.

6 For they departed from thee on foot, and were led away of their enemies: but God bringeth them unto thee exalted with glory, <sup>d</sup> as children of the kingdom.

<sup>d</sup> Mat. 13, 33. <sup>e</sup> Isa. 40, 4. 7 For God hath appointed <sup>e</sup> that every high hill, and banks of long continuance, should be cast down, and valleys filled up, to || even the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God.

8 Moreover even the woods and every sweet-smelling tree shall overshadow Israel by the commandment of God.

9 For God shall <sup>f</sup> lead Israel with joy in the light of his glory with the mercy and righteousness that cometh from him. <sup>f</sup> Isa. 63, 12, 13.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The cause of their captivity is their sin. 3 The place whereto they were carried is Babylon: the vanity of whose idols and idolatry is set forth at large in this chapter.

|| A copy of an epistle which Jeremiah sent unto them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them as it was commanded him of God.

BECAUSE of the sins which ye have committed before God, <sup>a</sup> ye shall be led away captives into Babylon by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians. <sup>a</sup> Jer. 27, 12.

3 So when ye be come unto Babylon, <sup>b</sup> ye shall remain there many years, and for a long season, namely, seven generations: and after that I will bring you away peaceably from thence. <sup>b</sup> Jer. 29, 5 6; 7.

4 <sup>c</sup> Now shall ye see in Babylon gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, borne upon shoulders, which cause the nations to fear. <sup>c</sup> Jer. 115, 4. Isa. 44, 8, 9, 10. & 46 5, 7. Wis. 13, 10.

5 Beware therefore that ye in no wise be like to strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them.

6 But say ye in your hearts, O Lord, <sup>d</sup> we must worship thee. <sup>d</sup> Deut. 6, 13.

7 For <sup>e</sup> mine angel is with you, and I myself caring for your souls. <sup>e</sup> Ex. 23, 20.

8 As for their tongue, it is polished by the workman, and they themselves are gilded and laid over with gold; yet are they but false, <sup>f</sup> and cannot speak. <sup>f</sup> Ps. 135, 16.

9 And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loveth to go gay, they make crowns for the heads of their gods.

10 Sometimes also the priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves.

11 Yea, they will give thereof to the || common harlots, and deck them as men with garments, [being] gods of silver, and gods of gold, and wood. || Or, which prostitute themselves openly.

12 Yet cannot these gods save themselves from rust and moths, though they be covered with purple raiment.

13 They wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, when there is much upon them.

14 And he that cannot put to death one that offendeth him, holdeth a sceptre, as though he were a judge of the country.

15 He hath also in his right hand a dagger and an axe: <sup>g</sup> but cannot deliver himself from war and thieves. <sup>g</sup> Ps. 115, 7.

16 Whereby they are known not to be gods: therefore fear them not.

17 For like a vessel that a man useth is nothing worth when it is broken: even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the temple, their eyes be <sup>h</sup> full of dust through the feet of them that come in. <sup>h</sup> verse 13.

18 And as the || doors are made sure on every side upon him that offendeth the king, as being committed to suffer death: even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, <sup>i</sup> lest their gods be spoiled with robbers. <sup>i</sup> Judg. 13, 24.

19 They light them candles, yea, more than for themselves, whereof they cannot see one,

20 They are as one of the beams of the temple, yet they say their hearts are † gnawed upon by things creeping out of the earth; and when they eat them and their clothes, they feel it not.

21 Their faces are blacked through the smoke that cometh out of the temple.

22 Upon their bodies and heads sit bats, swallows, and birds, and the cats also.

23 By this ye may know that they are no gods: k therefore fear them not.

24 Notwithstanding the gold that is about them to make them beautiful, except they wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for neither when they were molten did they feel it.

25 The things wherein there is no breath are bought for || a most high price.

26 l They are borne upon shoulders, having no feet, whereby they declare unto men that they be nothing worth.

27 They also that serve them are ashamed: for if they fall to the ground at any time, m they cannot rise up again of themselves: neither, if one set them upright, can they move of themselves: neither, if they be bowed down, can they make themselves straight: but they set || gifts before them, as unto dead men.

28 As for the things that are sacrificed unto them, || Or, offerings. || Or, spend. their priests sell and || abuse; in like manner their wives lay up part thereof in salt; but unto the poor and impotent they give nothing of it.

29 Menstruous women, and women in child-bed n eat their sacrifices: by these things ye may know that they are no gods: fear them not.

30 For how can they be o called gods? because women set meat before the gods of silver, gold, and wood.

31 And the priests sit in their temples, having their clothes rent, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads.

32 They roar and cry before their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead.

33 The priests also take off their garments, and clothe their wives and children.

34 Whether it be evil that one doeth unto them, or good, p they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set up a king, nor put him down.

35 In like manner they can neither give riches nor money: though a man make a vow unto them, and keep it not, they will not require it.

36 q They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty.

37 They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor help any man in his distress.

38 They can shew no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless.

39 Their gods of wood, and which are r overlaid with gold and silver, are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain: they that worship them shall be confounded.

40 How should a man then think and say that they are gods, when even the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them?

41 Who if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they || bring him, s and entreat Bel that he may speak, as though he were able to understand.

42 Yet they cannot understand this themselves, and leave them: for they have no || knowledge.

43 The women also with cords about them, sitting in the ways, burn bran for perfume: but if any of them, drawn by some that passeth by, lie with him, she reproacheth her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken.

44 Whatsoever is done among them is false: how may it then be thought or said that they are gods?

45 They are made of t carpenters and goldsmiths: t Isa. 44, 12 they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be.

46 And they themselves that made them can never continue long; how should then the things that are made of them be gods?

47 For they left lies and reproaches to them that come after.

48 For when there cometh any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them.

49 How then cannot men perceive that they be no gods, u which can neither save themselves from war nor from plague? u verse 15.

50 x For seeing they be but of wood, and overlaid with silver and gold, it shall be known hereafter that they are false: x Ps. 115, 4. Wis. 13, 10.

51 And it shall manifestly appear to all nations and kings that they are no gods, y but the works of men's y Ps. 115, 4. hands, and that there is no work of God in them.

52 Who then may not know that they are no gods?

53 For neither can they set up a king in the land, z nor give rain unto men. z See Psal. 75, 7.

54 Neither can they judge their own cause, nor redress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between heaven and earth.

55 Whereupon when fire falleth upon the house of gods of wood, or laid over with gold or silver, their priests will flee away, and escape; but they themselves shall be burned asunder like beams.

56 Moreover they cannot withstand any king or enemies: how can it then be thought or said that they be gods?

57 Neither are those a gods of wood, and laid over with silver or gold, able to escape either from thieves or robbers. a verse 39.

58 Whose gold, and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong do take, and go away withal: neither are they able to help themselves.

59 Therefore it is better to be a king b that sheweth his power, or else a profitable vessel in an house, which the owner shall have use of, than such false gods; or to be a door in an house, to keep such things safe as be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false gods. b 1 Esdras 4, 1. 12.

60 For sun, moon, and stars, being bright, and sent to do their offices, are obedient.

61 In like manner the lightning when it breaketh forth is easy to be seen; and || after the same manner || Or, the same wind. the wind bloweth in every country.

62 And when God commandeth the clouds to go over the whole world, c they do as they are bidden. c Ps. 19, 91.

63 And the fire sent from above to consume hills and woods doeth as it is commanded: but these are like unto them neither in shew nor power.

64 Wherefore it is neither to be supposed nor said that they are gods, seeing d they are able neither to judge causes, nor to do good unto men. d verse 54.

65 Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not.

67 Neither can they shew <sup>e</sup> signs in the heavens among the heathen, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon.

68 The beasts are better than they : for they can get under a covert, and help themselves.

<sup>f</sup> verses 16, 29 65. 69 It is then by no means manifest unto us that they are gods : <sup>f</sup> therefore fear them not.

70 For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing : so are their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold.

71 And likewise their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sitteth upon ; as also to a dead body that is cast into the dark.

72 <sup>g</sup> And ye shall know them to be no gods by the <sup>g</sup> verse 52 || bright purple that rotteth upon them : and they <sup>h</sup> Or, purple and brightness. themselves afterward shall be eaten, and shall be a reproach in the country.

73 Better therefore is the just man <sup>h</sup> that hath none <sup>h</sup> Hos. 11, 3. idols : for he shall be far from reproach.

THE SONG OF THE THREE HOLY CHILDREN,

Which followeth in the third Chapter of DANIEL after this place,---fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. That which followeth is not in the Hebrew, to wit, And they walked---unto these words, Then Nebuchadnezzar---verse 24.

<sup>2</sup> Azarias his prayer and confession in the flame, 24 wherewith the Chaldeans about the oven were consumed, but the three children within it were not hurt. 28 The song of the three children in the oven.

2 Then Azarias stood up, and prayed in this manner ; and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire, said,

4 For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us : yea, true are all thy works, thy ways are right, and <sup>c</sup> all thy judgments truth.

<sup>c</sup> Ps. 25, 10. Dan. 9, 5. 5 In all the things which thou hast brought upon us, and upon the holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgment : for according to truth and judgment didst thou bring all these things upon us because of our sins.

7 In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commandments, nor kept them, neither done as thou hast commanded us, that it might go well with us.

<sup>e</sup> Dan. 9, 7, 8, 9. 8 Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, <sup>e</sup> thou hast done in true judgment.

<sup>f</sup> Deut. 28, 48. 9 And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless <sup>f</sup> enemies, most hateful forsakers of God, and to an unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world.

10 And now we cannot open our mouths, we are become a shame and reproach to thy servants, and to them that worship thee.

12 And cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for thy beloved Abraham's sake, for thy servant Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake ;

<sup>h</sup> Gen. 22, 17. 13 To whom thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiply their seed <sup>h</sup> as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the sea-shore.

14 For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins.

15 Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt-offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy.

<sup>i</sup> Ps. 51, 17. 16 Nevertheless in a <sup>i</sup> contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be accepted.

17 Like as in the burnt-offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs : so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after thee : <sup>k</sup> for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee.

<sup>k</sup> Ps. 125, 1, 2.

18 And now we follow thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face.

19 Put us not to shame : but deal with us after thy loving-kindness, and according to the <sup>l</sup> multitude of <sup>l</sup> Ps. 51, 1 thy mercies.

20 Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and give glory to thy name, O Lord : and let all them that do thy servants hurt be ashamed ;

21 And let them be confounded || in all their power and might, and let their strength be broken ; <sup>l</sup> Or, by thy power and might.

22 And let them know that thou art Lord, the only God, and glorious <sup>m</sup> over the whole world.

23 And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot with || rosin, pitch, tow, and small wood ;

THE HISTORY OF SUSANNA,

Set apart from the Beginning of Daniel, because it is not in the Hebrew, as neither the Narration of † Bel and the Dragon.

t Gr. Bel's dragon.

16 Two judges hide themselves in the garden of Susanna to have their pleasure of her: 25 which when they could not obtain, they accuse, and cause her to be condemned for adultery: 46 But Daniel examineth the matter again, and findeth the two judges false.

THERE dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim: 2 And he took a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, a very fair woman, and one that feared the Lord.

a Gen. 24, 16. & 26, 7.

b Luke 1, 6.

3 Her parents also were righteous, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moses.

4 Now Joacim was a great rich man, and had a fair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews; because he was more honourable than all others.

c Ezek. 8, 11.

5 The same year were appointed two of the ancients of the people to be judges, such as the Lord spake of, that wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who seemed to govern the people.

6 These kept much at Joacim's house: and all that had any suits in law came unto them.

7 Now when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk.

d Mat. 5, 29.

8 And the two elders saw her going in every day, and walking; d so that their lust was inflamed towards her.

9 And they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes, that they might not look unto heaven, nor remember just judgments.

10 And albeit they both were wounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief.

11 For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to do with her.

12 Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her.

13 And the one said to the other, Let us now go home: for it is dinner-time.

14 So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after they had asked one another the cause, e they acknowledged their lust: f then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone. g verse 11 f James 1 14, 15.

15 And it fell out, as they watched a fit time, she went in t as before with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot.

16 And there was no body there save the two elders, that had hid themselves, and watched her.

17 Then she said to her maids, Bring me oil and † Gr. as yesterday and the day before.

<sup>g</sup> 2 Sam. 11, 2. washing-balls, and shut the garden-doors, <sup>g</sup> that I may wash me.

18 And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden-doors, and went out themselves at || privy doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them : but they saw not the elders, <sup>h</sup> because they were hid.

19 Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying,

20 Behold, the garden-doors are shut, that no man can see us, and we are in love with thee ; therefore consent unto us, <sup>i</sup> and lie with us.

21 If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee : and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee.

22 Then Susanna <sup>k</sup> sighed, and said, I am straitened on every side : for if I do this thing, it is death unto me : and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not to do it, than <sup>l</sup> to sin in the sight of the Lord.

24 With that Susanna cried with a loud voice : and the two elders cried out against her.

25 Then ran the one, and opened the garden-door.

26 So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at <sup>m</sup> a privy door, to see what was done unto her.

27 But when the elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed : for there never was such a report made of Susanna.

28 And it came to pass the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Joacim, the two elders came also full of <sup>n</sup> mischievous imagination against Susanna to put her to death ;

29 And said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Joacim's wife. And so they sent.

30 So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred.

31 Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and <sup>o</sup> beauteous to behold.

32 And these wicked men commanded to uncover her face, (for she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty.

33 Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept.

34 Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, <sup>p</sup> and laid their hands upon her head.

35 And she weeping looked up towards heaven : for her heart trusted in the Lord.

36 And the elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden-doors, and sent the maids away.

37 Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her.

38 Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing <sup>q</sup> this wickedness, ran unto them.

39 And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold : for he was stronger than we, and opened the door, and leaped out.

40 But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us : <sup>r</sup> these things do we testify.

41 Then the assembly believed them, as those that were the elders and judges of the people : so they condemned her to death.

42 Then Susanna <sup>s</sup> cried out with a loud voice, and said, O everlasting God, that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they be :

43 Thou knowest that they have borne false witness against me, and behold, I must die ; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me.

44 And the <sup>t</sup> Lord heard her voice.

45 Therefore when she was led to be put to death, the Lord raised up the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel :

46 Who cried with a loud voice, <sup>u</sup> I am clear from the blood of this woman.

47 Then all the people turned them towards him, and said, What mean these words that thou hast spoken?

48 So he standing in the midst of them said, Are ye such <sup>x</sup> fools, ye sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth ye have condemned a daughter of Israel ?

49 Return again to the place of judgment : for they have <sup>y</sup> borne false witness against her.

50 Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said unto him, Come, sit down among us, and shew it us, seeing God hath given thee the honour of an elder.

51 Then said Daniel unto them, Put these two aside one far from another, <sup>z</sup> and I will examine them.

52 So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said unto him, O thou that art waxen old in wickedness, now thy sins which thou hast committed aforetime are come to light.

53 For thou hast pronounced false judgment, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guilty go free ; albeit the Lord saith, <sup>a</sup> The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay.

54 Now then, if thou hast seen her, tell me, Under what tree savest thou them companying together ? Who answered, Under a † mastick-tree.

55 And Daniel said, Very well ; <sup>b</sup> thou hast lied against thine own head ; for even now the angel of God hath received the sentence of God to cut thee in two.

56 So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him, O thou seed of Chanaan, and not of Juda, beauty hath deceived thee, and <sup>c</sup> lust hath perverted thine heart.

57 Thus have ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you : but the daughter of Juda would not abide your wickedness.

58 Now therefore tell me, Under what tree didst thou take them companying together ? Who answered, <sup>d</sup> Under a || holm-tree.

59 Then said Daniel unto him, Well ; thou hast also lied against thine own head : for the angel of God waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, that he may destroy you.

60 With that all the assembly <sup>e</sup> cried out with a loud voice, and praised God, who saveth them that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth:

62 And according to the law of Moses <sup>f</sup> they did unto them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbour : and they put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saved the same day.

63 Therefore Chelcias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joacim her husband, and all the kindred, <sup>g</sup> because there was no dishonesty found in her.

64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

THE DESTRUCTION OF † BEL AND THE DRAGON, CUT OFF FROM THE END OF DANIEL.

19 The fraud of Bel's priests is discovered by Daniel, 27 and the dragon slain which was worshipped. 33 Daniel is preserved in the lion's den. 42 The king doth acknowledge the God of Daniel, and casteth his enemies into the same den.

AND king Astyages was gathered to his fathers, and a Cyrus of Persia received his kingdom.

2 And Daniel || conversed with the king, and was honoured above all his friends.

3 Now the Babylonians had an idol, called Bel, and there were spent upon him every day twelve measures of fine flour, and forty sheep, and six vessels of wine.

b Dan. 6,
10.

4 And the king worshipped it, and went daily to adore it: b but Daniel worshipped his own God. And the king said unto him, Why dost not thou worship Bel?

c Acts 17,
24, 29.

5 Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with hands, but the living God, c who hath created the heaven and the earth, and hath sovereignty over all flesh.

6 Then said the king unto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a living god? seest thou not how much he eateth and drinketh every day?

30, 19.

7 Then Daniel smiled, and said, O king, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brass without, and did never d eat nor drink any thing.

e verse 3.

8 So the king was wroth, and called for his priests, and said unto them, If ye tell me not who this is that devoureth e these expenses ye shall die.

9 But if ye can certify me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die: for he hath spoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the king, Let it be according to thy word.

10 Now the priests of Bel were threescore and ten, besides their wives and children. And the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

f Dan. 6, 17.

11 So Bel's priests said, Lo, we go out: but thou, O king, set on the meat, and make ready the wine, and shut the door fast, and f seal it with thine own signet;

g verse 7.

12 And to-morrow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten up all, we will suffer death; or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against us.

13 And they little regarded it: g for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and consumed those things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the king set meats before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple in the presence of the king alone: then went they out, and shut the door, and sealed it with the king's signet, and so departed.

h verse 10.

15 Now in the night came the priests h with their wives and children, as they were wont to do, and did eat and drink up all.

16 In the morning betimes the king arose, and Daniel with him.

i verse 11

17 And the king said, Daniel, are the i seals whole? and he said, Yea, O king, they be whole.

18 And as soon as he had opened the door, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, k Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all.

k Acts 19,
23, 34.

19 Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these,

20 And the king said, I see the footsteps l of men, l verse 15 women, and children. And then the king was angry, 21 And took the priests with their wives and children, who shewed him the privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table.

22 Therefore the king slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, m who destroyed him and his temple.

25 Then said Daniel unto the king, o I will worship the Lord my God: for he is the living God.

26 But give me leave, O king, and I shall slay this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give thee leave.

CHRIST
cir. 676.

O LORD, Almighty God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed; who hast made heaven and earth, with all the ornament thereof; who hast bound the sea by the word of thy commandment; who hast shut up the deep, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious name; whom all men fear, and tremble before thy power; for the majesty of thy glory cannot be borne, and thine angry threatening towards sinners is importable: but thy merciful promise is unmeasurable and unsearchable; for thou art the most high Lord, of great compassion, long-suffering, very merciful, and repentest of the evils of men. Thou, O Lord, according to thy great goodness hast promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against thee: and of thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance unto sinners, that they may be saved. Thou therefore, O Lord, that art the God of the just, hast not appointed repentance to the just, as to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against thee; but thou hast appointed repentance unto me that am a sinner: for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the sea. My transgressions, O Lord, are multiplied: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of mine iniquities. I am bowed down with many iron bands, that I cannot lift up mine head, || neither have any release: for I have provoked thy wrath, and done evil before thee: I did not thy will, neither kept I thy commandments: I have set up abominations, and have multiplied offences. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities: wherefore I humbly beseech thee, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me for ever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me into the lower parts of the earth. For thou art the God, even the God of them that repent; and in me thou wilt shew all thy goodness: for thou wilt save me, that am unworthy, according to thy great mercy. Therefore I will praise thee for ever all the days of my life: for all the powers of the heavens do praise thee, and thine is the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE MACCABEES.

CHAPTER I.

14 Antiochus gave leave to set up the fashions of the Gentiles in Jerusalem, 22 and spoiled it, and the temple in it, 57 and set up therein the abomination of desolation, 63 and slew those that did circumcise their children.

AND it happened, after that Alexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of || Chetthim, had smitten <sup>a</sup> Darius king of the Persians and Medes, that he reigned in his stead, the first over Greece,

2 And made many wars, and won many strong holds, and slew the kings of the earth,

3 <sup>b</sup> And went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of many nations, insomuch that the earth was quiet before him; whereupon || he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up.

4 And he gathered a mighty strong host, and ruled over countries, and nations, and || kings, who became tributaries unto him.

5 And after these things he fell sick, and perceived † that he should die.

6 Wherefore he called his servants, such as were honourable, and had been brought up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive.

7 So Alexander reigned twelve years, and then died.

8 And his servants bare rule every one in his place.

9 And after his death they all put <sup>c</sup> crowns upon themselves; so did their sons after them many years: and evils were multiplied in the earth.

10 And there came out of them <sup>d</sup> a wicked root, Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the king, who had been an hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundred and thirty and seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks.

11 In those days went there out of Israel wicked men, <sup>e</sup> who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us; for since we departed from them, † we have had much sorrow.

12 So this device pleased them well.

13 Then certain of the people were so forward herein, that they went to the king, <sup>f</sup> who gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathen:

14 Whereupon they || built a place of exercise at Jerusalem according to the customs of the heathen:

15 And <sup>g</sup> made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the heathen; and <sup>h</sup> were sold to do mischief.

16 Now when the kingdom was established before Antiochus, he thought to reign over Egypt, that he might have the dominion of two realms.

17 Wherefore <sup>i</sup> he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy, 18 And made war against Ptolemee king of Egypt: but Ptolemee was afraid of him, and fled; and many were wounded to death.

19 Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt, and he took the spoils thereof.

20 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he 28 The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with <sup>o</sup> confusion.

<sup>p</sup> Ps. 10, 7. 30 And spake peaceable words unto them, but all was <sup>p</sup> deceit: for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel.

32 But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattle.

33 Then builded they the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with mighty towers, and made it a strong hold for them.

35 They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and so they became a sore snare:

<sup>s</sup> Ps. 74, 3. 36 For it was a place to lie in wait against the <sup>s</sup> sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel.

37 Thus they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it:

38 Insomuch that the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them: whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her; and her own children left her.

40 As had been her glory, so was her dishonour increased, and her excellency was turned into mourning.

43 Yea, <sup>x</sup> many also of the Israelites consented to

44 For the king had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Juda, that they should follow || the strange laws of the land,

45 And forbid burnt-offerings, and sacrifices, and drink-offerings, in the temple; and that they should profane the sabbaths and festival days:

46 And pollute the sanctuary and <sup>y</sup> holy people:

47 Set up altars, and groves, and chapels of idols, and sacrifice swine's flesh, and unclean beasts:

48 That they should also leave <sup>z</sup> their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation:

<sup>z</sup> Gen. 17, 9. 14.

49 To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances.

50 And whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, he said, he should die.

51 In the self-same manner wrote he to his whole kingdom, and appointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Juda to sacrifice, <sup>a</sup> a city by city.

52 Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land;

53 || And drove the Israelites into secret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succour.

|| Or, And they made Israel hide themselves in holes in every place of succour.

54 Now the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and fifth year, <sup>b</sup> they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar, and builded idol-altars throughout the cities of Juda on every side;

<sup>b</sup> See 2. Chr. 33, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7.

55 And burnt incense at the doors of their houses, and in the streets.

56 And when they had rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire.

57 And wheresoever was found with any the book of the testament, or if any consented to the law, † the king's commandment was, that they should put him to death.

† Gr. the king's commandment put him to death.

58 Thus did they by their authority unto the Israelites every month, to as many as were found in the cities.

63 Wherefore they chose rather to die, that they might not be defiled with meats, and that they might not profane the holy covenant: so then they died.

64 And there was very great wrath upon Israel.

CHAPTER II.

6 Mattathias lamenteth the case of Jerusalem: 24 He slayeth a Jew that did sacrifice to idols in his presence, and the king's messenger also: 34 he and his are assailed on the sabbath, and make no resistance: 50 he dieth, and instructeth his sons; 66 and maketh their brother Judas Maccabeus general.

14 Then Mattathias and his sons <sup>c</sup> rent their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned very sore.

d ch. 1, 41, 44.

15 In the mean while the king's <sup>d</sup> officers, such as compelled the people to revolt, came into the city Modin, to make them sacrifice.

16 And when many of Israel came unto them, Mattathias also and his sons came together.

17 Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou art a ruler, and an honourable and great man in this city, and strengthened with sons and brethren:

18 Now therefore come thou first, and fulfil the king's commandment, like as all the heathen have done, yea, and the men of Juda also, and such as remain at Jerusalem: so shalt thou and thy house be in the number of the king's friends, and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver and gold, and many rewards.

e Isa. 58, 1.

19 Then Mattathias answered and spake with <sup>e</sup> a loud voice, Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments:

f Josh. 24, 15.

20 Yet will I <sup>f</sup> and my sons and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers.

g ch. 1, 49.

21 God forbid that we should forsake <sup>g</sup> the law and the ordinances.

22 We will not hearken to the king's words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left.

23 Now when he had left speaking these words, there came one of the Jews in the sight of all to sacrifice on the altar which was at Modin, according to the king's commandment.

h Num. 25, 11.

24 Which thing when Mattathias saw, he was <sup>h</sup> inflamed with zeal, and his reins trembled, neither could he forbear to shew his anger according to judgment: wherefore he ran, <sup>i</sup> and slew him upon the altar.

i Num. 25, 11, 15.

25 Also the king's commissioner, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time, and the altar he pulled down.

k Num. 25, 7, 8.

26 Thus dealt he zealously for the law of God, like as <sup>k</sup> Phinees did unto Zambri the son of Salom.

27 And Mattathias cried throughout the city with a loud voice, saying, Whosoever is zealous of the law, and maintaineth the covenant, let him follow me.

28 So he and his sons fled into <sup>l</sup> the mountains, and left all that ever they had in the city.

29 Then many that sought after justice and judgment went down into the wilderness, to † dwell there:

30 Both they, and their children, and their wives, and their cattle; because † afflictions increased sore upon them.

31 Now when it was told the king's servants, and <sup>m</sup> the host that was at Jerusalem, in the city of David, that certain men, who had broken the king's commandment, were gone down into the secret places in the wilderness, 32 They pursued after them a great number, and having overtaken them, they camped against them, and made war against them on the sabbath-day.

33 And they said unto them, Let that which ye have done hitherto suffice; come forth, and do according to the commandment of the king, and ye shall live.

34 But they said, <sup>n</sup> We will not come forth, neither will we do the king's commandment, to profane the sabbath-day.

35 So then they gave || them the battle with all speed.

36 Howbeit they answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped the places where they lay hid;

37 But said, Let us die all in our † innocency: heaven and earth shall testify for us, that ye put us to death wrongfully.

38 So they rose up against them in battle on the sabbath, <sup>o</sup> and they slew them, with their wives and children, and their cattle, to the number of a thousand † people.

39 Now when Mattathias and his friends understood hereof, they mourned for them right sore.

40 And one of them said to another, If we all do as our brethren have done, and fight not for our lives and laws against the heathen, they will now quickly <sup>p</sup> root us out of the earth.

41 At that time therefore they decreed, saying, Whosoever shall come to make battle with us on the sabbath-day, we will fight against him; neither will we die all, as our brethren that were murdered in <sup>q</sup> the secret places.

42 Then came there unto him a company of Assideans, who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily devoted unto the law.

43 Also all they that <sup>r</sup> fled for persecution joined themselves unto them, and were a stay unto them.

44 So they joined their forces, and smote sinful men in their anger, and wicked men in their wrath: but the rest fled to the heathen for succour.

45 Then Mattathias and his friends went round about, and pulled down <sup>s</sup> the altars:

46 And what children soever they found within the coast of Israel uncircumcised, those they circumcised || valiantly.

47 They pursued also after the proud men, and the work prospered in their hand.

48 So they recovered <sup>t</sup> the law out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of kings, neither † suffered they the sinner to triumph.

49 Now when the time drew near that Mattathias should die, he said unto his sons, Now hath pride and rebuke gotten strength, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation:

CHAPTER III.

1 The valour and fame of Judas Maccabeus: 10 He overthroweth the forces of Samaria and Syria. 17 Antiochus sendeth a great power against him. 44 He, and his, fall to fasting and prayer, 38 and are encouraged.

THEN <sup>a</sup> his son Judas, called Maccabeus, rose up in his stead.

2 And all his brethren helped him, and so did all they that held with his father, and <sup>b</sup> they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

3 So he gat his people great honour, and put on a breast-plate as a giant, and girt his warlike harness about him, and he made battles, protecting the host with his sword.

4 In his acts he was <sup>c</sup> like a lion, and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey.

5 For he pursued the wicked, and sought them out, and burnt up those that vexed his people.

6 Wherefore the wicked shrunk for fear of him, and all the workers of iniquity were troubled, because salvation <sup>d</sup> prospered in his hand.

7 He grieved also many kings, and made Jacob glad with his acts, and his memorial is blessed for ever.

8 Moreover he went through the cities of Juda, destroying the ungodly out of them, and turning away wrath from Israel:

9 So that he was renowned unto the utmost part of the earth, and he † received unto him <sup>e</sup> such <sup>e</sup> as were ready to perish.

10 Then Apollonius gathered the Gentiles together, and a great host out of Samaria, to fight against Israel.

11 Which thing when Judas perceived, he went forth to meet him, and so he smote him, and slew him: many also fell down slain, but the rest fled.

12 Wherefore Judas took their spoils, and Apollonius' sword also, and therewith he fought all his life long.

13 Now when Seron, a prince of the army of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered unto him a <sup>f</sup> multitude and company of the faithful to go out with him to war;

14 He said, I will get me a name and honour in the kingdom; for I will go fight with Judas and them that are with him, who despise the king's commandment.

15 So he made him ready to go up, and there went with him a mighty host of the ungodly to help him, and to be avenged of the children of Israel.

16 And when he came near to the going up of <sup>g</sup> Beth-horon, Judas went forth to meet him with a small company:

17 Who, when they saw the host coming to meet them, said unto Judas, How shall we be able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, seeing we are ready to faint with fasting all this day?

18 Unto whom Judas answered, <sup>h</sup> It is no hard matter for many to be shut up in the hands of a few; and with the God of heaven it is all one, to deliver with a great multitude, or a small company:

19 For the victory of battle standeth not <sup>i</sup> in the multitude of an host; but strength cometh from heaven.

20 They come || against us † in much pride and iniquity to destroy us, and our wives and children, and to spoil us:

21 But we fight for our lives and our laws.

22 Wherefore the Lord himself will overthrow them before our face: and as for you, be ye not afraid of them.

23 Now as soon as he had left off speaking, he leaped suddenly upon them, and so <sup>k</sup> Seron and his host was overthrown before him.

24 And they pursued them † from the going down of Beth-horon unto the plain, where were slain about eight hundred men of them; and the residue fled into the land of the Philistines.

25 † Then began the fear of Judas and his brethren, and an exceeding great dread, to fall upon the nations round about them:

26 Insonmuch as his fame came unto the king, and all nations talked of the battles of Judas.

27 Now when king Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation: <sup>m</sup> wherefore he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, even a very strong army.

28 He opened also his treasure, and gave his

29 Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasures failed, and † that the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissension and plague which he had brought upon the land, || in taking away the laws which had been of old time;

30 He feared † that he should not be able to bear the charges any longer, nor to have such gifts to give so liberally as he did before: for he had abounded above the kings that were before him.

31 Wherefore, being greatly <sup>n</sup> perplexed in his mind, he determined to go into Persia, there to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lysias, a nobleman, and one of the blood royal, to oversee the affairs of the king from <sup>o</sup> the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt:

33 And to bring up his son Antiochus, until he came again.

34 Moreover he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Juda and Jerusalem:

35 To wit, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the <sup>p</sup> remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away their memorial from that place;

36 And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot.

37 So the king took the half of the forces that remained, and departed from Antioch, † his royal city, the hundred forty and seventh year; and having passed the river Euphrates, he went through the high countries.

38 Then Lysias chose Ptolemee the son of Dorymenes, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men <sup>q</sup> of the king's friends:

39 And with them he sent forty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horsemen, to go into the land of Juda, and to destroy it, as the king commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by <sup>r</sup> Emmaus in the plain country.

41 And the merchants of the country, hearing the fame of them, took silver and gold very much, with || servants, and came into the camp to buy the children of Israel for slaves: a power also of Syria and of the land || of the Philistines joined themselves unto them.

42 Now when Judas and his brethren saw that miseries were multiplied, and that the forces did encamp themselves in their borders; for they knew how <sup>s</sup> the king had given commandment to destroy the people, and utterly abolish them;

43 They said one to another, Let us restore the decayed estate of our people, and let us fight for our people and the sanctuary.

44 Then was the congregation gathered together, that they might be ready for battle, <sup>t</sup> and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion.

45 Now Jerusalem lay <sup>u</sup> void as a wilderness, there was none of her children that went in or out: <sup>x</sup> the sanctuary also was trodden down, and aliens kept the strong hold; the heathen had their habitation in that place; and joy was taken from Jacob, and the pipe with the harp ceased.

46 Wherefore the Israelites assembled themselves together, and came to || Maspha, over against Jerusalem; for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel.

47 Then they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and cast ashes upon their heads, and rent their clothes,

48 And laid open the book of the law, || wherein the heathen had sought to paint the likeness of their images.

49 They brought also the priests' garments, and the first-fruits, and the tithes: and the <sup>y</sup> Nazarites they stirred up, who had accomplished their days.

50 Then cried they with a loud voice towards heaven, saying, What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them away?

51 <sup>z</sup> For thy sanctuary is trodden down and profaned, and thy priests are in heaviness, and brought low.

52 And lo, the heathen are assembled together against us to destroy us: what things they imagine against us, thou knowest.

53 <sup>a</sup> How shall we be able to stand against them, except thou, O God, be our help?

54 Then sounded they with trumpets, and cried with a loud voice.

55 And after this Judas ordained captains over the people, <sup>b</sup> even captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens.

56 But as for such <sup>b</sup> were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or <sup>c</sup> were fearful, those he commanded that they should return, every man to his own house, according to the law.

57 So the camp removed, and pitched upon the south side of <sup>d</sup> Emmaus.

58 And Judas said, Arm yourselves, and be valiant men, and see that ye be in readiness against the morning, that ye may fight with these nations, that are assembled together against us to destroy us and our sanctuary:

59 <sup>e</sup> For it is better for us to die in battle, than to behold the calamities of our people and our sanctuary.

60 Nevertheless, <sup>f</sup> as the will of God is in heaven, so let him do.

CHAPTER IV.

6 Judas defeateth the plot, 14 and forces of Gorgias, 23 and spoileth their tents, 34 and overthroweth Lysias: 45 He pulleth down the altar which the heathen had profaned, and setteth up a new one: 60 and maketh a wall about Sion.

THEN took <sup>a</sup> Gorgias five thousand footmen, and <sup>a</sup> a thousand of the best horsemen, and removed out of the camp by right;

2 To the end he might rush in upon the camp of the Jews, and smite them suddenly. And the men of the fortress were his guides.

3 Now when Judas heard thereof, he himself removed, and the valiant men with him, that he might smite the king's army which was at <sup>b</sup> Emmaus,

4 While as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp.

5 In the mean season came Gorgias by night into the camp of Judas: and when he found no man there, he sought them <sup>c</sup> in the mountains: for said he, These fellows flee from us.

6 But as soon as it was day, Judas shewed himself in the plain with three thousand men, who nevertheless had neither || armour nor swords to their minds.

7 And they saw the camp of the heathen, that it was strong and well harnessed, and compassed round about with horsemen; and these were expert of war.

8 Then said Judas to the men that were with him,

CHRIST
cir. 166.

<sup>e</sup> Remember how our fathers were delivered in the Red Sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army.

<sup>f</sup> Now therefore let us cry unto heaven, if peradventure the Lord will have mercy upon us, and <sup>g</sup> remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this host before our face this day :

<sup>h</sup> That so all the heathen may know that there is one who delivereth and saveth Israel.

<sup>i</sup> Then the strangers lifted up their eyes, and saw them coming over against them.

<sup>j</sup> Wherefore they went out of the camp to battle ; but they that were with Judas <sup>k</sup> sounded their trumpets.

<sup>m</sup> Howbeit all the hindmost of them were slain with the sword : for they pursued them unto <sup>n</sup> † Gazera, and unto the plains of Idumea, and Azotus, and Jamnia, so that there were slain of them about three thousand men.

<sup>p</sup> And said to the people, <sup>q</sup> Be not greedy of the spoils, inasmuch as there is a battle before us,

<sup>s</sup> As Judas was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the mountain :

<sup>t</sup> Who when they perceived that the Jews had put their host to flight, and were burning the tents ; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done :

<sup>u</sup> When therefore they perceived these things, <sup>v</sup> they were sore afraid, and seeing also the host of Judas in the plain ready to fight,

<sup>f</sup> Who, when he heard thereof, was confounded and discouraged, because neither such things as he would were done unto Israel, nor such things as the king commanded him were come to pass.

<sup>n</sup> Shut up this army in the hand of thy people Israel, and let them be confounded in their power and horsemen :

<sup>o</sup> Make them to be of no courage, and cause the boldness of their strength to <sup>p</sup> † fall away, and let them quake at their destruction :

<sup>q</sup> Cast them down with the sword of them that love thee, and let all those that know thy name <sup>r</sup> praise thee with thanksgiving.

<sup>s</sup> So they joined battle ; and there were slain of the host of Lysias about five thousand men, even before them were they slain.

<sup>t</sup> Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight, and the manliness of Judas' soldiers, and how they were ready either to live or <sup>u</sup> die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered together a company of strangers, and having made his army greater than it was, he purposed to come again unto Judea.

<sup>a</sup> And when they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the priests' chambers pulled down,

<sup>c</sup> And fell down flat to the ground upon their faces, and blew an alarm with the trumpets, and cried towards heaven.

<sup>d</sup> Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the <sup>e</sup> fortress, until he had cleansed the sanctuary.

<sup>f</sup> So he chose priests of blameless conversation, such as had pleasure in the law :

<sup>h</sup> And when as they consulted what to do with the altar of burnt-offerings, which was profaned ;

<sup>i</sup> They thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the heathen <sup>j</sup> had defiled it : wherefore they pulled it down,

<sup>k</sup> And laid up the stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet to shew what should be done with them.

<sup>l</sup> Then they took whole stones <sup>m</sup> according to the law, and built a new altar according to the former ;

<sup>n</sup> And made up the <sup>o</sup> sanctuary, and the things that were within the temple, and hallowed the courts.

<sup>p</sup> They made also new holy vessels, and into the temple they brought the candlestick and the altar of burnt-offerings, and of incense, and the table.

<sup>q</sup> And <sup>r</sup> upon the altar they burned incense, and the lamps that were upon the candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the temple.

<sup>s</sup> Furthermore they set the loaves upon the table, and <sup>t</sup> † spread out the vails, and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

<sup>u</sup> Now on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which <sup>v</sup> is called the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and eighth year, they rose up betimes in the morning, <sup>w</sup> And offered sacrifice according to the law upon <sup>x</sup> the new altar of burnt-offerings, which they had made.

<sup>y</sup> Look, at what time and what day the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and citherns, and harps, and cymbals.

16 Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled a great congregation together, to consult what they should do for their brethren, that were in trouble, and assaulted of them.

begun, and that the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets, and a great sound, 32 He said unto his host, Fight this day for your brethren.

33 So he went forth behind them in three companies, <sup>o</sup> who sounded their trumpets, and cried with prayer.

34 Then the host of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him: wherefore he smote them with a great slaughter; so that there were killed of them that day about eight thousand men.

35 This done, Judas turned aside to Maspha; and after he had assaulted it, he took it, <sup>p</sup> and slew all the males therein, and received the spoils thereof, and burned it with fire.

36 From thence went he, and took <sup>q</sup> Casphon, Maged, Bosor, and the other cities of the country of Galaad.

37 After these things gathered Timotheus another host, and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook.

38 So Judas sent <sup>r</sup> men to espy the host, who brought him word, saying, <sup>r</sup> All the heathen that be round about us are assembled unto them, even a very great host.

39 He hath also hired the Arabians to help them, and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against thee. Upon this Judas went to meet them.

40 Then <sup>s</sup> Timotheus said unto the captains of his host, When Judas and his host come near the brook, if he pass over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us:

41 But if he be afraid, and camp beyond the river, we shall go over unto him, and prevail against him.

42 Now when Judas came near <sup>t</sup> the brook, he caused the scribes of the people to remain by the brook: unto whom he gave commandment, saying, <sup>u</sup> Suffer no man to remain in the camp, but let all come to the battle.

43 So he went first over unto them, and all the people after him: then all the heathen, being discomfited before him, cast away their weapons, and fled unto the temple that was at Carnaim.

44 But <sup>y</sup> they took the city, and burned the temple with all that were therein. Thus was Carnaim subdued, <sup>z</sup> neither could they stand any longer before Judas.

45 Then Judas gathered together all the Israelites that were in the country of Galaad, from the least unto the greatest, even their wives, and their children, and their stuff, a very great host, to the end they might come into the land of Judea.

46 Now when they came unto Ephron, (this was a great city in the way as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, either on the right hand or the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it.

47 Then they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones.

48 Whereupon Judas sent unto them <sup>y</sup> in peaceable manner, saying, Let us pass through your land to go into our own country, and none shall do you any hurt; we will only pass through on foot: howbeit they would not open unto him.

49 Wherefore Judas commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was.

50 So the soldiers pitched, and assaulted the city all that day and all that night, till at length the city was delivered into his hands:

51 Who then slew <sup>z</sup> all the males with the edge of the sword, and razed the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over them that were slain.

52 After this went they over Jordan into the great plain before Bethsan.

53 And Judas gathered together those that || came behind, and || exhorted the people all the way through, till they came into the land of Judea.

54 So they went up to mount Sion with joy and gladness, where they offered || burnt-offerings, because not one of them were slain until they had returned in peace.

55 Now what time as Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon his brother in <sup>a</sup> Galilee before Ptolemais, 56 Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captains of the garrisons, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done.

57 Wherefore they said, Let us also get us a name, and go fight against the heathen that are round about us.

58 So when they had given charge unto the garrison that was with them, they went towards Jamnia.

59 Then came <sup>b</sup> Gorgias and his men out of the city † to fight against them.

60 And so it was, that Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued unto the borders of Judea: and there were slain that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men.

61 Thus was there a great overthrow among the children of Israel, because they were not obedient unto Judas and his brethren, <sup>c</sup> but thought to do some valiant act.

62 Moreover these men came not of the seed of those, by whose hand deliverance was given unto Israel.

63 Howbeit the man Judas and his brethren were greatly renowned in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen, wheresoever their name was heard of;

64 Inasmuch as <sup>d</sup> the people assembled unto them with joyful acclamations.

65 Afterward went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against the children of Esau in the land towards the south, where he smote Hebron, and the † towns thereof, and pulled down the fortress of it, and burned the towers thereof round about.

66 From thence he removed to go into the land of † the Philistines, and passed through <sup>e</sup> Samaria.

67 At that time certain priests, desirous to shew their valour, were slain in battle, for that they went out to fight unadvisedly.

68 So Judas turned to <sup>f</sup> Azotus in the land of the Philistines, and when he had pulled down their altars, and burned their carved images with fire, and spoiled their cities, he returned into the land of Judea.

a Ezra 1, 1.

- Before CHRIST
cir. 164.
- 2 And that there was in it a very rich temple, wherein were || coverings of gold, and breast-plates, and || shields, which Alexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian king, who <sup>b</sup> reigned first among the Grecians, had left there.
- 3 Wherefore he came and sought to take the city, and to spoil it; but he was not able, because they of the city, having had warning thereof,
- 4 Rose up against him in battle: so he fled, and departed thence with <sup>e</sup> great heaviness, and returned to Babylon.
- 5 Moreover there came one who brought him tidings into Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judea, were put to flight:
- 6 And that <sup>d</sup> Lysias, who went forth first with a great power, was driven away of the Jews; and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies, whom they had destroyed:
- 7 Also that they had pulled down the <sup>e</sup> abomination, which he had set up upon the altar in Jerusalem, and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and his city Bethsura.
- 8 Now when the king heard these words, he was astonished and <sup>f</sup> sore moved: whereupon he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him as he looked for.
- 9 And there he continued many days: for his grief was ever more and more, and he made account that he should die.
- 10 Wherefore he called for all his friends, and said unto them, <sup>g</sup> The sleep is gone from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for very care.
- 11 And I thought with myself, Into what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood of misery is it, wherein now I am! for I was bountiful and beloved in my power.
- 12 But now I remember the evils that I did at Jerusalem, and that I took all the vessels of gold and silver that were therein, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Judea <sup>h</sup> without a cause.
- 13 I perceive therefore that for this cause these troubles are come upon me, and behold, I perish through great grief in <sup>i</sup> a strange land.
- 14 Then called he for Philip, one of his friends, whom he made ruler over all his realm,
- 15 And gave him the crown, and his robe, and his signet, to the end || he should bring up his son Antiochus, and nourish him up for the kingdom.
- 16 So king Antiochus died there in the hundred forty and ninth year.
- 17 Now when Lysias knew that the king was dead, he set up <sup>k</sup> Antiochus his son, whom he had brought up, being young, to reign in his stead, and his name he called Eupator.
- 18 About this time they that were in the <sup>l</sup> tower shut up the Israelites round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.
- 19 Wherefore Judas, purposing to destroy them, called all the people together to besiege them.
- 20 So they came together, and besieged them in the hundred and fiftieth year, and he made mounts for shot against them, and other engines.
- 21 Howbeit, certain of them that were besieged got forth, unto whom some <sup>m</sup> ungodly men of Israel joined themselves:
- 22 And they went unto the king, and said, How long will it be ere thou execute judgment, and avenge our brethren?
- 23 We have been willing to serve <sup>n</sup> thy father, and to do as he would have us, and to obey his commandments;
- 24 For which cause they of our nation besiege the tower, and are alienated from us: moreover, as many of us as they could light on they slew, and spoiled our inheritance.
- 25 Neither have they stretched out their hand against us only, but also against all their borders.
- 26 And behold, this day are they besieging the tower at Jerusalem, to take it: <sup>o</sup> the sanctuary also and Bethsura have they fortified.
- 27 Wherefore if thou dost not prevent them quickly, they will do greater things than these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them.
- 28 Now when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those that had charge of the horse.
- 29 There came also unto him from other kingdoms, and from <sup>p</sup> isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers.
- 30 So that the number of his army was an hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants exercised in battle.
- 31 These went through Idumea, and pitched against <sup>q</sup> Bethsura, which they assaulted many days, making engines of war; but they of Bethsura came out, and burned them with fire, and fought valiantly.
- 32 Upon this Judas removed from the tower, and pitched in Bathzacharias, over against the king's camp.
- 33 Then the king rising very early marched fiercely with his host towards Bathzacharias, where his armies made them ready to battle, and sounded the trumpets.
- 34 And to the end they might provoke <sup>r</sup> the elephants to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberries.
- 35 Moreover they divided the beasts among the armies, and for every elephant they appointed a thousand men, armed with coats of mail, and with helmets of brass on their heads; and besides this, for every beast were ordained five hundred <sup>s</sup> horsemen of the best.
- 36 These were ready at every occasion: wheresoever the beast was, and whithersoever the beast went, they went also, neither departed they from him.
- 37 And upon the beasts were there strong towers of wood, which covered every one of them, and were girt fast unto them with devices: there were also upon every one two and thirty strong men, that fought upon them, besides the <sup>t</sup> Indian that ruled him.
- 38 As for the remnant of the horsemen, they set them on this side and that side at the two parts of the host, || giving them signs what to do, and being harnessed all over amidst the ranks.
- 39 Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains glistered therewith, and shined like lamps of fire.
- 40 So part of the king's army being spread upon the high mountains, and part on the valleys below, they marched on safely and in order.
- 41 Wherefore all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the harness, were moved: <sup>u</sup> for the army was very great and mighty.
- 42 Then Judas and his host drew near, and entered into battle, and there were slain of the king's army six hundred men.

43 * Eleazar also, surnamed Savaran, perceiving that one of the beasts, armed with royal harness, was higher than all the rest, and <sup>y</sup> supposing that the king was upon him,

44 Put himself in jeopardy, to the end he might deliver his people, and get him a perpetual name :

45 Wherefore he ran upon him courageously through the midst of the battle, slaying on the right hand and on the left, || so that they were divided from him on both sides.

46 Which done, he crept under the elephant, and thrust him under, and slew him : whereupon the elephant fell down upon him, and there he died.

47 Howbeit, the rest of the Jews seeing the strength of the king, and the violence of his forces, turned away from them.

48 ¶ Then the king's army went up to Jerusalem to meet them, and the king <sup>z</sup> pitched his tents || against Judea, and against mount Zion.

49 But with them that were in Bethsura he made peace : || for they came out of the city, because they had no victuals there to endure the siege, it being a year of rest to the land.

50 So the king took Bethsura, and set a garrison there to keep it.

51 As for the sanctuary, he besieged it many days : and || set there artillery with engines and instruments to cast fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts and slings.

52 Whereupon || they also made engines against their engines, and held them battle a long season.

53 Yet at the last, their vessels being without victuals, (for that it was the <sup>a</sup> seventh year, and they in Judea that were delivered from the Gentiles, had eaten up the residue of the store :)

54 There were but a few left in the sanctuary, because the famine did so prevail against them, that they were fain to disperse themselves, every man to his own place.

55 At that time <sup>b</sup> Lysias heard say, that <sup>c</sup> Philip, whom Antiochus the king, while he lived, had appointed to bring up his son Antiochus, that he might be king, 56 Was returned out of Persia and Media, and the king's host also that went with him, and that he sought to take unto him the ruling of the affairs.

57 Wherefore he went in all haste, and said to the king and the captains of the host and the company, We decay daily, and our victuals are but small, and the place we lay siege unto is strong, and the affairs of the kingdom lie upon us :

58 Now therefore let us † be friends with these men, and make peace with them, and with all their nation ;

59 And covenant with them, that they shall live after <sup>d</sup> their laws, as they did before : for they are therefore displeased, and have done all these things, because we abolished their laws.

60 So the king and the princes were content : wherefore he sent unto them to make peace ; and they accepted thereof.

61 Also the king and the princes made an oath unto them : whereupon they went out of the strong hold.

62 Then the king entered into <sup>e</sup> mount Zion ; but when he saw the strength of the place, <sup>f</sup> he brake his oath that he had made, and gave commandment to pull down the wall round about.

63 Afterward departed he in all haste, and returned unto Antiochia, where he found Philip to be master of the city : so he fought against him, and took the city by force.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Antiochus is slain, and Demetrius reigneth in his stead. 5 Alcimus would be high priest, and complaineth of Judas to the king. 16 He slayeth threescore Assideans. 43 Nicanor is slain, and the king's forces are defeated by Judas. 49 The day of this victory is kept holy every year.

IN the hundred and one and fiftieth year, <sup>a</sup> Demetrius the son of Seleucus departed from Rome, and came up with a few men unto || a city of the sea-coast, and reigned there.

2 And as he entered into the † palace of his ancestors, so it was, that his forces had taken <sup>b</sup> Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them unto him.

3 Wherefore, when he knew it, he said, Let me not see their faces.

4 So his host slew them. Now when Demetrius was set upon the throne of his kingdom,

5 There came unto him all the wicked and <sup>c</sup> ungodly men of Israel, having Alcimus, who was desirous to be high priest, for their captain :

6 And they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his brethren have slain all thy friends, and driven us out of our own land.

7 Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him go and see what havock he hath made among us, and in the king's land, and let him punish them with all them that aid them.

8 Then the king chose Bacchides, a friend of the king, who ruled <sup>d</sup> beyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king.

9 And him he sent with that wicked <sup>e</sup> Alcimus, whom he made high priest, and commanded that he should take vengeance of the children of Israel.

10 So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Judea, where they sent messengers to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words <sup>f</sup> deceitfully.

11 But they gave no heed to their words ; for they saw that they were come with a great power.

12 Then did there assemble unto Alcimus and Bacchides a company of || scribes, to require justice.

13 Now the <sup>g</sup> Assideans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them :

14 For said they, One that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with this army, and he will do us no wrong.

15 So he spake unto them peaceably, and swore unto them, saying, We will procure the harm neither of you nor your friends.

16 Whereupon they believed him : howbeit he took of them threescore men, and slew them in one day, according to the words which he wrote, 17 <sup>h</sup> The flesh of thy saints have they cast out, and their blood have they shed round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

18 Wherefore the fear and dread of them fell upon all the people, who said, There is neither truth nor <sup>i</sup> righteousness in them ; for they have broken the covenant and oath that they made.

19 After this removed Bacchides from Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he sent and took many of the men that had forsaken him, and certain of the people also, and when he had slain them, <sup>k</sup> he cast them into the great pit.

20 Then committed he the country to Alcimus, and left with him a power to aid him: so Bacchides went to the king.

21 But Alcimus || contended for the high priesthood.

22 And unto him resorted all such as troubled the people, who, after they had gotten the land of Juda into their power, did much hurt in Israel.

23 Now when Judas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the Israelites, <sup>l</sup> even above the heathen, 24 He went out into all the coasts of Judea round about, and took vengeance of them that had || revolted from him, so that they durst no more || go forth into the country.

25 On the other side, when Alcimus saw that Judas and his company had || gotten the upper hand, and knew that he was not able † to abide their force, he went again to the king, and said all the worst of them that he could.

26 Then the king sent Nicanor, one of his honourable <sup>m</sup> princes, a man that bare deadly hate unto Israel, with commandment to destroy the people.

27 So Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great force; and sent unto Judas and his brethren deceitfully with † friendly words, saying, 28 Let there be no battle between me and you; I will come with a few men, that I may † see you in peace.

29 He came therefore to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably. Howbeit the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by violence.

30 Which thing after it was known to Judas, to wit, that he came unto him with deceit, he was sore afraid of him, and <sup>n</sup> would see his face no more.

31 Nicanor also, when he saw that his counsel was discovered, went out to † fight against Judas beside || Capharsalama:

32 Where there were slain of Nicanor's side about five thousand men, and the rest fled into the <sup>o</sup> city of David.

33 After this went Nicanor up to mount Sion, and there came out of the sanctuary certain of the priests and certain of the elders of the people, to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt-sacrifice that was offered for the king.

34 But he mocked them, and laughed at them, and † abused them shamefully, and spake proudly, 35 And sware in his wrath, saying, Unless Judas and his host be now delivered into my hands, if ever I come again † in safety, I will burn up this house: and with that he went out in a great rage.

36 Then the priests entered in, and <sup>p</sup> stood before the altar and the temple, weeping, and saying,

37 Thou, O Lord, didst choose this house to be called by thy name, and to be a <sup>q</sup> house of prayer and petition for thy people:

38 Be avenged of this man and his host, and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

39 So Nicanor went out of Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Beth-horon, where an host out of Syria met him.

40 But Judas pitched in Adasa with three thousand men, and there he prayed, saying, 41 O Lord, when they that were sent from the king of the Assyrians blasphemed, thine angel went out, and smote an hundred fourscore and five thousand of them.

42 Even so destroy thou this host before us this day, that the rest may know that he hath spoken blasphemously against thy sanctuary, and judge thou him according to his wickedness.

43 So the thirteenth day of the month Adar the hosts joined battle; but Nicanor's host was discomfited, and he himself was first slain in the battle.

44 Now when Nicanor's host saw that he was slain, <sup>s</sup> they cast away their weapons, and fled.

45 Then || they pursued after them a day's journey, from <sup>t</sup> Adasa unto <sup>u</sup> Gazera, sounding an alarm after them with their trumpets.

46 Whereupon they came forth out of all the towns of Judea round about, and closed them in; so that they, turning back upon them that pursued them, were all slain with the sword, and not one of them was left.

47 Afterward they took the spoils and the prey, and smote off Nicanor's head, and his right hand, which he stretched out so <sup>x</sup> proudly, and brought them away, and hanged them up towards Jerusalem.

48 For this cause the people rejoiced greatly, and they kept that day a day of great gladness.

49 Moreover, they ordained to keep yearly this day, being the <sup>y</sup> thirteenth of Adar.

50 Thus the land of Juda was <sup>z</sup> in rest a little while.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Judas is informed of the power and policy of the Romans, 20 and maketh a league with them. 24 The articles of that league.

NOW Judas had heard of the fame of the <sup>a</sup> Romans, that they were mighty and valiant men, and such as would lovingly accept all that joined themselves unto them, and make a league of amity with all that came unto them;

2 And that they were men of great valour. It was told him also of their wars and noble acts which they had done among the || Galatians, and how they had conquered them, and brought them under tribute;

3 And what they had done in the country of <sup>b</sup> Spain, for the winning of the mines of the silver and gold which is there;

4 And that by their policy and patience they had conquered || all the place, though it were very far from them; and the kings also that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, and given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them <sup>c</sup> tribute every year:

5 Besides this, how they had discomfited in battle <sup>d</sup> Philip, and Perseus, king of the || Citims, with others that lifted up themselves against them, and had overcome them:

6 How also Antiochus, the great king of Asia, that came against them in battle, having an hundred and twenty elephants, with horsemen, and chariots, and a very great army, was discomfited by them;

7 And how they took him alive, and covenanted that he and such as reigned after him should pay <sup>e</sup> a great tribute, and give hostages, and that which was agreed upon,

8 And the country of <sup>f</sup> India, and <sup>g</sup> Media, and Lydia, and of the goodliest countries, which they took of him, and gave to king Eumenes:

9 Moreover how the <sup>h</sup> Grecians had determined to come and destroy them ;

10 And that they, having knowledge thereof, sent against them a certain captain, and fighting with them slew many of them, and carried away captives their wives and their children, and spoiled them, and took possession of their lands, and pulled down their strong holds, and brought them to be their servants unto this day :

i ch. 6, 29.

11 It was told him besides, how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all other kingdoms and <sup>i</sup> isles that at any time resisted them ;

12 But with their friends and such as relied upon them they kept amity : and that they had conquered kingdoms both far and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them :

13 Also that, whom they would help to a kingdom, those reign ; and whom again they would, they displace : finally, that they were greatly exalted :

k Est. 6, 8.

14 Yet for all this none of them wore a <sup>k</sup> crown, or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby :

15 Moreover how they had made for themselves a senate-house, wherein three hundred and twenty men sat in council daily, consulting always for the people, to the end they may be well ordered :

16 And that they committed their government to one man every year, who ruled over all their country, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither envy nor emulation among them.

l verse 12.

17 In consideration of these things, Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, <sup>l</sup> to make a league of amity and confederacy with them, m verse 9.

18 And to entreat them that they would take the yoke from them ; for they saw that the kingdom of the <sup>m</sup> Grecians did oppress Israel with servitude.

n verse 15.

19 They went therefore to Rome, which was a very great journey, and came into the <sup>n</sup> senate, where they spake and said,

o verse 17.

20 Judas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you, to make <sup>o</sup> a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your confederates and friends.

21 So that matter pleased the Romans well.

22 And this is the copy of the epistle which the senate wrote back again on tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that there they might have by them a memorial of peace and confederacy.

p See Ps. 122, 7.

23 <sup>p</sup> Good success be to the Romans, and to the people of the Jews, by sea and by land for ever : the sword also and enemy be far from them.

24 If there come first any war upon the Romans or any of their confederates throughout all their dominion, q See Col. 3, 23.

25 The people of the Jews shall help them, as the time shall be appointed, with <sup>q</sup> all their heart :

26 Neither shall they give any thing unto them that make war upon them, or aid them with victuals, weapons, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto the Romans ; but they shall keep their covenants without taking any thing therefore.

27 In the same manner also, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them :

r verse 26.

28 <sup>r</sup> Neither shall victuals be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans ; but they shall keep their covenants, and that without deceit.

29 According to these articles did the Romans make <sup>s</sup> a covenant with the people of the Jews.

30 Howbeit, if hereafter the one party or the other shall think meet to add or diminish any thing, they may do it at their pleasures, and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be ratified.

31 And as touching the evils that <sup>t</sup> Demetrius doeth to the Jews, we have written unto him, saying, t ch. 7, 1.

Wherefore hast thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends and confederates the Jews ?

32 If therefore they complain any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee by <sup>u</sup> sea and by land. u verse 23

CHAPTER IX.

1 Alcimus and Bacchides come again with new forces into Judea : 7 The army of Judas flee from him, 17 and he is slain : 30 Jonathan is in his place, 40 and revengeth his brother John's quarrel. 55 Alcimus is plagued, and dieth. 70 Bacchides maketh peace with Jonathan.

FURTHERMORE, when Demetrius heard <sup>a</sup> that Nicanor and his host were slain in battle, † he sent Bacchides and Alcimus into the land of Judea the second time, and with them || the chief strength of his host :

3 Also the first month of the hundred fifty and second year they encamped before Jerusalem :

5 Now Judas had pitched his tents at Eleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him :

6 Who seeing the multitude of the other army to be so great, <sup>b</sup> were sore afraid ; whereupon many conveyed themselves out of the host, insomuch as there abode of them no more but eight hundred men.

b 2 Chr. 20, 3.

7 When Judas therefore saw that his host slipped away, and that the battle pressed upon him, he was sore troubled in mind, <sup>c</sup> and much distressed, for that he had no time to gather them together.

c 1 Sam. 30, 6

8 Nevertheless, unto them that remained, he said, Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they dehorted him, saying, We shall never be able : || let us now rather save our lives, and hereafter we will return with our brethren, and fight against them : for we are but few.

|| We follow here the Roman copy.

10 Then Judas said, <sup>d</sup> God forbid that I should do this thing, and flee away from them ; if our time be come, let us die manfully for our brethren, and † let us not stain our honour.

d See Rom 3, 31.

11 With that the host of Bacchides removed out of their tents, and stood over against || them, their horsemen being divided into two troops, and their slingers and archers going before the host, and they that marched in the foreward were all mighty men.

noise of the armies, and the battle continued from morning till night.

14 Now when Judas perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, he took with him all the hardy men, 15 Who discomfited the right wing, and pursued them unto the mount Azotus.

16 But when they of the left wing saw that they of the right wing were discomfited, they followed upon Judas and those that were with him hard at the heels from behind :

17 Whereupon there was a sore battle, insomuch as many were slain on both parts.

g verse 10. 18 <sup>g</sup> Judas also was killed, and the remnant fled.

19 Then Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers in <sup>h</sup> Modin.

22 As for the other things concerning Judas and his wars, and the noble acts which he did, and his greatness, they are not written : for they were very many.

23 ¶ Now after the death of Judas, the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and there arose up all such as wrought iniquity.

24 In those days also was there a very great famine, by reason whereof the country revolted and went with ¶ them.

1 See Dan. 12, 1.
Mat. 24, 21.

27 So was there a great affliction in Israel, <sup>l</sup> the like whereof was not since the time that a prophet was not seen among them.

m ch. 2, 5. 28 For this cause all Judas' friends came together, and said unto <sup>m</sup> Jonathan, 29 Since thy brother Judas died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies, and Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are adversaries to us.

30 Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince and captain in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battles.

31 Upon this Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up instead of his brother Judas.

32 But when Bacchides gat knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him.

40 Then Jonathan and they that were with him rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush, and made a slaughter of them in such sort, as many fell down dead, and the remnant fled into the mountain, and they took all their spoils.

41 Thus was <sup>p</sup> the marriage turned into mourning, and the noise of their <sup>q</sup> melody into lamentation. p verse 37 q verse 39.

42 So when they had avenged fully the blood of their brother, they turned again to the marsh of Jordan.

43 Now when Bacchides heard hereof, he came on the sabbath-day unto the banks of Jordan with a great power.

44 Then Jonathan said to his company, Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it standeth not with us to-day, as in time past :

45 For, behold, <sup>r</sup> the battle is before us and behind us, and the water of Jordan on this side and that side, the marsh likewise and wood, neither is there place for us to turn aside. r See Ex. 14, 9, 10.

46 Wherefore <sup>s</sup> cry ye now unto heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies. s Ex. 14, 15.

47 With that they joined battle, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, but he turned back from him.

he returned to the king : whereupon the land of Judea <sup>x</sup> was in rest two years.

58 Then all the ungodly men held a council, saying, Behold, Jonathan and his company are at ease, and dwell without care : now therefore we will bring Bacchides hither, who shall take them all in one night.

59 So they went and <sup>y</sup> consulted with him.

60 Then removed he, and came with a great host, and sent letters privily to his adherents in Judea, that they should take Jonathan and those that were with him : howbeit they could not, <sup>z</sup> because their counsel was known unto them.

61 Wherefore they took of the men of the country, that were authors of that mischief, about fifty persons, and slew them.

62 Afterward Jonathan, and Simon, and they that were with him, got them away to Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and they repaired the decays thereof, and made it strong.

64 Then went he and laid siege against Bethbasi ; and they fought against it a long season, and made engines of war.

65 But Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth himself into the country, and with a certain number went he forth.

66 And he smote || Odonarkes and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tent.

67 And when he began to smite them, and came up with his forces, Simon and his company went out of the city, and burned up <sup>b</sup> the engines of war, 68 And fought against Bacchides, who was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore : for his counsel and travail was in vain.

69 Wherefore he was very wroth at the <sup>c</sup> wicked men that gave him counsel to come into the country, inasmuch that he slew many of them, and purposed to return into his own country.

70 Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadors unto him, <sup>d</sup> to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners.

71 Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and sware unto him that he would never do him harm all the days of his life.

72 When therefore he had restored unto him the prisoners that he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judea, he returned and went his way into his own land, <sup>e</sup> neither † came he any more into their borders.

73 Thus the sword ceased from Israel : but Jonathan dwelt at Machmas, and began to † govern the people ; and he destroyed the <sup>f</sup> ungodly men out of Israel.

CHAPTER X.

1 Demetrius maketh large offers to have peace with Jonathan : 25 His letters to the Jews. 47 Jonathan maketh peace with Alexander : 50 Who killeth Demetrius, 58 and marieth the daughter of Ptolemus. 62 Jonathan is sent for by him, and much honoured, 75 and prevaileth against the forces of Demetrius the younger, 84 and burneth the temple of Dagon.

IN the hundred and sixtieth year Alexander, || the son of Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, went up and took <sup>a</sup> Ptolemais : for the people had received him, by means whereof he reigned there.

2 Now when king Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered together an exceeding great host, and went forth against him to fight.

3 Moreover, Demetrius sent letters unto Jonathan with loving words, so as he magnified him.

4 For, said he, <sup>b</sup> Let us first make peace with him, before he join with Alexander against us :

5 Else he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brethren and his people.

6 Wherefore he gave him authority to <sup>c</sup> gather together an host, and to provide weapons, that he might aid him in battle : he commanded also that the hostages that were in the tower should be delivered him.

7 Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the <sup>d</sup> tower :

8 Who were sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together an host.

9 Whereupon they of the tower <sup>e</sup> delivered their hostages unto Jonathan, and he delivered them unto their parents.

10 This done, Jonathan settled himself in Jerusalem, and began to build and repair the city.

11 And he commanded the workmen to build <sup>f</sup> the walls and the mount Sion round about with square stones for fortification ; and they did so.

12 Then the strangers, that were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built, fled away ;

13 Inasmuch as every man left his place, and went into his own country.

14 Only at Bethsura certain of those that had forsaken the law and the commandments remained still : for it was their place of refuge.

15 Now when king Alexander had heard what promises Demetrius <sup>g</sup> had sent unto Jonathan : when also it was told him of the battles and noble acts which he and his brethren had done, and of the pains that they had endured, 16 He said, Shall we find such another man ? now therefore we will make him our friend and confederate.

17 Upon this he wrote a letter, and sent it unto him, according to these words, saying,

18 King <sup>h</sup> Alexander to his brother Jonathan send eth greeting :

19 We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meet to be our friend.

20 Wherefore now this day we ordain thee to be the high priest of thy nation, and to be called <sup>i</sup> the king's friend ; (and therewithal he sent him <sup>k</sup> a purple robe and a crown of gold :) and require thee to take our part, and keep friendship with us.

21 So in the seventh month of the hundred and sixtieth year, at the feast of the tabernacles, Jonathan put on the holy robe, and gathered together forces, and provided much armour.

22 Whereof when Demetrius heard, he was very sorry, and said,

23 What have we done, that Alexander hath prevented us in making amity with the Jews to strengthen himself ?

24 I also will write unto them words of encouragement, <sup>l</sup> and promise them dignities and gifts, that I may have their aid.

25 He sent unto them therefore to this effect : King Demetrius unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting :

26 Whereas ye have kept <sup>m</sup> covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad,

27 Wherefore now continue ye still to be faithful unto us, and we will well recompense you for the things ye do in our behalf, 28 And will grant you many immunities, <sup>n</sup> and give you rewards.

29 And now do I free you, and for your sake I release all the Jews, <sup>o</sup> from tributes, and from the customs of salt, and from crown taxes,

30 And from that which appertaineth unto me to receive for the third part of the seed, and the half of the fruit of the trees, I release it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Judea, nor of the three governments which are added thereunto out of the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth for evermore.

31 Let <sup>p</sup> Jerusalem also be holy and free, with the borders thereof, both from tenths and tributes.

32 And as for <sup>q</sup> the tower which is at Jerusalem, I yield up my authority over it, and give it to the high priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall choose to keep it.

33 Moreover I freely set at liberty every one of the Jews that were carried captives out of the land of Judea into any part of my kingdom, and I will that all my officers remit the <sup>r</sup> tributes even of their cattle.

34 Furthermore I will that all the feasts, and sabbaths, and new moons, and solemn days, and the three days before the feast, and the three days after the feast, shall be all days of immunity and freedom for all the Jews in my realm.

35 Also no man shall have authority to meddle with them, <sup>s</sup> or to molest any of them in any matter.

36 I will further, that there be enrolled among the king's forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, unto whom pay shall be given, as belongeth to all the king's forces.

37 And of them some shall be placed in the king's strong holds, of whom also some shall be <sup>t</sup> set over the affairs of the kingdom, which are of trust: and I will that their overseers and governors be of themselves, and that they † live after their own laws, even as the king hath commanded in the land of Judea.

38 And concerning <sup>u</sup> the three governments that are added to Judea from the country of Samaria, let them be joined with Judea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, nor bound to obey other authority than the high priest's.

39 As for <sup>x</sup> Ptolemais, and the land pertaining thereto, I give it as a free gift to the sanctuary at Jerusalem for the necessary expenses || of the sanctuary.

40 Moreover I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver out of the king's accounts from the places appertaining.

41 And all the overplus, which the officers payed not in as in former time, from henceforth shall be given towards the works of the <sup>v</sup> temple.

42 And besides this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they took from the uses of the temple out of the accounts year by year, even those things shall be released, because they appertain to the priests that minister.

43 And whosoever they be that flee unto the temple at Jerusalem, or be within the liberties thereof, being indebted unto the king, or for any other matter, let them be at liberty, and all that they have in my realm.

44 For the building also and repairing of the works of the <sup>z</sup> sanctuary, expenses shall be given of the king's accounts.

45 Yea, and for the building of <sup>a</sup> the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, expenses shall be given out of the king's accounts, as also for the building of the walls in Judea.

46 Now when Jonathan and the people heard these words, they gave no credit unto them, nor received them, because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Israel; <sup>b</sup> for he had afflicted them very sore.

47 But with Alexander they were well pleased, because he was the first that entreated of true peace with them, and they were confederate with him always.

48 Then gathered king Alexander great forces, and camped over against Demetrius.

49 And after the two kings had joined battle, Demetrius' host fled: but Alexander followed after him, and <sup>c</sup> prevailed against them.

50 And he continued the battle very sore until the sun went down: and that day was Demetrius slain.

51 Afterward Alexander sent <sup>d</sup> ambassadors to Ptolemee king of Egypt with a message to this effect:

52 Forasmuch as I am come again to my realm, and am set in the throne of my progenitors, and have gotten the dominion, and overthrown Demetrius, and recovered our country;

53 For after I had joined battle with him, both he and his host was discomfited by us, so that we sit in the throne of his kingdom:

54 Now therefore let us make a league <sup>e</sup> of amity together, and give me now thy daughter to wife: and I will be thy son-in-law, and will give both thee and her gifts according to thy dignity.

55 Then Ptolemee the king gave answer, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou didst return into the land of thy fathers, and satest <sup>f</sup> in the throne of their kingdom.

56 And now will I do to thee, as thou hast written: meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; for I will marry my daughter to thee <sup>g</sup> according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolemee went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and they came unto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and second year:

58 Where king Alexander meeting him, gave unto him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great glory, <sup>h</sup> as the manner of kings is.

59 Now king Alexander had written unto Jonathan, that he should come and meet him.

60 Who thereupon went honourably to Ptolemais, where he met the two kings, and gave them and their friends silver and gold, and many presents, and <sup>i</sup> found favour in their sight.

61 At that time certain pestilent fellows of Israel, <sup>k</sup> men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him, to accuse him: but the king would not hear them.

62 Yea more than that, the king commanded to take off his garments, and clothe him in <sup>l</sup> purple: and they did so.

63 Also he made him sit by himself, and said unto his princes, Go with him into the midst of the city and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

64 Now when his <sup>m</sup> accusers saw that he was honoured according to the proclamation, and clothed in purple, they fled all away.

65 So the king honoured him, and wrote him among his chief friends, and made him a duke, and partaker of his dominion.

66 Afterward Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

67 Furthermore in the hundred threescore and fifth year came Demetrius son of Demetrius out of <sup>n</sup> Crete into the land of his fathers :

68 Whereof when king Alexander heard tell, he was right sorry, and returned into Antioch.

69 Then Demetrius made Apollonius the governor of Celosyria his general, who gathered together a great host, and camped in Jamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the high priest, saying, 70 Thou alone liftest up thyself against us, and <sup>o</sup> I am laughed to scorn for thy sake, and reproached : and why dost thou vaunt thy power against us in the mountains ?

71 Now therefore, if thou trustest in thine own strength, come down to us into the plain field, and there let us try the matter together : for with me is the power of the cities.

72 Ask and learn who I am, and the rest that take our part, and they shall tell thee that thy foot is not able to stand before our face ; for thy fathers have been twice put to flight in their own land.

73 Wherefore now thou shalt not be able to abide <sup>p</sup> the horsemen and so great a power in the plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee unto.

74 So when Jonathan heard these words of Apollonius, <sup>q</sup> he was moved in his mind, and choosing ten thousand men, he went out of Jerusalem, where Simon his brother met him for to help him.

75 And he pitched his tents against Joppe : but they of Joppe shut him out of the city, because Apollonius had a garrison there.

76 Then Jonathan laid siege unto it : whereupon they of the city let him in for fear : and so Jonathan won Joppe.

77 Whereof when Apollonius heard, he took three thousand horsemen, with a great host of footmen, and went to <sup>r</sup> Azotus || as one that journeyed, and therewithal || drew him forth into the plain, because he had a great number of horsemen, in whom he put his trust.

78 Then Jonathan followed after him to Azotus, where the armies joined battle.

79 Now <sup>s</sup> Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush.

80 And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behind him ; for they had compassed in his host, and cast darts at the people, from morning till evening.

81 But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them : and so the || enemies' horses were tired.

82 Then brought Simon forth his host, and set them against the footmen (for the horsemen were spent,) who were discomfited by him, and fled.

83 The horsemen also, being scattered in the field, fled to <sup>t</sup> Azotus, and went into Beth-dagon, their idol's temple, for safety.

84 But Jonathan set fire on Azotus, and the cities round about it, and took their spoils ; and the <sup>u</sup> temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burned with fire.

85 Thus there were burned and slain with the sword well nigh eight thousand men.

86 And from thence Jonathan removed his host, and camped against <sup>x</sup> Ascalon, where the men of the city came forth, and met him with great pomp.

87 After this returned Jonathan and his host unto Jerusalem, having many spoils.

88 Now when king Alexander heard these things, he honoured Jonathan <sup>y</sup> yet more, 89 And sent him a buckle of gold, as the use is to be given to such as are of the king's blood : he gave him also Accaron with the borders thereof in possession.

CHAPTER XI.

12 Ptolemee taketh away his daughter from Alexander, and entereth upon his kingdom. 17 Alexander is slain, and Ptolemee dieth within three days. 20 Jonathan besiegeth the tower of Jerusalem. 26 The Jews and he are much honoured by Demetrius, 48 who is rescued by the Jews from his own subjects in Antioch. 57 Antiochus the younger honoureth Jonathan : 61 His exploits in divers places.

AND the king of Egypt gathered together a great host, like <sup>a</sup> the sand that lieth upon the sea-shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexander's kingdom, and join it to his own.

2 Whereupon he took his journey into Syria in peaceable manner, so as they of the cities opened unto him, and met him : for king Alexander had commanded them so to do, <sup>b</sup> because he was his father-in-law.

3 Now as Ptolemee entered into the cities, he set in every one of them a garrison of soldiers to keep it.

4 And when he came near to Azotus, they shewed him the <sup>c</sup> temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were cast abroad, and them that he had burnt in the battle ; for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should pass.

5 Also they told the king whatsoever Jonathan had done, to the intent he might blame him : but the king held his peace.

6 Then Jonathan met the king <sup>d</sup> with great pomp at Joppe, where they saluted one another, and <sup>e</sup> lodged.

7 Afterward Jonathan, when he had gone with the king to the river called Eleutherus, returned again to Jerusalem.

8 King Ptolemee therefore, having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea unto Seleucia upon the sea-coast, imagined <sup>e</sup> wicked counsels against Alexander.

9 Whereupon he sent ambassadors unto king Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betwixt us, and I will give thee <sup>f</sup> my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in thy father's kingdom :

10 For I repent that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me.

11 Thus did he <sup>g</sup> slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdom.

12 Wherefore he took his daughter from him, and gave her to Demetrius, and forsook Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

13 Then Ptolemee entered into Antioch, where he set two <sup>h</sup> crowns upon his head, the crown of Asia, and of Egypt.

14 In the mean season was king Alexander in Cilicia, because those that dwelt in those parts had revolted from him.

15 But when Alexander heard of this, he came to war against him : whereupon king Ptolemee brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight.

16 So Alexander fled into <sup>i</sup> Arabia, there to be defended; but king Ptolemee was exalted:

17 For Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it unto Ptolemee.

18 King Ptolemee also died the third day after, and they that were in the strong holds were slain one of another.

19 By this means Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seventh year.

20 At the same time Jonathan gathered together them that were in Judea, to take the <sup>k</sup> tower that was in Jerusalem: and he made many engines of war against it.

21 Then certain ungodly persons, who hated their own people, went unto the king, and told him that Jonathan besieged the tower.

22 Whereof when he heard, he was angry, and immediately removing, he came to <sup>l</sup> Ptolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not lay siege to the tower, but come and speak with him at Ptolemais in great haste.

23 Nevertheless Jonathan, when he heard this, commanded to besiege it still: and he chose certain of the elders of Israel, and the priests, and put himself in peril;

24 And took silver and gold, and raiment, and divers presents besides, and went to Ptolemais unto the king, <sup>m</sup> where he found favour in his sight.

25 And though certain <sup>n</sup> ungodly men of the people had made complaints against him,

26 Yet the king entreated him as his predecessors had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends, 27 And confirmed him in <sup>o</sup> the high priesthood, and in all the honours that he had before, and gave him pre-eminence among his chief friends.

28 Then Jonathan desired the king, that he would make <sup>p</sup> Judea free from tribute, as also the <sup>q</sup> three governments, with the country of Samaria; and he promised him three hundred talents.

29 So the king consented, and wrote letters unto Jonathan of all these things after this manner:

30 King Demetrius unto his brother Jonathan, and unto the nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting:

31 We send you here a copy of the letter which we did write unto our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that ye might see it.

32 King Demetrius unto his father Lasthenes sendeth greeting:

33 We are determined to do good to the people of the Jews, who are our friends, and keep covenants with us, because of their good will towards us.

34 || Wherefore we have ratified unto them the borders of Judea, with the three governments of Apherema and Lydda and Ramathem, that are added unto Judea from the country of Samaria, <sup>r</sup> and all things appertaining unto them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the payments which the king received of them yearly aforetime out of the fruits of the earth and of trees.

35 And as for other things that belong unto us, of the tithes and customs pertaining unto us, as also the salt-pits, and the crown taxes, which are due unto us, we discharge them of them all for their relief.

36 And nothing hereof shall be revoked from this time forth for ever.

37 Now therefore see that thou make a copy of these things, and let it be delivered unto Jonathan, and set upon <sup>s</sup> the holy mount in a conspicuous place.

38 After this, when king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces, every one to his own place, except certain bands of strangers, whom he had gathered from the <sup>t</sup> isles of the heathen: <sup>t</sup> Gen. 10, 5 wherefore all the forces of his fathers hated him.

39 Moreover, there was one Tryphon, that had been of Alexander's part afore, who, seeing that all the host murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcuc the Arabian, that brought up Antiochus the young son of Alexander, 40 And lay sore upon him to deliver him this young Antiochus, that he might reign in his father's stead: he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done, and <sup>u</sup> how his men of war were at enmity with him; and there he remained a long season.

41 In the mean time Jonathan sent unto king Demetrius, that he would cast those of <sup>x</sup> the tower out of Jerusalem, and those also in the fortresses: for they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent unto Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for thee and thy people, but I will <sup>y</sup> greatly honour thee and thy nation, if opportunity serve.

43 Now therefore thou shalt do well, if thou send me men to help me; for all my forces are gone from me.

44 Upon this Jonathan sent him three thousand strong men unto Antioch: and when they came to the king, the king was very glad of their coming.

45 Howbeit, they that were of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, to the number of an hundred and twenty thousand men, <sup>z</sup> and would have slain the king.

46 Wherefore the king fled into the court, but they of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight.

47 Then the king called to the Jews for help, who came unto him all at once, and, dispersing themselves through the city, slew that day in the city to the number of an hundred thousand.

48 Also they set fire on the city, and gat many spoils that day, <sup>a</sup> and delivered the king.

49 So when they of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would, their courage was abated: wherefore they made supplication to the king, and cried, saying,

50 || Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us and the city.

51 With that they cast away their weapons, and made peace; and the Jews were honoured in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realm; and they returned to Jerusalem, <sup>b</sup> having great spoils.

52 So king Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom, and the land was quiet before him.

53 Nevertheless, he dissembled in all that ever he spake, and estranged himself from Jonathan, neither rewarded he him according to the benefits which he had received of him, but troubled him very sore.

54 After this returned <sup>c</sup> Tryphon, and with him the <sup>d</sup> young child Antiochus, who reigned, and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered unto him all the men of war, whom Demetrius had put away, and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his back and fled.

68 And behold, the host of strangers met them in the plain, who having laid <sup>h</sup> men in ambush for him in the mountains, came themselves over against him.

69 So when they that lay in ambush rose out of their places, and joined battle, all that were of Jonathan's side fled;

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jonathan reneweth his league with the Romans and Lacedemonians. 28 The forces of Demetrius, thinking to surprise Jonathan, flee away for fear. 35 Jonathan fortieth the castles in Judea, 46 and is shut up by the fraud of Tryphon in Ptolemais.

2 He sent letters also to the Lacedemonians, and to other places, for the same purpose.

3 So they went unto Rome, and entered into <sup>b</sup> the senate; and said, Jonathan the high priest, and the people of the Jews, sent us unto you, to the end ye should renew the friendship <sup>c</sup> which ye had with them, and league, as in former time.

4 Upon this the Romans gave them letters unto the governors of every place, that they should bring them into the land of Judea peaceably.

cattle and goods are ours, and ours are yours. We do command therefore our ambassadors to make report unto you on this wise.

24 Now when Jonathan heard that Demetrius' princes were come to fight against him with a greater host than afore, 25 He removed from Jerusalem, and met them in the land of Amathis: for he gave them no respite || to enter his country.

26 He sent spies also unto their tents, who came again, and told him that they were appointed to come upon them in the night season.

27 Wherefore so soon as the sun was down, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, <sup>n</sup> and to be in arms, that all the night long they might be ready to fight: also he sent forth centinels round about the host.

28 But when the adversaries heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and || they kindled fires in their camp.

29 Howbeit Jonathan and his company knew it not till the morning: for they saw the lights burning.

30 Then Jonathan pursued after them, but overtook them not: for they were gone over <sup>o</sup> the river Eleutherus.

31 Wherefore Jonathan turned to the Arabians, who were called † Zabadeans, and smote them, and took their spoils.

32 And removing thence, he came to Damascus, and so passed through all the country.

33 Simon also went forth, and passed through the country unto Ascalon, and the holds there adjoining, from whence he turned aside to Joppe, and won it.

34 For he had heard that they would deliver the hold unto them that took Demetrius' part; wherefore he set a garrison there to keep it.

35 After this came Jonathan home again, and calling <sup>p</sup> the elders of the people together, he consulted with them about building strong holds in Judea, 36 And making the walls of Jerusalem higher, and raising a great mount between <sup>q</sup> the tower and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be alone, that men might neither sell nor buy in it.

37 Upon this they came together to build up the city, || forasmuch as part of the wall towards the brook on the east side was fallen down; and they repaired that which was called Caphenatha.

38 Simon also set up Adida in Sephela, and made it strong with gates and bars.

39 Now <sup>r</sup> Tryphon went about to get <sup>s</sup> the kingdom of Asia, and to kill Antiochus the king, that he might set the crown upon his own head.

40 Howbeit, he was afraid that Jonathan would not suffer him, and that he would fight against him; wherefore he sought a way how to take Jonathan, that he might kill him. So he removed, and came to Bethsan.

41 Then Jonathan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for the battle, and came to Bethsan.

42 Now when Tryphon saw that Jonathan came with so great a force, he durst not stretch his hand against him;

43 But received him honourably, <sup>t</sup> and commended him unto all his friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his men of war to be as obedient unto him as to himself.

44 Unto Jonathan also he said, Why hast thou put all this people to so great trouble, seeing there is no war betwixt us?

45 Therefore send them now home again, and choose a few men to wait on thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais, for I will give it thee, and the rest of the strong holds and forces, and all that have any charge: as for me, I will return and depart: for this is the cause of my coming.

46 So Jonathan, <sup>u</sup> believing him, did as he bade him, and sent away his host, who went in the land of Judea. <sup>u Prov. 14, 15. chap. 7, 10.</sup>

47 And with himself he retained but three thousand men, of whom he † sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him. <sup>† Gr. left two thousand in Galilee.</sup>

48 Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and took him, and all them that came with him they slew with the sword.

49 Then sent Tryphon an host of footmen and horsemen into <sup>x</sup> Galilee, and into the great plain, to destroy all Jonathan's company. <sup>x verse 47</sup>

50 But when they knew that Jonathan and they that were with him were taken and slain, they encouraged one another, and went close together, prepared to fight.

51 They therefore that followed upon them, perceiving that they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back again.

52 Whereupon they all came into the land of Judea peaceably, and there they <sup>y</sup> bewailed Jonathan, and them that were with him, and they were sore afraid; wherefore all Israel made great lamentation. <sup>y 2 Sam. 1 12.</sup>

53 Then <sup>z</sup> all the heathen that were round about them sought to destroy them: for, said they, They have no captain, nor any to help them: now therefore let us make war upon them, and take away their memorial from among men. <sup>z Ps. 83, 4.</sup>

CHAPTER XIII.

8 Simon is made captain in his brother Jonathan's room. 19 Tryphon getteth two of Jonathan's sons into his hands, and slayeth their father. 27 The tomb of Jonathan. 36 Simon is favoured by Demetrius, 40 and winneth Gaza, and the tower of Jerusalem.

NOW when Simon heard that <sup>a</sup> Tryphon had gathered together a great host to invade the land of Judea, and destroy it, <sup>a ch. 12, 49.</sup>

2 And saw that the people <sup>b</sup> was in great trembling and fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together, <sup>b ch. 12, 52.</sup>

3 And gave them exhortation, saying, Ye yourselves know what great things I, <sup>c</sup> and my brethren, and my father's house, have done for the laws and the sanctuary, the battles also and troubles which we have seen. <sup>c ch. 2, 1</sup>

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slain for Israel's sake, and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore be it far from me, that <sup>d</sup> I should spare mine own life in any time of trouble: for I am no better than my brethren. <sup>d Luke 14, 26.</sup>

6 Doubtless I will avenge my nation, and the sanctuary, and our wives, and our children: for all the heathen are gathered to destroy us of very malice.

7 Now as soon as the people heard these words, their spirit revived.

9 Fight thou our battles, and whatsoever thou commandest us, that will we do.

10 So then he gathered together all the men of war, and made haste <sup>e</sup> to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about.

11 Also he sent Jonathan the son of Absalom, and with him a great power, to Joppe: who casting out them that were therein, remained there in it.

12 So Tryphon removed from Ptolemais with a great power to invade the land of Judea, and Jonathan was with him in ward.

13 But Simon pitched his tents at <sup>f</sup> Adida, over against the plain.

14 Now when Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up instead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to join battle with him, he sent messengers unto him, saying,

15 Whereas we have Jonathan thy brother in hold, it is for money that he is owing unto the king's treasure, || concerning the business that was committed unto him.

|| Or, for the affairs, or, offices that he had, or, the necessary uses which he had.

16 Wherefore now send an hundred talents of silver, and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will let him go.

g ch. 7, 10.
& 12, 43,
44, 45.

17 Hereupon Simon, albeit he perceived that they spake <sup>g</sup> deceitfully unto him, yet sent he the money and the children, lest peradventure he should procure to himself great hatred of the people:

18 Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathan dead.

19 So he sent them the children and the hundred talents: howbeit Tryphon dissembled, neither would he let Jonathan go.

20 And after this came Tryphon to invade the land, and destroy it, going round about by the way that leadeth unto Adora: but Simon and his host marched against him in every place, wheresoever he went.

21 Now they that were in the <sup>h</sup> tower sent messengers unto Tryphon, to the end that he should hasten his coming unto them by the wilderness, and send them victuals.

22 Wherefore Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night: but there fell a very great snow, by reason whereof he came not. So he departed, and came into the country of <sup>i</sup> Galaad.

h ch. 12, 36.

23 And when he came near to Bascama, he slew Jonathan, who was buried there.

24 Afterward Tryphon returned and went into his own land.

25 Then sent Simon, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried them in <sup>k</sup> Modin, the city of his fathers.

26 And <sup>l</sup> all Israel made great lamentation for him, and bewailed him many days.

27 Simon also built a monument upon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, and raised it aloft to the sight, with hewn stone, behind and before.

28 Moreover, he set up seven pyramids, one against another, for his father, and his mother, and his four brethren.

29 And in these he made cunning devices, about the which he set great pillars, and upon the pillars he made all their armour for a <sup>m</sup> perpetual memory, and by the armour ships carved, that they might be seen <sup>n</sup> all that sail on the sea.

m 2 Sam. 18, 18.

30 This is the sepulchre which he made at Modin, and it standeth yet unto this day.

31 Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young king Antiochus, <sup>n</sup> and slew him.

32 And he reigned in his stead, and crowned himself king of Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land.

33 Then Simon <sup>o</sup> built up the strong holds in Judea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars, and laid up victuals † therein.

o ch. 12, 35.

34 Moreover, Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the land an immunity, because † all that Tryphon did was to spoil.

35 Unto whom king Demetrius answered and wrote after this manner:

38 And whatsoever covenants we have made with you shall stand; and the strong holds, which ye have builded, shall be your own.

q chap. 11 28, 35.

40 And look who are meet among you to be in our court, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace betwixt us.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken away from Israel in the hundred and seventieth year.

42 Then the people of Israel began to write in their instruments and contracts, In the first year of Simon the high priest, <sup>r</sup> the governor and leader of the Jews.

r verse 8.

43 In those days Simon camped against <sup>s</sup> Gaza, and besieged it round about; he made also an engine of war, and set it by the city, and battered a certain tower, and took it.

s 1 Sam. 6 17.

44 And they that were in the engine leaped into the city; whereupon there was a great uproar in the city.

45 Insomuch as the people of the city rent their clothes, and climbed upon the walls with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon † to grant them peace.

† Gr. to give them his right hand, see ch. 11 49, 50.

46 And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickedness, but according to thy mercy.

47 So Simon was appeased towards them, and fought no more against them, but put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were, and so entered into it with songs and with thanksgiving.

48 Yea, he put all uncleanness out of it, and placed such men there as would keep the law, and made it stronger than it was before, and built therein a dwelling-place for himself.

49 They also of the tower in Jerusalem were kept so strait, that they could neither come forth, nor go into the country, <sup>t</sup> nor buy, nor sell: wherefore they were in great distress for want of victuals, and a great number of them perished through famine.

23 And it pleased the people to entertain the men honourably, and to put the copy of their ambassage in public records, to the end the people of the Lacedemonians might have a memorial thereof : furthermore, we have written a copy thereof unto Simon the high priest.

35 The people therefore, seeing the acts of Simon, and unto what glory he thought to bring his nation, <sup>a</sup> made him their governor and chief priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people.

36 For in his time <sup>r</sup> things prospered in his hands, so that the heathen were taken out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David in Jerusalem, who had made themselves a tower, out of which they issued, and polluted all about the sanctuary, and did much hurt || in the holy place:

37 But he placed Jews therein, and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city, and raised up the walls of Jerusalem.

38 King Demetrius <sup>s</sup> also confirmed him in the high priesthood according to those things, 39 And made him one of his friends, and honoured him with great honour.

40 For he had heard say, that the Romans had called the Jews their friends and confederates and brethren; and that they had <sup>t</sup> entertained the ambassadors of Simon honourably;

41 Also that the Jews and priests were well pleased that Simon should be <sup>a</sup> their governor and high priest for ever, until there should arise a faithful prophet;

42 Moreover, that he should be their captain, and should take charge of the sanctuary, to set them over their works, and over the country, and over the armour, and over the fortresses, that, I say, he should take charge of the sanctuary;

43 Besides this, that he should be obeyed of every man, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name, and that he should be clothed <sup>x</sup> in purple, and wear gold:

44 Also that it should be lawful for none of the people or priests to break any of these things, or to gainsay his words, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a <sup>y</sup> buckle of gold:

45 And whosoever should do otherwise, or break any of these things, he should be punished.

46 Thus it liked all the people to deal with Simon, and do as hath been said.

47 Then Simon accepted hereof, and was well pleased to be high priest, and captain and governor of the Jews and priests, and to defend them all.

48 So they commanded that this writing should be put in <sup>z</sup> tables of brass, and that they <sup>a</sup> should be set up within the compass of the sanctuary in a conspicuous place;

49 Also that the copies thereof should be laid up in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

MOREOVER Antiochus, son of Demetrius the king, sent letters from <sup>a</sup> the isles of the sea unto Simon the priest and prince of the Jews, and to all the people;

3 Forasmuch as certain pestilent men have <sup>b</sup> usurped the kingdom of our fathers, and my purpose is to challenge it again, that I may restore it to the old estate, and to that end have gathered a multitude of foreign soldiers together, and prepared ships of war;

5 Now therefore <sup>c</sup> I confirm unto thee all the obligations which the kings before me granted <sup>e</sup> thee, and whatsoever gifts besides they granted. ch. 10, 20 & 11, 57

7 And as concerning Jerusalem and the sanctuary, <sup>d</sup> let them be free; and all the armour that thou hast made, and fortresses that thou hast built, and keepest in thine hands, let them remain unto thee. chap. 11 2d. 35.

8 And if any thing be, or shall be, owing to the king, let it be forgiven thee from this time forth for evermore.

9 Furthermore, when we have obtained our kingdom, we will honour thee, <sup>e</sup> and thy nation, and thy temple, with great honour, so that your honour shall be known throughout the world. See chap. 13, 36. 40.

10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth year went Antiochus into the land of his fathers: at which time all the forces came together unto him, so that few were left with Tryphon. cir. 139.

11 Wherefore, being pursued by king Antiochus, he fled unto Dora, which lieth by the sea-side:

12 For he saw that troubles came upon him all at once, and <sup>f</sup> that his forces had forsaken him. ch. 11, 43.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora, having with him an hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horsemen.

14 And when he had compassed the city round about, and joined <sup>g</sup> ships close to the town on the sea-side, he vexed the city by land and by sea, neither suffered he any to go out or in. verse 3.

15 In the mean season came <sup>h</sup> Numenius and his company from Rome, having letters to the kings and countries; wherein were written these things: ch. 14, 24

16 Lucius, consul of the Romans, unto king Ptolemee, greeting:

17 <sup>i</sup> The Jews' ambassadors, our friends and confederates, came unto us to renew the old friendship and league, being sent from Simon the high priest, and from the people of the Jews: ch. 14, 22, 24.

18 And they brought <sup>k</sup> a shield of gold of a thousand pound. ch. 14, 24

19 We thought it good therefore to write unto the kings and countries, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries, nor yet aid their enemies against them.

20 It seemed also good to us to receive the shield of them.

21 If therefore there be any <sup>l</sup> pestilent fellows, that have fled from their country unto you, deliver them unto Simon the high priest, that he may punish them according to their own law. verse 3.

24 And <sup>m</sup> the copy hereof they wrote to Simon the high priest.

25 So Antiochus the king camped against Dora the second day, † assaulting it continually, and making engines, by which means he shut up Tryphon, that he could neither go out nor in.

26 At that time Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to aid him; silver also, and gold, and much armour.

27 Nevertheless he would not receive them, <sup>n</sup> but brake all the covenants which he had made with him afore, and became strange unto him.

28 Furthermore he sent unto him Athenobius, one of his friends, to commune with him, and say, Ye <sup>o</sup> withhold Joppe and Gazara, with the tower that is in Jerusalem, which are cities of my realm.

29 The borders thereof ye have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places within my kingdom.

30 Now therefore deliver the cities which ye have taken, and the tributes of the palaces whereof ye have gotten dominion || without the borders of Judea :

31 Or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that ye have done, and the tributes of the cities, other five hundred talents : if not, we will come and || fight against you.

32 So Athenobius the <sup>p</sup> king's friend came to Jerusalem; and <sup>q</sup> when he saw the glory of Simon, and the cupboard of gold and silver plate, and his great attendance, he was astonished, and told him the king's message.

33 Then answered Simon, and said unto him, <sup>r</sup> We have neither taken other men's land, nor holden that which appertaineth to others, but the inheritance of our fathers, which our enemies had wrongfully in possession a certain time.

34 Wherefore we, having opportunity, hold the inheritance of our fathers.

35 And whereas thou demandest Joppe and Gazara, albeit they did great harm unto the people in our country, yet will we give an hundred talents for them. Hereunto Athenobius answered him not a word;

36 But returned in a rage to the king, and made report unto him of <sup>s</sup> these speeches, and of the glory of Simon, and of all that he had seen : whereupon the king was exceeding wroth.

37 In the mean time fled Tryphon by ship unto Orthosias.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus captain of the sea-coast, and gave him an host of footmen and horsemen, 39 And <sup>t</sup> commanded him to remove his host towards Judea : also he commanded him to build up Cedron, and to fortify the gates, and to war against the people; but as for the king himself, he pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came to Jamnia, <sup>u</sup> and began to provoke the people, and to invade Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and slay them.

41 And when he had built up Cedron, he set horsemen there, and an host of footmen, to the end that issuing out they might make outroads upon the ways of Judea, as the king had commanded him.

CHAPTER XVI.

3 Judas and John prevail against the forces sent by Antiochus. 11 The captain of Jericho inviteth Simon and two of his sons into his castle, and there treacherously murdereth them. 19 John is sought for, 22 and escapeth, and killeth those that sought for him.

THEN came up John from Gazara, and told Simon his father <sup>a</sup> what Cendebeus had done.

2 Wherefore Simon called his two eldest sons, Judas and John, and said unto them, <sup>b</sup> I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have ever from our youth unto this day fought against the enemies of Israel; and things have prospered so well in our hands, that we have delivered Israel oftentimes.

3 But now I am old, and ye, by God's mercy, are of a sufficient age : be ye instead of me and my brother, and go and fight for our nation, and the help from heaven be with you.

4 So he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war with horsemen, who went out against Cendebeus, and rested that night at <sup>c</sup> Modin.

5 And when as they rose in the morning, and went into the plain, behold, a mighty great host both of footmen and horsemen came against them : howbeit there was a water-brook betwixt them.

6 So he and his people pitched over against them : and when he saw that the people were afraid to go over the water-brook, he went first over himself, and then the men seeing him, passed through after him.

7 That done, he divided his men, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen : for the enemies' horsemen were very many.

8 Then sounded they with <sup>d</sup> the holy trumpets : whereupon Cendebeus and his host were put to flight, so that many of them were slain, and the remnant gat them to the strong hold.

9 At that time was Judas, John's brother, wounded; but John still followed after them, until he came to <sup>e</sup> Cedron, which Cendebeus had built.

10 || So they fled even unto the towers in the fields of Azotus; wherefore he burned it with fire : so that there were slain of them about two thousand men. Afterward he returned into the land of Judea in peace.

11 Moreover, in the plain of Jericho was Ptolemeus the son of Abubus made captain, and he had abundance of silver and gold :

12 For he was the high priest's son-in-law.

13 Wherefore his heart being lifted up, he thought to get the country to himself, and thereupon consulted <sup>f</sup> deceitfully against Simon and his sons to destroy them.

14 Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the country, and taking care for the good ordering of them; at which time he came down himself to Jericho with his sons, Mattathias and Judas, in the hundred threescore and seventeenth year, in the eleventh month, called Sabat :

15 Where the son of Abubus receiving them deceitfully into a little hold called Docus, which he had built, made them a great banquet : howbeit he had hid men there.

16 So when Simon and his sons had drunk largely, Ptolemee and his men rose up, and took their weapons, and came upon Simon into the banqueting-place, and <sup>g</sup> slew him, and his two sons, and certain of his servants.

17 In which doing he committed a great treachery, and recompensed evil for good.

18 Then Ptolemee wrote these things, and sent to

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE MACCABEES.

CHAPTER I.

1 A letter of the Jews from Jerusalem to them of Egypt, to thank God for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hidden in the pit. 24 The prayer of Neemias.

cir. 144.
a Rom. 9, 3.

THE brethren, the Jews that be at Jerusalem and in the land of Judea, wish unto <sup>a</sup> the brethren, the Jews that are throughout Egypt, health and peace:

b Ps. 105,
9, 10.

2 God be gracious unto you, and remember his <sup>b</sup> covenant that he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, his faithful servants;

3 And give you all an heart to serve him, and to do his will, with a good courage and a willing mind;

c John 14,
27.

4 And open your hearts in his law and commandments, and send you <sup>c</sup> peace,

5 And hear your prayers, and be at one with you, and never forsake you in time of trouble.

6 And now we be here praying for you.

d Dan. 12,
e ch. 4, 7.

7 What time as Demetrius reigned, in the hundred threescore and ninth year, we the Jews wrote unto you in the extremity <sup>d</sup> of trouble that came upon us in those years, <sup>e</sup> from the time that Jason and his company revolted from the holy land and kingdom,

8 And burned the porch, and shed innocent blood: then we prayed unto the Lord, and were heard; we offered also sacrifices and fine flour, and lighted the lamps, and set forth the loaves.

f Lev. 23,
34.

9 And now see that ye keep the <sup>f</sup> feast of tabernacles in the month Casleu.

10 In the hundred fourscore and eighth year, the people that were at Jerusalem and in Judea, and the council, and Judas, sent greeting and health unto Aristobulus, king Ptolemeus' master, who was of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Jews that were in Egypt:

g 2 Cor. 11,
26.

11 Inasmuch as God hath delivered us from <sup>g</sup> great perils, we thank him highly, as having been in battle against a king.

12 For he cast them out that fought within the holy city.

13 For when the leader was come into Persia, and the army with him that seemed invincible, they were slain in the temple of Nanea by the deceit of Nanea's priests.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would marry her, came into the place, and his friends that were with him, to receive money in name of a dowry.

h See 1
Mac. 12, 48.

15 Which when the priests of Nanea had set forth, <sup>h</sup> and he was entered with a small company into the compass of the temple, they shut the temple as soon as Antiochus was come in:

16 And opening a privy door of the roof, they threw stones like thunderbolts, and struck down the captain, hewed them in pieces, smote off their heads, and cast them to those that were without.

17 Blessed be our God in all things, <sup>i</sup> who hath <sup>i</sup> 2 Pet. 2, 9. delivered up the ungodly.

18 Therefore whereas we are now purposed to keep the purification of the temple upon the five and twentieth day of the month <sup>k</sup> Casleu, we thought it necessary to certify you thereof, that ye also might keep it, as the feast of the tabernacles, and of the fire, which was given us when Neemias offered sacrifice, after that he had builded the temple and the altar.

k See Lev.
23, 34.
Num. 29, 1
1 Mac. 4,
59.
chap. 2, 16.

19 For when our fathers were led into Persia, the priests that were then devout took the fire of the altar privily, and hid it in a hollow place of a pit without water, where they kept it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men.

20 Now after many years, when it pleased God, Neemias, <sup>i</sup> being sent from the king of Persia, did <sup>i</sup> 1 Neh. 2, 6 send of the posterity of those priests, that had hid it, to the fire: but when they told us they found no fire, but thick water;

21 Then commanded he them to draw it up, and to bring it; and when the sacrifices were laid on, Neemias commanded the priests to <sup>m</sup> sprinkle the wood and the things laid thereupon with the water:

m See
1 Kings 18,
33, 34, 35.

22 When this was done, and the time came that the sun shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a <sup>n</sup> great fire kindled, so that every man marvelled.

n See
1 Kings 18,
38.

23 And the priests made a prayer whilst the sacrifice was consuming, I say, both the priests, and all the rest, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering thereunto, as Neemias did.

24 And the prayer was after this manner; O Lord, Lord God, <sup>o</sup> Creator of all things, who art fearful and strong, and righteous, and merciful, and the only and gracious King, o Isai. 40,

23.

25 The only giver of all things, the only just, almighty, and everlasting, thou that deliverest Israel from all trouble, and didst choose the fathers, and sanctify them:

26 Receive the sacrifice for thy whole people Israel, and preserve thine own portion, and sanctify it.

27 Gather those together that are scattered from us, deliver them that serve among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred, <sup>p</sup> and let the heathen know that thou art our God.

p Ps. 96, 2.
& 99, 2.

28 Punish them that oppress us, and with pride do us wrong.

29 Plant thy people again in thy holy place, as Moses hath spoken.

Before CHRIST
cir 144.

30 And the priests sung psalms of thanksgiving.

31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Neemias commanded the water that was left to be poured on the great stones.

32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame : but it was consumed by the light that shined from the altar

q verse 19 33 So when this matter was known, it was told the king of Persia, that in the place, where the <sup>a</sup> priests that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared water, and that || Neemias had purified the sacrifices therewith.

|| Or, Neemias his company.

r ch. 2, 18

34 Then the king, enclosing the place, made it <sup>r</sup> holy, after he had tried the matter.

35 And the king took many gifts, and bestowed thereof on those whom he would gratify.

36 And Neemias called this thing Naphthar, which is as much as to say, A cleansing : but many men call it Nephi.

CHAPTER II.

1 What Jeremy the prophet did : 5 How he hid the tabernacle, the ark, and the altar. 13 What Neemias and Judas wrote. 20 What Jason wrote in five books. 25 And how those were abridged by the author of this book.

a Jer. 1, 1.

IT is also found in the records, that <sup>a</sup> Jeremy the prophet commanded them that were carried away to take of the fire, as it hath been signified :

2 And how that the prophet, having given them the law, charged them not to forget the commandments of the Lord, and that they should not err in their minds, when they see images of silver and gold, with their ornaments.

b Acts 11, 23.

3 And with other such speeches <sup>b</sup> exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their hearts.

4 It was also contained in the same writing, that the prophet, being warned of God, commanded the tabernacle and the ark to go with him, as he went forth into the <sup>c</sup> mountain, where Moses climbed up, and saw the heritage of God.

c Ex. 3, 1. 12.

5 And when Jeremy came thither, he found an hollow cave, wherein he laid the tabernacle, and the ark, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the door.

6 And some of those that followed him came to mark the way, but they could not find it.

7 Which when Jeremy perceived, he blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shall be unknown until the time that God gather his people again together, and receive them unto mercy.

d 1 Kings 8, 11.

8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, and <sup>d</sup> the glory of the Lord shall appear, and the cloud also, as it was shewed unto Moses, and as when Solomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified.

9 It was also declared, that he being wise offered the sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the temple.

e Lev. 9, 24.

10 And as when Moses prayed unto the Lord, <sup>e</sup> the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the sacrifices : even so prayed Solomon also, and <sup>f</sup> the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offerings.

f2 Chr. 7, 1.

11 And Moses said, Because the sin-offering was not to be eaten, it was consumed.

12 So Solomon kept those eight days.

13 The same things also were reported in the writings and commentaries of Neemias ; and how he, founding a library, gathered together the acts of the kings, and the prophets, and of David, and the epistles of the kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 In like manner also <sup>g</sup> Judas gathered together all those things that were lost by reason of the war we had, and they remain with us.

15 Wherefore if ye have need thereof, send some to fetch them unto you.

16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate <sup>h</sup> the purification, we have written unto you, and ye shall do well, if ye keep the same days.

h ch. 1, 18.

17 † We hope also, that the God, that delivered all his people, and gave them all an heritage, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary,

† Gr. Now God it is that saved all his people, and rendered the heritage, 18 As he promised in the law, will shortly have mercy upon us, and gather us together out of every land under heaven into the holy place : for he hath delivered us out of great troubles, and hath purified the place.

and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary, as he promised in the law.

19 Now as concerning Judas Maccabeus, and his brethren, and the purification of the great temple, and the dedication of the altar, for we hope in God that he will shortly, &c

20 And the wars against <sup>i</sup> Antiochus Epiphanes, and <sup>k</sup> Eupator his son,

21 And the manifest signs that came from heaven unto those that behaved themselves manfully to their honour for Judaism : so that, being but a few, they overcame the whole country, and chased barbarous multitudes, k 1 Mac. 17.

22 And recovered again the temple renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and upheld the laws which were going down, the Lord being gracious unto them with all favour :

23 All these things, I say, being declared by Jason of <sup>l</sup> Cyrene in five books, we will assay to abridge in one volume.

l Acts 2, 10

24 For considering the infinite number, and the difficulty which they find that desire to look into the narrations of the story, for the variety of the matter,

25 We have been careful, that they that will read might have delight, and that they that are desirous to commit to memory might have ease, and that <sup>m</sup> all into whose hands it comes might have profit.

m 2 Cor 12, 19.

26 Therefore to us, that have taken upon us this painful labour of abridging, it was not easy, but a matter of sweat and watching ;

27 Even as it is no ease unto him that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others : yet || for the pleasuring of many we will undertake gladly this great pains ;

|| Or, to deserve well of many.

28 Leaving to the author the exact handling of every particular, and labouring to follow the rules of an abridgment.

29 For as the <sup>n</sup> master-builder of a new house must care for the whole building ; but he that undertaketh to set it out, and paint it, must seek out fit things for the adorning thereof : even so I think it is with us.

n 1 Cor. 3, 10.

30 To stand upon every point, and go over things at large, and to be curious in particulars, belongeth to the first author of the story :

31 But to use brevity, and avoid much labouring of the work, is to be granted to him that will make an abridgment.

32 Here then will we begin <sup>o</sup> the story : only adding thus much to that which hath been said, that it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the story itself.

o verse 24.

CHAPTER III.

1 Of the honour done to the temple by the kings of the Gentiles.
4 Simon uttereth what treasures are in the temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take them away: 24 He is stricken of God, and healed at the prayer of Onias.

NOW when <sup>a</sup> the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws were kept very well, because of the godliness of Onias the high priest, and his hatred of wickedness,

2 It came to pass that even <sup>b</sup> the kings themselves did honour the place, and magnify the temple with their best gifts;

3 Inasmuch that Seleucus <sup>c</sup> king of Asia, of his own revenues, bare all the costs belonging to the service of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon, of the tribe of Benjamin, who was made governor of the temple, fell out with the high priest about disorder in the city.

5 And when he could not overcome Onias, he gat him to Apollonius the son of Thraseas, who then was governor of Celosyria and Phenice,

6 And told him that <sup>d</sup> the treasury in Jerusalem was full of infinite sums of money, so that the multitude of their riches, which did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices, was innumerable, and that it was possible to bring all into the king's hand.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money whereof he was told, the king chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commandment to bring him the aforesaid money.

8 So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey, under a colour of visiting the cities of Celosyria and Phenice, but indeed to fulfil the king's purpose.

9 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received <sup>e</sup> of the high priest of the city, he told him what intelligence was given of the money, and declared wherefore he came, and asked if these things were so indeed.

10 Then the high priest told him that there was such money laid up for the relief of widows and fatherless children:

11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus son of Tobias, a man of great dignity, and not as that <sup>f</sup> wicked Simon had misinformed: the sum whereof in all was four hundred talents of silver, and two hundred of gold:

12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrongs should be done unto them, that had committed it to the <sup>g</sup> holiness of the place, and to the majesty and inviolable sanctity of the temple, honoured over all the world.

13 But Heliodorus, <sup>h</sup> because of the king's commandment given him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the king's treasury.

14 So at the day which he appointed he entered in to order this matter: wherefore there was no small agony throughout the whole city.

15 But the priests, prostrating themselves <sup>i</sup> before the altar in the priests' vestments, called unto heaven upon him that made a law concerning things given to be kept, that they should safely be preserved for such as had committed them to be kept.

16 Then whoso had looked the high priest in the face, it would have wounded his heart: for his countenance and the changing of his colour declared the inward agony of his mind.

17 For the man was so compassed with fear and horror of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked upon him, <sup>k</sup> what sorrow he had now in his heart.

18 Others ran flocking out of their houses || to the general supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt.

19 And the women, <sup>l</sup> girt with sackcloth under their breasts, abounded in the streets; and the virgins that were kept in, ran, some to the gates, and some to the walls, and others looked out of the windows.

20 And all <sup>m</sup> holding their hands towards heaven, made supplication.

21 Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling down of the multitude of all sorts, and the † fear of the high priest, being in such an agony.

22 <sup>n</sup> They then called upon the Almighty Lord to keep the things committed of trust safe and sure for those that had committed them.

23 Nevertheless, Heliodorus executed that which was decreed.

24 Now as he was there present himself with his guard about the treasury, the || Lord of spirits, and the Prince of all power, caused a great apparition, so that all that presumed to come in with him were astonished at the power of God, and fainted, and were sore afraid.

25 For there appeared unto them an horse with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with a very fair covering, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his fore-feet, and it seemed that he that sat upon the horse had complete harness of gold.

26 Moreover, two other young men appeared before him, notable in strength, excellent in beauty, and comely in apparel, who stood by him on either side. and scourged him continually, and gave him many sore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus <sup>o</sup> fell suddenly unto the ground, and was compassed with great darkness: but they that were with him took him up, and put him into a litter.

28 Thus him, that lately came with a great train and with all his guard into the said treasury, they carried out, being unable to help himself with his weapons: <sup>p</sup> and manifestly they acknowledged the power of God:

29 For he by the hand of God was cast down, and lay speechless without all hope of life.

30 But they praised the Lord, that had miraculously honoured his own place: for the temple, which a little afore was <sup>q</sup> full of fear and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with joy and gladness.

31 Then straightways certain of Heliodorus' friends <sup>r</sup> prayed Onias, that he would call upon the Most High, to grant him his life, who lay ready to give up the ghost.

32 So the high priest, suspecting lest the king should misconceive that some treachery had been done to Heliodorus by the Jews, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

33 Now as the high priest was making an atonement, <sup>s</sup> the same young men in the same clothing appeared and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Give Onias the high priest great thanks, inasmuch as for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life:

34 And seeing that thou hast been scourged from heaven, declare unto all men the mighty power of God. And <sup>t</sup> when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more 35 So Heliodorus, after he had offered sacrifice unto the Lord, and made great vows unto him that had saved his life, and saluted Onias, <sup>a</sup> returned with his host to the king.

36 Then testified he to all men the works of the great God, which he had seen with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemy or traitor, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him <sup>x</sup> well scourged, if he escape with his life: for in that place, no doubt, there is an especial power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heaven <sup>y</sup> hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it; and he beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasury, fell out on this sort.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Simon slandereth Onias. 7 Jason, by corrupting the king, obtaineth the office of the high priest. 24 Menelaus getteth the same from Jason by the like corruption. 34 Andronicus traitorously murdereth Onias. 36 The king being informed thereof, causeth Andronicus to be put to death. 39 The wickedness of Lysimachus, by the instigation of Menelaus.

<sup>a</sup> THIS Simon now, of whom we spake afore, having been a bewrayer of the money, and of his country, slandered Onias, as if he had terrified Heliodorus, and been the worker of these evils.

2 Thus was he bold to call him <sup>b</sup> a traitor, that had deserved well of the city, and tendered his own nation, and was so zealous of the laws.

3 But when their hatred went so far, that by one of Simon's faction murders were committed,

4 Onias seeing the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, <sup>c</sup> as being the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increase Simon's malice,

5 He went to the king, not to be an accuser of his countrymen, <sup>d</sup> but seeking the good of all, both public and private:

6 For he saw that it was impossible that the state should continue quiet, and Simon leave his folly, unless the king did look thereunto.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when <sup>e</sup> Antiochus, called Epiphanes, took the kingdom, Jason the brother of Onias laboured underhand to be high priest.

8 Promising unto the king by intercession three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and of another revenue eighty talents:

9 Beside this, he promised to assign an hundred and fifty more, if he might have license to set him up <sup>f</sup> a place for exercise, and for the training up of youth in the fashions of the heathen, and to write them of Jerusalem by the name of Antiochians.

10 Which when the king had granted, and he had gotten into his hand the rule, he forthwith brought his own nation to the Greekish fashion.

11 And the royal privileges granted of special favour to the Jews by the means of <sup>g</sup> John the father of Eupolemus, who went ambassador to Rome for amity and aid, he took away; and putting down the governments which were according to the law, he brought up new customs against the law:

12 For he built gladly <sup>h</sup> a place of exercise under the tower itself, and brought the chief young men under his subjection, and made them wear a hat.

13 Now such was the height of Greek fashions, and increase of heathenish manners, through the exceeding profaneness of Jason, that ungodly wretch, and not high priest;

14 That the priests had no courage to serve any more at the altar, but despising the temple, and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the unlawful allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of || Discus called them forth;

15 Not setting by the honours of their fathers, but liking the glory of the <sup>i</sup> Grecians best of all.

16 By reason whereof sore calamity came upon them: for they had them to be their enemies and avengers, whose custom they followed so earnestly, and unto whom they desired to be like in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to do wickedly against the laws of God: but the time following shall declare these things.

18 Now when the <sup>k</sup> game that was used every fifth year was kept at Tyrus, the king being present, 19 This ungracious Jason sent <sup>l</sup> special messengers from Jerusalem, who were Antiochians, to carry <sup>l</sup> three hundred drachms of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof thought fit not to bestow upon the sacrifice, because it was not convenient, but to be reserved for other charges.

20 This money then, in regard of the sender, was appointed to Hercules' sacrifice; but because of the bearers thereof, it was employed to the making of galleys.

21 Now when <sup>m</sup> Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Egypt for the || coronation of king Ptolemeus Philometor, Antiochus, understanding him not to be well affected to his affairs, provided for his own safety: whereupon he came to <sup>n</sup> Joppe, and from thence to Jerusalem:

22 Where he was honourably received of Jason, and of the city, and was brought in with torch-light, and with great shoutings: and so afterward went with his host unto Phenice.

23 Three years afterward Jason sent Menelaus, the aforesaid Simon's brother, to bear the money unto the king, and to put him in mind of certain necessary matters.

24 But he being brought to the presence of the king, when he had magnified him for the glorious appearance of his power, got the priesthood to himself, <sup>o</sup> offering more than Jason by three hundred talents of silver.

25 So he came with the king's mandate, bringing <sup>p</sup> nothing worthy the high priesthood, but having the fury of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast.

26 Then Jason, who had undermined his own brother, being undermined by another, was compelled to flee into the country of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus got the principality: <sup>q</sup> but as for the money that he had promised unto the king, he took no good order for it, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it:

28 For unto him appertained the gathering of the customs. Wherefore they were both called before the king.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the priesthood; and Sostratus left Crates, who was governor of the <sup>r</sup> Cyprians.

30 While those things were in doing, they of <sup>s</sup> Tar-sus and Mallos made insurrection, because they were given to the king's concubine, called Antiochis.

31 Then came the king in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus, a man in authority, for his deputy.

32 Now Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certain vessels of gold out of the temple, and gave some of them to Andronicus, and some he sold into Tyrus and the cities round about.

t Lev. 19, 17. 33 Which when Onias knew of a surety, <sup>t</sup> he reproved him, and withdrew himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lieth by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him to get Onias into his hands; who being persuaded thereunto, and coming to Onias <sup>u</sup> in deceit, gave him his right hand with oaths; and though he were suspected by him, yet persuaded he him to come forth of the sanctuary: whom forthwith he shut up without regard of justice.

35 For the which cause not only the Jews, but many also of other nations, took great indignation, and were much grieved for the unjust murder of the man.

x Acts 22, 3. 36 And when the king was come again from the places about <sup>x</sup> Cilicia, the Jews that were in the city, and certain of the Greeks that abhorred the fact also, complained because Onias was slain without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was heartily sorry, and moved to pity, and wept, because of the sober and modest behaviour of him that was dead.

v 1 Mac. 10, 62. 38 And being kindled with anger, forthwith he took away Andronicus his <sup>v</sup> purple, and rent off his clothes, and leading him through the whole city unto that very place, where he had committed impiety against Onias, there slew he the cursed murderer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved.

cir. 170. 39 Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by <sup>z</sup> Lysimachus with the consent of <sup>a</sup> Menelaus, and the bruit thereof was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already carried away.

40 Whereupon the common people rising, and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and began first to offer violence; one || Auranus being the leader, a man far gone in years, and no less in folly.

|| Or, Tyrannus. 41 They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust, that was next at hand, cast them all together upon Lysimachus, and those that set upon them.

b verse 39. 42 Thus many of them they wounded, and some they struck to the ground, and all of them they forced to flee: but as for the <sup>b</sup> church-robber himself, him they killed beside the treasury.

43 Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laid against Menelaus.

c Ps. 37, 4. 44 Now when the king came to <sup>c</sup> Tyrus, three men that were sent from the senate pleaded the cause before him:

d 1 Mac. 3, 38. 45 But Menelaus, being now convicted, promised Ptolemee the son of Dorymenes, to give him much money, if he would pacify the king towards him.

46 Whereupon Ptolemee taking the king aside into a certain gallery, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind:

47 Inasmuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, who notwithstanding was cause of all the mischief: and <sup>e</sup> those poor men, who, if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, should have been judged innocent, them he condemned to death.

48 Thus they that followed the matter for the city, and for the people, and for the holy vessels, did soon suffer unjust punishment.

49 Wherefore even they of <sup>f</sup> Tyrus, moved with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to be honourably buried.

50 And so, through the <sup>g</sup> covetousness of them that were of power, Menelaus remained still in authority, increasing in malice, and being a great traitor to the citizens.

CHAPTER V.

2 Of the signs and tokens seen in Jerusalem. 6 Of the end and wickedness of Jason. 11 The pursuit of Antiochus against the Jews. 15 The spoiling of the temple. 27 Maccabeus fleeth into the wilderness.

ABOUT the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Egypt:

2 And then it happened, that through all the city, for the space almost of forty days, <sup>a</sup> there were seen horsemen running in the air, in cloth of gold, and armed with lances, like a band of soldiers,

3 And troops of horsemen in array, encountering and running one against another, with shaking of shields, and multitude of || pikes, and drawing of || Or, slaves. swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden ornaments, and harness of all sorts.

4 Wherefore every man prayed that that <sup>b</sup> apparition might turn to good.

5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had been dead, <sup>c</sup> Jason took at the least a thousand men, and suddenly made an assault upon the city; and they that were upon the walls being put back, and the city at length taken, Menelaus fled into the castle:

6 But Jason slew his own citizens without mercy, not considering that to get the day of them of his own nation would be a most unhappy day for him; but thinking they had been his enemies, and not his countrymen, whom he conquered.

7 Howbeit, for all this he obtained not <sup>d</sup> the principality, but at the last received shame for the reward of his treason, and fled <sup>e</sup> again into the country of the Ammonites.

8 In the end therefore he had an unhappy return, being accused before Aretas the king of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated as a forsaker of the laws, and being had in abomination as an open || enemy of his country and countrymen, he was cast out into Egypt.

9 Thus he that had driven many out of their country, perished in a strange land, retiring to <sup>f</sup> the Lacedaemonians, and thinking there to find succour by reason of his kindred:

10 And he that had cast out many unburied had none to mourn for him, nor any solemn funerals at all, nor sepulchre with his fathers.

11 Now when this that was done came to the king's ear, he thought that Judea had revolted: whereupon <sup>g</sup> removing out of Egypt in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms, 12 And commanded his men of war not to spare such as they met, and to slay such as went up upon the houses.

13 <sup>h</sup> Thus there was killing of young and old.

making away of men, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants.

14 And there were destroyed within three whole days fourscore thousand, whereof forty thousand were slain in the conflict; and no fewer sold than slain.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but presumed to go into the most holy temple of all the world; Menelaus, that traitor to the laws, and to his own country, being his guide:

16 And taking the holy vessels with polluted hands, and with profane hands pulling down the things that were dedicated by other kings to the augmentation and glory and honour of the place, he gave them away.

17 And so haughty was Antiochus in mind, that he considered not that the Lord was angry for awhile for the sins of them that dwelt in the city, and therefore his eye was not upon the place.

18 For had they not been formerly wrapped in many sins, this man, as soon as he had come, had forthwith been scourged, and put back from his presumption, <sup>k</sup> as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king sent to view the treasury.

19 Nevertheless, God did not choose the people for the place's sake, but the place for the people's sake.

20 And therefore the place itself, that was partaker with them of the adversity that happened to the nation, did afterward communicate in the benefits sent from the Lord: and as it was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so again, the great Lord being reconciled, it was set up with all glory.

21 So when Antiochus had carried out of the temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he departed in all haste unto Antiochia, weening <sup>l</sup> in his pride to make the land navigable, and the sea passable by foot: <sup>m</sup> such was the haughtiness of his mind.

22 And he left governors to vex the nation: at Jerusalem, Philip, for his country, a Phrygian, and for manners more barbarous than he that set him there;

23 And at Garizim, Andronicus; and besides, Menelaus, who worse than all the rest bare an heavy hand over the citizens, <sup>n</sup> having a malicious mind against his countrymen the Jews.

24 He sent also that detestable ringleader <sup>o</sup> Apollonius with an army of two and twenty thousand, commanding him to slay all those that were in their best age, and to sell the women and the younger sort:

25 Who coming to Jerusalem, and <sup>p</sup> pretending peace, did forbear till the holy-day of the sabbath, when taking the Jews keeping holy-day, he commanded his men to arm themselves.

26 And so he slew all them that were gone to the celebrating of the sabbath, and <sup>q</sup> running through the city with weapons slew great multitudes.

27 But Judas Maccabeus † with nine others, or thereabout, withdrew himself into the wilderness, <sup>r</sup> and lived in the mountains after the manner of beasts, with his company, who fed on herbs continually, lest they should be partakers of the pollution.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The Jews are compelled to leave the law of God. 4 The temple is defiled. 8 Cruelty upon the people and the women. 12 An exhortation to bear affliction, by the example of the valiant courage of Eleazarus, cruelly tortured.

NOT long after this the king sent an old man of || Athens to compel the Jews to depart from the laws of their fathers, and not to live after the laws of God:

2 And ‡ to pollute also the temple in Jerusalem, and to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius; and that in Garizim, of Jupiter the Defender of strangers, || as they did desire that dwelt in the place.

3 The coming in of this mischief was sore and grievous to the people:

4 For <sup>b</sup> the temple was filled with riot and revelling by the Gentiles, who dallied with harlots, and had to do with women within the circuit of the holy places, and besides that brought in things that were not lawful.

5 The altar also was filled with profane things, which the law forbiddeth.

6 Neither was it lawful for a man to keep sabbath-days or ancient feasts, <sup>c</sup> or to profess himself at all to be a Jew. c verse 1

7 And in the day of the king's birth, every month they were brought by bitter constraint to eat of the sacrifices; and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, the Jews were compelled to go in procession to Bacchus, carrying ivy.

8 Moreover, there went out a decree to the neighbour cities of the † heathen, by the suggestion of Ptolemee, against the Jews, that they should observe <sup>d</sup> the same fashions, and be partakers of their sacrifices: † Gr. Grecians. d ch. 4, 9.

9 And whoso would not conform themselves to the manners of the Gentiles should be put to death. Then might a man have seen the present misery.

10 For there were two women brought, <sup>e</sup> who had circumcised their children; whom when they had openly led round about the city, the babes hanging at their breasts, they cast them down headlong from the wall. e Gen. 17, 14.

11 And others, that had run together into <sup>f</sup> caves near by, to keep the sabbath-day secretly, being discovered to Philip, were all burnt together, because they made a conscience to help themselves for the honour of the most sacred day. f Heb. 11, 38.

12 Now I beseech those that read this book, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they judge those punishments not to be for destruction, but for <sup>g</sup> a chastening of our nation. g Heb. 12, 5.

13 For it is a token of his great goodness, when wicked doers are <sup>h</sup> not suffered any long time, but forthwith punished. h Ps. 37, 1, 2.

14 For not as with other nations, whom the Lord patiently forbeareth to punish, till they be come to the fulness of their sins, so dealeth he with us, 15 Lest that, being come to the height of sin, afterward he should take vengeance of us.

16 And therefore <sup>i</sup> he never withdraweth his mercy from us: and though he punish with adversity, yet doth he never forsake his people. i Ps. 89, 33

17 But let this that we have spoken be for a warning unto us. And now will we come to the declaring of the matter in few words. cir. 167.

taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawful for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king;

22 That in so doing he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them find favour.

23 But he began to consider discreetly, and as became his age, and the excellency of his ancient years, and the honour of his grey head, whereunto he was come, and his most honest education from a child, or rather the holy law made and given by God: <sup>m</sup> therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straightways to send him to the grave.

24 For it becometh not our age, said he, in any wise <sup>a</sup> to dissemble, whereby many young persons might think that Eleazar, being fourscore years old and ten, were now gone to a strange religion;

25 And so they through mine hypocrisy, and desire to live a little time and a moment longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain to mine old age, and make it abominable.

26 For though for the present time I should be delivered from the punishment of men: yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither alive nor dead.

27 Wherefore <sup>n</sup> now, manfully changing this life, I will shew myself such an one as mine age requireth,

28 And leave a notable <sup>p</sup> example to such as be young, to die willingly and courageously <sup>a</sup> for the honourable and holy laws. And when he had said these words, immediately he went to the torment:

29 They that led him changing the good will they bare him a little before into hatred, because the aforesaid speeches proceeded, as they thought, from || a desperate mind.

30 But when he was ready to die with stripes, he groaned, and said, It is manifest unto the Lord, that hath the holy knowledge, that whereas I might have been delivered from death, I now endure sore pains in body by being beaten: but <sup>r</sup> in soul am well content to suffer these things, because I fear him.

31 And <sup>a</sup> thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation.

CHAPTER VII.

The constancy and cruel death of seven brethren and their mother in one day, because they would not eat swine's flesh at the king's commandment.

IT came to pass also, that seven brethren with their mother were taken, and compelled by the king against the law to <sup>a</sup> taste swine's flesh, and were tormented with scourges and whips.

2 But one of them that spake first said thus, What wouldest thou ask or learn of us? <sup>b</sup> we are ready to die, rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers.

3 Then <sup>c</sup> the king, being in a rage, commanded pans and caldrons to be made hot:

4 Which forthwith being heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that spake first, and to cut off the utmost parts of his body, the rest of his brethren and his mother looking on.

5 Now when he was thus maimed in all his members, he commanded him being yet alive to be brought to the fire, and to be fried in the pan: and as the vapour of the pan was for a good space dispersed, they exhorted one another with the mother to die manfully, saying thus,

6 The Lord God looketh upon us, and in truth hath comfort in us, as <sup>d</sup> Moses in his song, which witnessed to their faces, declared, saying, And he shall be comforted in his servants.

7 So when the first was dead after this manner, they brought the second to make him <sup>e</sup> a mockingstock: and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the hair, they asked him, Wilt thou eat, before thou be punished throughout every member of thy body?

8 But he answered in his own language, and said, No. Wherefore he also received the next torment in order, as the former did.

9 And when he was at the last gasp, he said, Thou like a fury takest us out of this present life, but the King of the world <sup>f</sup> shall raise us up, who have died for his laws, unto everlasting life.

10 After him was the third made <sup>g</sup> a mockingstock: and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that right soon, holding forth his hands manfully, 11 And said courageously, These I had from heaven; and for his laws I despise them; and from him <sup>h</sup> I hope to receive them again.

12 Inasmuch that the king, and they that were with him, marvelled at the young man's courage, for that he nothing regarded the pains.

13 Now when this man was dead also, they tormented and <sup>i</sup> mangled the fourth in like manner.

14 So when he was ready to die, he said thus. It is good, being put to death by men, to look for hope from God to be raised up again by him: as for thee, thou shalt have no resurrection to life.

15 Afterward they brought the fifth also, and mangled him.

16 Then looked he unto the king, and said, Thou hast power over men, thou art corruptible, thou doest what thou wilt; yet think not <sup>j</sup> that our nation is forsaken of God;

17 But abide awhile, and behold his great power, how he will torment thee and thy seed.

18 After him also they brought the sixth, who, being ready to die, said, <sup>k</sup> Be not deceived without cause: for we suffer these things for ourselves, having sinned against our God: therefore marvellous things are done unto us.

19 But think not thou, that takest in hand to <sup>m</sup> strive against God, that thou shalt escape unpunished.

20 But the mother was marvellous above all, and worthy of honourable memory: for when she saw her seven sons slain within the space of one day, she bare it <sup>n</sup> with a good courage, because of the hope that she had in the Lord.

21 Yea, she exhorted every one of them in her own language, filled with courageous spirits; and stirring up her womanish thoughts with a manly stomach, she said unto them,

22 <sup>o</sup> I cannot tell how ye came into my womb; for I neither gave you breath nor life, neither was it I that formed the members of every one of you;

23 But doubtless the Creator of the world, who formed the generation of man, and found out the beginning of all things, <sup>p</sup> will also of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as ye now regard not your own selves for his laws' sake.

24 Now Antiochus, thinking himself despised, and 30 While she was yet speaking these words, the young man said, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the king's commandment: <sup>t</sup> but I will obey the commandment of the law that was given unto our fathers by Moses.

31 And thou, that hast been the author of all mischief against the Hebrews, shalt not escape the hands of God.

1.

34 But thou, O godless man, and of all other most wicked, be not lifted up without a cause, nor puffed up with uncertain hopes, <sup>x</sup> lifting up thy hand against the servants of God:

35 For thou hast not yet escaped the judgment of Almighty God, who seeth all things.

36 For our brethren, who have now suffered a short pain, are dead under God's covenant of everlasting life: but thou, through the judgment of God, shalt receive just punishment for thy pride.

37 But I, as my brethren, <sup>y</sup> offer up my body and life for the laws of our fathers, beseeching God that he would speedily be merciful unto our nation; and that thou by torments and plagues mayest confess, that he alone is God;

38 And that in me and my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is justly brought upon all our nation, may cease.

CHAPTER VIII.

Before CHRIST
cir. 166.

1 Judas gathered an host. 9 Nicanor is sent against him: who presumeth to make much money of his prisoners. 16 Judas encourageth his men, and putteth Nicanor to flight, 28 and divideth the spoil. 30 Other enemies are also defeated, 35 and Nicanor fleeth with grief to Antioch.

THEN Judas Maccabeus, and they that were with him, went privily into the towns, and called their kinsfolk together, <sup>a</sup> and took unto them all such as continued in the Jews' religion, and assembled about six thousand men. <sup>a 1 Mac. 2, 42.</sup>

2 And they <sup>b</sup> called upon the Lord, that he would look upon the people that was trodden down of all; and also pity the temple profaned of ungodly men; <sup>b Ps. 116, 4</sup>

3 And that he would have compassion upon the city, sore defaced, and ready to be made even with the ground; and hear <sup>c</sup> the blood that cried unto him, <sup>c Gen. 4, 10</sup>

4 And remember <sup>d</sup> the wicked slaughter of harmless infants, and the blasphemies committed against his name; and that he would shew his hatred against the wicked. <sup>d ch. 5, 13 & 6, 10.</sup>

5 Now when Maccabeus had his company about him, he could not be withstood by the heathen: <sup>e</sup> for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercy. <sup>e Isa. 54, 8</sup>

6 Therefore he came at unawares, and burned up towns and cities, and got into his hands the most commodious places, and overcame and put to flight no small number of his enemies.

7 But specially took he advantage of the night for such privy attempts, insomuch that the bruit of his manliness was spread every where.

8 So when <sup>f</sup> Philip saw that this man increased by little and little, and that things prospered with him still more and more, he wrote unto Ptolemeus, the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, to yield more aid to the king's affairs. <sup>f ch. 5, 22</sup>

9 Then forthwith choosing <sup>g</sup> Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his special friends, he sent him with no fewer than twenty thousand of all nations under him, to root out the whole generation of the Jews; and with him he joined <sup>h</sup> also Gorgias a captain, who in matters of war had great experience. <sup>g 1 Mac. 3, 38. h 1 Mac. 3, 38.</sup>

10 So Nicanor undertook to make so much money of the captive Jews, as should defray the tribute of two thousand talents, which the king was to pay to the Romans.

11 Wherefore immediately he sent to the cities upon the sea-coast, proclaiming a sale of the captive Jews, and promising that they should have fourscore and ten bodies for one talent; not expecting <sup>i</sup> the vengeance that was to follow upon him from the Almighty God. <sup>i ch. 7, 35.</sup>

12 Now when word was brought unto Judas of Nicanor's coming, and he had imparted unto those that were with him that the army was at hand,

13 <sup>k</sup> They that were fearful, and distrusted the justice of God, fled, and conveyed themselves away. <sup>k 1 Mac. 3, 56.</sup>

14 Others sold all that they had left, and withal besought the Lord to deliver them, being sold by the wicked Nicanor before they met together:

15 And if not for their own sakes, yet for the covenants he had made with their fathers, and <sup>l</sup> for his holy and glorious name's sake, by which they were called. <sup>l Ps. 106, 8.</sup>

16 So Maccabeus called his men together, unto the number of six thousand, and exhorted them <sup>m</sup> not to be stricken with terror of the enemy, nor to fear the <sup>m 1 Mac. 4, 8.</sup> great multitude of the heathen, who came wrongfully against them; but to fight inanfully.

17 And to set before their eyes the injury that they had unjustly done to the holy place, and the cruel handling of the city, whereof they made a mockery, and also the taking away of the government of their forefathers:

n Ps. 20, 7. 18 For they, said he, trust in their weapons and boldness; <sup>a</sup> but our confidence is in the Almighty God, who at a beck can cast down both them that come against us, and also all the world.

o Isai. 37 36. 1 Mac. 7, 41. ch. 15, 22. || 1 Mac. 8, 2. 19 Moreover, he recounted unto them what helps their forefathers had found, and how they were delivered, <sup>o</sup> when under Sennacherib an hundred fourscore and five thousand perished.

p 1 Mac. 5, 22 23. 35. & 10, 87. 20 And he told them of the battle that they had in Babylon with the || Galatians, how they came but eight thousand in all to the business, with four thousand Macedonians, and that the Macedonians being perplexed, the eight thousand destroyed an hundred and twenty thousand, because of the help that they had from heaven, <sup>p</sup> and so received a great booty.

q ch. 6, 13. 21 Thus when he had made them bold with these words, and ready to die for the laws and the country, he divided his army into four parts;

r Ps. 44, 3. 22 And joined with himself his own brethren, leaders of each band, to wit, Simon, and Joseph, and Jonathan, giving each one fifteen hundred men.

verses 10, 11. 34. 23 Also he appointed <sup>a</sup> Eleazar to read the holy book: and when he had given them this watchword, The help of God; himself leading the first band, he joined battle with Nicanor.

|| That is, the enemies' armour. t verse 20. 24 And <sup>r</sup> by the help of the Almighty they slew above nine thousand of their enemies, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanor's host, and so put all to flight;

|| Or, lamed with tortures. 25 And took their money <sup>s</sup> that came to buy them, and pursued them far: but lacking time they returned:

u Ps. 130, 2. 26 For it was the day before the sabbath, and therefore they would no longer pursue them.

x verse 23. || Or, lamed. 27 So when they had gathered || their armour together, and <sup>t</sup> spoiled their enemies, they occupied themselves about the sabbath, yielding exceeding praise and thanks to the Lord, who had preserved them unto that day, which was the beginning of mercy distilling upon them.

y Ps. 109, 6. 28 And after the sabbath, when they had given part of the spoils to the || maimed, and the widows, and orphans, the residue they divided among themselves and their servants.

z verses 9, 10. a verse 25. 29 When this was done, and they had made a common <sup>u</sup> supplication, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled with his servants for ever.

|| Or, lamed. 30 Moreover, of those that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, who fought against them, they slew above twenty thousand, and very easily got high and strong holds, and divided among themselves many spoils more, and made <sup>x</sup> the || maimed, orphans, widows, yea, and the aged also, equal in spoils with themselves.

v Ps. 109, 6. 31 And when they had gathered their armour together, they laid them up all carefully in convenient places, and the remnant of the spoils they brought to Jerusalem.

32 They slew also Philarches that <sup>y</sup> wicked person, who was with Timotheus, and had annoyed the Jews many ways.

33 Furthermore, at such time as they kept the feast for the victory in their country, they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire upon the holy gates, who had fled into a little house; and so he received a reward meet for his wickedness.

34 As for that most ungracious <sup>z</sup> Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants <sup>a</sup> to buy the Jews, 35 He was, through the help of the Lord, brought down by them of whom he made least account; and putting off his glorious apparel, and discharging his company, he came like a fugitive servant through the midland unto Antioch, having very great dishonour, for that his host was destroyed.

36 Thus he, that took upon him <sup>b</sup> to make good to the Romans their tribute by means of the captives in Jerusalem, told abroad, <sup>c</sup> that the Jews had God to fight for them, and therefore they could not be hurt, because they followed the laws that he gave them.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Antiochus is chased from Persepolis: 5 He is stricken with a sore disease, 14 and promiseth to become a Jew: 28 He dieth miserably.

ABOUT that time came Antiochus || with dishonour <sup>a</sup> out of the country of Persia.

2 For he had entered the city called Persepolis, and went about to rob the temple, and to hold the city; whereupon the multitude, running to defend themselves with their weapons, put them to flight; and so it happened, that Antiochus, being put to flight of the inhabitants, returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, news was brought him <sup>b</sup> what had happened unto Nicanor and Timotheus.

4 Then swelling with anger, he thought to avenge upon the Jews the disgrace done unto him by those that made him flee. Therefore commanded he his chariot-man to drive without ceasing, and to despatch the journey, <sup>c</sup> the judgment of God now following him. For he had spoken <sup>d</sup> proudly in this sort, That he would come to Jerusalem, and make it a common burying-place of the Jews.

5 But the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, <sup>e</sup> smote him with an incurable and invisible plague: for as soon as he had spoken these words, a pain of the bowels that was remediless came upon him, and sore torments of the inner parts;

6 And that most justly: <sup>f</sup> for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange torments.

7 Howbeit, he nothing at all ceased from his bragging, but still was filled with pride, <sup>g</sup> breathing out fire in his rage against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey: but it came to pass that he fell down from his chariot, carried violently; so that having a sore fall, all the members of his body were much pained.

8 And thus he that a little afore thought he might command the waves of the sea, (so <sup>h</sup> proud was he beyond the condition of man) and weigh the high mountains in a balance, was now cast on the ground, and carried in an horse-litter, shewing forth unto all the manifest power of God.

9 So that <sup>i</sup> the worms rose up out of the body of this wicked man, and while he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell away, and the filthiness of his smell was noisome to all his army.

10 And the man, that thought a little afore he could reach to the stars of heaven, no man could endure to carry for his intolerable stink.

11 Here therefore being plagued, he began to leave off his great pride, <sup>k</sup> and to come to the knowledge of himself by the scourge of God, his pain increasing every moment.

12 And when he himself could not abide his own smell, he said these words, It is meet to be subject unto God, and that a man that is mortal should not proudly think of himself, as if he were God.

13 This wicked person vowed also unto the Lord (who <sup>l</sup> now no more would have mercy upon him) saying thus,

14 That the holy city (to the which he was going in haste to lay it even with the ground, and <sup>m</sup> to make it a common burying-place,) he would set at liberty:

15 And as touching the Jews, whom he had judged not worthy to be so much as buried, but to be cast out with their children to be devoured of the fowls and wild beasts, he would make them all equals with the citizens of || Athens:

16 And the holy temple, which before he had spoiled, <sup>n</sup> he would garnish with goodly gifts, and restore all the holy vessels with many more, <sup>o</sup> and out of his own revenue defray the charges belonging to the sacrifices:

17 Yea, and that also he would become a Jew himself, and go through all the world that was inhabited, and declare the <sup>p</sup> power of God.

18 But for all this his pains would not cease: for the just judgment of God was come upon him: therefore despairing of his health, he wrote unto the Jews the letters underwritten, containing the form of a supplication, after this manner:

19 Antiochus, king and governor, to the good Jews his citizens, wisheth much joy, health, and prosperity:

20 If ye and your children fare well, and your affairs be to your contentment, <sup>q</sup> I give very great thanks to God, having my hope in heaven.

21 As for me, I was weak, or else I would have remembered kindly your honour and good will. <sup>r</sup> Returning out of Persia, <sup>s</sup> and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all:

22 Not distrusting mine health, but having great hope to escape this sickness.

23 But considering that even my father, at what time he led an army into <sup>t</sup> the high countries, appointed a successor,

24 To the end that, if any thing fell out contrary to expectation, or if any tidings were brought that were grievous; they of the land, knowing to whom || the state was left, might not be troubled:

25 Again, considering how that the princes, that are borderers and neighbours unto my kingdom wait for opportunities, and expect what shall be the event, I have <sup>u</sup> appointed my son Antiochus king, whom I often committed and commended unto many of you, when I went up into the high provinces; to whom I have written as followeth:

26 Therefore I pray and request you to remember the benefits that I have done unto you generally, and <sup>n</sup> special, and that every man will be still faithful to me and my son.

27 For I am persuaded that he, || understanding my mind, will favourably and graciously yield to your desires.

28 Thus the murderer and blasphemer having suffered most grievous y, as he entreated other men, so died he a <sup>x</sup> miserable death in a strange country in the mountains.

29 And <sup>y</sup> Philip, that was brought up with him, carried away his body, who also, fearing the son of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

CHAPTER X.

1 Judas recovereth the city, and purifieth the temple. 14 Gorgias vexeth the Jews. 16 Judas winneth their holds. 29 Timotheus and his men are discomfited. 35 Gazara is taken, and Timotheus slain.

NOW Maccabeus and his company, the Lord guiding them, <sup>a</sup> recovered the temple and the city:

2 But the altars which the heathen had built in the open street, and also the chapels, they pulled down.

3 And having cleansed the temple, they made another altar, and striking stones they took fire out of them, and offered a sacrifice after two years, and set forth incense, and lights, and shew-bread.

4 When that was done, <sup>b</sup> they fell flat down, and besought the Lord that they might come no more into such troubles; but if they sinned any more against him, that he himself would chasten them with mercy, and that they might not be delivered unto the blasphemous and barbarous nations.

5 Now upon the same day that the strangers profaned the temple, on the very same day it was cleansed again, even the five and twentieth day of the same month, <sup>c</sup> which is Casleu.

6 And they kept eight days with gladness, as in the feast of the tabernacles, remembering that not long afore they had held the feast of the tabernacles, when as they <sup>d</sup> wandered in the mountains and dens like beasts.

7 Therefore they bare branches, and fair boughs, and palms also, and sang psalms unto him that had given them good success in cleansing his place.

8 They ordained also by a common statute and decree, That every year those days should be kept of the whole nation of the Jews.

9 And this was the end of <sup>e</sup> Antiochus, called Epiphanes.

10 Now will we declare the acts of <sup>f</sup> Antiochus Eupator, who was the son of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the wars.

11 So when he was come to the crown, he set one <sup>g</sup> Lysias over the affairs of his realm, and appointed him chief governor of Celosyria and Phenice.

12 For Ptolemeus, that was called Macron, choosing rather to do justice unto the Jews for the wrong that had been done unto them, endeavoured to continue peace with them.

13 Whereupon being accused of the king's friends before Eupator, and called traitor at every word, because he had left Cyprus, that Philometer had committed unto him, and departed unto Antiochus Epiphanes, || and seeing that he was in no honourable place, he was so discouraged, that he poisoned himself and died.

14 But when <sup>h</sup> Gorgias was governor of the || holds, he hired soldiers, and nourished war continually with the Jews:

15 And therewithal the Idumeans, having gotten into their hands the most commodious holds, kept the Jews occupied, and receiving those that were banished from Jerusalem, they went about to nourish war.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made

18 And because certain, who were no less than nine thousand, were fled together into two very strong castles, having all manner of things convenient to sustain the siege, 31 And there were slain of footmen twenty thousand and five hundred, and six hundred horsemen.

r verse 24.

32 As for <sup>r</sup> Timotheus himself, he fled into a very strong hold, called Gazara, where Chereas was governor.

33 But they that were with Maccabeus laid siege against the fortress courageously four days.

34 And they that were within, trusting in the strength of the place, <sup>s</sup> blasphemed exceedingly, and uttered wicked words.

chap. 9, 28.

35 Nevertheless, upon the fifth day early, twenty young men of Maccabeus' company, inflamed with anger because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall manly, and with a fierce courage killed all that they met withal.

36 Others likewise ascending after them, while they were busied with them that were within, burned the towers, and kindling fires, burned the blasphemers alive; and others broke open the gates, and having received in the rest of the army, took the city, 37 And killed Timotheus, that was hid in a certain pit, and <sup>t</sup> Chereas his brother, with Apollophanes.

whatsoever Maccabeus wrote unto Lysias concerning the Jews, <sup>i</sup> the king granted it.

16 For there were letters written unto the Jews from Lysias to this effect : Lysias unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting :

17 John and Absalom, who were sent from you, delivered me the petition subscribed, and made request for the performance of the contents thereof.

18 Therefore what things soever were meet to be reported to the king, I have declared them, and he hath <sup>k</sup> granted as much as might be.

19 If then ye will keep yourselves loyal to the state, hereafter also will I endeavor to be a means of your good.

21 <sup>l</sup> Fare ye well. The hundred and eight and fortieth year, the four and twentieth day of the month || Dioscorithius.

22 Now the king's letter contained these words : King Antiochus unto his brother Lysias <sup>m</sup> sendeth greeting :

23 Since our father is translated unto the gods, our will is, that they that are in our realm live quietly, that every one may attend upon his own affairs.

24 We understand also that the Jews would not consent to our father, for to be brought unto <sup>n</sup> the custom of the Gentiles, but had rather keep their own manner of living : for the which cause they require of us, that we should suffer them to live after <sup>o</sup> their own laws.

25 Wherefore our mind is, that this nation shall be in rest, and we have determined to restore them their temple, that they may live according to the customs of their forefathers.

26 Thou shalt do well therefore to send unto them, and || grant them peace, that when they are certified of our mind, they may be of good comfort, and ever go cheerfully about <sup>p</sup> their own affairs.

27 And the letter of the king unto the nation of the Jews was after this manner : King Antiochus <sup>q</sup> sendeth greeting unto the council, and the rest of the Jews :

28 If ye fare well, we have our desire ; we are also in good health.

29 Menelaus declared unto us, that your desire was to return home, and to follow your own business :

30 Wherefore they that will depart shall have safe conduct till the thirtieth day of Xanthicus with security.

31 And the Jews shall use their own kind of <sup>r</sup> meats and <sup>s</sup> laws, as before ; and none of them any manner of ways shall be molested for things ignorantly done.

32 I have sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you.

33 <sup>t</sup> Fare ye well. In the hundred forty and eighth year, and in the fifteenth day of the month || Xanthicus.

34 The Romans also sent unto them a letter containing these words : Quintus Memmius and Titus Manlius || ambassadors of the Romans, <sup>u</sup> send greeting unto the people of the Jews.

35 Whatsoever Lysias <sup>x</sup> the king's cousin hath granted, therewith we also are well pleased.

36 But touching such things as he judged to be referred to the king, after ye have advised thereof, send one forthwith, that we may declare as it is convenient for you : for we are now going to Antioch.

37 Therefore send some with speed, that we may now what is your mind.

38 <sup>y</sup> Farewell. <sup>z</sup> This hundred and eight and fortieth year, the fifteenth day of the month Xanthicus.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The king's lieutenants vex the Jews : 3 They of Joppe drown two hundred Jews. 6 Judas is avenged upon them : 11 He maketh peace with the Arabians, 16 and taketh Caspis. 22 Timotheus' armies overthrown.

WHEN these covenants were made, Lysias went unto the king, and the Jews were <sup>a</sup> about their husbandry.

2 But of the governors of several places, <sup>b</sup> Timotheus, and Apollonius the son of Genneus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and besides them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to be <sup>c</sup> quiet, and live in peace.

3 The men of Joppe also did such an ungodly deed : they prayed the Jews that dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt.

4 Who accepted of it according to the common decree of the city, as being desirous to live in peace, and suspecting nothing : but when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no less than two hundred of them.

5 When Judas heard of this cruelty done unto his countrymen, he commanded those that were with him to make them ready.

6 And calling upon God <sup>d</sup> the righteous Judge, he came against those <sup>e</sup> murderers of his brethren, and burned the haven by night, and set the boats on fire, and those that fled thither he slew.

7 And when the town was shut up, he went backward, || as if he would return to root out all them of the city of Joppe.

8 But when he heard that the Jamnites were minded to do in like manner unto the Jews that dwelt among them, 9 He came upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire on the haven and the navy, so that the light of the fire was seen at Jerusalem two hundred and forty furlongs off.

10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their journey towards <sup>f</sup> Timotheus, no fewer than five thousand men on foot and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians set upon him.

11 Whereupon there was a very sore battle ; but Judas' side, <sup>g</sup> by the help of God, gat the victory ; so that the Nomades of Arabia, being overcome, besought Judas for peace, promising both to give him cattle, and to pleasure him otherwise.

12 Then Judas, thinking indeed that they would be profitable in many things, <sup>h</sup> granted them peace : whereupon they shook hands, and so they || departed to their tents.

13 He went also about to make a bridge to a certain strong city, which was fenced about with walls, and inhabited by people of divers countries ; and the name of it was Caspis.

14 But they that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walls and provision of victuals, that they behaved themselves rudely towards them that were with Judas, railing and <sup>i</sup> blaspheming, and uttering such words as were not to be spoken.

15 Wherefore Judas with his company, calling upon the great Lord of the world, <sup>k</sup> who without any rams or engines of war did cast down Jericho in the time of Joshua, gave a fierce assault against the walls, 17 Then departed they from thence seven hundred and fifty <sup>m</sup> furlongs, and came to Characa unto the Jews that are called Tubieni.

18 But as for Timotheus, they found him not in the places: for before he had despatched any thing, he departed from thence, having left a very strong garrison in a certain hold.

19 Howbeit, Dositheus and Sosipater, who were of Maccabeus' captains, went forth, and slew those that Timotheus had left in the fortress, above ten thousand men.

21 Now when Timotheus had knowledge of Judas' coming, he sent the women and children and the other baggage unto a <sup>o</sup> fortress called ¶ Carnion: for the town was hard to besiege, and uneasy to come unto, by reason of the straitness of all the places.

p Lev. 26,

22 But when Judas his first band came in sight, <sup>p</sup> the enemies, being smitten with fear and terror through the appearing of him that seeth all things, fled again, one running this way, another that way, so as that they were often hurt of their own men, and wounded with the points of their own swords.

23 Judas also was very earnest in pursuing them, killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirty thousand men.

q verse 19.

24 Moreover Timotheus himself fell into the hands of <sup>q</sup> Dositheus and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him go with his life, because he had many of the Jews' parents, and the brethren of some of them, who, if they had put him to death, should not be regarded.

25 So when he had assured them with many words that he would restore them without hurt, according to the agreement, they let him go for the saving of <sup>r</sup> their brethren.

27 And after he had put to flight and destroyed them, Judas removed the host towards <sup>s</sup> Ephron, a strong city, wherein Lysias abode, and a great multitude of divers nations, and the strong young men kept the walls, and defended them mightily: wherein also was great provision of engines and darts.

t ch. 10, 16.

28 But when <sup>t</sup> Judas and his company had called upon Almighty God, who with his power breaketh the strength of his enemies, they won the city and slew twenty and five thousand of them that were within.

29 From thence they departed to Scythopolis, which lieth six hundred furlongs from Jerusalem.

u Job 6, 14.

30 But when the Jews that dwelt there had testified that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly with them, and entreated them kindly <sup>u</sup> in the time of their adversity:

x Deut. 16,
16.

31 They gave them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still unto them: and so they came to Jerusalem, <sup>x</sup> the feast of the weeks approaching.

32 And after the feast called Pentecost, they went forth against Gorgias the governor of Idumea, 33 Who came out with three thousand men of foot, and four hundred horsemen.

34 And it happened, in their fighting together, a few of the Jews were slain.

35 At which time, <sup>y</sup> Dositheus, one of Bacenor's company, who was on horseback, and a strong man, was still upon Gorgias, and taking hold of his coat drew him by force; and when he would have taken that cursed man alive, a horseman of Thracia coming upon him ¶ smote off his shoulder, so that Gorgias fled unto Marisa.

36 Now when they that were with Gorgias had fought long, and were weary, Judas called upon the Lord, <sup>z</sup> that he would shew himself to be their helper and leader of the battle.

37 And with that he began in his own language, and sung psalms with a loud voice, and rushing unawares upon Gorgias' men, he put them to flight.

38 So Judas gathered his host, and came into the city Odollam. And when the seventh day came, they purified themselves, as the custom was, and kept the sabbath in the same place.

39 And upon the day following, ¶ as the use had been, Judas and his company came <sup>a</sup> to take up the bodies of them that were slain, and to bury them with their kinsmen in their fathers' graves.

40 Now under the coats of every one that was slain they found things consecrated to the idols of the Jamnites, which is forbidden the Jews by <sup>b</sup> the law. Then every man saw that this was the cause wherefore they were slain.

41 All men therefore praising the Lord, the righteous Judge, <sup>c</sup> who had opened the things that were hid,

42 <sup>d</sup> Betook themselves unto prayer, and besought him that the sin committed might wholly be put out of remembrance. Besides, that noble Judas exhorted the people to keep themselves from sin, forsomuch as they saw before their eyes the things that came to pass for the sins of those that were slain.

43 And when he had made a gathering throughout the company to the sum of two thousand drachms of silver, he sent it to Jerusalem to offer a sin-offering, doing therein very well and honestly, in that he was mindful of <sup>e</sup> the resurrection:

44 For if he had not hoped that they that were slain should have risen again, it had been superfluous and vain to pray for the dead.

45 And also in that he perceived that there was great favour <sup>f</sup> laid up for those that died godly. (It was an holy and good thought.) Whereupon he made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be delivered from sin.

for the safeguard of the country, but because he thought to have been made governor.

4 But the <sup>a</sup> King of kings moved Antiochus' mind against this wicked wretch, and Lysias informed the king that this man was the cause of all mischief, so that the king commanded to bring him unto Berea, and to put him to death, as the manner is in that place.

5 Now there was in that place a tower of <sup>e</sup> fifty cubits high, full of ashes; and it had a round instrument, which on every side hanged down into the ashes.

6 And whosoever was condemned of sacrilege, or had committed any other grievous crime, there did all men thrust him unto death.

7 Such a death it happened that wicked man to die, not having so much as burial in the earth; and that most justly:

8 For insomuch <sup>f</sup> as he had committed many sins about the altar, whose fire and ashes were holy, he received his death in ashes.

9 Now the king came with a barbarous and haughty mind to do far worse to the Jews, than had been done in his father's time.

10 Which things when Judas perceived, he commanded the multitude to call upon the Lord <sup>g</sup> night and day, that if ever at any other time, he would now also help them, being at the point to be put from their law, from their country, and from the holy temple:

11 And that he would not suffer the people, that || had even now been but a little <sup>h</sup> refreshed, to be in subjection to the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had all done this together, and besought the merciful Lord with weeping and fasting, and lying flat upon the ground <sup>i</sup> three days long, Judas, having exhorted them, commanded they should be in a readiness.

13 And Judas, being apart with the elders, determined, before the king's host should enter into Judea, and get the city, to go forth and try the matter in fight by the help of the Lord.

14 So when he had committed all to the || Creator of the world, and exhorted his soldiers to fight manfully, even unto death, for the laws, the temple, the city, the country, and the commonwealth, he camped by Modin:

15 And having given the watchword to them that were about him, <sup>k</sup> Victory is of God; with the most valiant and choice young men, he went into the king's tent by night, and slew in the camp about four thousand men, and the chiefest of the elephants, with all that were upon him.

16 And at last they filled the camp with <sup>l</sup> fear and tumult, and departed with good success.

17 This was done in the break of the day, because the protection of the Lord did help him.

18 Now when the king had taken a taste of the manliness of the Jews, he went about to take the holds by policy,

19 And marched towards Bethsura, <sup>m</sup> which was a strong hold of the Jews: but he was put to flight, failed, and lost of his men:

20 For Judas had conveyed unto them that were in it such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus, who was in the Jews' host, disclosed the secrets to the enemies; therefore he was sought out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 The king treated with them in Bethsura the second time, gave his hand, took theirs, departed, fought with Judas, was overcome;

23 Heard that Philip, who was left over the affairs in Antioch, || was desperately bent, confounded, <sup>n</sup> entreated the Jews, submitted himself, and sware to all equal conditions, agreed with them, and offered sacrifice, honoured the temple, and dealt kindly with the place,

24 And accepted well of Maccabeus, made him principal governor from Ptolemais unto the Gerrhenians;

25 Came to <sup>o</sup> Ptolemais: the people there were grieved for the covenants; for they stormed because they would make their covenants void:

26 <sup>p</sup> Lysias went up to the judgment-seat, said as much as could be in defence of the cause, persuaded, pacified, made them well-affected, returned to Antioch. Thus it went touching the king's coming and departing.

CHAPTER XIV.

6 Alcimus accuseth Judas. 18 Nicanor maketh peace with Judas: 39 He seeketh to take Razis; 46 who, to escape their hands, killeth himself.

AFTER three years was Judas informed, that <sup>a</sup> Demetrius, the son of Seleucus, having entered by the haven of Tripolis with a great power and navy, had taken the country, <sup>b</sup> and killed Antiochus, and Lysias his protector.

3 Now <sup>c</sup> one Alcimus, who had been high priest, and had defiled himself wilfully in the times of their mingling with the Gentiles, seeing that by no means he could save himself, nor have any more access to the holy altar,

4 Came to king Demetrius in the hundred and one and fiftieth year, presenting unto him a crown of gold, and a palm, and also of the boughs which were || used solemnly in the temple: and so that day he held his peace.

5 Howbeit, having gotten opportunity to further his foolish enterprise, and being called into council by Demetrius, and asked how the Jews stood affected, and what they intended, he answered thereunto:

6 Those of the Jews that be called <sup>d</sup> Assideans, whose captain is Judas Maccabeus, <sup>e</sup> nourish war, and are seditious, and will not let the realm be in peace.

7 Therefore I, being deprived of mine ancestors' honour, I mean the high priesthood, am now come hither:

8 First, verily for the unfeigned care I have of things pertaining to the king; and secondly, even for that I intend the good of mine own countrymen: for all our nation is in no small misery through the unadvised dealing of them aforesaid.

9 Wherefore, O king, seeing thou knowest all these things, be careful for the country, <sup>f</sup> and our nation, which is pressed on every side, according to the clemency that thou readily shewest unto all.

10 For as long as Judas liveth, it is not possible that the state should be quiet.

11 This was no sooner spoken of him, but others of <sup>g</sup> the king's friends, being maliciously set against Judas, did more incense Demetrius.

12 And forthwith calling <sup>h</sup> Nicanor, who had been master of the elephants, and making him governor over Judea, he sent him forth, 13 Commanding him to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make <sup>i</sup> Alcimus high priest of the great temple.

14 Then <sup>k</sup> the heathen that had fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harm and calamities of the Jews to be their welfare.

15 Now when the Jews heard of Nicanor's coming, and that the heathen || were up against them, they cast earth upon their heads, <sup>1</sup> and made supplication to him that had established his people for ever, and who always helpeth his portion with manifestation of his presence.

16 So at the commandment of the captain they removed straightways from thence, and came near unto them at the town of Dessau.

17 Now <sup>m</sup> Simon, Judas' brother, had joined battle with Nicanor, but was somewhat discomfited through the sudden silence of his enemies.

18 Nevertheless, Nicanor, hearing of the manliness of them that were with Judas, and the courageousness that they had to fight for their country, durst not try the matter by the sword.

19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotus, and Mattathias, <sup>n</sup> to make peace.

20 So when they had taken long advisement thereupon, and the captain had made the multitude acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of one mind, they consented to <sup>o</sup> the covenants,

21 And appointed a day to meet in together by themselves : and when the day came, and stools were set for either of them,

22 Judas placed armed men ready in convenient places, lest some treachery should be suddenly practised by the enemies : so they made a peaceable conference.

23 Now Nicanor abode in Jerusalem, and did no hurt, but sent away the people that came flocking unto him.

24 And he would not willingly have Judas out of his sight : <sup>p</sup> for he loved the man from his heart.

25 He prayed him also to take a wife, and to beget children : so he married, was quiet, and || took part of this life.

26 But Alcimus, perceiving the love that was betwixt them, and considering <sup>q</sup> the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor was not well-affected toward the state : for that he had ordained Judas, a traitor to his realm, to be the king's successor.

27 Then the king being in a rage, and provoked with the accusations of <sup>r</sup> the most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was much displeased with the covenants, and commanding him that he should send Maccabeus prisoner in all haste unto Antioch.

28 When this came to Nicanor's hearing, he was much confounded in himself, and took it grievously that he should make void the articles which were agreed upon, the man being in no fault.

29 But because there was no dealing against the king, he watched his time to accomplish this thing by policy.

30 Notwithstanding, when Maccabeus saw that Nicanor began to be churlish unto him, and that he entreated him more roughly <sup>s</sup> than he was wont, perceiving that such sour behaviour came not of good, he gathered together not a few of his men, and withdrew himself from Nicanor.

31 But the other knowing that he was notably prevented by Judas' policy, <sup>t</sup> came into the great and holy temple, and commanded the priests, that were offering their usual sacrifices, to deliver him the man.

32 And when they swore that they could not tell where the man was whom he sought,

33 He stretched out his right hand toward the temple, and made an oath in this manner : If ye will not deliver me Judas † as a prisoner, I will lay this temple of God even with the ground, and I will break down the altar, and erect a notable temple unto Bacchus.

34 After these words he departed. Then the priests <sup>u</sup> lifted up their hands toward heaven, and besought him that was ever a defender of their nation, saying in this manner ;

35 Thou, <sup>x</sup> O Lord of all things, who hast need of nothing, was pleased that the temple of thine habitation should be among us :

36 Therefore now, O holy Lord of all holiness, keep this house ever undefiled, which lately was cleansed, and stop every unrighteous mouth.

37 Now was there accused unto Nicanor one Razis, one of the <sup>y</sup> elders of Jerusalem, a lover of his countrymen, and a man of very good report, who for his kindness was called a father of the Jews.

38 For in the former times, when they mingled not themselves with the Gentiles, he had been accused of Judaism, and did boldly <sup>z</sup> jeopard his body and life with all vehemency for the religion of the Jews.

39 So Nicanor, willing to declare the hate that he bare unto the Jews, sent above five hundred men of war to take him :

40 For he thought by taking him to do the Jews much hurt.

41 Now when the multitude would have taken the tower, and violently broken into the outer door, and bade that fire should be brought to burn it, he being ready to be taken on every side, <sup>a</sup> fell upon his sword ;

42 <sup>b</sup> Choosing rather to die manfully, than to come into the hands of the wicked, to be abused otherwise than beseemed his noble birth :

43 But missing his stroke through haste, <sup>c</sup> the multitude also rushing within the doors, he ran boldly up to the wall, and cast himself down manfully among the thickest of them.

44 But they quickly giving back, and a space being made, he fell down into the midst of the void place.

45 Nevertheless, while there was yet <sup>d</sup> breath within him, being inflamed with anger, he rose up ; and though his blood gushed out like spouts of water, and his wounds were grievous, yet he ran through the midst of the throng ; and standing upon a steep rock, 46 When as his blood was now quite gone, he plucked out his bowels, and taking them in both his hands, he cast them upon the throng, <sup>e</sup> and calling upon the Lord of life and spirit to restore him those again, he thus died.

CHAPTER XV.

5 Nicanor's blasphemy. 8 Judas encourageth his men by his dream. 28 Nicanor is slain.

BUT Nicanor, hearing <sup>a</sup> that Judas and his company were in the strong places about Samaria, resolved without any danger to set upon them on the sabbath-day.

2 Nevertheless the Jews that were compelled to go with him, said, O destroy not so cruelly and barbarously, but give honour to that day, which he, <sup>b</sup> that seeth all things, <sup>c</sup> hath honoured with holiness above other days.

3 Then the most ungracious wretch demanded, if there were a Mighty One in heaven, that had commanded the sabbath-day to be kept.

4 And when they said, There is in heaven a living Lord, and mighty, who commanded the seventh day to be kept :

5 Then said the other, <sup>d</sup> And I also am mighty upon earth, and I command to take arms, and to do the king's business. Yet he obtained not to have his wicked will done.

6 So Nicanor <sup>e</sup> in exceeding pride and haughtiness determined to set up a public monument of his victory over Judas and them that were with him.

7 But Maccabeus had even sure confidence that the Lord would help him :

8 Wherefore he exhorted his people not to fear the coming of the heathen against them, but to remember the help which in former times they had received from heaven, and now to expect <sup>f</sup> the victory and aid, which should come unto them from the Almighty.

9 And so comforting them out of the law and the prophets, <sup>g</sup> and withal putting them in mind of the battles that they won afore, he made them more cheerful.

10 And when he had stirred up their minds, he gave them the charge, shewing them therewithal the falsehood of the heathen, <sup>h</sup> and the breach of oaths.

11 Thus he armed every one of them, not so much with defence of shields and spears, as with <sup>i</sup> comfortable and good words : and besides that, he told them a dream worthy to be believed, as if it had been so indeed, which did not a little rejoice them.

12 And this was his vision : That Onias, who had been high priest, a virtuous and a good man, reverend in conversation, gentle in condition, well-spoken also, and exercised <sup>k</sup> from a child in all points of virtue, holding up his hands, prayed for the whole body of the Jews.

13 This done, in like manner there appeared a man with gray hairs, and exceeding glorious, who was of a wonderful and excellent majesty.

14 Then Onias answered, saying, This is a lover of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy city, to wit, <sup>l</sup> Jeremias the prophet of God.

15 Whereupon Jeremias holding forth his right hand, gave to Judas a sword of gold, and, in giving it, spake thus, 16 Take this holy sword, a gift from God, <sup>m</sup> with the which thou shalt wound the adversaries.

17 Thus being well comforted by the words of Judas, which were very good, and able to stir them up to valour, and to encourage the hearts of the young men, they determined not to pitch camp, but courageously to set upon them, and manfully to try the matter by conflict, because the city and the sanctuary and the temple were in danger.

18 For the care that they took for their wives, and their children, their brethren, and kinsfolks, was in least account with them : <sup>n</sup> but the greatest and principal fear was for the holy temple.

19 Also they that were in the city took not the least care, being troubled for the conflict abroad.

20 And now, when as all looked what should be the trial, and the enemies were already come near, and the army was set in array, and the beasts conveniently placed, and the horsemen set in wings.

21 Maccabeus, seeing the coming of the multitude, and the divers preparations of armour, and the fierceness of the beasts, <sup>o</sup> stretched out his hands towards heaven, and called upon the Lord that worketh wonders, knowing that <sup>p</sup> victory cometh not by arms, but even as it seemeth good to him, he giveth it to such as are worthy :

22 Therefore in his prayer he said after this manner ; O Lord, <sup>q</sup> thou didst send thine angel in the time of Ezekias king of Judea, and didst slay in the host of Sennacherib an hundred fourscore and five thousand

23 Wherefore now also, O Lord of heaven, <sup>r</sup> send a good angel before us for a fear and dread unto them ;

24 And through the might of thine arm let those be stricken with terror, that come against thy holy people to blaspheme. And he ended thus.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him came forward with trumpets and songs.

26 But Judas and his company encountered the enemies with <sup>s</sup> invocation and prayer.

27 So that fighting with their hands, and praying unto God with their hearts, they slew no less than thirty and five thousand men : for through the appearance of God they were greatly cheered.

28 Now when the battle was done, <sup>t</sup> returning again with joy, they knew that Nicanor lay dead in his harness.

29 Then they made a great shout and a noise, praising the Almighty in their own language.

30 And Judas, who was ever the chief defender of the citizens, both in body and mind, and who continued his love towards his countrymen all his life, commanded <sup>u</sup> to strike off Nicanor's head, and his hand with his shoulder, <sup>x</sup> and bring them to Jerusalem.

31 So when he was there, and had called them of his nation together, and set the priests before the altar, he sent for them that were of <sup>y</sup> the tower.

32 And shewed them vile Nicanor's head, and the hand of that blasphemer, <sup>z</sup> which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy temple of of the Almighty.

33 And when he had cut out the tongue of that ungodly Nicanor, he commanded that they should give it by pieces unto the fowls, and hang up the reward of his madness before the temple.

34 So every man <sup>a</sup> praised toward the heaven the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled.

35 He hanged also Nicanor's head upon the tower, an evident and manifest sign unto all of the help of the Lord.

36 And they <sup>b</sup> ordained all with a common decree, in no case to let that day pass without solemnity, but to celebrate the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which in the Syrian tongue is called <sup>c</sup> Adar, the day before Mardocheus' day.

37 Thus went it with Nicanor : and from that time forth the Hebrews had the city in their power. And here will I make an end.

38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the story, it is that which I desired : but if slenderly and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto.

39 For as it is hurtful to drink wine or water alone ; and as wine mingled with water is pleasant, and delighteth the taste : even so speech <sup>d</sup> finely framed delighteth the ears of them that read the story. And here shall be an end

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph : 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary, when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 I <sup>a</sup> Abraham begat Isaac ; and Isaac begat Jacob ; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren ;

3 <sup>c</sup> And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar ; and Phares begat Esrom ; and Esrom begat Aram ;

4 <sup>d</sup> And Aram begat Aminadab ; and Aminadab begat Naasson ; and Naasson begat Salmon ;

5 <sup>e</sup> And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab ; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth ; and Obed begat Jesse ;

6 <sup>f</sup> And Jesse begat David the king ; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias ;

7 <sup>g</sup> And Solomon begat Roboam ; and Roboam begat Abia ; and Abia begat Asa ;

8 <sup>h</sup> And Asa begat Josaphat ; and Josaphat begat Joram ; and Joram begat Ozias ;

9 <sup>i</sup> And Ozias begat Joatham ; and Joatham begat Achaz ; and Achaz begat Ezekias ;

10 <sup>k</sup> And Ezekias begat Manasses ; and Manasses begat Amon ; and Amon begat Josias ;

11 <sup>l</sup> And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to || Babylon :

12 <sup>m</sup> And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel ; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel :

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud ; and Abiud begat Eliakim ; and Eliakim begat Azor ;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc ; and Sadoc begat Achim ; and Achim begat Eliud ;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar ; and Eleazar begat Matthan ; and Matthan begat Jacob ;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations ; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations ; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 I <sup>n</sup> Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise : When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 <sup>o</sup> Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 <sup>p</sup> But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife ; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 <sup>q</sup> And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS : for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 <sup>r</sup> Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel ; which being interpreted, is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph, being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife :

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son : and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER II.

1 The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children. 20 Himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 <sup>b</sup> Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews ? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea : for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 <sup>c</sup> And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda : for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem ; and said, Go and search diligently for the young child ; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also 9 When they had heard the king, they departed: and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 <sup>d</sup> And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child, to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 <sup>e</sup> And was there until the † death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, 18 <sup>f</sup> In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 <sup>g</sup> Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 <sup>n</sup> And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAPTER III.

1 John preacheth: His office, life, and baptism. 7 He reprehendeth the Pharisees, 13 and baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

<sup>a</sup> IN those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2 <sup>b</sup> And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 <sup>c</sup> For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 <sup>d</sup> And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins: and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 <sup>e</sup> Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 <sup>f</sup> And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 <sup>g</sup> But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 <sup>h</sup> Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 <sup>i</sup> And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 <sup>k</sup> And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 <sup>l</sup> I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 <sup>m</sup> Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ <sup>n</sup> Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 <sup>o</sup> And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 <sup>p</sup> And, lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ fasteth, and is tempted. 11 The angels minister unto him. 13 He dwelleth in Capernaum, 17 beginneth to preach, 18 calleth Peter and Andrew, 21 James and John, 23 and healeth all the diseased.

THEN was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil.
2 <sup>b</sup> And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered.
3 <sup>c</sup> And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 <sup>d</sup> But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 <sup>e</sup> Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 <sup>f</sup> And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 <sup>g</sup> Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 <sup>h</sup> Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 <sup>i</sup> And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 <sup>k</sup> Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 <sup>l</sup> Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 <sup>m</sup> Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee:

13 <sup>n</sup> And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 <sup>o</sup> The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 <sup>p</sup> The people which sat in darkness saw great light: and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 <sup>q</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 <sup>r</sup> And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 <sup>s</sup> And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 <sup>t</sup> And they straightway left their nets, and followed him

21 <sup>u</sup> And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them.

22 <sup>x</sup> And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 <sup>y</sup> And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 <sup>z</sup> And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judea, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declareth who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill: 15 the candle: 17 that he came to fulfil the law. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 <sup>a</sup> Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 <sup>b</sup> Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 <sup>c</sup> Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 <sup>d</sup> Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 <sup>e</sup> Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 <sup>f</sup> Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 <sup>g</sup> Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 <sup>h</sup> Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 <sup>i</sup> Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 <sup>k</sup> Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 <sup>l</sup> Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 <sup>m</sup> Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 <sup>n</sup> Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 <sup>o</sup> Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ <sup>p</sup> Think not that I am come to † destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 <sup>q</sup> For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 <sup>r</sup> Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 <sup>s</sup> For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 <sup>t</sup> Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 <sup>u</sup> But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, ¶ Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 <sup>x</sup> Therefore, if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, 24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 <sup>v</sup> Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 <sup>z</sup> Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 <sup>a</sup> Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 <sup>b</sup> But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 <sup>c</sup> And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 <sup>c</sup> And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 <sup>d</sup> It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 <sup>d</sup> But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

33 <sup>e</sup> Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

34 <sup>f</sup> But I say unto you, Swear not at all: neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

35 <sup>g</sup> Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black:

37 <sup>h</sup> But let your communication be, Yea, yea; nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these, cometh of evil.

38 <sup>i</sup> Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 <sup>k</sup> But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 <sup>l</sup> And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also.

41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 <sup>m</sup> Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee, turn not thou away.

43 <sup>n</sup> Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy:

44 <sup>o</sup> But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you;

45 <sup>p</sup> That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 <sup>q</sup> For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 <sup>r</sup> And if ye salute your brethren only, what do you more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 <sup>s</sup> Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER VI.

Anno DOMINI
31.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 24 of serving God and Mammon : 25 exhorteth not to be careful for worldly things ; 33 but to seek God's kingdom.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them : otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 <sup>a</sup> Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth :

4 <sup>b</sup> That thine alms may be in secret : and thy Father, which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

5 <sup>c</sup> And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are : for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 <sup>d</sup> But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and, when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret : and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 <sup>e</sup> But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do : for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them : for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 <sup>f</sup> After this manner therefore pray ye : Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name :

10 <sup>g</sup> Thy kingdom come : thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven :

11 <sup>h</sup> Give us this day our daily bread :

12 <sup>i</sup> And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors :

13 <sup>k</sup> And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil : for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 <sup>l</sup> For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you :

15 <sup>m</sup> But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 <sup>n</sup> Moreover, when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance : for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face ;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret : and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 <sup>o</sup> Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal :

20 <sup>p</sup> But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal :

21 <sup>q</sup> For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 <sup>r</sup> The light of the body is the eye : If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light :

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness !

24 <sup>s</sup> No man can serve two masters : for either he will hate the one, and love the other ; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon.

25 <sup>t</sup> Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink ; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment ?

26 <sup>u</sup> Behold the fowls of the air : for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns ; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they ?

27 <sup>x</sup> Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature ?

28 <sup>y</sup> And why take ye thought for raiment ? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow ; they toil not, neither do they spin :

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 <sup>z</sup> Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith ?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat ? or, What shall we drink ? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed ?

32 <sup>a</sup> (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek :) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 <sup>b</sup> But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness ; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 <sup>c</sup> Take therefore no thought for the morrow : for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ endeth his sermon in the mount, reproveth rash judgment, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 not to be hearers only, but doers of the word, 24 like houses builded on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

JUDGE not, that ye be not judged.

2 <sup>a</sup> For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 <sup>b</sup> And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 <sup>c</sup> Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye: and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 <sup>d</sup> Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 <sup>e</sup> Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 <sup>f</sup> Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 <sup>g</sup> Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 <sup>h</sup> If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 <sup>i</sup> Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 <sup>j</sup> Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life; and few there be that find it.

15 <sup>k</sup> Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves:

16 <sup>l</sup> Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 <sup>m</sup> Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 <sup>n</sup> A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 <sup>o</sup> Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 <sup>p</sup> Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 <sup>q</sup> Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 <sup>r</sup> And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 <sup>s</sup> Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 <sup>t</sup> And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 <sup>u</sup> And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine.

29 <sup>v</sup> For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER VIII.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother-in-law, 16 and many other diseased: 19 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 32 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 <sup>a</sup> And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean: And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 <sup>c</sup> And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

5 <sup>d</sup> And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 <sup>e</sup> The centurion answered and said, Lord,

I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

14 And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered || unto them.

16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils; and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 And when he was come to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters:

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their way into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Christ curing one sick of the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew, 10 eateth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus's daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man possessed of a devil, 36 and hath compassion on the multitude.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus † knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 <sup>e</sup> And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 <sup>f</sup> But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 <sup>g</sup> Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 <sup>h</sup> And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 <sup>i</sup> While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about; and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place; for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened: and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 <sup>l</sup> As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. l Luke 11, 14.

33 <sup>m</sup> And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. m Mark 12 22, 23.

8 <sup>e</sup> Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 <sup>r</sup> Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass, in your purses:

10 <sup>s</sup> Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 <sup>h</sup> And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 <sup>i</sup> And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 <sup>k</sup> Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 <sup>l</sup> Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 <sup>m</sup> But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 <sup>n</sup> And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 <sup>o</sup> But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you at that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 <sup>p</sup> For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 <sup>q</sup> And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 <sup>r</sup> And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake; but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 <sup>s</sup> The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 <sup>t</sup> It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 <sup>u</sup> Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house-tops.

28 <sup>x</sup> And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 <sup>y</sup> But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 <sup>z</sup> Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 <sup>a</sup> Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to † set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36 <sup>b</sup> And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 <sup>c</sup> He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 <sup>d</sup> And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 <sup>e</sup> He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 <sup>f</sup> He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet, in the name of a prophet, shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man, in the name of a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 <sup>g</sup> And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, He shall in no wise lose his reward.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities.

3 <sup>b</sup> And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 <sup>c</sup> The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 <sup>d</sup> And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 <sup>e</sup> And, as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 <sup>f</sup> But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 <sup>g</sup> For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 <sup>h</sup> Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 <sup>i</sup> And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 <sup>k</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 <sup>l</sup> And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.

15 <sup>m</sup> He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 <sup>n</sup> But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 <sup>o</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking; and they say, He hath a devil.

19 <sup>p</sup> The Son of man came eating and drinking; and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But Wisdom is justified of her children.

20 <sup>q</sup> Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Wo unto thee, Chorazin! wo unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you

23 <sup>r</sup> And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 <sup>s</sup> But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 <sup>t</sup> At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 <sup>u</sup> Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 <sup>v</sup> All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 <sup>w</sup> Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 <sup>x</sup> Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 <sup>y</sup> For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath, 3 by scripture, 10 by reason, 13 and by a miracle. 22 He healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb. 31 Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven. 36 Account shall be made of idle words. 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, who seek after a sign, 49 and sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

<sup>a</sup> AT that time Jesus went on the sabbath-day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungered, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath-day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did when he was an hungered, and they that were with him;

4 <sup>b</sup> How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shew-bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 <sup>c</sup> Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath-days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 <sup>d</sup> But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 <sup>e</sup> But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

9 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue :

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-days ? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out ?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep ? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath-days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth ; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence : and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all ;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known :

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen ; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased : I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry ; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb : and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David ?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation : and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand :

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself ; how shall then his kingdom stand ?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out ? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else, how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man ? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me ; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men : but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him : but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good ; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt : for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers ! how can ye, being evil, speak good things ? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man, out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things : and an evil man, out of the evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign ; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas :

40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly ; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : because they repented at the preaching of Jonas ; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon ; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out ; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there : and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so

<sup>a</sup> THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea-side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow:

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had not root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them.

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel : and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 <sup>f</sup> When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart : and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 <sup>g</sup> And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past ; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 <sup>h</sup> But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart ; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 <sup>i</sup> And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass ; and took the five loaves and the two fishes, and, looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled : and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22 <sup>l</sup> And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 <sup>k</sup> And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray : and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves : for the wind was contrary.

25 <sup>l</sup> And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit ; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer ; || it is I ; be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid ; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me !

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt ?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 <sup>m</sup> Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 <sup>n</sup> And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased ;

36 <sup>n</sup> And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment : and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER XV.

3 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees for transgressing God's commandments through their own traditions ; 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth, doth not defile a man : 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes : 32 and with seven loaves, and a few little fishes, feedeth four thousand men, besides women and children.

<sup>a</sup> THEN came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders ? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition ?

4 <sup>b</sup> For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother : and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me ;

6 <sup>c</sup> And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites ! well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 <sup>d</sup> This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips ; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 <sup>e</sup> And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand :

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man ; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying ?

13 <sup>f</sup> But he answered and said, Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

16 <sup>k</sup> And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand. that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 <sup>l</sup> But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 <sup>m</sup> For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 <sup>n</sup> These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 <sup>l</sup> Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David! my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 <sup>o</sup> But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me!

26 <sup>p</sup> But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 <sup>l</sup> And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 <sup>r</sup> And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 <sup>s</sup> Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 <sup>t</sup> And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The people's opinion of Christ, 16 and Peter's confession of him. 21 Jesus foresheweth his death, 23 reproving Peter for dissuading him from it: 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him, to bear the cross.

<sup>a</sup> THE Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting, desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather, for the sky is red:

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day; for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 <sup>b</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

5 <sup>l</sup> And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed, and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 <sup>d</sup> Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 <sup>e</sup> Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 <sup>b</sup> And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 <sup>i</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 <sup>k</sup> And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter; and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 <sup>l</sup> And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 <sup>m</sup> Then charged he his disciples, that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 <sup>n</sup> From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 <sup>o</sup> Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, LORD: this shall not be unto thee.

23 <sup>p</sup> But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ: 14 He healeth the lunatic, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

AND after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain, apart,

2 <sup>b</sup> And was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: If thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 <sup>c</sup> While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and, behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 <sup>d</sup> And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 <sup>e</sup> And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 <sup>f</sup> And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 <sup>g</sup> But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 <sup>h</sup> And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 <sup>i</sup> And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

e Mark 9,

7 ¶ Wo unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh!

Luke 17, 1.

8 Wherefore, if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands, or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.

f Luke 17,

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell-fire.

Mark 9, 43.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so, it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

15 Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him which owed him ten thousand talents:

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

CHAPTER XIX.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorcement: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth the young man how to attain eternal life, 21 and how to be perfect: 23 telleth his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God: 27 and promiseth reward to those that forsake any thing to follow him.

John 3, 22.
& 10, 40.

AND it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Jordan:

2 And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 <sup>b</sup> And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning, made them male and female;

5 <sup>c</sup> And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

7 <sup>d</sup> They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 <sup>e</sup> And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 <sup>f</sup> His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 <sup>g</sup> But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 <sup>h</sup> For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 <sup>i</sup> Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 <sup>k</sup> But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 <sup>l</sup> And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 <sup>m</sup> And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 <sup>n</sup> He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness;

19 <sup>o</sup> Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 <sup>p</sup> Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 <sup>q</sup> Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 <sup>r</sup> But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible ; but with God all things are possible.

27 * Then answered Peter, and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee : what shall we have therefore ?

28 * And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 * And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 * But many that are first shall be last ; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Christ, by the similitude of the labourers in the vineyard, sheweth that God is debtor unto no man ; 17 foretelleth his passion ; 20 by answering the mother of Zebedee's children, teacheth his disciples to be lowly ; 30 and giveth two blind men their sight.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a-day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place,

4 * And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard ; and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle ?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard ; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 * And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more ; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house,

12 * Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, † Friend, I do thee no wrong : didst not thou agree with me for a penny ?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way : I will give unto this last even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own ? Is thine eye evil because I am good ?

16 * So the last shall be first, and the first last : for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem ; took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 * Behold, we go up to Jerusalem ; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, 19 * And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him : and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children, with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 * And he said unto her, What wilt thou ? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 * But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with ? They say unto him, We are able.

23 * And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with ; but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, † but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 * And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 * But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you : but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister ;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant :

28 * Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 ¶ And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 * And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 17 curseth the fig-tree, 23 putteth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sons, 33 and the husbandmen who slew such as were sent unto them.

AND when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

16 <sup>h</sup> And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 <sup>i</sup> And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 <sup>k</sup> Now in the morning, as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig-tree withered away.

20 <sup>l</sup> And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 <sup>m</sup> Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 <sup>n</sup> And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 <sup>o</sup> And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterwards he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir; and went not.

publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 <sup>a</sup> For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 <sup>t</sup> Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 <sup>u</sup> And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 <sup>x</sup> But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 <sup>y</sup> And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord, therefore, of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 <sup>z</sup> They say, unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 <sup>a</sup> Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be <sup>b</sup> taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 <sup>c</sup> And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The parable of the marriage of the king's son. 9 The vocation of the Gentiles. 12 The punishment of him that wanted the wedding-garment. 15 Tribute ought to be paid to Cesar. 23 Christ confuteth the Sadducees concerning the resurrection, 34 answereth the lawyer, which is the first and great commandment.

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 <sup>a</sup> The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, 3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 <sup>b</sup> But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 <sup>c</sup> But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 <sup>d</sup> Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 <sup>e</sup> Go ye, therefore, into the highways; and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 <sup>f</sup> And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was † speechless.

13 <sup>g</sup> Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into utter darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 <sup>h</sup> For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 <sup>i</sup> Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 <sup>k</sup> Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 <sup>l</sup> They say unto him, Cesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's, and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 <sup>1</sup> The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 <sup>2</sup> Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 <sup>o</sup> Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 <sup>p</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 <sup>q</sup> I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 <sup>r</sup> And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 <sup>s</sup> But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 <sup>t</sup> Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 <sup>u</sup> And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 <sup>x</sup> While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 <sup>y</sup> He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 <sup>z</sup> The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 <sup>a</sup> And no man was able to answer him a word; neither durst any man, from that day forth, ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Anno

1 Christ admonisheth the people to follow the good doctrine, not the evil examples of the scribes and Pharisees: 5 His disciples must beware of their ambition. 13 He denounceth eight woes against their hypocrisy and blindness; 34 and prophesieth of the destruction of Jerusalem.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 <sup>a</sup> Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

3 All, therefore, whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 <sup>b</sup> For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 <sup>c</sup> But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 <sup>d</sup> And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 <sup>e</sup> But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 <sup>f</sup> And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 <sup>g</sup> But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 <sup>h</sup> And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 <sup>i</sup> But wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 <sup>k</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 <sup>l</sup> Wo unto you, ye blind guides! which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.

17 Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 <sup>m</sup> Ye fools, and blind! for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

21 <sup>a</sup> And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, swear-eth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 <sup>o</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides! which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 <sup>p</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 <sup>q</sup> Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 <sup>r</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 <sup>s</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 <sup>t</sup> Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 <sup>u</sup> Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 <sup>x</sup> Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 <sup>y</sup> That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 <sup>z</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 <sup>a</sup> For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 3 What and how great calamities shall be before it: 29 The signs of his coming to judgment: 36 And because that day and hour is unknown, 42 we ought to watch, like good servants, expecting every moment our master's coming.

<sup>a</sup> AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him, for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 <sup>b</sup> And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 <sup>c</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 <sup>d</sup> For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 <sup>e</sup> And ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 <sup>f</sup> For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 <sup>g</sup> Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 <sup>h</sup> And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 <sup>i</sup> And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 <sup>k</sup> And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 <sup>l</sup> But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 <sup>m</sup> And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 <sup>n</sup> When ye, therefore, shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand,)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

come down to take any thing out of his house :

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 ° And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days !

20 ° But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath-day :

21 ° For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved : but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 ° Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there ; believe it not.

24 ° For there shall arise false christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders ; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert ; go not forth : Behold, he is in the secret chambers ; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west ; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 ° For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ° Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken :

30 ° And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven : and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 ° And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet ; and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree : When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh :

33 ° So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 ° Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled.

35 ° Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ° But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 ° But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, 39 And knew not, until the flood came and took them all away ; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 ° Then shall two be in the field ; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill ; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ° Watch therefore ; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 ° But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 ° Therefore be ye also ready : for in such an hour as you think not the Son of man cometh.

45 ° Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season ?

46 ° Blessed is that servant whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 ° Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming ;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken ;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 ° And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites : there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents.

31 Also the description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 ° And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them :

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 ° While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 ° And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh ; go ye out to meet him.

7 ° Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil ; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so ; lest there be not enough for us and you : but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 <sup>r</sup> And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 <sup>s</sup> Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 <sup>a</sup> But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 <sup>i</sup> Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 <sup>k</sup> For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 <sup>l</sup> And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents; behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 <sup>m</sup> His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 <sup>n</sup> His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 <sup>o</sup> His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strewed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 <sup>p</sup> For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 <sup>q</sup> And cast ye the unprofitable servant into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 <sup>r</sup> When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 <sup>s</sup> And before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 <sup>t</sup> Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 <sup>u</sup> For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 <sup>x</sup> And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 <sup>y</sup> Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

42 For I was an hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 <sup>z</sup> Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 <sup>a</sup> And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ 7 The woman anointeth his head. 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover : 26 instituteth his holy supper : 36 prayeth in the garden : 47 and being betrayed with a kiss, 57 is carried to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

6 ¶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

i Ex. 12, 6.

17 ¶ Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand ; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them ; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come. he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, That one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth, as it is written of him : but wo unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed ! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And, as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat ; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it :

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night : for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death : tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me : nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 <sup>d</sup> And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 <sup>e</sup> Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 <sup>f</sup> And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, † Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 <sup>g</sup> And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52 <sup>h</sup> Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 <sup>i</sup> Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 <sup>k</sup> But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 <sup>l</sup> But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 <sup>m</sup> And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off, unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 <sup>n</sup> Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 <sup>o</sup> But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, 61 <sup>p</sup> And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 <sup>q</sup> But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee, by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 <sup>r</sup> Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 <sup>s</sup> Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 <sup>t</sup> What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 <sup>u</sup> Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 <sup>v</sup> Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 <sup>w</sup> Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 <sup>z</sup> And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 <sup>a</sup> Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 <sup>b</sup> And Peter remembered the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 <sup>b</sup> And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 <sup>1</sup> <sup>c</sup> Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 <sup>d</sup> Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 <sup>e</sup> And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 <sup>f</sup> Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 <sup>g</sup> Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 <sup>h</sup> And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 <sup>i</sup> And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 <sup>k</sup> Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 <sup>l</sup> And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 <sup>m</sup> Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 <sup>n</sup> Therefore, when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 <sup>o</sup> For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 <sup>p</sup> But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 <sup>q</sup> The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 <sup>r</sup> When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 <sup>s</sup> Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 <sup>t</sup> Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 <sup>u</sup> And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 <sup>x</sup> And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 <sup>y</sup> And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a scull, 34 <sup>z</sup> They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 <sup>a</sup> And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 <sup>b</sup> And sitting down, they watched him there;

37 <sup>c</sup> And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 <sup>d</sup> Then were there two thieves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 <sup>e</sup> And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 <sup>f</sup> And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

- 41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,
- 42 He saved others, himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.
- 43 <sup>g</sup> He trusted in God ; let him deliver him now, if he will have him : for he said, I am the Son of God.
- 44 <sup>h</sup> The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.
- 45 <sup>i</sup> Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.
- 46 <sup>k</sup> And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
- 47 <sup>l</sup> Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.
- 48 <sup>m</sup> And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
- 49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.
- 50 <sup>n</sup> Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
- 51 <sup>o</sup> And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom ; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent ;
- 52 And the graves were opened ; and many bodies of saints which slept arose,
- 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.
- 54 <sup>p</sup> Now when the centurion and they that were with him watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.
- 55 <sup>q</sup> And many women were there, beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him ;
- 56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.
- 57 <sup>r</sup> When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple :
- 58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.
- 59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
- 60 <sup>s</sup> And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock : and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.
- 61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.
- 62 <sup>t</sup> Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,
- 63 <sup>u</sup> Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.
- 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead : so the last error shall be worse than the first.
- 65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch : go your way, make it as sure as you can.
- 66 <sup>v</sup> So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.
- CHAPTER XXVIII.
- 1 Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women : 9 He himself appeareth unto them. 11 The chief priests give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his sepulchre. 16 Christ appeareth to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to baptize, and teach all nations.
- <sup>a</sup> IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.
- 2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake : for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.
- 3 <sup>b</sup> His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow :
- 4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.
- 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye : for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.
- 6 <sup>c</sup> He is not here ; for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.
- 7 <sup>d</sup> And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead ; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee ; there shall ye see him : lo, I have told you.
- 8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.
- 9 <sup>e</sup> And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.
- 10 <sup>f</sup> Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid : go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.
- 11 <sup>g</sup> Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.
- 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers,
- 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 <sup>z</sup> And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ <sup>h</sup> Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 <sup>i</sup> And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 <sup>k</sup> Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

CHAPTER I.

1 The office of John the Baptist. 9 Jesus is baptized, 12 tempted: 14 He preacheth, 16 calleth Peter, Andrew, James, and John: 23 healeth one that had a devil, 29 Peter's mother-in-law, 32 many diseased persons: 41 and cleanseth the leper.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ,
the Son of God;

2 <sup>b</sup> As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 <sup>c</sup> The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 <sup>d</sup> John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 <sup>e</sup> And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 <sup>f</sup> And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 <sup>g</sup> And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 <sup>h</sup> I indeed have baptized you with water:
but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 ¶ <sup>i</sup> And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him:

11 <sup>k</sup> And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 <sup>l</sup> And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ¶ <sup>m</sup> Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 <sup>n</sup> And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 <sup>o</sup> Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 <sup>p</sup> And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 ¶ <sup>q</sup> And they went into Capernaum: and straightway on the sabbath-day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 <sup>r</sup> And they were astonished at his doctrine:
for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 <sup>s</sup> And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 <sup>t</sup> Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 <sup>u</sup> And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying,

3 Christ healeth one sick of the palsy, 14 calleth Matthew from the receipt of customs, 15 eateth with publicans and sinners, 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, 23 and for plucking the ears of corn on the sabbath-day.

a AND again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 b When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 c Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

8 d And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 e And he went forth again by the sea-side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 f And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 g When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the phy-

18 <sup>g</sup> And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast : and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not ?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them ? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 <sup>h</sup> But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment : else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles : else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred : but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 <sup>i</sup> And it came to pass, that he went through the corn-fields on the sabbath-day ; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath-day that which is not lawful ?

25 <sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungered, he, and they that were with him ?

26 <sup>l</sup> How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him ?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath :

28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand, 10 and many other infirmities : 11 rebuketh the unclean spirits : 13 chooseth his twelve apostles : 22 convinceth the blasphemy of casting out devils by Beelzebub : 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, and mother.

<sup>a</sup> AND he entered again into the synagogue ; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath-day ; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath-days, or to do evil ? to save life, or to kill ? But they held their peace.

5 <sup>b</sup> And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out : and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 <sup>c</sup> And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 <sup>d</sup> But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea : and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan ; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many ; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had † plagues.

11 <sup>e</sup> And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 <sup>f</sup> And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 <sup>g</sup> And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would : and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils :

16 <sup>h</sup> And Simon he surnamed Peter ;

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James ; and he surnamed them || Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder ;

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite, 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him : and they went into an house.

20 <sup>i</sup> And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 <sup>j</sup> And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him : for they said, He is beside himself.

22 <sup>k</sup> And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

23 <sup>l</sup> And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan ?

CHAPTER IV.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly, 30 and of the mustard-seed. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

a Mat. 13,
29.
Luke 8, 4.

<sup>a</sup> AND he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 <sup>b</sup> And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

o Mat. 11,
15.

10 <sup>c</sup> And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 <sup>d</sup> And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables.

12 <sup>e</sup> That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 The sower soweth the word.

15 <sup>f</sup> And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 <sup>g</sup> And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 <sup>h</sup> And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 <sup>i</sup> And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 <sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 <sup>l</sup> For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 <sup>m</sup> If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 <sup>n</sup> And he said unto them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 <sup>o</sup> For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 <sup>p</sup> And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her-

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 <sup>a</sup> And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God ? or with what comparison shall we compare it ?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth :

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches ; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 <sup>r</sup> And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them : and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 ¶ And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 <sup>s</sup> And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow : and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish ?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful ? how is it that ye have no faith ?

41 <sup>t</sup> And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him ?

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ delivering the possessed of the legion of devils, 13 they enter into the swine : 25 He healeth the woman of the bloody issue, 35 and raiseth from death Jairus's daughter.

<sup>a</sup> AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs ; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains :

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces : neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 <sup>b</sup> And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God ? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name ? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion : for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there, nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine : and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) and were choked in the sea.

14 <sup>c</sup> And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 <sup>d</sup> And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind : and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befel to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 <sup>e</sup> And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 <sup>f</sup> And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him : and all men did marvel.

21 ¶ And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him ; and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 <sup>h</sup> And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name ; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death : I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed ; and she shall live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 <sup>i</sup> And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 <sup>κ</sup> And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 <sup>i</sup> And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith † hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 <sup>m</sup> While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 <sup>n</sup> And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 <sup>o</sup> And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 <sup>p</sup> And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi: which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 <sup>q</sup> And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

1 Christ is contemned of his countrymen. 7 He giveth the twelve power over unclean spirits. 14 Divers opinions of Christ. 27 John Baptist is beheaded, 29 and buried. 30 The apostles return from preaching. 34 The miracle of five loaves and two fishes. 48 Christ walketh on the sea: 53 and healeth all that touch him.

<sup>a</sup> AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 <sup>b</sup> And when the sabbath-day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 <sup>c</sup> Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 <sup>d</sup> But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 <sup>e</sup> And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 <sup>f</sup> And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 <sup>g</sup> And he calleth unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 <sup>h</sup> And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:

9 <sup>i</sup> But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 <sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 <sup>l</sup> And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 <sup>m</sup> And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 <sup>n</sup> And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 <sup>o</sup> And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad;) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 <sup>p</sup> Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said,

It is John, whom I beheaded : he is risen from the dead.

17<sup>a</sup> For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife : for he had married her.

18<sup>r</sup> For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19<sup>s</sup> Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him ; but she could not.

20<sup>t</sup> For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him ; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21<sup>u</sup> And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee ;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23<sup>x</sup> And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask ? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26<sup>y</sup> And the king was exceeding sorry ; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27<sup>z</sup> And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought : and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel : and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30<sup>a</sup> ¶ And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31<sup>b</sup> And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile : for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32<sup>c</sup> And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33<sup>d</sup> And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34<sup>e</sup> And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd : and he began to teach them many things.

35<sup>f</sup> And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed :

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread : for they have nothing to eat.

37<sup>g</sup> He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat ?

38<sup>h</sup> He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye ? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by † companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41<sup>i</sup> And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them ; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45<sup>k</sup> ¶ And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47<sup>l</sup> And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them ; and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out :

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer : it is I ; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship ; and the wind ceased ; and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52<sup>m</sup> For they considered not the miracle of the loaves : for their heart was † hardened.

53<sup>n</sup> And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The Pharisees find fault with the disciples, for eating with unwashen hands. 8 They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men. 14 Meat defileth not the man: 24 He healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit, 31 and one that was deaf and stammered in his speech.

a Mat. 15, 1. a THEN came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands † oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

b 2 Kings 5, 14. i Cor. 10, 2. 4 <sup>b</sup> And when they come from the market, except they wash they eat not. And many other things there be which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brassen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

c Isa. 29, 13. 6 <sup>c</sup> He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

d Mat. 15, 9. Col. 2, 18. Titus 1, 14. 7 <sup>d</sup> Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, ¶ Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 <sup>e</sup> For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is ¶ Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do aught for his father or his mother;

13 <sup>f</sup> Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye 14 <sup>g</sup> And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand.

15 <sup>h</sup> There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 <sup>i</sup> If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 <sup>k</sup> And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 <sup>l</sup> And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. l James 3, 6.

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ <sup>n</sup> And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid. n Mat. 15, 21.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet.

26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation: and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 <sup>o</sup> But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. o Mat. 15, 26.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

36 <sup>t</sup> And he charged them that they should tell no man : but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it ;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well : he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously : 10 refuseth to give a sign to the Pharisees : 14 admonisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod : 22 giveth a blind man his sight : 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again : 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution for the profession of the gospel.

IN those days, the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat :

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way : for divers of them came from far.

4 <sup>b</sup> And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness ?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye ? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground : and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them ; and they did set them before the people.

7 <sup>c</sup> And they had a few small fishes : and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled : and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand : and he sent them away.

10 I <sup>d</sup> And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 <sup>e</sup> And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 <sup>f</sup> And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign ? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and, entering into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 <sup>a</sup> Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 <sup>b</sup> And he charged them, saying, † Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 <sup>i</sup> And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye because ye have no bread ? perceive ye not yet, neither understand ? have ye your heart yet hardened ?

18 Having eyes, see ye not ? and having ears, hear ye not ? and do ye not remember, 19 <sup>k</sup> When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up ? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 <sup>l</sup> And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up ? And they said, Seven.

21 <sup>m</sup> And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand ?

22 I <sup>n</sup> And he cometh to Bethsaida ; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 <sup>o</sup> And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town : and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw aught ?

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men, as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up : and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 I <sup>p</sup> And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi : and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am ?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist : but some say, Elias ; and others, One of the prophets.

29 <sup>q</sup> And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am ? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 <sup>r</sup> And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed ; and after three days rise again.

32 <sup>s</sup> And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 <sup>t</sup> But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan : for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men

CHAPTER IX.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elias: 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 bidding them not to prohibit such as be not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithful.

<sup>a</sup> AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 <sup>b</sup> And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 <sup>c</sup> And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 <sup>d</sup> And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 <sup>e</sup> And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 <sup>f</sup> And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 <sup>g</sup> And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 <sup>h</sup> And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 <sup>i</sup> But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 <sup>k</sup> And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 <sup>l</sup> And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him and saith, O faithless generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? Bring him unto me.

20 <sup>m</sup> And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child:

22 And oft-times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 <sup>n</sup> Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 <sup>o</sup> When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 <sup>p</sup> And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting.

30 <sup>q</sup> And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the

2 Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement: 13 blesseth the children that are brought unto him: 17 resolveth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting: 23 telleth his disciples of the danger of riches: 28 promiseth rewards to them that forsake any thing for the gospel: 32 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 35 biddeth the two ambitious suitors to think rather of suffering with him: 46 and restoreth to Bartimeus his sight.

thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is, God.

19 <sup>a</sup> Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 <sup>a</sup> Then Jesus beholding him, loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved; for he had great possessions.

23 <sup>p</sup> And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a || camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 <sup>a</sup> And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 <sup>r</sup> Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 <sup>a</sup> And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 <sup>t</sup> But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 <sup>u</sup> And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 <sup>x</sup> Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him; and the third day he shall rise again.

35 <sup>y</sup> And James and John, the sons of Ze-bedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 <sup>z</sup> And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 <sup>a</sup> But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 <sup>b</sup> And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 <sup>c</sup> But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 <sup>d</sup> And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 <sup>e</sup> But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 <sup>f</sup> But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 <sup>g</sup> And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 <sup>h</sup> For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 <sup>i</sup> And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway side, begging.

47 <sup>k</sup> And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, † Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 <sup>l</sup> And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

17 <sup>e</sup> And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer ? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 <sup>b</sup> And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him : for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 <sup>i</sup> And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 <sup>k</sup> And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots.

21 <sup>l</sup> And Peter calling to remembrance, saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig-tree which thou cursedst is withered away !

22 And Jesus answering saith <sup>o</sup> unto them, Have faith in God.

23 <sup>m</sup> For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea ; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass ; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 <sup>n</sup> Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 <sup>o</sup> And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any ; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 <sup>p</sup> And they come again to Jerusalem : and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 <sup>q</sup> And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things ? and who gave thee this authority to do these things ?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men ? answer me.

31 <sup>r</sup> And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven ; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him ?

32 <sup>s</sup> But if we shall say, Of men ; they feared the people : for all men counted John that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER XII.

Anno DOMINI
33.

1 In a parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen, Christ foretelleth the reprobation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles. 13 He avoideth the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cesar: 18 convinceth the error of the Sadducees, who denied the resurrection, 28 resolveth the scribe, who questioned of the first commandment: 35 refuteth the opinion that the scribes held of Christ: 38 bidding the people to beware of their ambition and hypocrisy: 41 and commendeth the poor widow for her two mites above all.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cesar's.

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died; neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

hour as himself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 <sup>u</sup> And Jesus answered and said while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 <sup>x</sup> For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 <sup>y</sup> And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts;

40 <sup>z</sup> Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 <sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup> And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 <sup>b</sup> And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 9 the persecutions for the gospel: 10 that the gospel must be preached to all nations: 14 that great calamities shall happen to the Jews: 24 and the manner of his coming to judgment: 32 the hour whereof being known to none, every man is to watch and pray, that we be not found unprovided, when he cometh to each one particularly by death.

<sup>d</sup> <sup>Acts 1, 6.</sup> 4 <sup>d</sup> Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 <sup>e</sup> And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 <sup>f</sup> For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 <sup>g</sup> For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 <sup>h</sup> But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 <sup>i</sup> And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 <sup>k</sup> But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate; but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 <sup>l</sup> Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 <sup>m</sup> And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 <sup>n</sup> But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 <sup>o</sup> But wo to them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 <sup>p</sup> For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 <sup>q</sup> And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 <sup>r</sup> For false christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

told you all things.

24 <sup>a</sup> But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light;

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 <sup>a</sup> And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 <sup>a</sup> And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 <sup>v</sup> Now learn a parable of the fig-tree;
When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 <sup>z</sup> Verily I say unto you, That this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 <sup>a</sup> Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 <sup>b</sup> But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 <sup>c</sup> Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 <sup>d</sup> Watch ye therefore; for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning.

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman. 10 Judas selleth his Master for money. 12 Christ himself foretelleth how he shall be betrayed of one of his disciples: 22 after the passover prepared, and eaten, instituteth his supper: 26 declareth aforehand the flight of all his disciples, and Peter's denial. 43 Judas betrayeth him with a kiss. 46 He is apprehended in the garden, 55 falsely accused, and impiously condemned of the Jews' council, 65 shamefully abused by them, 66 and thrice denied of Peter.

<sup>a</sup> AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 <sup>b</sup> But they said, † Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 <sup>c</sup> And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster-box of ointment of spikenard, very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 <sup>d</sup> For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good:
but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done † what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 <sup>e</sup> And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him

12 <sup>f</sup> And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them:
and they made ready the passover.

17 <sup>g</sup> And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 <sup>h</sup> And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them,
It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 <sup>i</sup> The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 <sup>k</sup> And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

23 <sup>1</sup> And he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 <sup>m</sup> Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 <sup>n</sup> And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 <sup>o</sup> And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 <sup>p</sup> But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 <sup>q</sup> But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 <sup>r</sup> And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 <sup>s</sup> But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 <sup>t</sup> And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 <sup>u</sup> And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 <sup>x</sup> And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 <sup>y</sup> And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 <sup>z</sup> And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 <sup>a</sup> Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy: neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come: behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 <sup>b</sup> And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: take him, and lead him away safely.

45 <sup>c</sup> And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, † Master, master; and kissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 <sup>d</sup> I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 <sup>e</sup> And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 <sup>f</sup> And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 <sup>g</sup> And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 <sup>h</sup> We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 <sup>i</sup> And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 <sup>k</sup> But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 <sup>l</sup> And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

72 <sup>p</sup> And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Jesus brought bound and accused before Pilate. 15 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified. 17 He is crowned with thorns, 19 spit on and mocked: 21 fainteth in bearing his cross: 27 hangeth between two thieves: 29 suffereth the triumphing reproaches of the Jews: 39 but confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God: 43 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

<sup>a</sup> AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 <sup>b</sup> And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things; but he answered nothing.

4 <sup>c</sup> And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 <sup>d</sup> Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 <sup>e</sup> And there was one, named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude, crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 <sup>f</sup> But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 <sup>g</sup> And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 <sup>h</sup> And the soldiers led him away into the hall called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head;

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 <sup>i</sup> And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and, bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 <sup>k</sup> And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 <sup>l</sup> And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 <sup>m</sup> And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 <sup>n</sup> And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 <sup>o</sup> And it was the third hour; and they crucified him.

26 <sup>p</sup> And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 <sup>q</sup> And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 <sup>r</sup> And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 <sup>s</sup> And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests, mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 <sup>t</sup> And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 <sup>u</sup> And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani ? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me ?

35 <sup>x</sup> And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 <sup>y</sup> And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone ; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 <sup>z</sup> And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 <sup>a</sup> And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 <sup>b</sup> And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 <sup>c</sup> There were also women looking on afar off ; among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, and of Josès, and Salome ;

41 <sup>d</sup> (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him ; ) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 <sup>e</sup> ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead ; and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 <sup>f</sup> And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Josès beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women. 9 Christ himself appeareth to Mary Magdalene : 12 to two going into the country : 14 then to the apostles, 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach the gospel : 19 and ascendeth into heaven.

<sup>a</sup> AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 <sup>b</sup> And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre ?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away : for it was very great.

5 <sup>c</sup> And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment ; and they were affrighted.

6 <sup>d</sup> And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified : he is risen ; he is not here : behold the place where they laid him.

7 <sup>e</sup> But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee : there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 <sup>f</sup> And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre ; for they trembled and were amazed : neither said they any thing to any man : for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 <sup>h</sup> And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 <sup>i</sup> After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue ; neither believed they them.

14 <sup>k</sup> Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 <sup>l</sup> And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 <sup>m</sup> He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved ; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 <sup>n</sup> And these signs shall follow them that believe : In my name shall they cast out devils ; they shall speak with new tongues ;

18 <sup>o</sup> They shall take up serpents ; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them ; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 <sup>p</sup> So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 <sup>q</sup> And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 <sup>b</sup> Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word ;

3 <sup>c</sup> It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 <sup>d</sup> THERE was, in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia : and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 <sup>e</sup> And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 <sup>f</sup> And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, 9 <sup>g</sup> According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 <sup>h</sup> And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 <sup>i</sup> And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 <sup>k</sup> But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias : for thy prayer is heard ; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 <sup>l</sup> And thou shalt have joy and gladness ; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 <sup>m</sup> For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink ; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16 <sup>n</sup> And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 <sup>o</sup> And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just ; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 <sup>p</sup> And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this ? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 <sup>q</sup> And the angel answering, said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God ; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 <sup>r</sup> And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them : and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple ; for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 <sup>s</sup> Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 <sup>t</sup> And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 <sup>u</sup> To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David ; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 <sup>v</sup> And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 <sup>x</sup> And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary ; for thou hast found favour with God.

31 <sup>y</sup> And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 <sup>z</sup> He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest : and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David :

33 <sup>a</sup> And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever ; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man ?

35 <sup>b</sup> And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee ; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age : and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.

37 ° For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord ; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda ;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb ; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost :

42 ° And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women ; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me ?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 ° And blessed is she that believed : for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. °

46 ° And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 ° For he hath regarded the ¶ low estate of his handmaiden : for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 ° For he that is mighty hath done to me great things ; and holy is his name.

50 ° And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.

51 ° He hath shewed strength with his arm ; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 ° He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 ° He hath filled the hungry with good things ; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 ° He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy ;

55 ° As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered ; and she brought forth a son.

58 ° And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her ; and they rejoiced with her.

59 ° And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child ; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 ° And his mother answered and said, Not so ; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them : and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judea :

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be ? And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 ° Blessed be the Lord God of Israel ; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 ° And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David ;

70 ° As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began :

71 ° That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us.

72 ° To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant,

73 ° The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 ° That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear,

75 ° In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 ° And thou, child, shalt be called The Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways.

77 ° To give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins,

78 ° Through the tender mercy of our God ; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, 79 ° To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 ° And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

CHAPTER II.

Before the Account called Anno Domini the fifth Year.

1 Augustus taxeth all the Roman empire. 6 The nativity of Christ. 8 An angel relateth it to the shepherds : 13 Many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesy of Christ : 40 who increaseth in wisdom, 46 questioneth in the temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 * And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 <sup>b</sup> And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger ; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 <sup>c</sup> And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them ; and they were sore afraid.

10 <sup>d</sup> And the angel said unto them, Fear not : for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 <sup>e</sup> For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you ; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 <sup>f</sup> And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying, 14 <sup>g</sup> Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 <sup>h</sup> But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 <sup>i</sup> And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 <sup>k</sup> And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord ;

23 <sup>l</sup> (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord ;)

24 <sup>m</sup> And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 <sup>n</sup> And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon ; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel : and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 <sup>o</sup> And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple : and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 <sup>p</sup> Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word :

30 <sup>q</sup> For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people ;

32 <sup>r</sup> A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 <sup>s</sup> And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel ; and for a sign which shall be spoken against ;

35 <sup>t</sup> (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser ; she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity ;

37 <sup>u</sup> And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

40 ¶ And the child grew, and waxed strong || in spirit, filled with wisdom : and the grace of God was upon him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem ; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey ; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 ¶ And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed : and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us ? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 ¶ And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me ? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business ?

50 ¶ And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 ¶ And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them : but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 ¶ And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER III.

1 The preaching and baptism of John. 15 His testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 ¶ Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 ¶ And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins ;

4 ¶ As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low ; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth ;

6 ¶ And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 ¶ Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers ! who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come ?

8 ¶ Bring forth, therefore, fruits worthy of repentance ; and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father : for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 ¶ And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees : every tree, therefore, which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 ¶ And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then ?

11 ¶ He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none ; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 ¶ Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do ?

13 ¶ And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 ¶ And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do ? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely ; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not ;

16 ¶ John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water ; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose : he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire :

17 ¶ Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner ; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things, in his exhortation, preached he unto the people.

19 ¶ But Herod the tetrarch, being reprov'd by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 ¶ Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 ¶ And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him ; and a voice

CHAPTER IV.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He overcometh the devil : 14 beginneth to preach. 16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 33 He cureth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother-in-law, 40 and divers other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it : 43 He preacheth through the cities.

<sup>a</sup> AND Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 <sup>b</sup> Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing : and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 <sup>c</sup> And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 <sup>d</sup> And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 <sup>e</sup> And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them : for that is delivered unto me ; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou, therefore, wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 <sup>f</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan : for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 <sup>g</sup> And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence :

10 <sup>h</sup> For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee ;

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 <sup>i</sup> And Jesus answering, said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 <sup>k</sup> And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 <sup>l</sup> And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee : and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 <sup>m</sup> And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up : and, as his custom was, he 44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship; 4 in a miraculous taking of fishes, sheweth how he will make him and his partners fishers of men; 12 cleanseth the leper; 16 prayeth in the wilderness; 18 healeth one sick of the palsy; 27 calleth Matthew the publican; 29 eateth with sinners as being the physician of souls; 34 foretelleth the fastings and afflictions of the apostles after his ascension: 36 and likeneth faint-hearted and weak disciples to worn garments and old bottles.

<sup>a</sup> AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

a Job 19, 3 & 21, 27.
Mat. 13, 2.
Mark 4, 1.

2 <sup>b</sup> And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

Mark 1, 16.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 <sup>c</sup> Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

c John 21,
6.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing : nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes : and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me ; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken :

10 <sup>d</sup> And so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not ; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 <sup>e</sup> And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 <sup>f</sup> And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy ; who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will ; be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 <sup>g</sup> And he charged him to tell no man : but go and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 <sup>h</sup> But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him : and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 <sup>i</sup> And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 <sup>k</sup> And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem ; and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 <sup>l</sup> And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy : and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling, with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 <sup>m</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies ? Who can forgive sins but God alone ?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts ?

23 <sup>n</sup> Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee ; or to say, Rise up and walk ?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

27 <sup>o</sup> And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom : and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 <sup>p</sup> And Levi made him a great feast in his own house : and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 <sup>q</sup> But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners ?

31 <sup>r</sup> And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician ; but they that are sick.

32 <sup>s</sup> I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 <sup>t</sup> And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees ; but thine eat and drink ?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them ?

35 But the days will come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 <sup>u</sup> And he spake also a parable unto them : No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old ; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles ; else the new wine will burst the bottles and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles ; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new : for he saith, The old is better.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees' blindness about the observation of the sabbath, by scripture, reason, and miracle: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased: 20 preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies; 46 and join the obedience of good works to the hearing of the word, lest in the evil day of temptation we fall like an house built upon the face of the earth without any foundation.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day, that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

h 1 Kings

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But wo unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

25 Wo unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Wo unto you when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you;

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

36 <sup>f</sup> Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 <sup>g</sup> Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

41 <sup>l</sup> And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 <sup>m</sup> Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite! cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 <sup>n</sup> For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 <sup>o</sup> For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes.

45 <sup>p</sup> A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 <sup>q</sup> And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 <sup>r</sup> Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock; and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it; for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth, against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER VII.

Anno
31.

1 Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion a Gentile, than in any of the Jews; 10 healeth his servant being absent; 11 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain; 19 answereth John's messengers with the declaration of his miracles; 24 testifieth to the people what opinion he held of John; 30 inveigheth against the Jews, who with neither the manners of John nor of Jesus could be won; 36 and sheweth by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners, not to maintain them in sins, but to forgive them their sins upon their faith and repentance.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 <sup>a</sup> And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

a Mat. 7,
28 & 8, 5

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him, the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself; for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers: and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

risen up among us ; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 * And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come ? or look we for another ?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come ? or look we for another ?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits ; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 ¶ Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard ; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 * And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see ? A reed shaken with the wind ?

25 <sup>b</sup> But what went ye out for to see ? A man clothed in soft raiment ? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 <sup>i</sup> But what went ye out for to see ? A prophet ? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 <sup>k</sup> This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 <sup>l</sup> For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist : but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 <sup>m</sup> And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 <sup>n</sup> But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 <sup>o</sup> And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation ? and to what are they like ?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced ; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 <sup>p</sup> For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine ; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking ; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners !

35 But Wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 * Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him ; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors : the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty :

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me, therefore, which of them will love him most ?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman ? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet : but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss : but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 Mine head with oil thou didst not anoint : but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore, I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven ; for she loved much : but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 <sup>s</sup> And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 <sup>t</sup> And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also ?

50 <sup>u</sup> And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee ; go in peace.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Women minister unto Christ of their substance. 4 Christ, after he had preached from place to place, attended with his apostles, propoundeth the parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle; 21 declareth who are his mother, and brethren; 22 rebuketh the winds; 26 casteth the legion of devils out of the man into the herd of swine; 37 is rejected of the Gadarenes; 43 healeth the woman of her bloody issue; 49 and raiseth from death Jairus's daughter.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 <sup>a</sup> And certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 <sup>b</sup> And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 <sup>c</sup> And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 <sup>d</sup> And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 <sup>e</sup> Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 <sup>f</sup> They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 <sup>g</sup> And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which, in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 <sup>h</sup> No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 <sup>i</sup> For nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 <sup>k</sup> Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 <sup>l</sup> Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain, which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 <sup>m</sup> And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 <sup>n</sup> Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish! Then he rose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 <sup>o</sup> And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they, being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 <sup>p</sup> And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 <sup>q</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, || Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain; and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them: and he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 <sup>r</sup> Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 <sup>s</sup> Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 <sup>t</sup> And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a-dying. (But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 <sup>u</sup> And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and, falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.)

49 <sup>x</sup> While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; troubled not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 <sup>y</sup> And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 <sup>z</sup> And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished; but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Christ sendeth his apostles to work miracles, and to preach. 7 Herod desireth to see Christ. 13 Christ feedeth five thousand: 18 inquireth what opinion the world had of him: foretelleth his passion: 23 proposeth to all the pattern of his patience. 28 The transfiguration: 37 he healeth the lunatick: 43 again forewarneth his disciples of his passion: 46 commendeth humility: 51 biddeth them to shew mildness towards all, without desire of revenge. 57 Divers would follow him, but upon conditions.

<sup>a</sup> THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 <sup>b</sup> And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 <sup>c</sup> And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 <sup>d</sup> And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 <sup>e</sup> And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet, for a testimony against them.

6 <sup>f</sup> And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 ¶ Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some that John was risen from the dead;

8 <sup>h</sup> And of some, That Elias had appeared; and of others, That one of the old prophets was risen again.

26 <sup>w</sup> For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 <sup>u</sup> But I tell you of a truth, There be some standing here which shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias :

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his † decease, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 <sup>y</sup> But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep : and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here : and let us make three tabernacles ; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias : not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them : and they feared ¶ as they entered into the cloud.

35 <sup>z</sup> And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son : hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son ; for he is mine only child :

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out ; and it teareth him that he foameth again ; and, bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out ; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation ! how long shall I be with you, and suffer you ? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 45 <sup>c</sup> But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not : and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ <sup>d</sup> Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 <sup>e</sup> And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me ; and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me : for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 <sup>f</sup> And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name ; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 <sup>g</sup> And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not : for he that is not against us is for us.

51 <sup>h</sup> And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he † stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face : and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 <sup>i</sup> And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 <sup>k</sup> And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did ?

55 But he turned and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 <sup>l</sup> For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ <sup>m</sup> And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests ; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 <sup>n</sup> And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead ; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 <sup>o</sup> And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee, but let me first go bid them farewell which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER X.

Anno
32.

1 Christ sendeth out at once seventy disciples to work miracles, and to preach : 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoice : 21 thanketh his Father for his grace : 23 magnifieth the happy estate of his church : 25 teacheth the lawyer how to attain eternal life, and to take every one for his neighbour that needeth his mercy : 41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary her sister.

<sup>a</sup> AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 <sup>b</sup> Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few : pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 <sup>c</sup> Go your ways : behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 <sup>d</sup> Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes : and salute no man by the way.

5 <sup>e</sup> And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it : if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 <sup>f</sup> And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give : for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you :

9 <sup>g</sup> And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 <sup>h</sup> But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you : notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 <sup>i</sup> But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.

13 <sup>k</sup> Wo unto thee, Chorazin ! wo unto thee, Bethsaida ! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

15 <sup>l</sup> And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shall be thrust down to hell.

16 <sup>m</sup> He that heareth you heareth me ; and he that despiseth you despiseth me ; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 <sup>a</sup> And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 <sup>o</sup> Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 <sup>p</sup> Notwithstanding, in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

21 <sup>q</sup> In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 <sup>r</sup> All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 <sup>s</sup> And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 <sup>t</sup> And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 <sup>u</sup> And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 <sup>x</sup> And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 <sup>y</sup> But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 <sup>z</sup> And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 <sup>a</sup> And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 <sup>b</sup> Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

39 <sup>c</sup> And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 <sup>d</sup> But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly: 11 assuring that God so will give us good things. 14 He, casting out a dumb devil, rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisees: 28 and sheweth who are blessed: 29 preacheth to the people: 37 and reprehendeth the outward shew of holiness in the Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 <sup>a</sup> And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name: Thy kingdom come: Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 <sup>b</sup> Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 <sup>c</sup> And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us: And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 <sup>d</sup> And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend, yet because of his † importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

h Mat. 9.32.
& 12, 22.

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake ; and the people wondered.

15 ' But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 * And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 ' But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation ; and a house divided against a house, falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand ? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out ? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 <sup>m</sup> But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 <sup>a</sup> When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace :

22 <sup>o</sup> But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 <sup>p</sup> He that is not with me is against me ; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 <sup>q</sup> When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest ; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 <sup>r</sup> Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself ; and they enter in, and dwell there : and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 <sup>s</sup> And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 ' But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 <sup>u</sup> And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation : they seek a sign ; and there shall no sign be given it but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 <sup>x</sup> The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them : for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon ; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

32 <sup>y</sup> The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it : for they repented at the preaching of Jonas ; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 <sup>z</sup> No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 <sup>a</sup> The light of the body is the eye : therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light ; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him : and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 <sup>b</sup> And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 <sup>c</sup> And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter ; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also ?

41 <sup>d</sup> But rather give alms of such things as ye have ; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 <sup>e</sup> But wo unto you, Pharisees ! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God : these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 <sup>f</sup> Wo unto you, Pharisees ! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 <sup>g</sup> Wo unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites ! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 <sup>b</sup> And he said, Wo unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 <sup>i</sup> Wo unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

52 <sup>m</sup> Wo unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things;

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisy and fearfulness in publishing his doctrine: 13 warneth the people to beware of covetousness, by the parable of the rich man who set up greater barns. 22 We must not be over-careful of earthly things; 31 but seek the kingdom of God, 33 give alms; 36 be ready at a knock to open to our Lord whensoever he cometh. 41 Christ's ministers are to see to their charge, 49 and look for persecution. 54 The people must take this time of grace; 58 because it is a fearful thing to die without reconciliation.

a Mat. 16,

Mark 8, 15.

<sup>a</sup> IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 <sup>b</sup> For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear, in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.

4 <sup>c</sup> And I say unto you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him which, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 <sup>d</sup> Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten before God:

7 <sup>e</sup> But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 <sup>f</sup> Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 <sup>g</sup> And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

11 <sup>h</sup> And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 <sup>i</sup> And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 <sup>k</sup> And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 <sup>l</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 <sup>m</sup> But God said unto him, Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 <sup>n</sup> So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

22 <sup>o</sup> And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

q Mat. 6,
27.

24 <sup>p</sup> Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them. How much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 <sup>a</sup> And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow; they toil not, they spin not: and yet I say unto you, That Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 <sup>r</sup> But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 <sup>s</sup> Fear not, † little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 <sup>t</sup> Sell that ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 <sup>u</sup> Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 <sup>x</sup> Blessed are those servants whom the lord, when he cometh, shall find watching: verily I say unto you, That he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 <sup>y</sup> And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 <sup>z</sup> And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 <sup>a</sup> Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 <sup>b</sup> And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

44 <sup>c</sup> Of a truth I say unto you, That he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 <sup>d</sup> The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 <sup>e</sup> And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 <sup>f</sup> I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I if it be already kindled?

50 <sup>g</sup> But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I † straitened till it be accomplished!
